

Paula's Decode of Dana's "Hail to the Chief" Dream

I have another, I think extremely interesting program because I am going to turn over this entire program to someone else, and that would be our friend Paula who is a very consistent contributor to our WFRN network, and she has interpreted Dana Coverstone's last dream, the "Hail to the Chief Dream" completely opposite to my interpretation, which I gave last night. So because her interpretation is so different than mine, and at the same time very compelling, I wanted to give her, so to speak the floor. I'm going to give her interpretation, but then I am going to ask her to call in at the end and make sure I didn't leave anything out and we can talk about anything else that I may have missed.

Is it possible that there can be two legitimate interpretations? I have never seen this in all my 14 years here on YouTube and I have been interpreting End Times prophecy for a long time, and I've never seen two completely different legitimate interpretations of a prophecy, and maybe this whole idea will fall flat on my face.

So now I'm going to go through Dana's dream just like I did last night. I'm not going to read the entire dream because, a lot of it is repetitious anyway and I'm going to show the points that verify what Paula has said. And to indicate how her interpretation is different, she says that the man in black is a good guy and of course both Dana and I say that he's a bad guy, but I should not use Dana as an example of someone who correctly interprets, because he has misinterpreted all of his previous dreams, and that's not a put down. It's not up to the prophet to interpret his own dreams. The prophet Daniel did not understand his dreams. He complained to the angel. He asked the angel to explain it to him, and the angel said, "Go your way Daniel, the vision is for another time." So it's nothing for Daniel to be wrong, in fact, in a way it kind of verifies that he's getting true prophecy.

And in my interpretation last night the question is: who comes through the door next? Remember the door where the State of the Union gives the Congressional I don't know if it's Congressional wherever they congregate and so we never did find out who comes through that door. And I suggested that it was leading up to the Antichrist coming through the door. Now in Paula's interpretation, is it Our Lord Jesus Christ who comes through the door? And she gives very interesting indications that that may well be the case or can both interpretations be correct? And it's up to us to determine who comes through that door. I think that's a very strong possibility.

There are, in Paula's interpretation, many references to Mary and the Rosary, and that's one of the reasons I think she could be even more correct than I am, because Dana has never understood the references to Mary's Rosary in his previous dreams and there have been many references. And I've seen those and Paula has also seen those of course. And Paula has recently verified her authority and interpretation because one of our members had her rosary change at the pilgrimage that we had just last weekend. There were four “Our Father” beads on her rosary that changed from images of the Immaculate Heart. Three of them changed to other images of Mary; Our Lady of La Vang, Our Lady Quick to Hear and Saint Therese. And quite a few of us were trying to figure out what some of those images were. I mean we all got Saint Therese, and it was Paula who through research discovered that it was Our Lady of La Vang and Our Lady Quick to Hear.

So let's go through this. I asked Paula to listen to this by the way. So let me start with the first slide. I'm going to have the same number of slides but I'm going to condense some of them, so in this first slide:

“The dream began with me watching a broadcast that was announcing the 2023 State of the Union address. ... I had no sense that Joe Biden was the man I was about to see coming down.”

Now it's interesting that Paula's very first interpretation is the title. The title of Dana's dream is “Hail to the Chief” dream. Paula says that hail refers to the “Hail Mary”; the chief refers to Jesus Christ, and I've said for years on here that Mary is our five-star general in this final End Times battle, and Jesus is our commander-in-chief, so I thought that was an excellent interpretation that Paula gave of the title.

Now we both agree that the 2023 State of the Union address is a time stamp and the State of the Union address is almost always given in January, but in recent years it's been moved up sometimes to February and even into March. And Dana said he doesn't think that Biden is the one giving the State of the Union address, and I think he's wrong on that. I mean unless Biden is removed as President before then, which could be, but I don't think so and I don't know why Dana thinks that. I think because he's giving a prophecy, so he doesn't want to be mistaken in his prophecy, but I would say the President referred to has to be Biden, who is supposed to be coming through the door and address the joint session of Congress. And I think both Paula and I agree that the reference is to President Biden. Okay let's look at slide number 2.

“So I'm watching this broadcast announcing the 2023 State of the Union address. ‘Hail to the Chief’ began to play and people turned and waited for the person to enter ... and the Sergeant of Arms just stepped up to introduce the President and he did it like this: ‘Madam Speaker, the President of the United States of America.’”

And by the way he did it with a very kind of like a sore throat he was coughing and so on. I don't think that's relevant to either of our interpretations but I just mentioned that in passing.

Now I want to mention that yesterday J.R. Roberts made a very interesting comment. He said that if the Sergeant of Arms says “Madam Speaker”. Well wouldn't that indicate that the Democrats maintain their control of Congress? Certainly if the Republicans win the midterm elections as everybody is saying they will do. They would not vote for Nancy Pelosi as speaker. They would get someone else.

Now it is possible that if the Republicans do win as a landslide like people are talking about in the midterm elections, that they might put in one of their own like Elise Stefanik for example, back from where I came from in New York State. It could be. She's a prominent member of the Republican Party. She might be maybe a compromise choice, but as J.R. Roberts says, and I tend to agree, when the Sergeant of Arms says "Madam Speaker", he's referring to Nancy Pelosi which means the Democrats actually win the midterms. So now let's take a look at the next slide and I'm just going to read the last two sentences of this.

