

Decode of Dana Coverstone and Amanda Freitas' Dreams About Russia

As you know I've already done a decode of Dana Coverstone's "2022 Jets" Dream and I also did a decode of Amanda Freitas' "Three Bears" Dream, and I have discovered an amazing aspect of these two dreams and that is that they explain each other. You have to actually read them together at the same time. And I missed quite a bit of it in my two previous decodes because of that fact.

Now as you know, the media has been constantly haranguing us the last couple of weeks about a war between Russia and Ukraine. They've been telling us that Russia is going to invade Ukraine. Are they right? Dana Coverstone and Amanda Freitas say just the opposite. We will very soon find out who is correct. Now let me show you some of the headlines, and this was just this morning, and this is the Drudge Report.

Headline this morning;
"Ukraine Invasion Imminent?
Russia, USA Pull Diplomats,
Biden Calls Putin, Oil
Spikes. "Are they beating the drums from war or what? And of course Biden's been doing this all along, so is the state department. Here's the headline. I think this was this morning; Wall Street Journal.

"Russians have already started hybrid war with bomb threats, cyber-attacks, Ukraine says."

Moscow is using cyber-attacks economic pressure and most recently false bomb threats to undermine its neighbor Kiev says." Of course I know you've been hearing all these threats as well. This is from PBS. There's the headline. "Russia reportedly makes decision on Ukraine invasion. The US believes Russian president; President Vladimir Putin has decided to invade Ukraine and has communicated that decision to the Russian military according to the PBS news hour.” Doesn't sound too good does it?

I don't know why I even bother to do this. I'm telling you, I don't think we can save this country, but we're going to try. Let me try and see if I can't go through the prophecy of Dana Coverstone and Amanda as far as it affects the United States, because that's what it is. Satan does not want you to know this. I'm going to try to get this out today. Let me see what I can do here.

I was talking about how Dana's dream and Amanda's dream they sort of complement each other. To understand the one, you'll have to read both together at the same time. This is not completely unique. Isaiah 45 and Micah 5 are the same way. You read them together at the same time. I did a video on this. Daniel 10 and 12 are the same way. That's the same chapter. You print Daniel 10 top to bottom. You print 12 in the reverse, bottom to top, and then the verses on each side explain each other. These two dreams of Dana Coverstone and Amanda Freitas are the same way, and I'm going to go through it the same way; that is read first part of Dana's dream and then part of Amanda's dream.

So the media, and I don't know if you heard that or not, the media all predicts that there will be a war between Russia and Ukraine. Russia will invade the Ukraine; all of the news outlets, New York Times, Washington Post, PBS. Dana Coverstone and Amanda say that's not true, but to understand it, we have to know the chronology in Dana's dream. Dana's chronology explains Amanda's dream and Amanda's dream explains what's going to happen on the dates in Dana's dream.

As you know, Dana's dream is divided into the gray skies in March, the black skies in September and the vision of the wall between Russia and Ukraine, in that order, but that's not the chronological order. Amanda's dream shows the first bear, the second bear and the third bear, but the first bear she sees in her house, the second bear she sees with the ribs in its mouth, the third bear she confronts in a shed. That bear has a face, but we have to read Amanda's bears in the same correct sequence from Dana's chronology.

Now we know about the March chronology, the September chronology, but what's the date of the vision? And we know that, because he looks at his watch and it is 2:15 in the morning. That's when he received the vision. He says about 2:15, and I've interpreted that to be March 15th. That's two days from now. I believe that's when the truce will occur between Russia and Ukraine or about that. Dana says about 2:15. The 15 of course is a Rosary number, as we all know.

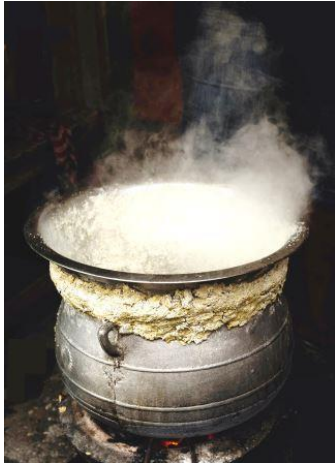

So now let's go through the dreams, and I'm going to alternate between them. I'm going to start with Dana's dream and then show you how Amanda's dream explains what's going to happen. And Dana says all these things occur in 2022, and really that's been true of all of Dana's dreams. They've all been imminent. For example the Data Dream and I've told you about that before.

