

Complete Decode of Dana Coverstone's "Bunker" Dream

Pastor Dana Coverstone

This will be another special program in my series of decoding the dreams which Pastor Dana Coverstone has been receiving for over a year now, but he only started publishing them on YouTube I think about eight or nine months ago. And so far they've all had to do with either the events leading up to this past election or the election and its aftermath. So today's dream that he received between February 6th and February 8th seems to be a little different than his other dreams which I am a little concerned about and I am not 100% sure that this is a true dream from the Holy Spirit.

It's possible that as Sister Reneé likes to say, "If you can see angels, you can see demons", and I'm wondering if this dream came from Satan, rather than the Holy Spirit. As you know Satan parades as a spirit of light, an angel of light, and the main reason I say this, and I will expand on this as we go through the dream, is because the events he seems to prophesy in this dream take place, if I interpret correctly, take place several years from now; at least a year from now. And that's very unusual because all of his other dreams have involved events which occur in the next several months, and so I'm a little nervous, I guess you could say, although I'm going to interpret it as if it were a true dream, and I could be wrong too.

I mean he may be receiving false dreams but Kim Clement also admitted that he sometimes had false visions. His visions did not all come true and yet I consider Kim Clement a true prophet. I consider Dana Coverstone a true prophet also. And one of my own subscribers said the Lord told her that I personally am only 94% correct, so you can take what I say with a grain of salt if you want to. In fact the Bible says you must test the spirits. That's not my job. It's up to you to test the spirits.

So, let's start and I've divided this up into sections just as I have done with all of Dana Coverstone's dreams and that's because it's a little bit easier for me to read and follow and describe for you. So let's start with Dana Coverstone's "Bunker Dream".

"I saw the skyline of Washington DC and an overview of the White House. The lights were out and there was no official business of any kind taking place in the building. I heard a phone that was ringing constantly and was not being answered; it just kept ringing and ringing and ringing."

You know a lot of people are saying right now that the White House is not occupied. In fact if you go to whitehouse.gov on the YouTube channel, it's pretty dark. There seems to be very little activity. A lot of people claim that all of these activities that you find on the whitehouse.gov are in some kind of a set somewhere else, not in the White House, and that's very possible.

So maybe the beginning of this dream that we just read has actually already occurred and it's possible that this beginning is maybe several months ago or at least about a month ago. And certainly the White House is vacant as far as holding a true president goes and someone said that Jill Biden put valentine hearts on the lawn, and they're trying to find them. I guess they're there, but anyway one thing for sure, the White House is vacant as far as having a real president goes. So let's look at the second part of his "Bunker Dream".

"Computers were shut down as well and all electronic devices were left on desks that were left on desks were attached to chargers which were glowing green, had been plugged in for a while. Clocks on the wall were frozen at various times and all the digital clocks in the area had been unplugged and there were no lights, no red dial light, coming out of them to tell what time it was.”

Now this, I think is key to understanding this video. This is the very first part and this is what I would call a time stamp. And evidently the White House has not been occupied for quite a while in this dream. The President is not mentioned anywhere in this dream by the way, whether President Trump or President Biden or Vice President Harris as far as that goes.

He notes that all the electronic devices that were attached to chargers are showing a green light. That means that they are ready to be used. They are all charged up. No one has obviously used them in quite a while. The digital clocks have their cords pulled out of the wall and that means that they've all stopped, and that also indicates that this abandoning of the White House is a planned activity, in other words it was planned ahead of time.

It was done in an orderly fashion. It doesn't mean it was caused by some kind of chaotic or violent situation. It could be well be a defensive situation, which is what we see now. In other words many troops and fences surrounding the White House and it seems as if, and in fact I think just this past week they announced it, these security measures are going to be in effect for at least another year. So I think Dana Coverstone is right on the money as far as that goes.

Now the analogue clocks on the walls they must be battery operated clocks because notice there's a distinction there between the analogue clocks on the wall, which must be battery operated, and the digital clocks which have their cords pulled out. That's an important a little detail. That means that the analogue clocks have been dead for at least a year.

I mean how long does a battery last in a wall-mounted clock? I would say a year. I know I have a clock in this house here that has been in four different houses and the batteries have not given out yet, and I think this is the key to understanding the timestamp of this prophecy; the fact that the digital cords are pulled out and the battery clocks are all dead also.

So that it's very interesting, unless there was an EMP strike. Now that did occur to me. Maybe there was an EMP strike. Maybe that's why the White House was abandoned. I don't know if that would stop battery clocks or not. In any event, this very first part of Dana's dream I think is the most important part, because it establishes the timeline. So let's look at the third slide I have here.