"The music kept playing, 'Hail to the Chief'. It kept getting louder and louder and louder and louder and louder and the decibel level was making people cover their ears. No president had walked in."

So Paula noted that Dana says "louder" five times and he's often done numerology like that in his previous dreams. And of course that's a Rosary number; louder and louder and louder and louder and louder. And Paula suggests that that means that people are praying more and more rosaries. That's why the "louder" continues and the number 5 refers to the Rosary so, so far, Paula is making some excellent points in her interpretation. So let's look at the next slide.

"Secret Service agents with white ear pieces pulled their weapons ... and it was like something bad had happened. The crowd seemed panicked and they had absolute fear in their eyes."

So now Dana and I both believe that this indicates that a coup has happened. That's what the fear refers to. Paula says, "No, something good has happened, and the fear in their eyes takes place because most of the members of Congress are members of the Deep State. That's why they're panicking, not because something bad is happening but because something good is happening." So Paula, that's a very interesting interpretation. Let's look at the next slide.

"Then an official black jacketed agent stormed through the Secret Service agents. Now I want to say this, I have never seen this man in my entire life. This official black jacketed agent goes to the platform microphone yelling, 'Everybody sit down'."

So as I say, Paula says this is a good guy not a bad guy. Could it be for example, the man in black; now black usually indicates evil but it could also represent the Catholic priesthood, for example priests wear black. It says he moves right through the Secret Service agents. Now I figured it was because they recognized him but it could be that they make way because they respect him. When Dana says he has never seen this man before, does that mean he's a hidden member of the Deep State or does it mean that Dana, as an evangelical does not recognize the Catholic priesthood? That's another possibility so, so far I can see where there could be two different legitimate interpretations. So let's continue with the next slide.

“Then he starts yelling to have the music shut down and nobody's listening. Suddenly he just pulls a service weapon from underneath, with his right hand, he pulls over his left jacket, he pulls the service weapon out, aims right up towards the balcony. In the very back of the balcony I see this large rectangular speaker. He fires at that speaker one loud shot and suddenly the music stops. People screamed and he once again demanded that they sit down immediately.”

I asked Paula if the man is a good guy, why would he shoot the speaker that has been broadcasting Hail to the Chief, in other words the Rosary. And she says, “Well notice that he didn't shoot Hail to the Chief, he shot the speaker.” Could that be a reference to Nancy Pelosi, the Speaker? We know that Biden is gone. He has not appeared. Could it be that this is a judgment passed on the Speaker of the House? Maybe that is the interpretation and he had said before that the music should stop and he had asked politely and nobody had stopped, and I think he would ask for the music to stop because as powerful as the Hail Mary is, the message that he is about to give takes precedence; it supersedes the Rosary, so he had to take force to stop the Hail to the Chief. And it's interesting that both Joe Biden and Nancy Pelosi are apostate Catholics. Maybe this does represent judgment on both of those individuals. Okay and let's look at the next slide.

“Now all the distractions are gone, and the focus is on the man standing at the podium. Then a different group of men that I sensed were not Secret Service agents came in, who are wearing Kevlar vests, military backpacks, AR-15s but no helmets. They are wearing Kevlar over black suits as the man at the wearing at the podium. Those men come in, and they've got their weapons out. They don't have them scoped out on their shoulders, but they are ready to go, they're ready to aim and fire so to speak.”

So now, of course I assumed, when I did my interpretation, that these are agents of the Deep State. Are they instead, angels who are about to pass judgment on these people in Congress? Does the Kevlar maybe indicate wings? Kevlar of course is used as bullet-proofing. Well angels are bulletproof, let's face it. Maybe Paula is right about these people being angels. The number on the AR-15, that's a rosary number AR-15. Maybe that's the weapon, the Rosary. And we've said that all along here on this channel, the number 15 indicates Mary's Rosary which will defeat the number 666, and I said that in my very first video on this channel, way back; let's see in 2008, July 31st, 14 years ago. I explained that 555 defeats 666 in End Times Bible prophecy and Our Lord proves that in the Olivet Discourse as I've explained before, but I digress. Let's continue with Dana's dream here.

“Now this man, who nobody knows, says this, ‘Ladies and gentlemen, we have lost the President.’ ... And he said this, ‘You all knew this would happen; and now that it has, you will either support the consequences or join the missing.’”

And I do believe that many Americans realize that sooner or later, America will be judged, and especially members of Congress, for supporting legalized abortion. Is this man in black bringing judgment on Congress? And we all know that at least half of Congress is totally dedicated to legalized abortion. That would be the Democrats, and many Republicans also, and they have ever since Roe v Wade which was almost 50 years ago. And now when he says that we have lost the president, is that the same as him shooting the speaker? In other words you lose Nancy Pelosi and you lose the president. They've both been judged as apostate Catholics. Well so far I like Paula's interpretation. I may have to give up my interpretation. I hope you didn't hear that Paula. Okay let's try the next slide.

“Then the man says, ‘Please stand, raise your right hand, pledge allegiance, and then kneel when you're told to.’ When I heard this I envisioned the Nazi salute with the hand.”

