

Hidden Bible Prophecy in Psy's Video 'Daddy'

On this program I want to show how Psy's new music video called 'Daddy' is true prophecy from Almighty God and He is telling us that the Antichrist does not have a human father. He is telling us that the Antichrist is the Devil incarnate which is exactly what Mary says in the prophecies of La Salette. And, in fact, what the Bible says way back in Genesis 3:15 where God tells the serpent: 'I will put enmity between you and the woman and between your seed and her seed'; so we know the Antichrist is the seed of the serpent.

Now, I know some of you are going to say that God would never give true prophecy through a non Christian like Psy but, we've just seen true prophecy given by that Jewish teenager, Natan; and in fact, back in Daniel's time, it was King Nebuchadnezzar who wrote the fourth chapter of that book and he was a very famous, evil, and actually, a pagan king; so we know that true prophecy could be found in Psy's videos.

In fact, in 'Gangnam Style', we saw a lot of true prophecy; for example, we saw Britain and America blown up. We saw the opening scene where the fat man and the little boy do a dance; that was a reference to the two atomic bombs that fell on Japan. We saw the defeat of Pope Benedict by the Antichrist. Remember the man in yellow? He was defeated in a dance off and he drove away in a German car with the numbers 555 on its license plate and I told you ahead of time, that was a prophecy about the defeat of Pope Benedict and that prophecy came true.

So now, let's take a look at some of the scenes from this new video called 'Daddy' because 'Daddy' is Satan and the first question is very important: 'Where did you get that body from? Where did you get that body from? Hey-Where did you get that body from? Where did you get that body from? Where did you get that body from?' That phrase 'Where did you get your body from?' is repeated 10 times in this music video. Please notice that Satan, Psy is now playing an older person, has 6 gold teeth above, 6 gold teeth below, and of course we know those are numbers of the beast, and he has the word 'daddy' embossed on his upper 6 gold teeth.

Psy often wears outlandish costumes in his videos but I believe that this is a little more than what Psy usually shows. In other words, he is indicating here that he is playing a supernatural person, someone who is not completely human. Next, let's hear an answer to the question of where does he get his body from: 'I got it from my DADDY. I got it from my DADDY. I got it from my DADDY. Hey

Where did you get that body from?'

So the Antichrist gets his body from 'Daddy' and we know from this image, we see Daddy, that is Psy, as an older person, giving the devil's horns sign. One very clear indication that the figure of Daddy is more than just another human being. And now, in this next clip, we'll also see Daddy give another side of his character and that is as a magician; he is involved with the occult and with magic. 'Hold up wait a minute chi-gŭm-bu-t'ŏ sŏn-su-kki-ri pam-i a-kka-wŏ turn up louder..'

So we see Daddy, that is Satan, pull the ace of spades out of the deck of cards showing that he is involved in magic and once again he defeats someone dressed in yellow by the way. I'm not sure but that may indicate the defeat of the entire Papacy by Satan. And as in many of the other scenes in this video from Psy, all the women fall down.

And now let's take a look at another indication that Psy is in fact playing Satan as Daddy and we see Satan pull off a miracle.

Of course, because it's performed by Satan, it is a false miracle, but notice that this man, that is Daddy, is in a motorized wheelchair and there is a miraculous cure: 'Listen, Ma papa was a superman hey kŭ-dae-ro ba-da-wa-sŏ gŭ mom-mae...'

So we should not be surprised that Daddy, that is Satan, can perform false miracles. Scripture says that's one of his characteristics. So now let's look at another, what I consider a supernatural event, thereby telling us who this character 'Daddy' really is and in this case, he starts breakdancing and he turns into a tornado: '...shin-sa-i-gil gŏ-bu-ha-nŭn shin-sa i gu-yŏ-ge mi-ch'in-no-mŭn ba-ro na hey...'

So I think this video establishes fairly clearly that Daddy is, in fact, Satan. He turns into a tornado, that's a supernatural event. He gives the devil's horns sign. He performs a false miracle and he is involved with the occult, that is, with magic. So now let's take a look at this video where the Antichrist is born because that is the opening scene and it's very interesting that there is no music playing before the birth of the Antichrist.

It isn't until the attendant physician actually sees the face of the Antichrist that the music begins and that is a reference to Daniel because remember, King Nebuchadnezzar tells the people to worship the statue at the sound of the musical instruments.

'I got it from my DADDY.' So here we see an image of Psy playing the baby Antichrist and he gives the first of six winks of his eye. That of course is the one-eyed salute of the Illuminati. It shows that we are dealing with the Antichrist here and notice that the baby bonnet forms somewhat of a triangle and there's no doubt that is a symbol of the Antichrist and the One World Government. That's because the Antichrist rules the entire planet. He is at the top of the pyramid.

Next let's look at the five additional times that Psy, playing the Antichrist as a boy, also winks at the camera. And here he is, oh I would say, portraying the Antichrist at three or four years of age.

Then we see him in a school with a bunch of girls and whenever he points at the girls or winks at them they all fall down showing that he has tremendous powers over humanity.

Here we see Psy as the young Antichrist doing a rather vulgar and crude crotch-grabbing dance and please notice, during this dance, how he gives the devil's horns sign with both of his hands.

So we see that Psy, as a young Antichrist, not only gets his body from Daddy, that is from Satan, but also some of his demonic hand signs.

And now let's look at Psy as a schoolboy and he is flirting with the teacher. He gives his third wink in this clip. Here we see Psy winking at the teacher. I believe that is his fourth wink. As I say, there are six instances where he gives the one-eyed salute in this video.

And next we see him give the one-eyed Illuminati salute in the playroom in the school and finally, we see it in the closing image.

Most commentators on Psy's video believe that he is portraying three generations. Actually, that's not quite accurate. The boy and the adult man both represent the Antichrist. The older man in the center represents Satan and, of course, the Antichrist, both as an adult and as a boy, get their bodies from Satan and that is the clear message of this entire video and it coincides with Bible prophecy. This is, by the way, the sixth time the Antichrist as a boy winks at the camera. Six is another number for the Antichrist just as Daddy has six gold teeth above and six gold teeth below. The Antichrist is a duplicate, so-to-speak of Satan in this world. He is, in fact, the 'seed of the serpent'.

In this very final scene we see Psy playing the Antichrist and spraying the camera with black paint. This shows that he is bringing darkness to the world. I have commented several times on this program that Psy was delaying the release of this music video. He promised us more than two years ago that his next video would be called 'Daddy' but there was delay and delay and delay and the reason is because the Antichrist was not yet ready to be revealed. Now he is and that is the prophecy of this music video 'Daddy'. Not only does the Antichrist get his body from Satan, that is, he is the devil incarnate, it also indicates that he is just about ready to be revealed to the entire planet.
