

Pope Resigns! Gangnam Style Prophecy Fulfilled!

I'm out of town today. I'm attending my niece's wedding. I just received the very bad news off the internet in my motel room that Pope Benedict is resigning. This is a tragedy, really, because it indicates that the False Prophet is about to ascend the throne of Peter. This is a fulfillment of the 'Gangnam Style' prophecy where the man in yellow is defeated by Psy who represents the Antichrist.

I believe that prophecy came from Enoch. I'm almost certain the next Pope will be the False Prophet. His major duty will be to reveal the Antichrist. He will also okay the mark of the beast. Evidently, the Antichrist had to get rid of Pope Benedict before March because, as you know, the Mark of the Beast is a part of Obamacare and it will be necessary for a Pope, and that is a False Pope, to okay the mark of the beast. All this is prophesied in the book of Revelation. It is prophesied in 'Gangnam Style'. It's also prophesied in that video 'Stuck'. I believe all of these are prophecies from Enoch and they are coming true and I will have more on this later.
