

Mary's School of Prophecy

Daniel 7 Pt 2 - Hidden Prophecy Now Being Fulfilled

This will be my concluding program on the great prophecy contained in Daniel's chapter number 7 and it has a great deal to do with us here in the United States of America, and that's why I chose it for July 4th weekend. In fact our independence from Britain is described and in the first of the four beasts which come up out of the sea and that is the lioness who has its wings of an eagle plucked out and the eagle's wings represent the United States, our colonies which were broken off from Britain on our Independence Day. And Daniel prophesied this of course 2500 years ago, and before we start I want to say our prayers so that we can proceed under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of thy faithful and enkindle in them the fire of thy love. Send forth thy spirit and they shall be created. And thou shall renew the face of the earth. Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Father, send now Your Spirit over the earth. Let the Holy Spirit live in the hearts of all nations, that they may be preserved from corruption, disaster and war. May the Lady of All Nations, who once was Mary, be our Advocate. Amen.

And of course we know what that phrase means, "who once was Mary", because Mary is now our five star general in this fight against the forces of the Antichrist, which are taking increasing control over the United States. The Lawless One St. Paul calls the Antichrist and we see his activities very much during this summer of hate throughout the country, and that's why I think I showed a picture at the beginning of some of the riots in this country. It's interesting that I showed a picture of the fires and YouTube took that down. They didn't like that picture.

In any event Sister Renée would like me give a quick summary of what we have learned. We went through the first 11 chapters of Daniel 7 and Daniel sees in a vision four great beasts come up out of the sea and if you watch the false prophets on YouTube, they will tell you they represent Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece and Rome and they do in the near-time fulfilment. And such it was a tremendous prophecy in itself but we're more interested in the End Times fulfilment because three of those four beasts have already come and gone: the lioness was Margaret Thatcher, the bear was Dmitry Medvedev and the leopard was our own Barack Obama. That means that we are waiting for the fourth and final beast who is the Antichrist.

And we learned that Daniel sees those beasts come up out of the sea. The sea represents peoples in Bible prophecy, but the angel or whoever it is that he asked for help: it could be the prophets Enoch or Elijah, I haven't figured out yet exactly who the person is who helps him: he says that the beasts come up out of the earth, and that's because they are kingdoms also. They are both kings and kingdoms and don't listen to the false prophets who say that the leopard represents Germany, because even if you can, by some contorted logic make it appear that Germany is the leopard certainly Angela Merkel does not fit the prophecy whatsoever, whereas Barack Obama had four heads and four wings which refers to the fact that he was our 44th president. He was given dominion and he looks like a leopard. That is a racial mixture and of course the United States fulfils all four of those descriptions also because United States is given dominion. It looks like a leopard because of its racial mixture the four heads represent the four leaders in our branches of government, the President, the Vice President, the Speaker of the House and the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. And the four wings represent our air power especially the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marines, the four branches which sit on the Joint Chiefs of Staff. Only the United States and its leader Barack Obama fit that prophecy. So the kings, the first three kings have all gone but we will find that the four nations stay until the end.

And we also found out that the bear has three ribs in its mouth. The bear is Russia. The three ribs represent the first three beasts, the lioness, the bear and the leopard. In other words World War 3 with the bear will cause the defeat of all three nations Britain, Russia itself and the United States, and I told you this 12 years ago. In fact 12 years ago I told you that Barack Obama would be elected president, and no other prophecy channel on YouTube or anywhere else dared to make that statement but I did because I knew that Obama was the leopard in Daniel number 7.

So I think that basically sums up what we went over last night and I just started with perhaps the most important part of the prophecy of Daniel and that's the hidden part and that's what I wanted to talk about tonight. And we find that hidden in the structure, because all of Daniel's vision chapters, the last six chapters have a secret structure. In other words you have to change the arrangement of all the verses and he actually changed the structure of the chapters also. And what we found out is the first 11 verses here on the left.