So I asked Paula about this and she says, “Well notice that Dana only envisions the Nazi salute, he did not see anyone giving a Nazi salute.” This is part of his interpretation. Most of Dana's recent dreams have been very confusing because he weaves in his interpretation into the dream. It would be much easier for a co-prophet such as myself, for him just to give the dream and leave out any embellishment, but be that as it may, both Paula and I have had to bring out the essence of his dream and to discard all the excess. And as I noted yesterday, the man says, “Kneel when you are told to”. Now does that mean that we kneel to the Antichrist or are we supposed to kneel to Our Lord Jesus Christ? I think that's very interesting. The people in Congress, some of them are going to rebel at kneeling to the Antichrist and maybe even more are going to rebel at kneeling to Our Lord. And Paula sent me a quote from Romans where Saint Paul says, let's see, chapter 14 verse 10 that we will stand before the judgment seat of Christ, and of course that's what Dana says in his dream. Let's see, “Please stand, raise your right hand”. So this could be that these people are facing the judgment seat of Christ. Okay let's look at the next slide.

“People were scared. This was not just scared; these people were absolutely terrified.”

So now, according to Paula's interpretation, these people are terrified, because they are going to have to give account of their support for legalized abortion. Remember that Trump 45 train that I showed you, that accident that smashed the front of the train? And I told you at the time, that accident occurred because the Republicans; even though they control the presidency, they control the Senate, they control the House, they could not stop the funding of Planned Parenthood, So all of Congress is going to have to face judgment. So far, Paula's account is right on the money, so let's look at the next slide.

“And then the man at the front screamed, he said, ‘I said stand!’ ... and a few men stood up and then several women stood up.”

So does this mean that only a few are going to stand up and accept Our Lord's return? I think the man coming through the door, as I said at the beginning, is either the Antichrist or Our Lord Jesus Christ, and that would be the return of Jesus. Does this indicate that only a few members of Congress will accept the return of Our Lord? Okay let's look at the next slide.

“These people are part of the coup obviously; they're selling out our nation. And they finally stand up, slowly, but they're standing up. And several of the people screamed out, ‘No!’”

So Paula says this interpretation by Dana; that this is a coup, is a mistake and there's nothing in the dream itself that says it is a coup, so he just says that his description is a coup. Paula could be right on that. It's not an actual part of the dream and when some holler out, “No”, that means they are not going to accept the return of Our Lord. Okay next slide.

“As soon as they did, the military suits behind the guys with the black jackets and the Kevlar over, right behind them, put a hand, their left hand and put a needle right in their throat, in the right side of their neck. The person began to shake and then suddenly just fell over dead. So within seconds these people were dead. There were still people in that Chamber that said, ‘We're not doing this; we've not signed up; we're not part of this.’ And when they said, ‘No!’ and they stood up, they were killed immediately.”

So I talked about this, this morning on the Rosary and several mentioned in the chat, “So are the angels going to kill people?” Well, read the Book of Revelation, the bee sting that they are getting in their neck, does that symbolize the sword of Saint Michael? I think it's very likely. Is that a sword stroke? Now I want to read to you the Book of Revelation.

Rev 14:14 “And I saw, and behold a white cloud; and upon the cloud one sitting like to the Son of Man having on his head a crown of gold, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

Rev 14:15 And another angel came out from the temple crying with a loud voice to him that sat upon the cloud: Thrust in thy sickle, and reap, because the hour is come to reap: for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

Rev 14:16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust his sickle into the earth, and the earth was reaped.”

So does that sound like maybe a sickle, a sharp sickle, that bee sting in the side of the neck? Paula's interpretation is not far-fetched by any means. We're so used to thinking of the bee sting as something that that is not good as far as something that the Deep State does to us, but in the End Times the angels are also going to take care of all of the followers of the Antichrist. They are going to go throughout the earth and separate the sheep from the goats. Is that what Dana's dream is all about? Okay let me go to the next slide.

“So that's the picture being broadcast throughout the room: these were the uncompromising senators, governors, uncompromising justices, uncompromising heads of state, and state department leaders; those sorts of people. When they saw the people start to drop, die after they screamed, ‘No!’, this caused more people in the crowd to scream and gasp. And I saw men who were now weak-kneed struggling to get to their feet. And there were elected officials who were wetting their pants in absolute terror and sheer understanding of what they had done.”

So it is Dana's interpretation that these people are uncompromising, but that may not be. Maybe their terror comes from realizing that they are going to be judged for their support of legalized abortion, among other things. That's the worst thing that they support. So I think there is more than one interpretation here. Okay let's look at the next slide.

“The look of fear on their faces was horrible, as if they were facing a death sentence - and they were. And they sobbed and sobbed, as they just slowly stood to their feet. Some were saying, ‘I’m standing! I’m standing! I’m getting up! I’m getting up!’, because they were so fearful that they were going to get injected. And those military suits, they were going around and disposing of anyone who would not stand. And it might take one guy on him, it might take two or three; but if they were sitting, they were killed, they were put out.”

So the question is, is this the wrath of the Antichrist or the wrath of Our Lord Jesus Christ? Okay let's continue. This is my next slide.

“And anyone who also tried to resist those men got hit with a butt of an AR-15.”

So once again, is the AR-15, is that a military weapon or does that refer to the Rosary? Is that's what's going to bring these people down? I mean we've been saying all along that it's the prayers of the Rosary. In fact, isn't it interesting that Atlantic magazine just published a horrendous article saying that the Rosary is an extremist weapon? That's because the people at the Atlantic are controlled by Satan and the Antichrist, and to them, they understand that the Rosary is an extremist weapon. They understand that that's what's going to defeat them. So I agree with the Atlantic actually. The Rosary is an extremist weapon and the people in Congress here; they are going to be frightened out of their shoes, because it's Mary's Rosary that is going to defeat them, at least that is according to Paula's interpretation of Dana's dream.

