

Three End Times Warnings to Israel and America

We are getting a great deal of warnings, not only from Almighty God but also from the Illuminati that we are indeed near the End and that includes disasters especially for the United States of America. And you, my subscribers, are keeping me very well informed about events which I have not been aware of and I thank you very much.

And I want to go over a few of these on this program and the first comes from my Web Manager in Australia and she writes: "I stumbled over this piece of news and thought it may be of significance. Two men were having an iron arm challenge to raise money for the Men of League Charity, one is named Ben Ross, a white man, and the other is named Wendell Sailor, a black man. The black man actually broke the white man's arm," and you can find this video on YouTube. It's kind of gruesome so I don't recommend it but you can see some still images: these are taken from Google Images. "I thought of Benjamin Netanyahu as the white man named Ben and the other man, Sailor who was black, I thought of Barack Obama. A nickname for homosexuals is 'sailor boy'".

Well, this is very possible that the "sailor boy", the black man in this arm wrestling tournament, does represent Barack Obama and the reason is because Barack Obama supports gay marriage and according to the Supreme Court you can label politicians what they stand for. For example, Al Gore is known as an environmentalist even though he may have never planted a tree in his life. You could call Hillary Clinton an abortionist because she supports legalized abortion and you can call Barack Obama, in other words the "sailor boy", a homosexual because he supports gay marriage and what is the significance? I believe the significance is that the "sailor boy", that is the black man, that is Barack Obama, will stop sending arms to Israel. I believe that is the prophecy included in this message and I think we are beginning to see that Obama does not support Netanyahu in any way, shape or form.

A second very interesting message I got, now this is from YouTubularbells and if you remember, I have done quite a few videos saying that the next false flag will be an 815 event; those numbers will be very prominent. And in the Charlie Hebdo massacre, the getaway car had 815 on its license plate in reverse, in other words, 518 and here's what YouTubularbells has discovered: "It seems to me no one noticed this so I'll point it out. In the full video showing the removal of the car believed to be used in the Charlie Hebdo attack not only is the car plate 815, that is backwards, but if you look at the crane being used to lift the car you will plainly see 815 on the crane arm." Very interesting. "This comes late in the full video but it is clearly printed on the arm lifting the car." Thank you very much YouTubularbells. I'll try to put the link below to that video so you can see it yourself.

And this next message comes from Jennifer, and I won't give you her full YouTube Handle, she may want to remain anonymous, I'm not sure. Jennifer, if you want to identify yourself below just mention it in the comments. "130th anniversary of France delivering the Statue of Liberty to the United States," and she's talking about this Google Doodle.

"Here is a new image I just caught June 16th. Looks to me like it could symbolize a rocket through the Statue of Liberty." Well, very good Jennifer. I think you are a 100 percent right. The sash around the Statue of Liberty's waist, of course, this is supposed to indicate that the Statue of Liberty was a present from France, that sash definitely looks like a rocket pointed directly at the red, white and blue ribbon which symbolizes the United States, and that rocket attack is breaking the Statue of Liberty in half and toppling it over so, very good observations all of you my subscribers who point these things out to me. In fact, if you look at these you may see more in this Statue of Liberty image. I did not take a close look at it so, all of you are helping me a great deal and to do my job, and that is to warn people that we are in the End Times and especially of the imminent danger to the United States.