1 - 11

12 - 17

18 - 28

1 In the first year of Baltasar, king of Babylon, Daniel saw a dream: and the vision of his head was upon his bed: and writing the dream, he comprehended it in a few words: and relating the sum of it in short, he said:
 2 I saw in my vision by night, and beheld the four winds of the heavens strove upon the great sea.
 3 And four great beasts, different one from another, came up out of the sea.
 4 The first was like a lioness, and had the wings of an eagle: I beheld till her wings were plucked off, and she was lifted up from the earth, and stood upon her feet as a man, and the heart of a man was given to her.
 5 And behold another beast, like a bear, stood up on one side: and there were three ribs in the mouth thereof, and in the teeth thereof, and thus they said to it: Arise, devour much flesh.
 6 After this I beheld, and lo, another like a leopard, and it had upon it four wings, as of a fowl, and the beast had four heads, and power was given to it.
 7 After this I beheld in the vision of the night, and lo, a fourth beast terrible and wonderful, and exceeding strong, it had great iron teeth, eating and breaking in pieces, and treading down the rest with his feet: and it was unlike to the other beasts which I had seen before it, and had ten horns.
 8 I considered the horns, and behold another little horn sprung out of the midst of them: and three of the first horns were plucked up at the presence thereof: and behold eyes like the eyes of a man were in this horn, and a mouth speaking great things.
 9 I beheld till thrones were placed, and the ancient of days sat: his garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like clean wool: his throne like flames of fire: the wheels of it like a burning fire.
 10 A swift stream of fire issued forth from before him: thousands of thousands ministered to him, and ten thousand times a hundred thousand stood before him: the judgment sat, and the books were opened.
 11 I beheld, because of the voice of the great words which that horn spoke: and I saw that the beast was slain, and the body thereof was destroyed, and given to the fire to be burnt:

12 And that the power of the other beasts was taken away: and that times of life were appointed them for a time, and a time.
 13 I beheld, therefore, in the vision of the night, and lo, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and he came even to the ancient of days: and they presented him before him.
 14 And he gave him power, and glory, and a kingdom: and all peoples, tribes, and tongues shall serve him: his power is an everlasting power that shall not be taken away: and his kingdom that shall not be destroyed.
 15 My spirit trembled: I, Daniel, was affrighted at these things, and the visions of my head troubled me.
 16 I went near to one of them that stood by, and asked the truth of him concerning all these things, and he told me the interpretation of the words, and instructed me:
 17 These four great beasts: are four kingdoms, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But the saints of the most high God shall take the kingdom: and they shall possess the kingdom for ever and ever.
 19 After this I would diligently learn concerning the fourth beast, which was very different from all, and exceeding terrible: his teeth and claws were of iron: he devoured and broke in pieces, and the rest he stamped upon with his feet.
 20 And concerning the ten horns that he had on his head: and concerning the other that came up, before which three horns fell: and of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth speaking great things, and was greater than the rest.
 21 I beheld, and lo, that horn made war against the saints, and prevailed over them.
 22 Till the ancient of days came and gave judgment to the saints of the most High, and the time came, and the saints obtained the kingdom.

23 And thus he said: The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be greater than all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.
 24 And the ten horns of the same kingdom, shall be ten kings: and another shall rise up after them, and he shall be mightier than the former, and he shall bring down three kings.
 25 And he shall speak words against the High One, and shall crush the saints of the most High: and he shall think himself able to change times and laws, and they shall be delivered into his hand until a time, and times, and half a time.
 26 And a judgment shall sit, that his power may be taken away, and be broken in pieces, and perish even to the end.
 27 And that the kingdom, and power, and the greatness of the kingdom, under the whole heaven, may be given to the people of the saints of the most High: whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all kings shall serve him, and shall obey him.
 28 Hitherto is the end of the word: I, Daniel, was much troubled with my thoughts, and my countenance was changed in me: but I kept the word in my heart.