I wanted to make one more point here and that is about the AR-15 and the 15 representing the Rosary, and the question is, does the Bible say the words like the Rosary can defeat evil people? Of course; in the Book of Revelation it says that the followers of the Antichrist are slain by the sword of the man on the white horse, and the sword comes out of his mouth. So that's how Jesus is going to destroy the followers of the Antichrist, the Antichrist and the False Prophet are cast alive into Hell but the followers of the two beasts, they are destroyed by the sword that comes out of the Lord's mouth. And I've always said that sword is a two-edged sword and it symbolizes Mary's Rosary and scapular. Okay now let's go on to the next slide.

“At this very minute, a flutist walked in the back door. I could hear this melody, this flute playing very loudly. And a very thin Asian girl, dressed like an Olympic gymnast with this incredible flute in her hands, she walked in and she began to play a very haunting melody. She stood at the very back, and this melody, as she begins to play it, people turn; it was almost like a Pied Piper moment. What she was playing was very, very high-pitched and very sharp on the ears; it was actually hurting people's ears.”

Now I said in my interpretation last night that this flute player represents the music that precedes the worship of the Antichrist in Daniel 3 verse number 5 I believe. Paula says that this Asian lady represents Our Lady of La Vang, which as I said, has just been revealed last weekend to our members of the WFRN family, through that miraculous change in the Rosary. I should show you that miraculous Rosary change. I didn't set this up and I meant to. Well maybe I'll do it at the end. Remind me at the end and I'll show you. Everyone in our WFRN family have seen the miraculous Rosary change and it was Paula who discovered that one lady is Our Lady of La Vang and she says this Asian woman represents Our Lady of La Vang.

Now Dana says that she's Chinese, but that's not the way he first describes her, He describes her as Asian and Our Lady of La Vang is actually Vietnamese, so that would be a mistake on Dana's part if she's actually from Vietnam. Okay now, Dana says that the music of the flute is sharp and it hurts people's ears. I think that's because they are under conviction in Paula's interpretation. That's why it hurts their ears.

Now in my interpretation it's because the Antichrist is harsh, In Paula's interpretation, the music unjars their conscience. And Paula also noted that the young lady is Our Lady of La Vang and playing the flute, means that she represents Our Lady Quick to Hear, and that was the other bead that was changed on our member's Rosary. One bead changed to Our Lady of La Vang; the other changed to Our Lady Quick to Hear. That's also interesting. It's interesting that a week ago, all of us in our WFRN family were introduced to those two manifestations of Our Lady through a miraculous change in the Rosary of one of our members. Was that to prepare us for this interpretation of Dana Coverstone's dream? I'm beginning to think it's very possible. Okay let's get to the next slide here in Dana's dream.

“I remember standing, watching, thinking, ‘This is hurting my ears.’ This is louder than the music ‘Hail to the Chief’.”

Paula says that's because the message of the man of black is more important actually than the Rosary. This message is an End Times message from the Father to these people in Congress, and the message is louder, because as Paula says, it's more important. Okay next slide. Before I get done with this, I'm going to have to agree with Paula. I don't want to do that Paula, as you know. (laughing) Okay I'm sure Paula is watching. Let me see, next slide.

“And then she started into a march - and I'm talking highly precise, with precision march. You would have thought she looked like a pre-pubescent girl 10 to 12 years old; but when she began to march, you could tell that this girl was not a little girl: she was a trained Olympic soloist. This was a precise young lady, whose eye was on the podium she was walking towards; and as she's playing that flute, her eyes never looked at the crowd.”

Well Paula made a very interesting observation here. Those words “precise” and “precision”, which Dana repeats three times, that's a reference to Dana's own previous dream called the “Precision Dream”, and in that dream the prayer which defeats the enemy is the Rosary. That's the precision prayer. Remember? They represent arrows that are fired from five towers. Then the Man in White stands on all five towers firing the precision prayer. And the precision prayer in that dream represented Mary's Rosary and I told you that very clearly, and Dana doesn't think so. He thought it represented the five-fold ministry but it doesn't because the five-fold ministry is all different. Let's see, there's apostles and prophets and evangelists and pastors and teachers. And he said that the arrows are all very ornate. That's another description of Mary's Rosary. So the precision prayer in Dana's precision dream and what this young girl is; her movements are precise; I don't think that is an accident. And as you know, when the Angel Gabriel appeared to Mary, she was a young teenager. Well at least that's according to Bible tradition. Traditional Christian thought is that Mary was a teenager, and so this is not unusual for a young teenage girl to represent Mary. Okay next slide.

“All the crowd was looking at her, and this haunting melody is almost like hypnotizing them. She marched with military precision, and she headed down there. This was a planned, ordered thing; and that podium represented the highest authority of the world – literally, the highest authority in our country. She was going to walk to that platform unopposed. The first speaker up there with the black jacket had basically gotten everybody ready. He says, ‘Stand!’ He basically was getting them ready to pledge allegiance to somebody who was coming in.”

