

An open letter to ALL Hail Stones:

Something significant has recently become crystal clear to me that I want to share! Been praying for discernment about this matter since last December, and I've reached a definitive conclusion. Have discussed facets of this topic with a few Hail Stones by phone and email; however, now that the matter is finally-and-fully formed in my mind, it's time to report my understanding to ALL Hail Stones.

First, let's begin with a published prayer, which may be considered as

Our Mission Statement:

“Heavenly Father, You are the creative origin of all I am and of all I am called to be. With the talents and opportunities I have, how may I serve You best? Please guide my mind and heart, open me to the needs of my country and of the world, and help me to choose wisely and practically for Your honor and glory and for the good of all those whose lives I touch. In Jesus' name, amen.”

Let us remember that each of us Hail Stones is unique. Like flowers lovingly planted in a country garden, from the smallest to the tallest, every individual Hail Stone has its own beauty and purpose. Some are fragrant (sweet), some are medicinal (healing), some spread along the earth (humble), and some climb the heights of a trellis (mystical). But each one has special value in its own right, according to GOD's mysterious designs.*

For instance, consider the founder of WFRN, Mr. Tapley. In his five books and many videos, as 'co-prophet of these end times', he unseals the symbolism found in the Bible and applies it to events in our everyday world: from sports, to train wrecks, to politics, to religion. He is a master at it (although not infallible), and it's a gift from GOD the Holy Spirit.

The topics he chooses to dissect are never interpreted apart from Scripture, whether plain prophecy or apocalyptic (and he always makes a distinction between the two types). Of course, there are times when he just doesn't know for sure, because it hasn't been positively revealed to him yet. The reason for any uncertainty on his part might be: because "the prophecy is for another time" or it's to keep him humble, that he's not omniscient—only 94% accurate! or maybe it's so that we don't treat him as if he were infallible.

It's worth noting that Mr. Tapley has more than 52 thousand 'subscribers'; yet only about 100 people show up each morning to pray the Rosary with him. He is definitely a voice crying out in the wilderness! He's the only person (Catholic or otherwise) who is correctly interpreting apocalyptic literature. AND he's the only person who has realized that it all boils down to Genesis 3:15—Mary crushes the serpent, through our praying of the Holy Rosary, THE Weapon in these end times! So, under Mr. Tapley's leadership, the World Family Rosary Network, which includes people from around the world, is the true remnant catholic church!

The first two Eagles, St. Vincent Ferrer and St. Bernardino of Siena, warned about the first woe: Protestantism.

In his Thirdeagle bio, Mr. Tapley states his conviction that his primary role is to warn the world about the signs of the second woe: WW3. From 2008 to 2021, he presented over a dozen programs on that topic. So, obviously he is applying his gifts and fulfilling his calling as the Thirdeagle.

In his bio, Mr. Tapley also forecasts the probability of a Fourtheagle to warn about the third woe: the reign of the AC. It is completely reasonable to expect that the Fourtheagle should come from WFRN, the remnant catholic church.

When I first set eyes on Sister Renee's 'Double-Crucifix' Cloud, at once this thought came to mind: 'the Body of Christ'. Now I am quite convinced that Sister received that vision specifically for the members of the Body of Christ who belong to WFRN.

With all of the above taken into consideration, my conclusion is that The Hail Stones, as one united group, ARE the Fourtheagle!

Some Hail Stones happen to be engineers, some are computer geeks, some are third-order religious, some are farmers, some are accountants, some are teachers, some are musical, some are caregivers, some are custodians, some are secretaries, some are victim souls, some are future martyrs ... but all of us have one united role as the Fourtheagle during the time of the AC, which has already begun!

**Speaking of GOD's mysterious designs:* The economy of salvation is like a majestic tapestry masterfully woven with the finest threads of silk, cotton, flax, and wool—along with silver and gold threads here and there for regal highlights. This precious tapestry is incomparably beautiful and covers the crystal floor of Heaven.

We on earth, however, can only view it from the underside, seeing mostly tangles and knots, which disguise the glorious pattern seen from above and designed according to GOD's perfect Will. Any suffering we might endure now, or during the Great Tribulation of the reign of the AC, will be applied as Grace for ourselves or others. None is without merit if united to the Cross of Christ. Whereas while in this life we might see only the suffering, Heaven sees the Glory.

Saint Joan of Arc said: "I am not afraid. I was born to do this."
Also: "Fear nothing. Go forward, and GOD will prepare the way."
Saint Joan of Arc, pray for the Fourtheagle!