We went over that and we are going to go over the next six verses (in the middle top), and then the last 11 verses. And we found, that according to the structure, there are six verses on top here (left), six on top here (middle), six on top here (right), and they are followed by five verses here (bottom left) and five verses here (bottom right). And as with all apocalyptic literature, that simply means that the Antichrist 6 6 6 will be defeated by 5 5 5, in other words Mary's Rosary very much the same as David chose five smooth pebbles against Goliath when he only needed one. He was letting us know how to defeat the Antichrist. In other words we are involved in this battle because Jesus is not praying the Rosary. Mary does not pray the Rosary. We pray the Rosary. We are the 5 5 5.

Okay so I think what we will do is start with the next verses, starting with verse number 12. These are the middle verses and we are going to find that these verses do not necessarily have to follow where they are. And in fact the first 11 verses as I said, is actually a summary of the entire chapter. The other verses are expansions on what was discovered in the first 11 verses in Daniel's amazing vision. So verse number 12. Let's take a look.

“And that the power of the other beasts was taken away:” that includes the United States. This is what is happening right now. The power of the United States is being taken away, “and that times of life were appointed them for a time, and a time”. In other words we have a few years left to go, but none of the three major super powers in the world, Russia, Britain or America, their power, all those beasts' power will be taken away.

Verse 13: “I beheld therefore in the vision of the night, and lo, one like the son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and he came even to the Ancient of days: and they presented him before him.” Of course this is Jesus and God the Father.

14: “And he”, God the Father, “gave him power, and glory, and a kingdom and all peoples, tribes and tongues shall serve him: his power is an everlasting power that shall not be taken away: and his kingdom that shall not be destroyed.”

Verse numbers 15, 16 and 17:

15: “My spirit trembled, I Daniel was affrighted at these things, and the visions of my head troubled me.”

16: “I went near to one of them that stood by,” and I think I should probably study the other chapters to identify who this person is, “and asked the truth of him concerning all these things” possibly this is Elijah, “and he told me the interpretation of the words, and instructed me:”

17: “These four great beasts are four kingdoms, which shall arise out of the earth.”

Those two fours are very important and as I mentioned last night, the number four is extremely important in this chapter. This is the key number. Of course four is an important End Times number anyway, it's the most important: seven is the second-most important.

So let's look at those central five verses, and we just read the last verse which mentions four great beasts and four kingdoms. So the structure is based upon the verses which I haven't read here. I think you can see each have “four” twice in those verses, verses 6, 17 and 23. And so in order to get the structure, you have to line it up, so that those verses line up and let the other verses fall where they may.

1 In the first year of Belshazzar, king of Babylon, Daniel saw a dream; and the vision of his head was upon his bed; and writing the dream, he comprehended it in a few words; and relating the sum of it in short, he said:
 2 I saw in my vision by night, and behold the four winds of the heavens strove upon the great sea.
 3 And four great beasts, different one from another, came up out of the sea.
 4 The first was like a lioness, and had the wings of an eagle; I beheld till her wings were plucked off, and she was fled up from the earth, and stood upon her feet as a man, and the heart of a man was given to her.
 5 And behold another beast, like a bear, stood up on one side; and there were three rows in the mouth thereof, and in the teeth thereof, and thus they said to it: Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo, another like a leopard, and it had upon it four wings, as of a fowl, and the beast had four heads, and power was given to it.

7 After this I beheld in the vision of the night, and lo, a fourth beast terrible and wonderful, and exceeding strong, it had great iron teeth, eating and breaking in pieces, and treading down the rest with his feet: and it was unlike to the other beasts which I had seen before it, and had ten horns.
 8 I considered the horns, and behold another little horn sprung out of the midst of them; and three of the first horns were plucked up at the presence thereof, and behold eyes like the eyes of a man were in this horn, and a mouth speaking great things.
 9 I beheld till thrones were placed, and the ancient of days sat; his garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like clean wool; his throne like flames of fire; the wheels of it like a burning fire.
 10 A swift stream of fire issued forth from before him; thousands of thousands ministered to him, and ten thousand times a hundred thousand stood before him; the judgment sat, and the books were opened.