“The rooms were clean but the Oval Office had dust on the desks and the curtains were pulled closed. There was a grandfather clock in front of the curtains, but the pendulum was not moving. There was also a sign on the wall that said this: “Business as usual is over for everyone.” It was red and white and the picture was actually edged in barbed wire that was colored gold. And it was polished and it seemed like it glowed in the dark in the room of the Oval Office.”

Now I think this gold barbed wire is very significant and the White House is not completely shut down, because there must be cleaning ladies that come in, because Dana says that the rooms are clean, but the one who uses the White House desk, that would be the President or maybe the Vice President, must be somewhere else, and that's the reference of the dusty desk.

Now it's interesting that we see three different kinds of clocks. We're now introduced to the grandfather clock and we've already seen the analogue clocks on the walls and the digital watch clocks with the cords plugged up. Three clocks give this timestamp a divine significance. That's very important and we've seen that quite often in Dana Coverstone's other dreams. And that's true in any kind of apocalyptic literature whenever you see something repeated three times it's very significant like in the Book of Revelation 8:13, "Woe, woe, woe". That's just one example.

There are many examples, but these three examples are even more significant because they are personifications of the Divine Trinity. The grandfather clock would be God the Father. Now who to be God the Son? God the Son would be the analogue clock, because it has a face similar to the grandfather clock, and as you know the Son reflects the Father and we see that in the Trinity of the of the sun, moon and stars. The sun represents God the Father and the moon, reflecting the sun, represents God the Son and the stars represent the Holy Spirit. So the digital clock in this Trinity represents the Holy Spirit. So I think that's a very significant way that God is pointing out the importance of setting the correct time, and that these events that he is about to describe occur quite a long ways away in the future, as I say, very unusual for Dana Coverstone's dreams.

Now what does the gold barbed wire signify? This is of course in complete contrast to what has come before about the clocks, the computers, the grandfather clock. Those were all very real. The gold barbed wire; that is not real. We are now entering the symbolic phase of this dream, and up until now, everything has been literal.

Now it is symbolic and that means that we are now entering the Apocalyptic prophecy.

And I want to show you another part of a dream from Dana Coverstone, the "Snake Chain" dream, in which he starts the exact same way. He gives a very natural occurrence. and in that case a thunderstorm, and cherry blossoms which indicates the spring, and then he ends up with an obviously symbolic reference. So let's just take a look at that now. This is not part of the "Bunker Dream". This is the beginning of the "Snake Chain Dream", and I want to show you this to show you the similarity to this beginning of the "Bunker Dream". And I'm just going to read this very quickly.

BEGINNING OF SNAKE-CHAIN DREAM

“I saw cherry blossoms in Washington DC”, same city, “and there was a brilliant sun cutting through a foggy haze early in the morning. But then there was a bolt of lightning that went across the sky from straight up to the clouds and a very long loud and long lasting clap of thunder that ended with a huge rainfall for just a few moments. But the rain stopped just as suddenly and the sun was out again as if a high noon day. There were silver and gold flecks in the clouds and they were glistening like diamonds.”

Now I know several other people have interpreted this and they've tried to give all kinds of hidden meanings to those thunderstorms. That's just a passing spring thunderstorm in the cherry blossoms This is a time stamp. That's the only reason for this. That's the same way with the “Bunker Dream”, but it ends up on a very mysterious symbolic note, and that is the silver and gold flecks in the clouds.

We've all seen passing thunderstorms but I don't think any of us have seen silver and gold flecks in the clouds that were glistening like diamonds. In the same way with this “Bunker Dream”; we've all seen computers and analogue clocks and digital clocks and even grandfather clocks. That's common in offices, but I don't think any of us have ever seen gold barbed wire, and that, as I say, means that we are now entering into the symbolic phase of this dream, and that's important to understanding the rest of it. So let's look at the next slide.

“Then I was seeing a bunker that I felt in the dream was below the White House with no windows and a very large conference table in the middle. The symbol of the White House was on a large sign on the wall. And seated at that table were 16 men, some of whom were dressed in military uniforms.

Some were wearing dark suits but all of them were wearing sunglasses that were tinted absolute black and you could not see the eyes of anyone.”

So now remember, this scene is symbolic. The symbolic interpretation takes precedence over the literal, ever since that gold barbed wire. So that means that below the White House is not literal. I don't believe this is referring to an actual bunker below the White House. There very well could be. I think there are, but that's not what this is. This “below the White House” is symbolic in that it is below the White House in rank. These would be, well for example the FBI offices. That's what I think they represent, but it could be any offices of the Executive Branch. And the reason I say Executive Branch is because there's a sign on the wall that says White House, and there's no windows remember. That I believe is also symbolic. That means that these people are in the dark. I'm sure that's what it means.

