

Evil Prophecy in iPad Commercial

Lately, we have been bombarded with warnings from both Almighty God and from Satan that we are about to enter the Great Tribulation, which is the second half of the 7 Years of Tribulation, and which also includes the Reign of the Antichrist. Just this past weekend, we saw Peyton Manning, number 18, (6 plus 6 plus 6), defeat Tom Brady, number 12, (4 plus 4 plus 4), in other words, the Antichrist will defeat Barack Obama. And we have been seeing also, the same type of prophecy, in Psy's Music Videos, 'Gangnam Style,' 'Gentleman', Carly Rae Jepsen's video, 'Call Me Maybe', and in television advertisements. And in fact, one of those prophecy's from Gangnam Style has already come true, and that is the Antichrist would defeat Pope Benedict.

And now, on this program, I want to look at an advertisement by iPad because one of my subscribers, Bill Jaglowski, pointed this out to me, and this is a prophecy about Nuclear War coming to the United States. Bill told me he watched this particular iPad advertisement during the televised showing of one of the NFL games, this past weekend. I'm not sure if it was the Broncos verses the Patriots or not, but in any case, it starts out with a very mysterious scene, and shows a very ominous cloud, and I believe the reason for that is to prepare us for the prophecy of doom which is going to come later on in this particular advertisement.

These windmills are shown throughout the video, possibly indicating that America is about to be blown back to the Stone Age. After this rather ominous scene of a cloud, we see several positive images, and after all, I presume they are trying to sell iPads with this commercial: we see a mountain, we see a music festival, we see the Devils Pool in Victoria Falls, notice by the way, that name, Devil's Pool.

Then we see a very strange, very short image of a person facing away from the camera.

Now, is this an image of God? Or an image of Satan? In Scripture, God never shows His face, however, I believe this is Satan smoking a cigarette. Notice the three lights, which symbolize the Evil Trinity of the End Times, that is Satan, the False Prophet, and the Antichrist. Why in the world is this very brief clip of someone smoking a cigarette, facing away from the camera, even included in this advertisement? Well, I think what the creators are trying to tell us is that this particular advertisement is about a whole lot more than just selling iPads.

Next, we see several more positive images, such as a hockey game, a marching band, a rescue helicopter, but then we come to the most crucial image in this entire iPad advertisement. This is the message the Illuminati wants to give us. At first, it seems like a simple line drawing of a sunrise, but this is the only image from the iPad, in this advertisement, which, when it is shown to an observer, the observer holds back in horror, and he raises his hands. What is so horrifying about this image of a sunrise? 'The Poetry. The Poetry. The Poetry.'

Now, does that clip look scary to you? Why does the observer pull back in fright? Actually, what you are seeing is an image of a woman giving birth, and she is giving birth to Nuclear War. Now, in the center, we see the woman's entrance to her birth canal, and on either side, the woman's legs as she is about to give birth. If I remember my Biology correctly, these lines up here on either side, represent Fallopian tubes, and of course the baby is actually a nuclear explosion. There is even a smudge at the bottom, representing the woman's anus. Now, I apologize for having to use crude language, but we are looking at a crude scene.

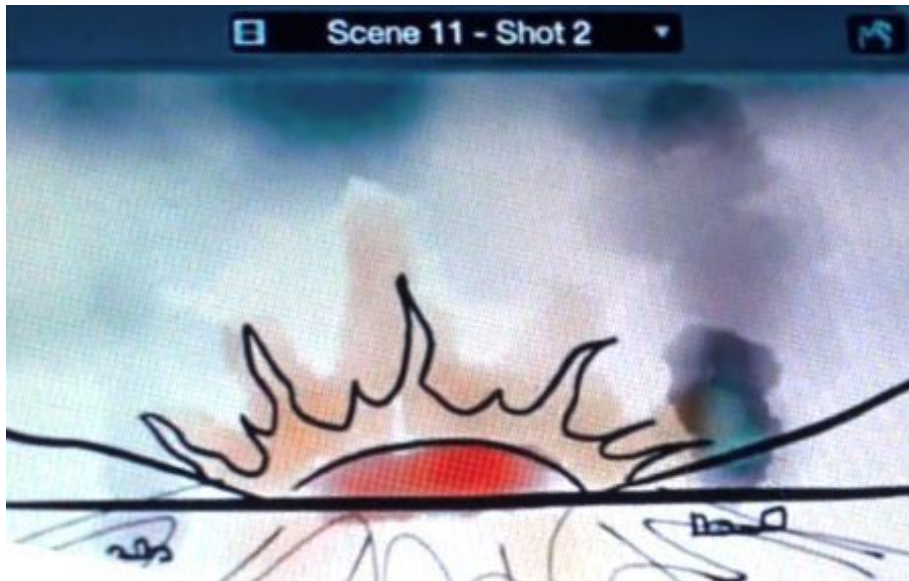

And now, let's take a look at that sunrise, which is actually an image of a nuclear explosion. What's really amazing, is that this image is copied almost entirely from the explosion in Psy's Music Video, 'Gangnam Style.' These two clumps, on either side, represent the two card players blown up by that explosion, and at this small entrance to the womb, we see another small figure coming toward the viewer, in much the same way as Psy walks towards the camera, wagging his finger in 'Gangnam Style.'