12 - 17

12 And that the power of the other beasts was taken away; and that times of life were appointed them for a time, and a time.
 13 I beheld, therefore, in the vision of the night, and lo, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and he came even to the ancient of days; and they presented him before him.
 14 And he gave him power, and glory, and a kingdom; and all peoples, tribes, and tongues shall serve him: his power is an everlasting power that shall not be taken away; and his kingdom that shall not be destroyed.
 15 My spirit trembled; I, Daniel, was affrighted at these things, and the visions of my head troubled me.
 16 I went near to one of them that stood by, and asked the truth of him concerning all these things, and he told me the interpretation of the words, and instructed me:
 17 These four great beasts, are four kingdoms, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 - 28

18 But the saints of the most high God shall take the kingdom: and they shall possess the kingdom for ever and ever.
 19 After this I would diligently learn concerning the fourth beast, which was very different from all, and exceeding terrible: his teeth and claws were of iron; he devoured and broke in pieces, and the rest he stamped upon with his feet:
 20 And concerning the ten horns that he had on his head; and concerning the other that came up, before which these horns fell; and of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth speaking great things, and was greater than the rest.
 21 I beheld, and lo, that horn made war against the saints, and prevailed over them.
 22 Till the ancient of days came and gave judgment to the saints of the most High, and the time came, and the saints obtained the kingdom.

23 And thus he said: The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be greater than all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And the ten horns of the same kingdom, shall be ten kings; and another shall rise up after them, and he shall be mightier than the former, and he shall bring down three kings.

25 And he shall speak words against the High One, and shall crush the saints of the most high; and he shall think himself able to change times and laws, and they shall be delivered into his hand until a time, and times, and half a time.

26 And a judgment shall sit; that his power may be taken away, and be broken in pieces, and perish even to the end.

27 And that the kingdom, and power, and the greatness of the kingdom, under the whole heaven, may be given to the people of the saints of the most High; whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all kings shall serve him, and shall obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the word, I, Daniel, was much troubled with my thoughts, and my countenance was changed in me; but I kept the word in my heart.

In other words verses 1 through 5 and then culminating in verse number 6, (in red above) where we have the four heads and the four wings, and then you simply list the next verses and you stop, so that you can have these verses (in the middle column) culminate with verse 17 (in red) lining up with verse 6, and then you don't have any verses here (where arrows are above) because verse 23 has to line up with verse 17 and then we have the last five verses in the chapter. And you might think this is arbitrary but it's not. This is how I figured out the structure, and tonight we are going to show you how Daniel verifies that structure, because the structure, the hidden part of the prophecy is really the most important.

I mean it's amazing that he prophesied about Margaret Thatcher and Dmitry Medvedev and Barack Obama. Certainly that's all very amazing, but the most amazing and most important part is found in the hidden secret structure. In other words, as the angel told Daniel to seal up his prophecies and that means that we didn't need to understand them until now, but now we do need to understand them.

So let's continue on. So now we are starting on the right hand side of the chart with verse 18.

”But the saints of the most high God shall take the kingdom: and they shall possess the kingdom for ever and ever.”

Now this is after the Antichrist defeats the Saints, but God will give us the victory in the end

Verse 19: “After this I would diligently learn concerning the fourth beast”, there's another four, “which was very different from all, and exceeding terrible: his teeth were made of iron and claws were of brass: he devoured and broke in pieces, and the rest he stamped upon with his feet:”

So it's interesting that the teeth are made of iron and the claws are brass. By the way this is the King James translation of that verse. I don't think the Douay Rheims is correct in this case. The iron teeth represent the One World Government. The brass claws represent the One World Religion, so this One World Government has two facets as we find everywhere, and for example in Daniel 4 where the tree is banded with a band of brass and a band of iron which represents western civilization being constricted by the One World Government and the One World Religion.

Verse number 20: “And concerning the ten horns that he had on his head:” this is the Scarlet Beast, the One World Government, Remember the Antichrist is the king or the personification of this fourth and final beast; “and concerning the other that came up, before which three horns fell: and of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth speaking great things, and was greater than the rest.”

