

New Prophecy Channel

Welcome to my new channel. My name is William Tapley and I will be uploading videos to this channel from my third Eagle books Channel, except I will place Spanish captions on them because I want to reach a wider audience, and more people actually speak Spanish than English, and in fact just this last week, Pope Francis gave an address in Spanish. Now the Pope may not like what I recently said about him. He should not be washing women's feet during Holy Week. Jesus never did anything like that, but, he may watch my videos, who knows? and maybe he will learn what he should be doing.

In any case, I also recommend those of you who subscribe on my Third Eagle Books channel, to subscribe to my new William Tapley Channel, because it will also serve as a backup just in case my original channel is somehow taken down, maybe by accident, maybe deliberately. In any event, I have noticed recently that people have lost their channels, and then you have to start all over again, but if you subscribe now to my backup channel, you will be prepared in any such emergency. So once again, thank you for watching, and I hope this new channel works out especially for my Spanish speaking friends.
