

White House Halloween Party is a Sign from God

On this program I want to ask a fairly interesting question, and that is, does our first lady, Michelle Obama realize that her husband is the leopard, as prophesied in Daniel chapter number 7? Now the reason I ask this, is because as you may know already, Michelle Obama dressed up as a leopard in this year's White House Halloween party. I thought this was very unusual and very significant. As we know, God can warn his people in many unusual ways. For example, last year he warned us in the Triple Crown prophecies. In other words, the horse races, the Kentucky Derby, the Belmont Stakes and the Preakness were warnings about Barack Obama, and that he would lose World War 3 to the terrorists.

And the next question you might want to ask yourself; does Obama realize he is the leopard as found in Daniel? He made a comment on his wife's costume. He looked at Michelle and said a very nice-looking cat-woman. I do not believe that Michelle Obama's choice of a leopard costume was accidental. Now it may be a woman's intuition and may be that the Lord inspired her, but no matter what the possibility, we have been told once again, that we must understand that Barack Obama is found in bible prophecy that he is the leopard in Daniel chapter number 7, and he will lose World War 3, and all three beasts, the lion, the bear and the leopard must give way to the fourth and last beast, and that is the One World Communist Tyranny.