And this little horn is of course the Antichrist and I'm not sure if the Antichrist comes before the three or not. It says here “before which three horns fell”. The three horns may fall before the Antichrist, and I suppose we should understand that certainly this fourth beast is what we are facing right now, and the Antichrist must take down Britain, America and Russia, because he wants to be the ruler of the world, so he has to take down the three superpowers and I've been telling a lot about that since 2008. So let's look at the rest of the verses.

So now let's look at verse 21, “I beheld, and lo, that horn made war against the saints, and prevailed over them”. Notice how that's different than what we just read that God is going to give us the victory And in verse 22 he says:

“Till the Ancient of days came and gave judgment to the saints of the most High, and the time came, and the saints obtained the kingdom.”

In Bible prophecy, in the Book of Revelation for example and also here, “saints” is not a general term. That is specifically the remnant Catholic Church. We are the group that obtained the victory. We are the same as the stone cut from the mountain in Daniel 2. The mountain is the Roman Catholic Church which does not have the victory because it is taken over by the Antichrist, as Mary prophesied at La Salette. And verse 23:

“And thus he said: The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be greater than all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.”

And this is exactly what we are seeing right now with the murder, the mayhem, the looting, and the burning in our streets. This is how the Antichrist takes power. That's why he is called the Lawless One by St. Paul. Let's look at verse 24.

“And the ten horns of the same kingdom, shall be ten kings:” now I put the reference to Revelation 17:12, because this is the same as the Scarlet Beast which is the eighth beast in the Book of Revelation, the last beast and here, the fourth beast is the last beast, but it's the same beast. The Scarlet Beast has seven heads and ten horns:

“and another shall rise up after them, and he shall be mightier than the former, and he shall bring down three kings.”

And of course that's the Antichrist. Notice how Daniel is repeating himself in quite a few verses, and as I said, really, all of these verses after verse 11 are expansions of those first 11 verses and I'll show you why in a minute.

Verse 25: “And he shall speak words against the High One, and shall crush the saints of the most High: and he shall think himself able to change times and laws, and they shall be delivered into his hand until a time, and times, and half a time.”

Notice that there are four elements here and I'll show you why that is, in a minute. “Time, times and half a time”: most Bible scholars will tell you that that's three and a half years of Great Tribulation.

And verse 26. “And judgment shall sit,” this is of course God the Father, “that his power”, the Antichrist's power, “may be taken away, and be broken in pieces and perish even to the end.”

The Antichrist of course is cast alive into Hell as we all know, from the Book of Revelation. Now the last two verses:

27: “And that the kingdom, and power, and the greatness of the kingdom, under the whole heaven, may be given to the people of the saints of the most High: whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all kings shall serve him, and shall obey him.”

Notice how Daniel really goes out of his way to get four kingdoms in this verse and I will show you in a minute, he needs those four kingdoms to verify the verse structure which I already told you about.

Verse 28: “Hitherto is the end of the word. I Daniel was much troubled with my thoughts, and my countenance was changed in me: but I kept the word in my heart.”

And that is the last verse of chapter 7. So now I want to show you how Daniel uses numerology to verify that this is the structure that he wants and of course that's because he wants you to understand the way to defeat the Antichrist. The hidden prophecy is really more important. The fact that the first three beasts have come and gone for example: I mean the false prophets aren't going to tell you that. They have no clue. In a way it's not important. It's the structure that's more important. So I'm going to show you how he verifies this.

He verifies it, first by showing that verse 7 is followed better by this verse directly opposite, in other words verse 24.

