

Complete Decode of Dana Coverstone's "Biden House" Dream

I have an interesting program I think you will enjoy today about Dana Coverstone's most recent dreams. And he received four dreams between January 10th until I think this past week, and they're all related.

He called them Biden's house, because they're four and they're all related as I say. And the first one was about the inauguration, and he did not publish it right away because he thought that it showed a possible assassination attempt, and he didn't want to bring that forward. And it was a good thing he did, because actually it's not a prophecy. These four dreams, although they are prophetic, they are not apocalyptic. It's not apocalyptic prophecy, it is symbolic. And so all of his people would say that what he prophesied at the inauguration, none of it came true, which is true, but it's not supposed to.

So I think we can start right now. And as I say he received this first dream on January 10th and that's a time stamp, just like most other of Dana Coverstone's dreams. He gives a timestamp, and in this case it's very specific, exactly which day it is. So let's look at the first part of the Biden Inauguration Dream.

The Biden Inauguration Dream

1-A) "I had this dream on January 10, 2021: The dream started with me standing at the bottom of the ceremonial area where the President is inaugurated. Everyone was dressed in blue jackets, blue dresses, and there was blue confetti being shot all over the place. Biden was asked to come and stand by the Chief Justice and he pushed a walker to do so, slipping and falling along the way twice. Each time, people looked away and nobody helped him up."

So, we see right away that this did not happen at the inauguration. Biden did not have to use a walker, and I'm sure people may have been not paying too much attention, but the point is, that this is a symbolic representation of the inauguration. And in fact, as we'll see in a minute, Chief Justice Roberts, I don't think he was even there. I think he was sworn in by someone else. And the blue clothing and the blue confetti, that obviously signifies the party that Biden belongs to. And as I said before, even though it is not apocalyptic prophecy, it still comes from Almighty God and that's important to understand.

I believe his dreams definitely come from the Holy Spirit. He is inspired and I haven't seen anything to question that yet. Now if this were apocalyptic prophecy, I'll give you an example. Biden's stumbling and bumbling throughout these four dreams would indicate something else. It would indicate the stumbling and bumbling of America for example, but instead, it is symbolic. I think what it symbolizes that he's pushing a walker for example, indicates that not that he is physically crippled but that he is mentally crippled. And we will see that especially in this next part. So let's look at the next part and I've divided this up mainly so I can make slides out of them, so everyone can see exactly what it is.

Chief Justice Roberts

1-B) His face was getting angry, but he kept smiling, even though he was in pain. He finally got to the stand area and was asked to raise his right hand, but he instead raised his left hand and began waving to the crowd. Justice Roberts began reading and asked Biden to respond. Robert started and said, "I, Joseph Robinette Biden, do solemnly swear." And then Biden stammered and said, "Robin and I solemnly swear," and then stammered again; and every single person on the platform was looking at their watches."

Now to me this is hilarious. It's humorous. When I listened to him, I laughed quite a few times during this prophecy and I don't know, does God have a sense of humor? I think He probably does. Either that or he's making fun of Biden. And why would God do that? I think to wake him up? He is in deep spiritual trouble, Biden is.

And, what this shows in this particular scene is that Biden can't follow directions. He waves to the crowd during a serious moment. He can't remember the words, and Justice Roberts just told him to repeat, and does that mean he has Alzheimer's? I know before the debates, he refused to take any kind of drug test, and in fact I don't know if he's ever had a health report. Has any health report ever been given on him? Most presidents have to give a report of their health.

And the people who are looking at their watches, I think they realize that this is all a charade and they can't wait until it gets all over with. And his own people obviously have no respect for Joe Biden, and that's what God is telling us in this dream to Dana Coverstone. Let's look at the next slide.

1-C) "Justice Roberts asked if he needed to repeat that phrase, and Biden slammed back, 'I'm not a stupid man, Judge.' And then he said, 'I, Senator-elect Biden, do hereby ...' and at that moment, a shot rang out and blood appeared on Biden's shirt. He said 'They got me right in the heart,' and he slammed his hand against his chest in almost an animated and over-dramatic fashion. He then fell backwards and hit his head hard on the floor. He shut his eyes and he smiled."