Okay we're going to start with Dana's dream. Now I've condensed these dreams, because I've already gone through this before, but I'm going to read them in the correct order, chronologically speaking. In other words the vision, I believe comes in February 15th before the March and the September dates, and so let's read this. Here is the start of Dana's dream, which is actually the vision, the third part of his prophecy.

“I began to walk and pace in the living room and as I was walking and pacing about 2:15 am, I had a vision and in that vision I was standing on the boundary of Ukraine and Russia. And I saw a large boiling pot right in the center of the border between Russia and Ukraine, and I'm going to call it a cauldron. And I saw soldiers on both sides of that cauldron; but the different sides were not engaged with each other. There was no war going on, nobody had guns or weapons or missiles or anything."

So the boiling pot I think, actually tells very much about what's going on right now. The area is simmering I guess you could say. I mentioned the time stamp. There's no war going on. Maybe the media ought to consult Dana Coverstone and Amanda, as far as whether there's going to be war between Russia and Ukraine. That number 15 by the way is not just the time, as I said; it also indicates Mary's Rosary. Okay so now let's look at the second slide I have for Dana's vision.

"Then I began to notice that the pot was growing larger. Now it was about 50 feet high. And then I saw that going north and south off of that cauldron, it seemed that the walls began to move. And I saw that these walls were going to be the same height as the boiling pot. It went along the border of Ukraine, Belarus, Latvia and Estonia separating them from the Russian province, so to speak. The wall stopped at the top and the bottom and it became taller and it seemed like it was about 100 feet high."

So the wall extending from the pot separates Russia from invading Ukraine. It's the same height as the pot. That means it's 50 feet high. That's another Rosary number. That's the height for example of the scaffold that Haman is hung on in the book of Esther. Haman symbolizes the Antichrist. The 50 cubits symbolize Mary's Rosary; the number of hail Marys in the five decades. So this wall has a lot to do with Mary. The wall grows to 100 feet high. That would be doubling of the Rosary number which is 50, and I think that means that this truce will be strengthened by praying Mary's Rosary. Okay let me go to the next slide.

“I watched that wall get blue cold and it appeared as if it was suddenly electrified with a digital signal. And there was like a pulse of electricity running through that wall from top to bottom. It was ice covered and had almost like a digital signal when you're watching somebody's heart monitor and you see the ups and the downs and the beeps. And when the night came you could see that pulse on the Western side. Because as it got darker, you could see that pulse brighter and brighter and brighter and brighter and brighter. It was like a heart monitor.”

Very interesting; this that's not an accident that Dana repeated that word “brighter” five times as I said in my first decode. Dana did not understand that. He had to do his first dream over again as you know, because of technical problems, and he left out all of the important numerology. He left out the 2:15; he left out the heights of the wall; he left out the “brighter” five times. It was a big mistake on his part but I think we can overcome it.

The wall is a blue color, an ice blue. Blue is also a reference to Mary. That's her traditional color. The heart monitor on the wall; one of my subscribers here said that that indicates the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I think that's true. The prophecy that Mary gave at Fatima was that in the end her Immaculate Heart would triumph. Russia would be converted, and an era of peace would be granted to mankind. Remember this prophecy is coming from an evangelical Christian, although I think Dana will convert. I think he has to convert. Okay let's look at my next slide here continuing with Dana's dream. Now this is the last part of the vision that he had.

“There were also lights that were about 500 feet above those walls, huge massive spotlights that shone down, on the wall and you could see on both sides of the wall very easily for probably about a half a mile on each side. And they also revealed about 50 feet up along that wall there were guard turrets and there were two guards, each one facing a different way; one facing east and one facing west with their backs up right next to one another. And in my spirit I heard the words that, “a new cold war is upon us and that cyber will be the new cipher””.