1 - 11

- 1 In the first year of Belshazzar, king of Babylon, Daniel saw a dream; and the vision of his head was upon his bed; and writing the dream, he complained it in a few words: and relating the sum of it in short, he said:
2 I saw in my vision by night, and behold the four winds of the heavens strove upon the great sea.
3 And four great beasts, different one from another, came up out of the sea.
4 The first was like a lioness, and had the wings of an eagle: I beheld till her wings were plucked off, and she was lifted up from the earth, and stood upon her feet as a man, and the heart of a man was given to her.
5 And behold another beast, like a bear, stood up on one side and there were three rows in the mouth thereof, and in the teeth thereof, and thus they said to it: Arise, devour much flesh.
6 After this I beheld, and lo, another like a leopard, and it had upon it four wings, as of a fowl, and the beast had four heads, and power was given to it.
7 After this I beheld in the vision of the night, and lo, a fourth beast, terrible and wonderful, and exceeding strong, it had great iron teeth, eating and breaking in pieces, and treading down the rest with his feet, and it was unlike to the other beasts which I had seen before it, and had ten horns.
8 I considered the horns, and behold another little horn sprung out of the midst of them, and three of the first horns were plucked up at the presence thereof: and behold eyes like the eyes of a man were in this horn, and a mouth speaking great things.
9 I beheld till thrones were placed, and the ancient of days sat; his garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like clean wool: his throne like flames of fire: the wheels of it like a burning fire.
10 A swift stream of fire issued forth from before him: thousands of thousands ministered to him, and ten thousand times a hundred thousand stood before him: the judgment sat, and the books were opened.
11 I beheld, because of the voice of the great words which that horn spoke: and saw that the beast was slain, and the body thereof was destroyed, and given to the fire to be burnt:

12 - 17

- 12 And that the power of the other beasts was taken away; and that times of life were appointed them for a time, and a time.
13 I beheld, therefore, in the vision of the night, and lo, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and he came even to the ancient of days; and they presented him before him.
14 And he gave him power, and glory, and a kingdom: and all peoples, tribes, and tongues shall serve him: his power is an everlasting power that shall not be taken away, and his kingdom that shall not be destroyed.
15 My spirit trembled; I, Daniel, was affrighted at these things, and the visions of my head troubled me.
16 I awoke near to one of them that stood by, and asked the truth of him concerning all these things, and he told me the interpretation of the words, and instructed me:
17 These four great beasts, are four kingdoms, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 - 28

- 18 But the saints of the most high God shall take the kingdom: and they shall possess the kingdom for ever and ever.
19 After this I would diligently learn concerning the fourth beast, which was very different from all, and exceeding terrible: his teeth and claws were of iron, he devoured and broke in pieces, and the rest he stamped upon with his feet:
20 And concerning the ten horns that he had on his head: and concerning the other that came up, before which three horns fell: and of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth speaking great things, and was greater than the rest.
21 I beheld, and lo, that horn made war against the saints, and prevailed over them.
22 Till the ancient of days came and gave judgment to the saints of the most high, and the time came, and the saints obtained the kingdom.
23 And thus he said: The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be greater than all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.
24 And the ten horns of the same kingdom, shall be ten kings: and another shall rise up after them, and he shall be mightier than the former, and he shall bring down three kings.
25 And he shall speak words against the high One, and shall crush the saints of the most high; and he shall think himself able to change times and laws, and they shall be delivered into his hand until a time, and times, and half a time.
26 And a judgment shall sit, that his power may be taken away, and be broken in pieces, and perish even to the end.
27 And that the kingdom, and power, and the greatness of the kingdom, under the whole heaven, may be given to the people of the saints of the most high: whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all kings shall serve him, and shall obey him.
28 Hitherto is the end of the word: I, Daniel, was much troubled with my thoughts, and my countenance was changed in me: but I kept the word in my heart.

It's the same way with verse 8. It's followed better by verse 25. In fact all of these verses follow, and especially the last verse and I will show you these three verses. The 11th verse, the last verse of these first 11: remember I told you that this is kind of like a summary of the whole prophecy, and this is the last verse, and that corresponds very much with the last verse of the entire chapter. So let me show you how those verses follow each other better this way. It doesn't change the prophecy one bit. The prophecy is the same, but it verifies this structure. So let's look at how those verses follow each other and I will show you right now.

So here's verse 7, the last part of it.

