

Mary's School of Prophecy Is Pope Francis the Vicar of the Antichrist?

Welcome once again everyone to our World Family Rosary Network where we give praise and honor to the Blessed Virgin Mary because she is the woman prophesied back in Genesis 3:15 to crush the head of the serpent. And no other denomination including my own Roman Catholic faith teaches that truth any longer; neither does EWTN; neither does Father Mitch Pacwa. They all make the huge theological and scriptural error that Jesus will crush the head of the serpent, and that's because the entire church, all of Christianity is under the great delusion of these End Times, because nowhere in Scripture is there ever any physical contact between Jesus and an evil entity.

They all claim Jesus crushes the head of the serpent and that is totally false. All of the prefigerings in the Bible show that there is physical contact between the woman and an evil entity. And the Protestant prophet Kim Clement says, Jesus is not going to save America, neither is the church going to save America. He says it's the woman who will save America, and he is correct. He is familiar with the Bible although he himself did not say the word "Mary", he used the word "Esther", but of course we Catholics know that Esther is a prefigure of Mary in the Bible.

Now today is Palm Sunday and this is the beginning of our third week in the wilderness and I've titled our program, "Is Pope Francis the Vicar of the Antichrist", and the reason I did that is because several of you my subscribers let me know yesterday that Pope Francis has renounced his title "Vicar of Christ", which of course popes have used since Peter received the keys of the kingdom. "Thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build my church", but Pope Francis, he may have said that because he knows he is not the Vicar of Christ, but if he's not the Vicar of Christ, who is he the Vicar of? It only makes sense that he would therefore be the Vicar of the Antichrist, then that would fulfill the prophecy of Mary at La Salette. She said Rome will lose the faith and become the seat of the Antichrist, and that is an approved apparition.

I think he's the first pope ever to renounce that title. As I said, Peter was the first Vicar of Christ because Jesus gave him the keys to the kingdom. "Thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build my church." Notice He did not say churches, He said Church. There's only one authentic true Church, as the apostle said, "one Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church". Unfortunately Rome has lost the faith and become the seat of the Antichrist as Mary prophesied at La Salette, therefore if Pope Francis is not the Vicar of Christ is he the Vicar of the Antichrist? I would say that's the only other option, and I think he will welcome the Antichrist to Rome.

The false prophet would be a religious figure and we know from Jeremiah 23 verse 15 that he is a Catholic priest and we know from Revelation that he's a cardinal. You do figure out both of those. It's true extrapolation which is a legitimate hermeneutic of End Times prophecy, and we know from Daniel 10:3 that he is not anointed with oil. He's not truly anointed, and I would say so far Pope Francis fits the role of the False Prophet. He could repent and save his soul.

If we had bishops who had any salt and if the salt had any strength we could still have Mass, the sacraments and everything and still abide by all the rules. They're not closing down the mosques and they're not closing down Planned Parenthood I guarantee you. Satan is keeping his sacraments going. He's just taken away our sacrament but we have the answer. God is allowing this. The Holy Spirit is directing this operation. Why would He allow the taking away of the daily sacrifice? Why would He allow the closing of the churches? So that Mary gets the credit for the victory. The church will not get the credit and Jesus doesn't want the credit. He wants his mother to get the credit. That's because it will be a great humiliation to Satan.

May God bless all of you and all of you have a very blessed day.