But notice Dana says a cold war. Well that's not what the media is predicting. They're predicting that Russia will invade Ukraine, and now we see more Rosary numbers; the lights are 500 feet above the wall; the turrets are 50 feet. We heard Dana give the term “brighter” five times. That's 555, and we know from Bible prophecy that 5 5 5 will defeat 6 6 6.

So I think the rumours of war between Ukraine and Russia are fantasies from the media. I think personally they know it's all a lie. It's misdirection and so we are not aware of the real invasion that's taking place across our southern border. And 15, as I said 5 5 5 is another Rosary number. So now we've completed the vision part, or in other words the third part of Dana's revelation, but we have to put that first, which is why we read it first, because chronologically speaking it comes in February, February 15th just a couple days from now, or about that time, as Dana says. It will be interesting to see if this is correct, or will Russia invade Ukraine as the media keeps telling us. It'll be interesting to find out.

So we are now going to look at Amanda's dream, and we're going to look at the third part of her dream, because that comes first. That corresponds to Dana Coverstone's third revelation, which was the vision. And just before the scene we're going to look at,

Amanda is trying to escape the bear with three ribs in its mouth. And Amanda has been told that the bear in her dreams represents Russia. And of course Russia is prominent in Dana's dream. So this is Amanda's first part of her dream.

“When I opened the door of the shed,” remember this is what Amanda is fleeing to, “instead of being a regular shed, it's way bigger. And instead of a floor there is a hole, a very deep hole. And between the entrance and the back of the shed there is a plank and this plank is like a bridge. So I start to crawl on my hands and feet trying to pass to the other side and my husband is right behind me. When I go to the middle of this passage, this huge bear shows up in front of me.”

So now this bear I believe, is the same bear as in Dana's vision. The bear is a wall between Russia and Ukraine. Now the shed that she flees to, I believe represents a refuge; a refuge in these End Times, and let's look at the second part of Amanda's dream, which is about the third bear, which actually comes first.

“And I understood, that's not a regular bear”, this bear she meets in the shed, “because this bear in particular had the face of an old man and he spoke like a man. He was saying, ‘I’m gonna get you’, and he was saying it in a very lascivious way; you know like he was going to attack me sensually, if you get what I’m saying. When he says that, I said, ‘What!’ And then the bear looking straight at me said, ‘I don't want anything to do with you, lady’ I’m gonna get him.’ And ‘him’ was my husband who was right behind me.”

So the goal of this bear is not Ukraine but the United States, and Amanda has told us that her husband is an American, so the bear wants America. Now this old man's face on the bear, I believe indicates Satan, so this is an expression. This is an evil bear. This is a bear that is doing what Satan wants. This is Russia under the control of Satan, and we're going to see how Amanda handles this situation. This is continuing with Amanda's dream.

“And immediately I thought of Sodom and Gomorrah where the angels were hidden in Lot's house, and the guys there wanted the person behind Lot who was the angel. When he said that I didn't say anything, I just touched him, and when I did he lost his balance and he fell through the cracks on each side in the plank. My husband is an American, by the way, and he tells me, ‘Well sometimes you just need to do a little bit of a push, and then gravity does the rest, and it's going to be fast and quick death’”.

So now it sounds like the bear will be destroyed, which is not the same as in Dana's dream, but I think what we see destroyed is an expression of the dream controlled by Satan. This is the aggressive Russian that wants to invade Ukraine. Ukraine is a tiny country compared to the power and the might of Russia. Russia could obliterate the Ukraine. This is an evil instigation on their part. This is what will be defeated. And this this evil spirit is what's going to be overcome, and Amanda shows us how. Here is the next part of the dream.

“And the Lord impressed into my heart that I symbolized the Church, the praying Church. And the Church is the one who is going to just move a little bit and because the Church moves a little bit God is going to do the rest and the power of God is going to bring this entity down and it's going to be a quick fall and a quick death, quick destruction.”