More humor if you ask me from Almighty God. And this sounds like a high school play, you know where the person is shot and maybe a western or something and he's got a ketchup packet in his hands and he presses it against him and of course the blood spurts out all over. That's what this reminds me of, and at the same time, I don't think this is a, (and I have to use the correct word here to get by the YouTube sensors) I don't believe this is a phony flag event. So let's call it a phony flag. It's not a phony flag event. This is again symbolic. This is part of a drama that God is showing us; a tableau let's put it that way, or a vignette.

And he may not be stupid as he claims, and I don't think he's stupid. I think Cherie Goff interpreted this dream along with Dana Coverstone in case you watched her interpretation, and she said she didn't think Biden was stupid. I mean you don't get to be as far up as he got by being stupid, but when he says, he's not stupid and right after that he says, "I Senator-elect Biden", shows that his mental acuity is in sharp decline. Let's look at the next slide.

1-D) "The crowd simply in a matter-of-fact way was cleared, they cleared the platform, and nobody was screaming or panicking over his death. Judge Roberts took off his black robe, he covered Biden's body. And then he took a bulging white envelope from his chest pocket and reached under the robe over Biden. He placed the envelope in Biden's left hand, and Biden's right hand reached out and shook the Judge's hand even though his head was not showing out from underneath the robe."

Again, the whole thing sounds so comical. I mean my comparison to a high school play I think is not too apt. I remember doing and being part of a play at Columbia University, and the opening day was called I think, Danton's Death. On the stage, the stagehands had left a huge gallon of paint right up by the lights, and when the crowd first ran out of the opening scene, one of the guys accidentally kicked the bucket of gallon of paint right into the front row, right onto a lady. And everybody was dressed up back in those days, and she had her furs on and everything and she was suddenly splattered with green paint. I think it was green, all over her fancy clothes. Anyway this scene of Biden's reminds me of that.

And now Cherie Goff had an interesting interpretation of the white envelope. She says it was bulging with payoff money. I think she said payoff. She said money. In other words Biden was being paid for acting as a front man, and that's what he is. I mean he's obviously not making any of the big decisions. I think people know that. And it's interesting the people on this stand in this dream, don't care a bit that Biden may have actually hurt himself when he fell and hit his head, but as I said this is not a phony flag event.

I think that Biden will be shot down, but symbolically, in other words he's going to be shot down by his own party. And very possibly and a lot of people are rumored about this, that he would be taken out by means of the 25th amendment. I think most people understand that the powers that be, want his Vice President to be President of the United States, and I think that's what Almighty God is verifying to us through this Biden dream by Dana Coverstone. Let's look at the next slide.

1-E) “The Judge started to move away, when blood appeared on Biden's chest, and the Judge was shot from behind and went to his knees. Men appeared in suits with ear-monitors and pulled away Biden's body. As they were pulling away his and Robert's body away, Biden spoke out from under the robe and said, ‘Hey man, I may be old, but please treat me with kid gloves, because you are hurting me.’ And the guards then kicked the body under the robe and pulled him up the stairs.”

As I say more humor. I laughed a whole lot of times when Dana Coverstone read his dream. And it's pretty clear that nobody, including the guards have any respect for Biden and it doesn't seem to bother him. And several others of Dana Coverstone's dreams indicate the same thing. And even when he's down and out, they kick him. And it's interesting that Justice Roberts is shot from behind in this dream. That also indicates to me that he will be betrayed as well. In fact I think Mark Taylor, who has lost quite a bit of his reputation as a true prophet, had said that several justices of the Supreme Court will be removed because of scandal. So that that may be what Dana Coverstone is receiving information about here.

Now we move on to the second dream, and this is also the second scene. I'm not sure how many scenes there are in this prophecy. There's four dreams which is an End Times number, and there's either four scenes or five scenes, so we can talk about that in a minute. Here's the start of the second dream. This is Dana speaking.

2-A) “Now we jump to Monday, March 1, 2021: I saw Air Force One. It was flying erratically in the sky. It would speed up, slow down. And then the right wing was shaking very, almost like something was loose or something was coming apart in that right wing. It was reckless flying, and there were no protective fighter pilots anywhere in sight. (Usually Air Force One is always covered by F-16s or F-17s.) It began to take an even more risky flying. And I found myself looking at the cockpit, from just inside of the cabin of Air Force One.”

