

Mary's Rosary in Bible Prophecy

A lot of people ask me, where do you find Mary's Rosary in the Bible? And, of course, there are many, many places where Mary's victory over Satan is prophesied in Holy Scripture. And all we have to do is to go back to Genesis 3:15 where it is prophesied that "the woman would crush the head of the serpent," and that prophecy is given by God Almighty Himself. Please note the verse and chapter number, chapter 3, verse 15; those are rosary numbers.

And, recently I've been doing a series on the vision chapters of Daniel, that is chapters 7 through 12, and have discovered that every one of them prophesies that 555, that is Mary's Rosary, will defeat 666, which is the number of the Antichrist. And Daniel expresses this through the hidden verse structure in all of those chapters. And, on this program, I want to talk about how our Lord Himself uses the exact same technique in Matthew, chapter 24, to indicate that His weapon will indeed be Mary's Rosary. And that's because He arranges the verses as He is speaking them, into a 6-6-6 and a 5-5-5 sequence. Believe me, none of this is accidental. Now, I have taken these pertinent verses from Matthew and arranged them on two different sheets of paper, which you can download from my thirdeaglemedia.com website, under the "Daniel Unsealed" tab, and that's because they are related as far as the verse structure goes.

As you know, all of Daniel's vision chapters feature 6-6-6 verses followed by 5-5-5 verses, and sometimes 4-4-4 verses precede the 6-6-6 verses. And what this all means is that Barack Obama and the United States, that is 4-4-4, will be defeated by 6-6-6, that is the Antichrist, who in turn will be defeated by Mary's Rosary. And Jesus does the exact same thing with His verse structures in Matthew 24. For example, the first eight verses, Jesus arranges into four different sections. There is an introduction section; and then He follows the first three horses in the book of Revelation. First, he talks about the great deception, which corresponds to the White Horse in the book of Revelation. Then, he talks about wars and rumors of war; that corresponds to the Red Horse. And then he talks about famine, which corresponds to the Black Horse.

Then Jesus starts a series of 18 verses, that is 9 through 26, which He arranges into a 6-6-6 sequence. He does this by changing the subject matter. (And sometimes, Daniel uses that same technique also) So, let's take a look at these first 6 of his 18 verses. The first six verses of this reign of the Antichrist begins with persecution, verse number 9: "Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and kill you." And verse 13: "But he who endures to the end shall be saved."

Following the six verses, where Jesus talks about the persecution of the Antichrist, we come to six verses about the abomination of desolation: "Therefore when you see the 'abomination of desolation...' In these six verses, Jesus is speaking about the abomination of desolation and the four different groups that the four different abominations of desolation apply to.

"Those who are in Judea," that is the converted Jews, "must flee to the mountains". "Him who is on the housetop not go down for any reason," that means he must go up and be raptured. "Let him who is in the field not go back to take his clothes." Those are the protected Catholics who must flee from their church and go into the desert. "And woe to those who are pregnant, and pray that your flight be not in winter." This refers to the holy martyrs who will be killed by the Antichrist.

In these 18 verses, Jesus is talking about the reign of the Antichrist: they are the tribulation verses. And following the abomination of desolation, we come to the Great Tribulation: "For then there will be great tribulation." And in these last six verses of this 6-6-6 sequence, Jesus speaks about what it will be like to live under the reign of the Antichrist. It should be fairly obvious that Jesus did indeed divide these 18 verses into a 6-6-6 pattern.

And He now follows these 18 tribulation verses with 15 victory verses which our Lord divides into a 5-5-5 sequence. And of course, what He is telling us, is that Mary's Rosary is the weapon He will use to defeat the Antichrist. "For as the lightning comes out of the east and flashes to the west, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be." Now, this is not Jesus coming at the rapture. Jesus gives His coming at Armageddon before the rapture, not because that is when it occurs chronologically, but so that we will not try to guess when the rapture occurs. The rapture occurs before Armageddon, and Jesus says, "wherever the body is, there the eagles will be gathered together."

By the way, please avoid any Bible translation that changes the word "body" to "carcass" or the word "eagles" to "vultures"; both are wrong. The "body" in this case refers to Jesus himself, and the "eagles" refer to the three armies that join with Him at the Battle of Armageddon: the raptured Protestants, the protected Catholics, and the holy martyrs. And we find these groups specifically mentioned in verse 31: "And He will send His angels with a great sound of trumpet." This is not Jesus coming at the rapture, which is quiet and at midnight, "and they will gather together His elect from under the four winds..." This refers to the protected Catholics in the desert. "...From one end of heaven," now, in "one end of heaven" would be the raptured Protestants. "...To the other end of heaven," and in the "other end of heaven" is the third army that joins Jesus at the battle of Armageddon, and that would be the holy martyrs. So, in the first of these 15 verses, the victory verses, Jesus talks about Armageddon where he will come back and destroy the forces of the Antichrist.

And He follows these five verses with five verses which I call the "Fig Tree Generation", where Jesus gives us clues as to the timing of these events. "Now learn this parable from the fig tree:" the fig tree is a symbol for Israel and many Bible scholars understand that this is a prophecy of the timing of the End. "When its branch has become tender and puts forth its leaves you know that summer is near." Jesus is speaking here about when the command went forth from the United Nations to make Israel a sovereign nation here in these End Times. And He says, "this generation will not pass away till all these things take place." He is talking about the End Times generation, the generation we are in today. And, according to Psalms, a generation lasts seventy years, so when you add seventy years to 1947, you come up with Fall of 2017. And Jesus adds, "But of that day or hour no one knows." What He is telling us here specifically is that He is not giving the day or the hour, He is giving the month and the year and the season of His coming at Armageddon.

Jesus concludes this 5-5-5 sequence, the 15 victory verses, by talking about the rapture: "But as in the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be." So in the last of these 15 victory verses, the last five, that is verses 37-41, Jesus describes the rapture: "Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and the other left. Two women will be grinding at the mill one will be taken," taken up in the rapture, "and the other left." Remember, Noah did not have to go through the Tribulation, and these End Times will be as in the days of Noah.

Now, I know this video will be a bitter pill for many of you to swallow because Satan has done his work very well over the centuries in trying to degrade Mary's role in these End Times. He knows that his head is going to be "crushed by the woman" as prophesied way back in Genesis 3:15, and Jesus verifies this in his Matthew's Olivet Discourse. It's very clear that He has divided those 18 verses into a 6-6-6 sequence by changing the subject matter, and the following 15 verses are very definitely separated into a 5-5-5 sequence which indicates Mary's Rosary. Jesus will use this weapon against the Antichrist, just as David used five, smooth pebbles against Goliath.

And, as I said, you can go to my new website, thirdeaglemedia.com; you can download these two pages, they are in a PDF file, and you can study this prophecy for yourself. And while you are there, if the Lord leads you, please consider donating on the PayPal button.