And Dana says it's going to occur two days from now. This is the part I keep emphasizing, or about the 15th I would say. That's what he said "about". The 15 indicates how it's going to be done, and she says it's the "praying Church" that is going to bring about this defeat of the bear. The "praying Church" is the remnant Catholic Church. Amanda does not understand that, but that's who it is. It's the praying Church's Rosaries that will cause this bear to fall into the hole, just as in Dana Coverstone's dream, the wall is 555 feet high symbolically speaking.

And it's interesting that Amanda achieves this victory while she's in her refuge, and I wonder if that means that it's going to be our jobs, those of us who are already in our refuges, to bring about this defeat of the satanic expression of Russia, as it wants to invade the Ukraine. Okay now let's go back to Dana's dream. We are we're alternating back and forth between Dana's dream and Amanda's dream so that we get the correct chronology. So what happens next in Dana's dream? March comes after February, after this month, and next month Dana says that the skies turn gray. So let me read that part. So now we're going back to Dana's dream.

"Then it flipped up to March and then the skies turned very gray, not dark, not black, just gray. And I heard the distinct sound sounds of F-16s flying by the windows. I lived in Terre Haute for about 9 years, and we lived close to the airport and there was an Air Force runway over there and those F-16s would take off a couple times a day and go over our house. I heard three of them go flying by in March. I could not see anything outside except the gray overcast sky; no action, no excitement, nothing, just heard those three F-16s go flying by.

So gray skies, I'm sure indicate that America will be at peace. So what is going to be going on? Dana says there's nothing going on. In order to find out what's going on, we have to go to Amanda's dream. Amanda explains what will be going on in this part of Dana's dream. So let me go quickly to Amanda's slide. Now remember, this is actually the first part of Amanda's dream, but chronologically speaking, it occurs second.

“I dreamed that I was here in this house. I live in Pennsylvania, very close to Philadelphia. I was upstairs. I heard something climbing the stairs. I thought it was one of my dogs. When I went to see, it was this huge bear. It was way bigger than a black bear and darker than a grizzly brown bear. It was very big and it was standing up like a person, and climbing the stairs. Then I locked myself in one of the rooms and I figured out that I'm going to run downstairs and try to make the bear run after me to take it out of the house. We ran down the stairs and the bear ran after me and it came out of the house.”

So the gray skies in March indicate the bear entering Amanda's house. Now the Lord explained to Amanda that her house symbolizes the United States. The bear symbolizes Russia, and Amanda herself represents the Church by the way. So how is this going to square with what Dana said as far as the skies are gray? This is in March. This is what's going to happen. The bear is going to come into Russia, but it's not as serious as we will see in September. The next part of Amanda's dream:

“But how did this bear enter this house because I have a fence around my house? So, I went around (my house). My yard in this dream was way bigger, my house was way bigger as well, and when I go around, I figured out that instead of chain link, I actually have in the back portion of my yard, a stone wall and this stone wall had been broken and the gate was open. Well the bears came from here. So I ran around the house, waiting on the side, and there I met my husband who is an American. As we get together, I look around and there are dozens of bears in this backyard. It was way bigger than my real backyard and lots and lots of bears.”

So this is what's going to happen in March. There's going to be a lot of bears in her house and her backyard. Russia is going to infiltrate America. That's what's going on. That's why it's bad, but it's not going to be a shooting war, not yet. I mean she sees all these bears, not only the bear in her house, which would be Russia, but those all these other bears I'm sure indicate Communist countries like Cuba or Venezuela. And if you read Dimitri Duduman's prophecies, there are many other countries that will be invading America, and George Washington saw that in his dream.

But still we're not going to be aware of this infiltration. It's going to be hidden from us, so to speak. We're going to think everything is hunky-dory. That's why the skies turn clear for April through August. But what Dana sees in March, the gray skies, as explained by Amanda's dream, that's when the bear and its allies will be infiltrating America.

Okay now we return to Dana's dream, and now we come up to the bad part of Dana's dream and Amanda will explain that also. There's about five or six dreams, because this is the bad part which will occur on September.