So, one of the reasons I think that the first scene is not a phony false flag is because Biden is shown alive here. So it's all symbolic. And now the right wing of Air Force One, the one that's shaking, I think that could very well indicate that the right wing of the party is shaky, and that Biden's party is being dominated by the left wing. I think that's what that symbolizes. Let's look at the next slide.

2-B) “Biden was flying the plane and was pushing buttons and smiling when it made noises; he was pulling handles and moving things, yet the co-pilot was just looking out the window and ignoring President Biden completely. The President began to talk to himself; he got up, he looked out the window, he commented how blue the sky was and how far the ground was below. And then he sat back down in the pilot's chair and he nodded off to sleep.”

Like I say, I mean this the whole thing is a comedy. If Shakespeare wrote this, it would be a comedy, but this is just more indication that Biden is not really operating. His elevator doesn't go to the top floor I guess you could say. He doesn't have all his marbles, as we used to say when we were kids. This is not a prophecy that Biden is going to someday fly Air Force One. That's not what this is about. This is that symbolically, Biden is leading the country, and this is how he's leading the country, in the same way as he is flying the airplane. And so the second scene is showing the same kind of symbolism as in the first scene. And it's not a prophecy of Biden in the future. I think this is a prophecy of him right now in my opinion. I think this whole dream is a description of contemporary events in symbolic terms. Let's look at the next slide.

2-C) “The pilot next to him watched him nod off, and then he himself closed his eyes and started snoring after just a few minutes. There was suddenly a message from the cockpit that stated, ‘Auto-pilot has been engaged. But do not expect a smooth ride, even once we land.’”

So I think Almighty God is telling us, in this dream from the Holy Spirit to Dana Coverstone that Biden is not in charge of this country. A lot of people have speculated on that. And I suppose America can operate on autopilot; that is without a real present for a while, but I think God is telling us that we're in for a bumpy ride. Let's look at the next slide. This is another dream now. This is a new scene. We've seen the inauguration and we've seen Air Force One.

3-A) “Monday, March 8, 2021: I saw Biden sitting behind the Resolute Desk. He was struggling to stand up. Vice President Harris, who’d been standing behind him the whole time, came forward and helped him stand, revealing that there was a walker pulled out right in front of his desk. Biden looked incredibly frail as he grabbed the handles of the walker. And he tried to step but he could not get his legs to move. Harris then got behind him and pushed his feet with her feet, while she helped him balance himself to stand on the walker. He kept saying, ‘Slow down, please, I can’t go that fast.’”

And I suppose we shouldn't consider it funny, but it is. That's humorous and I think what we're seeing now is that Biden is actually in worse shape than this scene which is several months after the inauguration than he was before. And I'm sure that this physical debilitation that Almighty God is showing us indicates mental debilitation. Let me reach the next slide.

3-B) “When he got to the table in the office, he stopped and he patted a bust of Robert Kennedy; and he said, ‘Sorry, they got you, Bobby - but they had to, because they knew you knew too much.’ Harris said, ‘Sir we need to get you to your room, so keep moving.’ And Biden's response was, ‘Please don't take me there. I hate it there. I don't like the food or the smell of the air in that room.’ Harris kept pushing him to the point she was almost knocking him down over the walker. She pushed a button on her jacket and whispered that she needed an agent immediately to assist her with the Elder - that's what she called him, the Elder.”

So, it looks like they treat Biden as if he should be in a nursing home, I would say. And I was reading some of the comments under Dana Coverstone's dream which he described along with Cherie Goff and one of the comments was quite interesting. This person said, “What does this room signify that they're taking him to?” And this person suggested that maybe they are taking him to his eternal destiny. I think that's very likely. Now for the next slide:

3-C) “Two Secret Service agents walked in; and one loaded Biden onto the others back, almost piggy-back. And the agent carrying him, carried him through the wall-door and into an elevator. The other agent had pushed the buttons for the door and stood with his back to the door, as the doors began to close. He then hit his mike and said, ‘Elder secured and heading downstairs. Oval Office stable, and my eyes are on the door. What you do now, do it quickly.’”