So who is that somebody who's going to come in? Well last night I suggested that it was the Antichrist. According to Paula's interpretation, the next one coming in is Our Lord Jesus Christ, and I think if we pray Mary's Rosary, we can affect the change. I think that there are two legitimate interpretations of Dana's dream. This is really amazing in my opinion. Okay let me get to the next slide.

“She got about 10 feet away - I'm standing at the right of that platform, watching her come right down towards me - when she was about 10 feet away, she jumped in the air and did three or four flips and she landed. And she's playing the flute the whole time she's flipping. When she landed, she just kept hold of that note; that note never stopped, it was a high-pitched note that she just held. It was very, very high-pitched - like an emergency broadcast system.”

So Paula has a very clever interpretation. She says that she stands 10 feet away from Dana because Dana is one decade away from being converted to Catholicism. Well I thought that was very interesting, and that would explain the 10 feet. I never explained the 10 feet, because I know it's a Rosary number but I didn't know how to quite fit that into my interpretation of the Antichrist. So Paula worked that right in very clearly.

Now the three or four flips is also very interesting numerology. 3 over 4 would be God over mankind; 4 in this case, could indicate two couples. That's also an indication of mankind. So 3 over 4 would indicate the triumph of God over man and we've been talking about that quite a bit, although it's usually 3 over 2. In this case 3 over 4 would also have the same symbolism. Paula also says that the 3 or 4 indicate the Rosary; in other words the three original mysteries of the Rosary or the four End Times mysteries. You can pray either one. You can pray the three mysteries or the four mysteries. That's also excellent interpretation on Paula's part. Okay next slide.

“And there were people now still hypnotized watching her play this note. And as soon as she got done with that note, she began to use the flute like a baton, put it back like a weapon, and stood in the defensive position, and faced the entire crowd. She had put on her mean face; and she said, ‘You said you were with us. Now we see. You said you were with us. Now we see.’ So her movements, her self-esteem and confidence were off the charts; but this was sheer intimidation.”

So Paula says that a mean face, that's Dana's interpretation. It may not have been a mean face, maybe it was a very serious face. That would be more like Mary. Mary would not give a mean face but she would give a serious face and I think that's true. And let me get exactly what she says. So Mary says, “You said you were with us. Now we see.” And she says that twice. Is she addressing that to Biden and Pelosi? “You said you were with us.” In other words you claimed to be Catholic. You paraded around as if you were practicing Catholics and now we see. And that's why Our Lady of La Vang says it twice. She is talking specifically about Biden and Pelosi. They were the two people at the beginning of the dream. The president who was supposed to come through the door and the speaker that was shot and those are the only two people mentioned. Remember the Sergeant-at-Arms mentions the speaker, Madam Speaker? I think that's a very interesting interpretation. Okay let me go to the next slide.

“In that room, every elected official, every appointed official was terrified beyond description, when they realized what they'd done; because they had not seen this part of it coming. And then everyone got quiet. The only person not sobbing in the room was that young girl, who almost had the faith that said, ‘I dare you to try to knock me off this platform.’ Because even though she looked like a little girl, it was obvious that she had military background, she had karate background, she was a tough opponent, and the enemy inside of her was a whole lot bigger.”

I always liked what Father Corapi used to say, “My mother wears combat boots”, and he always said it like that with a stentorian tone, and that's true. Well Mary's Rosary and scapular are our weapons in the End Times. The Rosary is our offensive weapon and the scapular is our defensive weapon. How many times have I said that on this channel? For almost 15 years now; going into my 15th year. And as Father Corapi says, “My mother wears combat boots”.

And so now we're coming to the end of Dana's dream, and nobody has come through the door yet, and as I said last night, some of you may be a little disappointed because we never do see a president come through that door. And I think that maybe we will determine who comes through that door. And it's either the Antichrist as I suggested last night or Our Lord and I mentioned that several times. Okay and the fact that Dana does not show somebody coming through that door; he never really completes the dream, that could be another indication that there are two options. The Holy Spirit through Dana is not telling us which one comes through that door. It's up to us to determine. Okay let's go to the next slide.

“Suddenly all the sound, the sobbing, the noise, everything went away. The chamber basically just emptied out. All that sound faded in that moment; it was like GOD spoke clarity. In the dream, as I’m standing, watching, I am troubled, because I’ve seen incredible things happen. Suddenly there’s the Man that I believe represents Jesus in my dreams. He started to bring clarity of thought - the noise stopped, the chaos stopped. He’s standing at the podium.”

So I agree with Dana 100%. The Man in White, in other words Jesus, enters into the dream and He does bring clarity. He does not tell us who comes through that the door and I begin to think more and more that we decide who comes through the door, and when Dana sees the Man in White, that means that this dream has authority, the authority of Our Lord. Okay let's look at the last slide coming up.

“So, the first man walked in and said, ‘Everyone stand!’ He was the first man to speak. The second person at the podium was that young girl that came in. And now He’s at the podium, basically saying, I get the last say; I’m the final authority. The first thing the Man (Jesus) said was this, ‘And it all took place in less than 250 years.’ He looked at me, and I was standing just right off that right corner of the podium. He said, ‘Get ready for more than war, and speak the truth at risk of the sword.’ And that’s when I woke up.”