“But then the calendar slowly, and I do mean slowly, kind of flipped to September and as it did the paper seemed like it was a green leaf turning brown like leaves do in the fall. So as the paper flipped up it was green and as it finally hit the wall and it was flat against the wall and I could see September 2022, it began to turn brown like the leaf was fading. When it finally stopped moving on that calendar the sky outside the window became pitch black. I could hear wind; I could hear random noises and then I heard jets. And a group of three F-16s flew by the window headed north.”

So I think the flipping of September indicates a gradual invasion of the United States; a hidden invasion. And if you watch the news at all, of these people coming across the border; our southern border, they're mostly military age young males. That's not accidental and I think that Biden and the government are hiding this fact from people by distracting them with all this talk about Russia.

I don't think they even believe Russia is going to invade Ukraine. In any event we know from what Amanda is saying that prayers are going to stop the invasion very shortly. The Rosary will stop it. Now the sky turning pitch black means that this invasion will no longer be hidden. It's going to become very real in September. Okay let's look at the next slide I have for Dana's dream.

“They all went flying north, all three in formation, and right in my window of view they paused, almost like they just stopped for a second and I could see that these three F-16s were wingtip to wingtip; they had flashing red and yellow lights on top and bottom. After the pause they rocketed by at a great speed and were soon out of sight and not heard again. And they were moving like they were on a mission and it reminded me of seeing some of the jets over New York on 9/11; they had a place to go and they had to get there fast.”

So this is the black in September. I think World War 3 has started. I think that's what Dana sees here; the flashing lights there's been a lot of speculation on that. They're red and yellow. That indicates of course red and caution, as far as stoplights go. Those are also the colors of the Chinese Communist flag, red and yellow I think it also means that these jets are over America they are not at their destination yet. They're on a mission somewhere else, and they are flashing their lights.

“After that pause, there was suddenly another three jets that came by, and they stopped in front of the window; I saw they were all in the same formation one, two, three, wingtip to wingtip. They all had the red and yellow lights on top and the bottom of the jets. These guys were headed south, and they were flying even faster than the other two. And then they flew off just as fast as the first jets did, the ones heading north, but there was that pause. They stopped so I could see them real quick, and then took off and that sound of those F-16s going at high speeds, once again.”

And these have their red and yellow lights going on. I think I mentioned that the red and yellow lights indicate danger and caution. They also indicate to me a domestic flight. As you know domestic planes when they're flying have flashing lights, so that they can be seen. And on this last one, we just read of the black skies of September; the jets were flying faster and faster, that means the threat is getting closer and closer and more imminent. Okay let's read the Dana's next slide I have of his dream.

“And at this point I get up from my chair; I walk to the window and I'm looking outside and I immediately heard more jets coming but I can't see them and the sky is pitch black. I can't see anything else out there. Then another three jets appeared like over me and I'm seeing the backside of those three jets going away from me. I can see the afterburners on those engines. I can see the fire, the flame. And now they just take off and they're heading west as fast as they can.”

They came from the east and they dropped down in front of the church window, and they just take off crazy fast. Now these have no lights flashing. I think that indicates that now the battle is over America. When they go straight up, that means that the attack is right overhead. I suspect bombers. I'm sure that the fighter is going up to intercept overhead, and I explained that before when I did Dana's dream. This is slide number 10 of Dana's dream.

I did not see any flashing lights on this one because they did pause right at the window but all I could see was the exhaust and the flames coming off to move them; no flashing lights.

And they just sped out maybe, you know my estimation was, maybe a mile or two and suddenly they just went straight up I mean straight up. And I got to see those three F-16s just in formation, all three wing tip to wing tip, but no lights flashing.

And they went straight up and then I heard a sonic boom, one sonic boom, not three, one sonic boom and they were gone. I mean they were gone.”

So as I said, “no flashing lights” indicate that this battle is in this country. They're not they're not trying to give away their location. They've turned off the flashing lights. They don't want to be seen. Flying directly overhead straight up indicates that the enemy is now over this country, and it's the enemy is here in this country. As I say, this will occur in September. Okay let me go to the next slide I have one more slide of Dana's dream and then Amanda will explain what's going on.