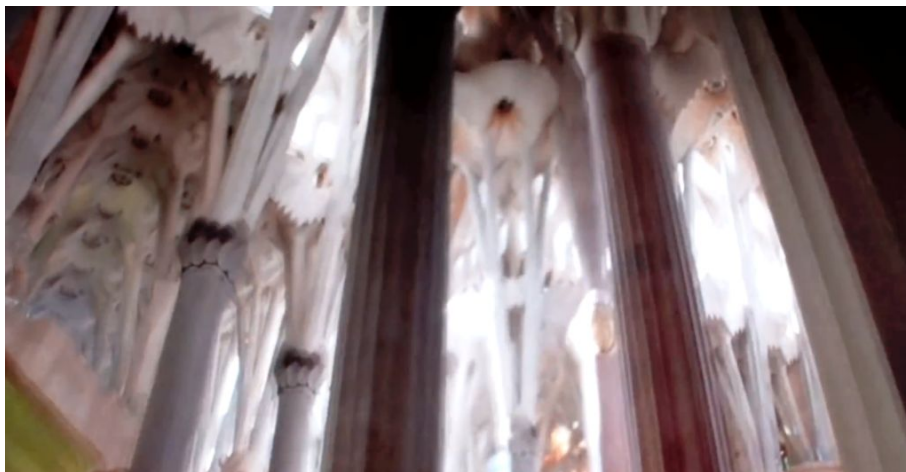

And at the top of this image, we see the words, 'Scene 11 - Shot 2,' of course the 'Shot 2' refers to the two individuals killed by this nuclear explosion in the center. And '11' is a favorite number of the Illuminati, it is another number for the Antichrist, and also a number symbolizing homosexuality. So now, we see what is frightening about this seemingly innocent image. There's no doubt the Illuminati want to reduce population on this planet through Nuclear Warfare, and their prophecy in this advertisement coincides with Bible prophecy.

The two dead figures in both this iPad advertisement and in 'Gangnam Style,' symbolize Britain and America destroyed through Nuclear Warfare. The figure in the center front, in both this advertisement, and Psy in 'Gangnam Style,' symbolize the victor of World War III, and that would be Russia. And those figures, all three of them, are found in Daniel, chapter number 8. The two horns on the Ram symbolize Britain and America, and they will be crushed by the single horn on the Goat, which symbolizes Russia. I would hope we all take very seriously, the prophecies of both the Bible and this iPad commercial.

Of course, we should not be surprised that any video from the Illuminati would include hatred of Jesus Christ and His Bride, the Catholic Church. In this next clip, you'll hear the narrator talk about cities 'filled with the foolish' and at the same time we are shown an image of a magnificent Cathedral. 'Faithless, of cities filled with the foolish, filled with the foolish, filled with the foolish.'

In addition to hatred of the Catholic Church, the Illuminati like to promote their own vision of the Antichrist, and in this clip, we see a Justin Bieber type rock-and-roll singer. And of course, he's got one eye covered, the Illuminati love that symbolism, and he is giving the devil horns sign with his hands.

'We contribute a verse. We contribute a verse. We contribute a verse.'
He even has a red, satanic halo around his head.

Next, we see what looks like a young woman crucified on a huge butterfly, and I believe this symbolizes another favorite of the Illuminati, and that would be satanic mind control. And we also see, two, very strange horns protruding from this butterfly.

because there very well could be alternative interpretations, for example, those numbers at the top, 'Scene 11-Shot 2,' could that refer to the 11th of February? And we know that February the 11th, this year, will be the first anniversary of the resignation of Pope Benedict. Are the Illuminati planning an assassination of two world leaders on that particular date?

Or is Jonathan Kleck's prophecy about the destruction of Hoover Dam going to occur on that date? He said the date would be 11/11/11, but remember, the number II in Roman numerals looks exactly like an 11. And, the construction of the Hoover Dam looks identical to the reproductive system of a female. And also, don't forget that amazing mural at the Hoover Dam, which again, looks like the birthing of an evil entity. Maybe this figure being born in that birthing scene, in this iPad commercial, shows the birth of the Antichrist? Or the birth of the New World Order? And is that mysterious figure, who was smoking a cigarette, perhaps that is the Antichrist?

In any case, I'm asking all of you to please take a look at this video and tell me, what do you think? It appears pretty obvious that the creators of this iPad commercial had a hidden agenda. Evidently the Illuminati have this super-secret 'honor code' where they have to tell us ahead of time what they are going to do to us, and if we don't understand their prophecies, then they have a legal right to carry them out.

What they don't understand is that Almighty God also has an honor code, and He also tells us ahead of time what they are going to do to us, except that our Lord gives us the weapons to defeat the Antichrist and his minions. And if we read the prophets, Daniel, the book of Revelation, and even our Lord, in the Olivet Discourse, they all show us that the two weapons which defeat the forces of evil in these End Times are Mary's Rosary and Scapular. They all show that 555, that is Mary's Rosary, will defeat 666.