And now, is this bunker in Washington DC? Is that also symbolic? Well no because the establishment of the location Washington DC was back in the first part of the dream, when it was still literal. That was before we went through that transition verse of the gold barbed wire.

So this is in Washington DC but I I'm sure this bunker, which is called a bunker. I don't think it's a bunker. I think it's just an office room. It's called a bunker for symbolic purposes, but the people are hiding in a way, and these black sunglasses that everybody's wearing; I immediately thought of the goons in the Matrix movies. Have you ever seen them? Those are interesting movies by the way, and although I guess they're all clones of the same person. Anyway the black sunglasses indicate that these are criminals. These are anti-American.

Now I do think that term “bunker” symbolizes war but I don't think a literal war. I am sure the same way that this is a symbolic war. I'm sure it's a spiritual war, and in fact Dana Coverstone; he recognizes that his dreams are being interpreted by many people now and he urged everybody to emphasize the spiritual aspect of this dream and I think he's right.

There are actual events described here, but it's the spiritual significance that is important. And notice that there are 16 men. It's interesting that there are no women at the table; no Vice President Harris, no Nancy Pelosi for example, and I'm sure that this is a meeting of members of the One World Government or members of the swamp in other words.

One thing for sure, this bunker is an evil place and the number 16 must be symbolic also. And the first thing you would think of is that you would divide the 16 up into fours; 4, 4, 4, 4. Then that might be significant because 4 is the preeminent End Times number. It signifies the End Times. And you would say well four-fours would be very much End Times, but normally you would say three-fours. That would give it a divine importance.

Is it possible that this is divided up into four military people who belong to the Joint Chiefs of Staff? We know that there are four members of the military on the joint chiefs of staff. In other words, do we break the 16 down into a group of four and a group of 12? That would make the numerology a little more relevant. In other words the 12 could then be broken down into two sixes, which of course is the number of the Antichrist.

US President Joe Biden

So we have an End Times number. We have a number of the Antichrist, and as I've been saying all along, Biden is one of those 10 kings of the Antichrist. And it's interesting that some of these guys are wearing absolute black sunglasses, and that means that you can't see them and they can't see out either. Let's look at my next slide of the “Bunker Dream” by “Several of the military men were wearing their medals and ranks and were looking at very thick folders in front of them. The folders had top secret classification stamps on them and heralded this title: the “American Solution”.

Dana Coverstone.

Now I think this is a pretty obvious reference to the phrase, “The Final Solution”, and I’m sure you know what that refers to. I’m just going to assume that you know what the Final Solution means and I’m not going to try to explain it. It has to do with murdering a certain group of people. Let's put it that way, and I’m sure you know what I’m talking about.

These people in this room; they are hatching a plot to murder a lot of people, maybe like the Las Vegas shooter. That was a false flag. I’m just going to call it a flag. If I call it a flag from now on you'll know what I’m talking about. The Las Vegas shooter was a flag. By the way, they've never determined what the motivation was for the Las Vegas shooter. Can you imagine that? How many years ago was that? At least two years wasn't it? You would think there would be curiosity in the media, but of course it's not. That's because it was a flag event. You and I all know this.

So let's continue with what Dana Coverstone says in this dream. It's getting harder and harder to produce these videos. Maybe I should just go to another platform. That's what most people have done.

“One of the men stood and acknowledged each man while saluting each one individually. He then spoke very clearly and said this “Today we leap off of the mountain and fly towards a new beginning.” Notice how symbolic that is. “Many though, not us, will hit the precipice moments later. But we will not even have to look back or look down as we have better places to go.”

So notice he says that many will die. This is a flag event in which many murders will take place, and this is a typical attitude of the world elites. They don't care if a lot of people die in fact that's their goal. Hillary called us "The Deplorables", remember? And if you look at the Georgia Guidestones, they want millions of people to die. So if they can come up with a flag event in which a lot of people die, that kills two birds with one stone so to speak.

And notice this person says, "Today we leap off a mountain". As I said that's obviously a symbolic term. And "a new beginning", means they want a new form of government. Obviously they don't want democracy. They don't want capitalism. I think you know what that means. I can't even say that word. You know I they demonetized one of my videos because they had the word c-o-m-m-u-n-i-s-m in the title. This this lack of free speech is getting to me. So let's look at the next slide.