I think both Paula and I and Dana would say that this shows the end of America. That's what the reference to the years is. And as I pointed out last night that 250 years, when you add it to 1776, adds up to 2026. So, what does He say? “And it all took place in less than 250 years”; but 250 might be a good number. Now I assumed last night it was a bad number because that was the end of America. 250 could represent five jubilees. In the Bible a jubilee is 50 years. 250 years would be five jubilees. Both of those are very important Rosary numbers; 5 is the number of decades in one mystery; 50 is the number of Hail Marys in those five decades. Is that what the Holy Spirit through Dana prophesied; that America can become a Rosary praying nation and save us from the Antichrist? And when He says, “Be prepared for more than war”, I still think this could be Armageddon which is a spiritual battle, and as I said last night Saint Paul tells us we battle not against flesh and blood but against powers and principalities. So the ending of either my interpretation or Paula's interpretation could be Armageddon, the last battle and we have to prepare for martyrdom because we may be killed for our beliefs. I mean the people in the Congress who have voted for 50 years in support of legalized abortions, they will be executed and be cast into Hell, but in this final battle many of us will be martyrs as I mentioned last night in my interpretation. I don't think Paula's interpretation would go against that concept.

So I think that's the end; Paula if you would like to call in I have some questions for you. I hope you can, and we can see if I covered everything that you wanted me to cover in this interpretation. Paula actually sent me this interpretation before I did mine and I was impressed at that time, but I had already begun my interpretation and I was maybe too much influenced by Dana's interpretation, although I think my interpretation is accurate also, and I think Paula's interpretation is accurate, so I leave it up to you people. Let me know in the chat. Who do you agree with?

(Phone rings) Oh here's Paula. Paula is calling in; that's wonderful.

William Tapley: Hi Paula, so glad to hear you.

Paula: Oh hi Mr Tapley, how are you today?

WT: Oh I'm doing great.

Paula: I want to thank you for sharing my decode. I feel very humbled that you did that for me and I really appreciate it Mr Tapley. I think you made a valid point that it could go either way.

WT: Okay Paula let me let me let me go through some of the questions that you had that I did not address. Now you said for example that the teenage Asian girl is dressed like an Olympic competitor because she's supernaturally gifted with every excellence by her Divine spouse. So you think that's what the term Olympic means?

Paula: Yes. I mean, are there athletes that are better than the Olympic athletes?

WT: Okay, they're the best of the best.

Paula: Yes, that's a good way to put it.

WT: Okay, now you said the incredible flute in her hand is the Rosary; that did not occur to me, which encapsulates the Word of God in a scroll, and then you mention Our Lady Quick to Hear. And I can see Our Lady Quick to Hear; that's why she's playing the flute, in other words, this apparition of Mary represents both Our Lady of La Vang and also Our Lady Quick to Hear.

Paula: In this dream you mean?

WT: Yes in the dream, right.

Paula: Yes, it does represent both Our Lady of La Vang and Our Lady Quick to Hear because in Our Lady Quick to Hear, although we don't see it on the beads, in the full-size image Jesus is holding a rolled up scroll.

WT: Okay.

Paula: And the other thing too was that Dana described it as an "incredible flute".

WT: Oh yeah, that's right; he did say an "incredible flute".

Paula: That made me think of the highly ornate bows that were being used in the Precision Dream.

WT: Yeah that could be.

Paula: Okay?

WT: Okay, yeah. I can see that. I can see that.

Paula: And I think, because the flute is the scroll which is the Word of God and I just took a guess I said, the mesmerizing tune that she was playing could have been the "Song of Songs" from scripture.

WT: Okay I know I didn't mention that, and you said the Song of Songs refers to Mary? I had never heard that or if I had, I'd forgotten it.

Paula: Yes it refers to Mary. I'm pretty sure. It probably does describe her well-endowed features and all that.

WT: Yes.

Paula: I'm doing this very humbly. If somebody wants to look up and contradict that the Song of Songs is not about Mary, please fill me in but I was thinking that yes she was probably playing the Song of Songs, but let me know otherwise.

WT: Okay. And now another thing you said was, the Man in White says, "Get ready for more than war", and I said Armageddon would be more than war and you had a little different take on that.

Paula: Yes, because Cherie Goff had said, "Well what's more than war, captivity slavery to the AC? But because the Man in White was saying it, and because he says, "Get ready for more than war", well Our Lady had promised that when her Immaculate Heart triumphed, there would be an era of peace. So what's more than war? Peace.

WT: Okay, okay. I would not have thought that, but I know you said that, and I wanted to get that out there, so that could be what the reference is, the era of peace, because that's the promise for those of us who survive into the Millennium; that is the era of peace.

Paula: Exactly.

WT: Okay.

Paula: Also when you had mentioned the man said, “And it all took less than 250 years, I was thinking that the 250, you take away the 0, it's 25, and 25 correlates to Jesus's birth.

WT: Well that I didn't understand. What do you mean by that?

Paula: Well he was born on Christmas day 25.

WT: Oh okay, oh yeah. I should have got that. Oh very good Paula. Yes I read that and I didn't know what you meant.

Paula: But also 2 plus 5 is 7 and that's Jesus. Speaking of that, I think when Dana says he was watching a TV broadcast that was going to be showing the 2023 State of the Union address; well 2022, the year that we're in, adds up to 6; It's the AC's time and we can see it right and left; 2023 adds up to 7. It's going to be Jesus's reign, the Millennium.

WT: Okay that's a good point too, very good. That's very interesting numerology; very good Paula.

Paula: And I think that's why the month wasn't important.

WT: Oh I see. Yes the State of the Union address; there is no specific month, so it's the year.