“I pressed my face against the glass. There's nothing outside but pitch black sky. Three had gone north, three had gone south, and three had started west and then went straight up at great speed. And I was very perplexed, when the man that I see in my dreams walked over right in from the window and I could see his face. He pointed up and he said this: ‘Up is coming and it is beginning. All that you have braced for is for now. Up is coming and it is beginning and all that you have braced for is for now. Stay braced and ready, eyes on the prize and be steady in your steps.’”

So this is the second bear in Dana's dream, but it's actually the last bear in the prophecy, and in order to understand what's going on we have to look at Amanda's dream and we have to look at the second bear in Amanda's dream. Not the last bear, the second bear because the chronology in Amanda's dream must be seen as the same as the chronology in Dana's dream and it is complicated. It's sealed up.

This prophecy is sealed up just like prophecy in the Bible just like Daniel's prophecy is sealed up. This prophecy must be unsealed in order to understand it, and I would love to hear your comments on this. So now let's see how Amanda describes this last scene in Dana's dream.

Remember in the last dream we just had about Amanda she saw lots and lots of bears in her yard? And she sees a small bear and decides to pick it up. So let's see if we can pick up the story at this point.

“Then I pick the bear up with my hands. When I pick the baby bear up I look and there is this huge bear, way bigger than the first one. It was huge and it had three things in its mouth. I don't know what it was but it was three things (ribs)." And of course we know that they're ribs. "And it was you know, on four legs, doing something with these three things in his mouth. But then he stands up. When it is standing up I freaked out and dropped the baby bear and said let's run from here and we ran to the shed."

So now we know what's going to happen in September, if you know on what Daniel is talking about. The three ribs in the bear's mouth represent Britain, America and Russia itself. This is the World War 3. The bear is told to "arise and devour much flesh" in Daniel. So that's what is going to happen in September. That's why the sky turns black.

Now how can this be if the bear has been defeated as we see in the shed, because the bear is not, in this case threatening Ukraine, a little country? In this case the bear is going to chastise America. The bear is doing God's willing. This is not the same bear. This is not the bear with an evil face. This is the bear with three ribs in his mouth, and you have to read this in the order that it's given.

So is the media correct? The New York Times, the PBS, the Drudge Report, and I showed you those. I don't know if I read these headlines. "Ukraine Invasion Imminent? Russia, USA Pull Diplomats, Biden calls Putin, Oil Spikes." Dana and Amanda are saying that that will not happen, but that is caused by a satanic bear when Russia is under the control of Satan. That's the old face that Amanda sees, and then that bear is defeated by the wall. That is associated with Mary 5 5 5; a blue wall with the Immaculate Heart on it. That's what's going to prevent a Russia Ukraine war of Russia invading Ukraine.

So when does this happen in September if this is a chastisement from God on America? When is the bear going to arise and devour those three ribs? By the way don't listen to Stan Johnson on the Prophecy Club. He says the three ribs represent Estonia, Latvia and Ukraine. Well I don't think so. Anyway, in a way, I kind of hope I'm wrong. It'd be better to have a war over there than in our country, but I think Amanda and Dana are warning us.

Now, as you know, one year ago today on Super Bowl Sunday, and here's what I'm leading up to, is when this is going to occur in September, one year ago today Sister Reneé received a miraculous photograph from the Lord and I've showed this a gazillion times down here. I'm going to show once more, because it shows a naked harlot at the foot of the cross. The naked harlot refers to Britain and America primarily. Actually it refers to all the decadent west in the Book of Revelation, but Babylon the harlot is described as wearing fine linen and red and purple and scarlet. So why is she naked? She is naked after she is burned with fire as I have explained.

Now this is Sister Reneé's photograph that she received.

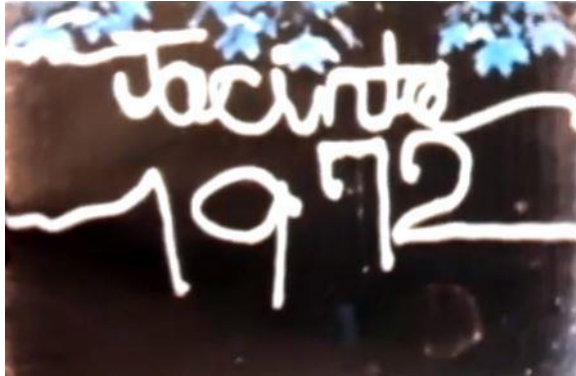

You see the naked harlot at the bottom. I hope it's not too sensual, but it shows that America, the naked harlot is not going to repent and accept Jesus on a crucifix until after she is burned with fire.