7 and it was unlike to the other beasts which I had seen before it, and had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and behold another little horn sprung

24 And the ten horns of the same kingdom, shall be ten kings: and another shall rise up after them.....

7: “ ... and it was unlike to the other beasts which I had seen before it, and had ten horns.” Now in your chapter as printed in your Bibles, verse 7 is followed by verse 8: “I considered the horns, and behold another little horn sprung up ... “. Now that's logical. He talks about the ten horns and he said, “I considered the horns”. There's nothing wrong with that. It's perfectly understandable, but notice that verse 24 specifically mentions the ten horns. 7: “ .. the other beasts which I had seen before it and had ten horns.” 24: “And the ten horns of the same kingdom, shall be ten kings:” So verse 24 makes a more specific reference to the ten horns. Certainly it follows equally as well as verse 8 and Daniel does this to verify that structure.

Now let's look at the next verses down, verse 8 and 9.

8 and behold eyes like the eyes of a man were in this horn, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 I beheld till thrones were placed, and the Ancient of days sat.....

25 And he shall speak words against the High One, and shall crush the saints.....

And the rest of verse 8 was, “ .. and behold eyes like the eyes of a man were in this horn, and a mouth speaking great things.” Verse 9: “I beheld till thrones were placed”. Now that really does not necessarily follow verse 8. I mean if you're telling a story, you can change the subject, but notice how verse 25 actually follows verse 8 better. Verse 8: “ .. and a mouth speaking great things.” 25: “And he shall speak words against the High One”. So Daniel is letting us know that this is the way he wants this structure, by showing that 25 actually follows 8 a little better than verse 9. So now let's look at the last one, the bottom one. I could show you the other two. They're not quite as obvious as these two examples, but here's the last verse. Remember I told you that verse 11 is the last verse in the first part.

“I beheld because of the voice of the great words which that horn spoke: and I saw that the beast was slain, and the body thereof was destroyed, and given to the fire to be burnt:” And that is a very final completion of the prophecy. In fact verse 11, you could end the prophecy right there, “given to the fire to be burnt”. That refers to the Antichrist. Notice there's a difference between the Beast and the body. The Beast refers to the One World System. A government cannot go to Hell, but the body, that is the Antichrist, can and will go to Hell.

So now the next verse, verse 12 as it appears in your Bible. “And the power of the other beasts was taken away: and times of life were appointed to them ..”. And I read that before. It's an expansion that we need to know but it doesn't have the finality of verse 11. In other words Daniel is going back in time before the end of the Antichrist. When the Antichrist is cast into Hell, that's the last event, so the power of the beast being taken away, that occurs before that, but verse 28 which follows it according to the new verse structure, does complete verse 11. “Hitherto is the end of the word, I Daniel was much troubled with my thoughts, and my countenance was changed in me: but I kept the word in my heart.”

11 I beheld because of the voice of the great words which that horn spoke: and I saw that the beast was slain, and the body thereof was destroyed, and given to the fire to be burnt:

12 And that the power of the other beasts was taken away: and that times of life were appointed them for a time, and a time.

28 Hitherto is the end of the word. I Daniel was much troubled with my thoughts, and my countenance was changed in me: but I kept the word in my heart.

So I think it should be fairly clear that Daniel is letting us know by having these verses follow each other. These verses should line up, just as in the chart. These five verses (7-11) are explained better by these five verses over here (24-28). Now doesn't change the prophecy. You can read them in this order or not. There's no rule about reading them. He sets this up so that we understand this structure because the hidden prophecy in the structure is the most important.

Now I'm going to show you another way he verifies this. These three verses here, I told you that the number 4 is extremely important in this prophecy, 8, 9 and 10 which corresponds with these over here, verses 25, 26 and 27. All six verses employ the number 4, and these are not 4 4 4 as we find in chapter 11 as I explained last night. Two of the verses are similar, in that they show four entities or elements, and the third “four” actually uses the number 4 or a counting of the number 4. So let's look at those verses, and that would be verses 8, 9 and 10 on the left hand side.

8: “I considered the horns, and behold another little horn”, and then he talks about three of the first horns, so there are four horns in verse number 8. Verse number 9 describes God the Father, “white as snow”, his hair was like “clean wool” and his throne “flames of fire”, and “the wheels of it like a burning fire”, four elements.