"At that moment all of the men nodded and they hit the table very hard with their fists and it rumbled in the room. Gentlemen, please give reports, he said. And a man in a suit and glasses stood up and he said this: "Three events are planned; but if the first one hits hard enough the other two will not be needed. Our target groups will be easily identified in the events and the rest of America will demand their arrest and imprisonments immediately, perhaps even their executions."

So it's pretty clear to me, that these people are planning flag events. I'm sure the very easily identified groups would be MAGA people; Trump supporters, Christians. I am sure that we are the target groups that he is talking about. And I would not be surprised if they concoct some kind of a plan to bring in Kamala Harris as President, and that would mean that the flag event would involve harming Biden. Now that's my opinion and supposedly this event is happening far into the future, which is one of the reasons why I am not sure this comes from the Holy Spirit. I believe they are planning this type of event right now and I'm sure I have that interpretation of the time stamp correct, which makes me a little nervous about whether this comes from the Holy Spirit or not. Let's look at the next slide which I have.

*Herbert Hoover
31st President of the United States*

“The first speaker stood again. He looked at one of the men wearing the darkest sunglasses and asked what he had to offer. That gentleman stood and he said this: “Hoover will be proud, sir, and our list is pristine and better than his ever was.” He then sat down and the first speaker said, “All in favor?” and every man hit their fist on the table and pounded them as hard as they could and they shouted the word “favor” as they did so.”

Now this to me is another reference to the Holocaust. Maybe you remember that movie where all of the military are sitting around that table and the Final Solution comes up and they all pound their fists. I'm sure this is a reference to that movie. That's a very famous scene where they're all plotting the murder of a special group.

And this man with the darkest sunglasses, that's a Biblical reference. There's a Biblical reference to Daniel 4 where Almighty God appoints the Antichrist. And he is referred to as the basest man. So the darkest sunglasses would be, if not the Antichrist, one of the ten kings of the Antichrist. And maybe this figure with the darkest sunglasses is the Antichrist or he may be Biden.

It seems to me if it were Biden, Dana Coverstone would recognize him. So it could be the Antichrist but maybe not, because this figure seems to be well aware of J. Edgar Hoover. He says that this has been done before. These flags have been done before, and I suspect that that reference to J. Edgar Hoover means that this is indeed the FBI headquarters. That's what I speculate that we're talking about here. Let's look at the next slide.

“Then I was back in the Oval Office and the curtains were opened to a grey, overcast day that was sprinkling rain. And the grandfather clock was now moving so fast that the entire clock was shaking in its wake. It was shaking back and forth almost moving in its place. At that point four soldiers walked into the room. Two were wearing American uniforms and two were wearing blue military uniforms, almost like peacekeepers but their faces were covered with black head coverings. They saluted the empty desk and then started shooting up the office with hand guns.”

Now remember, we are in the symbolic phase of this dream and that means they're not using real guns. This is not a real shooting up of the White House. I believe that they are setting out to destroy the Office of the Presidency. And if you remember in the conference room there was a plaque on the wall that indicated White House. So it means that the White House, the person in the White House who in this case I'm sure would be Biden or maybe Harris, approve of whatever this plan is.

Now the grey rain outside suggests gloom and doom. The grandfather clock suddenly moving very fast, indicates that this is indeed a symbolic part of the dream. The grandfather's clock is not actually moving fast. That symbolizes that time is moving fast, moving quickly, and I have a feeling that this scene takes place after the American Solution. The new final solution has taken place and the two people dressed with uniforms, of course that's the United Nations. Perhaps the United Nations has been called in for peacekeeping. A huge flag event like this in which many people have been murdered, and part of the plan was that many would die.

United Nations Logo

The way that they wear black masks that could indicate possibly that Sharia Law is taking place. American law has disappeared. I think that's why they're shooting it up. It's interesting that the soldiers saluted the chair of the President. Again I think that means that the President approves of this plan. Okay let's look at my next slide here.

“One of the soldiers in the blue outfit took off the barbed wire from the picture and placed it on the resolute desk with a hand written note and that hand written note said “my office is surrounded”. And that's when I realized outside that the entire White House, outside, was occupied by military, and concertina wire surrounded the building.”

Well actually you know that's the situation we basically have now. That hasn't changed too much, and a lot of people wonder if the Bidens' are living in the White House. It doesn't sound like a very propitious place to really have a family if you know what I'm saying. I saw a video Sister Reneé sent me about how they're trying to find the valentines on the lawn that Jill Biden supposedly put there, but I think that this part of the dream in which the White House is abandoned is really an extension of exactly what we see right now.

So anyway now we are going to see a summary of this dream and an explanation of it from the man who Dana Coverstone very often sees in his dreams. He probably represents an angel, although in this case he very possibly represents the Holy Spirit and you can tell that from what he says.