So what is significant about the timing of Sister Reneé receiving that photograph on Super Bowl Sunday a year ago, exactly a year ago? It's that it's prophesied in the Jacinta photograph.

This is from Bayside. Mary said this picture contains the day, the month, the hour, the year of the chastisement. Well if you look at the "2"; that is when Sister Reneé got her photograph, last year, February, she got it on the 7th. She got it at the 9 o'clock hour in Bayside and she got in 2021.

Sister Reneé's photograph showing the harlot being burned with fire in one hour refers to the chastisement of the United States. If you look at this part of the Jacinta 1972 photograph that's the United States up there, but I think this photograph also tells us when in September, Dana's dream is going to come true.

Remember Mary said this photograph contains the day, the month the hour and the year of the chastisement. She says it in that order. The day is the 1st, the month is September, (the "9"), the hour is 7am, and the year is 2022. So I think that Dana's dream and Amanda's dream and the Jacinta 1972 photograph are all related.

And we've been told the date that Russia will attack America. I hope that you got that message. The solution is given. I think we are going to be shown that Russia's attack in Ukraine which has been predicted all over the place; that can be stopped through Mary's Rosary by our remnant church. That's what Amanda is saying. That's what Dana's saying. That's what all that numerical symbolism is all about.

And we have five months to convert America so that we will start praying Mary's Rosary. Five months before September after the March flare-up; April, May, June, July, August, five months. One of my subscribers says that the five months represent Mary's Rosary also. They do and in those five months there are 153 days. That also represents Mary's Rosary, because there are 153 hail Marys in a five-decade mystery of the Rosary.

It's amazing that neither Dana Coverstone nor Amanda is Catholic and they are giving prophecies about the Rosary. I think one of the reasons the Lord chose them is to show that it's not a Catholic prophecy about the Rosary. That's the same numerology that we find in the Bible, and I've done many videos showing you that. In the Olivet Discourse Jesus has broken up the Olivet Discourse into a series of verses in which the 6 6 6 verses of the Tribulation are followed by the 5 5 5 victories of triumph.

So this channel will continue praying the Rosary. We are the remnant church that Amanda was talking about, and many of us are in our refuges. We're already in our sheds. That's where the Russian bear is prevented from attacking Ukraine. I think this will happen very quickly, and I invite everyone to join me, but many other people praying live rosaries you don't have to pray live. Sister Reneé does not like to pray live with other people on the internet and in a way I understand that myself. Sometimes I do, sometimes I don't. So I invite everyone who watches this decode, start praying the Rosary to save America.

It can be prevented, just like this invasion of Ukraine by Russia can be prevented; the last part of Dana's dream. That reminds me, the Thanksgiving Dream is tied into this, which Dana calls his Rockwell dream. He just received that yesterday. I will be doing a decode of that in another couple of days. It is tied into this dream.

Okay everybody, that is the conclusion of my decode. It's taken a little longer than I thought but we've had a lot of problems and I really don't think Satan wanted this information out there. And I think I'm right on it, but on the last decode, quite a few people added to it, and I may not have gotten all the points I wanted to make. I think I did.

Some people say the Super Bowl today between the Bengals and the Rams symbolized between China and the United States because the ram is part of Daniel's prophecy in chapter 8. The ram represents the same as the Scarlet Beast, in other words Britain and Russia, and if we're defeated by the Bengals this is the Year of the Tiger in China.

So it's up to us remnant, the "praying Church" as Amanda calls us. We are the praying Church. We're going to prevent Russia invading Ukraine, but can we prevent Russia attacking the United States? Can we do that? That's our huge challenge as far as I understand these dreams. So until I do see all of you again tomorrow same time, same station, may God bless all of you, and may all of you have a very blessed evening.
