

Satan Defeats Roman Catholic Church!

This past weekend saw several very important anniversaries and I had planned to do a video at that time but I am very busy writing my new book which is a compilation of all of my transcripts from YouTube videos and I hope to get that done maybe later this year or possibly at the beginning of next year. And those three anniversaries were, first of all, the 100th anniversary of the great miracle of the Sun at Fatima.

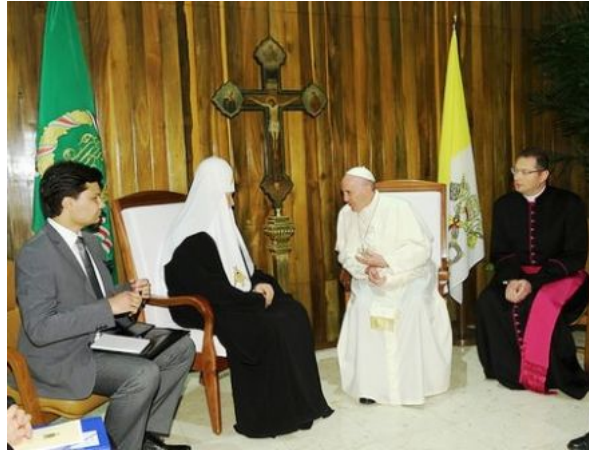

And secondly, the third week anniversary of the Filial Correction which was published on the same date that the Great Sign appeared in the constellations. And all three of these dates are very important.

And I want to mention a fourth anniversary which was of the vision Pope Leo had exactly 33 years to the day before the great Miracle of the Sun. And I believe he had his vision on October the 13th, 1884, and in that vision it was revealed to him that Almighty God would give Satan between 75 and 100 years to defeat the Catholic Church and he immediately composed the St. Michael's Prayer which used to be said at every Mass in the Catholic Church but the Vatican took that away after Vatican 2 which was a huge error but which was a premonition of things to come.

So Satan had between 75 and 100 years to destroy the church and I believe that date started with the great Miracle of the Sun which, as I say, occurred exactly 33 years after the Pope's vision. So what happened before the 100th anniversary of the Miracle of the Sun? Well, the Catholic Church began a counter-attack and I'm sure that is what the prophecy to St. Leo is all about and that occurred on September the 23rd, the date of the Great Sign and that is when those 62 Bible scholars began the counter-attack against Satan when they published their 'Filial Correction'. So that vision is over with; that is past. We have seen the completion of that and the sixty-two Catholic Bible scholars began the 'stone cut out from the mountain'. So Satan did defeat the Roman Catholic Church; and that's prophesied in Revelation and Mary prophesied it at La Salette.

However, the prophecy at Fatima is not over with. That is coming to a conclusion possibly very quickly. We have not yet, for example, seen the 'Annihilation of Nations'; that must occur. Jacinta calls it the 'Secret of Earth' and she says it is terrifying. We have not seen the conversion of Russia yet. Some people say we have but we have not! And I can prove that to you: when Pope Francis wanted to meet with Patriarch Kirill, he was not allowed to go to Russia. He had to meet Kirill in Cuba.

If in fact, Russia were converted, they would welcome the Pope even though he is a false Pope; but they did not, they would not let him in. And that proves to you and to me that Russia has not yet been converted. And of course, we haven't seen the triumph of the Immaculate Heart. Mary says that will not occur until the very end. So the prophecies of Fatima are still very much relevant, very much of concern to us; and although we have seen the vision of Pope Leo come and go, we have not seen the prophecies of Fatima concluded yet. So please, pray your Rosaries and make your First Saturdays.