“Then the man that I see so often stepped out from the Rose Garden and he said, “Bracing will save many, but will also speak to many. They will hunt you and when you stand before the haters, I will prompt your words to convict their hearts. It has started and darkness is in the winds (plural, darkness is in the winds) and so brace and speak and don't stop speaking.”

And so that's a very interesting conclusion and when the man says, I will help you with your speaking, that means that this man probably represents the Holy Spirit. And one of the people that say the Rosary on our channel; I think it might have been Kyle, it might have been Scott, suggested that the Rose Garden represents the Rosary and I think that's very possible, because remember, this is the symbolic part of the dream. It would be natural for the Rose Garden to symbolize something else and what better than to symbolize the Rosary.

Notice that Dana refers to these plotters as haters. So this is not an American solution that they are looking for. They are looking for the hater solution. This is the Final Solution for America where many men die.

Dana emphasizes the word “winds” plural. That may be a Biblical reference. In Daniel 7 there are four winds that strive upon the great sea, and those four winds prefigure the coming of the four beasts out of the sea in Daniel 7; the lioness, the bear, the leopard and the final beast, the fourth beast who is the Antichrist.

Now the first beasts have already come and gone; the lioness, the bear and the leopard. Could it be that this reference to the winds in Dana's dream refer to this passage in Daniel 7? I wonder if there is a suggestion here that this is not Biden's first term, but this is Obama's third term? And I've heard other people suggest that too, and that's also possible.

Now it could also be a reference to the Book of Revelation where there are four angels holding the four winds back, and the four winds bring destruction but the four winds which the angels are holding back cannot be released until the two prophets Enoch and Elijah seal the 144,000 saved Jews if you remember that passage in the Book of Revelation.

Now this sealing of the 144,000 of all the tribes of Israel comes at the same time that the prince who shall come in Daniel 9 destroys the city and the sanctuary, and that occurs in World War III. So maybe that's the time frame of this dream. Maybe that's why they are in a bunker for example. Maybe World War III has started somewhere else. Maybe World War III is far enough in the future that that's why it is so far away. Maybe that's why the time frame is set. Maybe even two years in the future.

It's interesting that the plan which we heard so much about before the election, is not mentioned anywhere in this dream. And I don't think that plan will be implemented, at least not, until as I say, until the woman who travails shall bring forth. That's what Micah says. I think that's the real plan, and it's interesting that Dana's previous dream which I did just about a week ago, tells the real plan and that refers to the woman who gives birth, as in Revelation 12, and the woman is in pain to be delivered, and I told you what that means. The woman represents Mary and the remnant Catholic Church and the child they bring forth is the remnant Protestants, and they are caught up to Heaven in the rapture.

So I think that would verify that the Rose Garden could very well mean the Rosary. In other words, I think we are seeing here another reference to Kim Clement's prophecy. In other words we don't need an American solution or a Final Solution we need an Ester solution. I think if this is a real true dream and really I tend to think it is, but I'm a little nervous because what makes me nervous is that it's so far in the future.

Maybe some of you can kind of settle my questions I have about this because why would all of Dana Coverstone's dreams be about events that occur within three or four months, and this one occurs when all the batteries on the clocks, on the walls have died? That's a long ways out there. Those batteries last a long time. This last message from the man is all spiritual in my opinion.

The "Rose Garden", "bracing"; someone said that reference references praying. They will hunt you and you will stand before the haters and I will prompt your words to convict their hearts. That is a reference to Matthew chapter 10. So if everything in this last section that the man speaks is spiritual and it is prophetic, then the Rose Garden would symbolize the Rosary. Let me just read to you from Matthew which this last section is a reference to.

Matthew 10 verses 19-20

“But when they shall deliver you up, take no thought how or what to speak: for it shall be given you in that hour what to speak. For it is not you that speak, but the Spirit of your Father that speaks in you.”

So taking Dana Coverstone's own advice, if this is a true prophecy from the Holy Spirit and I pray that it is, then the prophecy is that the Rosary, in other words the woman, the woman who gave birth in Dana's livestream and brought forth a man child, the Esther as found in Kim Clement's prophecy, that is the real plan. That's the solution. That's the plan we can really trust. As I've said many times on here. the woman will save America, not Donald Trump, not Jesus, not the church but the woman. I believe Kim Clement is right, and if this is a true prophecy from Dana Coverstone, he is actually saying the same thing when he says the Rose Garden.

All right thank you everybody I hope I have explained that well enough. May God bless all of you and may all of you have a very blessed evening.
