

Is Godzilla the Antichrist?

When I got back from my prayer group meeting today I had a very interesting email from Mark Truso and I thought you might be interested. 'Dear Mr. Tapley, I believe that a new Fiat 500 commercial shows the coming end of this present age and the battle between Satan and the Catholic Church. The beast (now this beast is Godzilla) devours a red Communist symbolism car and a blue Capitalist symbolism car, however, the yellow Catholic Church symbolism is unable to be devoured by the beast. Notice the yellow, Catholic car, has five, Mary's Rosary symbolism, passengers. Perhaps you can find more. Let me know what you think.'

Well, you've certainly got my interest Mark Truso. Let's take a look. 'He's back! And he looks like he's craving Italian. The four-door Fiat 500L. It's a lot bigger than you think.' Very interesting Mark Truso and I think you are 100 percent accurate. Also that yellow car is very similar to the man in yellow in the Gangnam Style prophecies and it does symbolize the Catholic Church, and the five passengers-that was pretty obvious. So if any of you have comments, please write them below and I'm sure Mark Truso also would be interested in hearing from you.