Paula: The year; and that is the important time stamp.

WT: Now Paula I can't just let you get in and say that your interpretation is correct and mine is wrong. You know I can't say that.

Paula: I'll just say, in my opinion.

WT: (laughing) You don't have to say that. I'd like to have you stand by your guns because I think this is a fascinating interpretation Paula. It's really great.

Paula: Well thank you. I really appreciate that and I'm quite taken aback by this whole thing.

WT: I just thought of something. Don't you think that what we learned from the pilgrimage about Our Lady of that miracle was to prepare both of us for this interpretation of Dana's dream, don't you think?

Paula: I do, I do. I think it was part of the miracle we prayed for. We've been praying for miracles on this pilgrimage because people need all sorts of miracles in their lives and you know I had done a Novena to Saint Benedict Joseph Labre asking for miracles and healings that whatever people needed, whatever their intentions were in the recesses of their hearts, that he would intercede and have them answered, so this is just so incredible.

WT: Yes, it all ties in, and didn't Dana have this dream on the weekend of our pilgrimage I think?

Paula: In fact, he said, "I had this dream on August 6th a week ago Friday night." Well Friday night was August 5, and Our Lady's actual birthday is August 5, but the Catholic Church celebrates her nativity on September 8th, so the visionaries, they just celebrate both days. (Laughing) It was really something that he had it on August 5 and then you know in the morning when he woke up it was August 6th.

WT: Yes, that's right, that's the day we had our pilgrimage. That was the day we had all the speakers on August 6th.

Paula: So this is this is all coming from the pilgrimage.

WT: There's a relationship there between the pilgrimage and this dream from Dana.

Paula: Yes and I think because as the Remnant Church, the Hailstones are very devoted to trying to pray all four Rosaries every day. I don't know how many other Catholics are doing that.

WT: No.

Paula: You know, praying all four every day.

WT: Right.

Paula: Right so we are the stone cut from the mountain. We're very small.

WT: We are the Hailstones as you like to say.

Paula: And when they say that the President is lost, "We have lost the President".

WT: Yes.

Paula: I think it's because once Jesus takes his reign, we're not going to need a President and it's basically telling him to get lost. (Laughing).

WT: (Laughing). Okay that was a good point I'm glad you brought that up. I forgot to mention that, yes.

Paula: And when the man in black entered the chamber and all the Secret Servicemen just got out of the way, and Dana had suspected this was some sort of intelligence group, well let's face it, the archangels and his legions, they're super intelligent, they're supernatural.

WT: Well there was an intelligence group, okay. Yes, very good.

Paula: Yes, that was on the nose, and also that Michael's legions who were holding their weapons, Dana was very specific that they did not hold their weapons in a position ready to fire, they were holding their weapons up.

WT: So you would think they're aiming them towards Heaven. Is that what you're thinking when you say this?

Paula: Yes.

WT: Oh, okay.

Paula: They were holding them up.

WT: They were supernatural weapons, okay.

Paula: Because they always give glory to God.

WT: Okay, good point.

Paula: Anything they do, whether it's snuffing out the evil ones or whatever, they're doing everything at the command of God.

WT: Good point.

Paula: And the fact that they did not fire the guns.

WT: No, that's right.

Paula: None of their guns, none of their AR-15s were fired. They didn't fire them. They may have used the butt to knock the people in the head, (laughing) trying to knock some sense into them, but they were never fired. When the man in black fired his gun, it was because there's a time to pray the Rosary and then a time not to.

WT: Yes.

Paula: Because you don't pray the Rosary during Mass. You can pray before or after, but not during, because the Mass is the greater prayer.

WT: The man in black's message superseded the Rosary.

Paula: Yes, superseded, yes, yes. So when it said, our political leaders in the chamber did not know what was going on, it's because they are ignorant of the righteous and godly ways and prophecy.

WT: Yes, I agree.

Paula: They didn't have a clue.

WT: No, very good.

Paula: And the politicians who had refused to stand and worship Jesus or God, whoever was coming in that door, they refused and then they got jabbed in the neck and I realized that that's scriptural. They were reaping what they sowed.

WT: Very good. I think that's exactly right.

Paula: They were forcing it on us, well they were going to get it right back.

WT: Yes, reaping what they sowed is good. I mean that would be like the reference I made to the sickle in the Book of Revelation.

Paula: Yes you could say that, that the syringe was a sickle. I think you had already pointed this out but Dana incorrectly thinks that the ones who shout, "No", were politicians who were uncompromising with evil, but in truth they were refusing even at judgment time to serve God.

WT: That certainly is one way to interpret it. That is a legitimate way to look at it.

Paula: And I think that the politicians who were wetting their pants, they were fearful. Christians are not to be fearful. You had told us that. That's the vice that we have to avoid, fear. They were fearful because they were cowards and they knew what was coming. They knew their judgment was coming, and they were going to have to pay their price.

WT: Yes.

Paula: The gavel; when the gavel slammed down loudly, that was indicating that the Divine decision had been reached.

WT: Okay, very good. I like that too, and I forgot to mention it, very good.

Paula: And that everyone was going to be judged accordingly. I think I'm almost done. You've pointed out most of the things. Oh when that Asian girl was only 10 feet away from Dana, he actually said that twice, so it's the full Rosary.

WT: Why would that be?

Paula: He said it twice; 10 feet, 10 feet.