Verse number 10: we see the word “thousands” repeated four times. “Thousands of thousands ministered to him and ten thousand times a hundred thousand stood before him.” Some of the translations don't have that larger total. That's a billion. I think the King James has less, but nonetheless I am pretty sure the King James has the word “thousand(s)” four times. So those three verses on the left, 8, 9 and 10, line up exactly with three verses on the right; that is verses 25, 26 and 27.

8 I considered the horns, and behold another little horn sprung out of the midst of them: and three of the first horns were plucked up at the presence thereof: and behold eyes like the eyes of a man were in this horn, and a mouth speaking great things.

9 I beheld till thrones were placed, and the Ancient of days sat: his garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like clean wool: his throne like flames of fire: the wheels of it like a burning fire.

10 A swift stream of fire issued forth from before him: thousands of thousands ministered to him, and ten thousand times a hundred thousand stood before him: the judgment sat, and the books were opened.

Verse 25 has four elements, “speak words”, “shall crush”, “shall think”, and “shall be delivered”. Verse 26 has four elements, “shall sit”, “taken away”, be “broken” and “perish” to the end.

25 And he shall speak words against the High One, and shall crush the saints of the most High: and he shall think himself able to change times and laws, and they shall be delivered into his hand until a time, and times, and half a time.

26 And judgment shall sit, that his power may be taken away, and be broken in pieces, and perish even to the end.

27 And that the kingdom, and power, and the greatness of the kingdom, under the whole heaven, may be given to the people of the saints of the most High: whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all kings shall serve him, and shall obey him.

And verse 27: now notice that those two verses had four elements. Here we find the word “kingdom” repeated four times, and if you study that verse you realize that Daniel had to really go out of his way to get four kingdoms in there, but of course he's doing it on purpose. He's letting us know that that first structure is exactly what he intended.

So I think we have gone through all the verses and we have verified the most important part of the prophecy and that is in the structure, and you won't find this information anywhere else, but I believe there is going to be a great awakening and people will then watch this video.

I did leave one thing out. The bear is described, which is Russia, as leaning. It has three ribs in its mouth and is told to devour much flesh. The three ribs are the same as the first three beasts, Britain, Russia and America. It will defeat those three countries. In other words it defeats itself. Communism will take over all three. In fact Communism will take over the entire world, but it leans to one side, and I did not explain that that leaning to one side by the bear, I'm sure that means that's its political leaning. In other words it leans to the left. It's not balanced.

In a democracy, for example in our country we have basically two parties and one party is usually ascendancy, and the other party is not, and then after a while the other party takes over. The two-party system is really a pretty good system. It offers checks and balances, but I think that is what Daniel means when he says the bear leans to one side. It doesn't have that balance. It's a totalitarian state but it is victorious. It's the last beast and it will be defeated by Jesus and how is the defeat come about? Daniel is telling us that Mary's Rosary is victorious and all of our collective literatures tell us the same thing.

Okay now I didn't want to get that in. I think I have covered all the points I wanted to make. There are a few points in this program that I did not make in my previous programs. The very first program is about Daniel 7 I did way back in 2008, twelve years ago, and most of what I covered tonight I did cover in those videos, but not all of them. In fact the structure I really did not discover until three or four years later, in other words about eight years ago, and the structure is in a way the most important part, but the reason the Holy Spirit did not reveal it till now is because it wasn't necessary to know, but now the Antichrist is coming into our country very obviously. Now we need to know how to defeat him.

And I want to thank everybody for watching. I will probably continue studying Daniel. There are many other very important chapters like chapter 8. Chapter 9 I have done. Chapter 9 that has to do with Israel, but chapter 8 also has to do with the destruction of the three horns on the ram and the goat. They symbolize the same three as the first three beasts here in Daniel 7, Britain, Russia and America. The two horns on the ram symbolize Britain and America. The single horn on the goat symbolizes Russia, and all three horns are broken, just as Daniel says here in chapter 7.

Okay everybody, I think that's it, so thanks once again. So God bless all of you, until I do see you again and may all of you have a very blessed evening