WT: Yes.

Paula: It totals 20.

WT: Oh okay, (laughing) very good. Yes, it didn't occur to me; 20 decades in the full four mystery Rosary, very good.

Paula: I'm completely humbled by this whole thing

WT: And you really helped out with the interpretation of the Rosary beads that changed. I mean you were the one that was shown what those two indicated that those two particular Marian apparitions, so you are deeply involved in this, and I may have to say that maybe your interpretation is more important than mine, certainly it's equally important.

Paula: Well we can leave it up to people's opinions on what they feel. I think that recognizing Our Lady under those two titles and giving her acknowledgement under those two titles I think that precipitated grace for me, so that I could interpret them.

WT: Right.

Paula: So when Dana says the enemy inside the Asian girl was a whole lot bigger than the whole chamber of politicians ..

WT: So what does that indicate? I didn't understand what you meant by that. Go ahead.

Paula: The enemy is Jesus. Jesus is the enemy of evil; of all the evil corrupt politicians in that chamber. There's only a remnant of good politicians in there. The enemy, Jesus, is inside of her because she's the Theotokos, the God bearer.

WT: Yes that's who Mary is, so you're saying that Jesus is the enemy of the evil people in Congress.

Paula: Yes, and He's a whole lot bigger than that whole chamber.

WT: Oh that's interesting. I didn't understand what you meant by that.

Paula: Okay, and the fact that at the end, the man concludes and speaks the truth at risk of the sword, but we have to remember too that the remnant sword is Mary's most Holy Rosary.

WT: That's true.

Paula: And we must speak it because it's the truth of truth. It's the story of our whole redemption.

WT: Yes, you mean the mysteries that we pray?

Paula: Yes, like you think in terms of the scriptural Rosary.

WT: Right I got you yes, very true.

Paula: And I was like when I said, oh you know here's the transcript and I've had a few thoughts. I'm going to give them to you, and then they just kept coming.

WT: You were inspired Paula. I noticed that right away. I recognized that so.

Paula: Wow, and I do think that the man in black is St. Michael, and the Man in White is Jesus. It's not one man who changes color.

WT: Well where's the Man in White? Oh you mean the Man in White at the end? Oh okay. Well I never said that the Man in White and the man in black were the same.

Paula: No you didn't. It was somebody's comment. No I would never accuse you of that. You knew better; (laughing), but the man shooting the loud speaker, you know, you just make way.

WT: No I understand that now. I understand.

Paula: Okay, and then I had indicated that St. Michael and the Blessed Mother were kind of the warm-up team for Jesus' arrival.

WT: (laughing) Okay, well in a way that's true, and that's true in Dana's dream also. The Vietnamese girl coming in; now I said it precluded the arrival of the Antichrist and I took that from Daniel, but you're saying that she's a warm-up for our Lord returning, and I think that's true.

Paula: Yes, she's like the precursor, like John the Baptist was, but now she's our precursor with all of our apparitions and everything.

WT: Yes.

Paula: Oh the other thing was the amazing acrobatic flips. Dana said she did three or four flips, which indicate the three original mysteries of the Rosary and the fourth new mystery.

WT: Yes, well I did say that Paula. You probably didn't hear me say that. Did you hear me say that?

Paula: No, I'm sorry.

WT: No, that's okay, that's okay. I got it from you, so you have a right to claim it. That was your interpretation.

Paula: Okay I don't want to claim it. I just want to share it okay, as long as it was shared, that's the important part, not who said it.

WT: No. I think I said it while you were on the phone maybe, or while you were dialling maybe, I don't know.

Paula: Oh, okay well thank you for that, that 'out' (laughing). She did those flips flawlessly.

WT: Okay, very good, flawlessly.

Paula: And what does that mean? She has no flaws. She's immaculate.

WT: Excellent observation Paula. Yes Mary is flawless.

Paula: Not only that but she never lost her feet when she was playing the flute, and she flipped and she landed on her feet and it was just a perfect landing you know. It was so expert. She did it with such grace. It was graceful; Hail Mary full of grace.

WT: Yes well Paula and let me thank you again. That was truly a wonderful interpretation of it and I'm so glad that I did this program.

Paula: I have just one last thing that I want to share, and you can shoot it down I know. I'm not sure if it's any good. Okay now at the beginning of the dream when the State of the Union, by the way the State of the Union is deplorable, but the State of the Union scene begins, the Sergeant of Arms, he could hardly speak in the House chamber.

WT: Yes.

Paula: So "speak in the House", remember that, and then he hoarsely addresses the Madam Speaker of the House; so, Speaker of the House number 2. The man in black shot the House loudspeaker. So you have Speaker and House there again. You have a subtle hidden Trinitarian reference there. The House chamber, because we're no longer going to need a President, the House chamber now belongs to God. It is now God's house and Jesus is about to enter the House and speak.

WT: Paula it's wonderful and you did a marvellous interpretation. I can't get over it. Well I hope we can continue to work as a team Paula, because I think it's working out that way.

Paula: Oh, won't that be fun? Thank you once again for letting me come on and share my decode.

WT: You're very welcome. Thanks Paula. See you tomorrow morning on the Rosary.

Paula: Okay goodbye.

WT: Okay goodbye Paula.

Okay thanks very much Paula, and I am going to close out the program and I will be back tomorrow morning on my channel for another live stream.