And of course that, is a very ominous reference to the words that Jesus said to Judas just before Judas betrayed him. And is God telling us that there is a plot against Biden from his own people? I would say that's very likely what we are the information that we are getting in this dream. The next slide: now this is another dream from Dana Coverstone.

4-A) “And then earlier this week, March 10, 2021: The elevator door opened, and the man that I see often in my dreams was wearing a very expensive-looking suit. He walked out from that elevator to the Oval Office, and he stood behind the Resolute Desk. He suddenly grabbed that desk and upturned it and pushed it towards the front of the room. It ended up upside-down with two of the drawers out and the papers flying in the air towards the ground. This also revealed a bloodstain - a large, red bloodstain under the desk and the front of the desk where the President's chair sat as well.”

So, please notice that there are two blood stains. And the man in white who gives this commentary appears, and I think in practically all the dreams that I have seen of Dana Coverstone. And I was thinking what purpose he fulfills? And he is like in Greek literature they had, or in Greek place they had what they called a Deus ex Machina I think they called it.

So I looked up Deus ex Machina and it really follows this up perfectly. Here's what it says. “Deus ex Machina is Latin for a God from a machine. It refers to the crane that brought actors playing gods over the stage in Greek and Roman plays. They were dropped in often towards the end, to determine the ending and bring resolution. Well that's a perfect example of this man in white, he's a Deus ex Machina. Let's look at the next slide.

4-B) “And then the man spoke and he said, ‘Don't let the suit fool you, or the Office either. What's under the desk will eventually be seen, and the blood spilled as of late, as of late, is worse than at the beginning. Stay braced, for the winds are picking up according to my command, and the stakes have never been higher for your country or for your church.’ And then he stepped over the upside-down desk, leaving the room.”

So as I say, this man of white in previous dreams, it indicates, sometimes the Holy Spirit; in this case I think it represents Jesus. And he is telling us that don't pay any attention to the fancy suits that Biden wears or his high office. He is corrupt as we see in Dana's “Data Dream” and we are getting God's determination of Biden. And you can't pay attention to the externals. It's the inside that is corrupt, exactly the way Biden is depicted in the Data Dream and when God is telling us the stakes have never been higher, this is very serious this dream.

And I think the question is, can a country survive under this kind of leadership? As I've been saying since the inauguration. All ten sons of Haman, that is the kings of the Antichrist are now in place. And this is a challenge for us as Christians. How do we react? This is our final exam, and this dream from Dana Coverstone is verifying that. Now the last section:

4 - C) “And as he did, the desk seemingly faded, almost like it just disappeared, almost like the disintegration you would have seen in Star Trek when they were being beamed up or beamed down. (They just kind of dematerialize). The desk simply faded into nothing. And the bloodstains glowed red, almost like they got thicker. They glowed red, and all of a sudden they burned a hole through the ground; and just left a hole in the carpet, with the red edges around it. That's when I woke up.”

Okay here's the final conclusion to the dream and it's pretty serious, as far as Biden goes. The red glow, I think is pretty obvious, that indicates fire. The burning through the ground; that's pretty obvious, that indicates Hell. I believe this is a judgment from Almighty God. And if Biden stays on his current course, that's where he's going to wind up. But remember, there are two blood stains, right? Yes, and the man also said, “As of late, as of late” twice. So it isn't only Biden that's going to suffer the judgment.

Who is the other person who is condemned to Hell in this dream? What if you go back to the very first scene, the Inauguration Scene. Both Biden and John Roberts were symbolically shot if you remember. And, remember the two blood stains? There was a large red blood stain under the President's chair. That would be Biden.

But there was also a blood stain in front of where the President's chair sat as well. I'm quoting that exactly from what he said. So the two blood stains mirror the locations of Biden vis-à-vis John Roberts at the inauguration, the first scene. They were standing across from each other, the same two locations, the same two spots of blood, and they both turned into the hole to Hell. And they both wear fine suits. They both hold high office. I think that it's pretty obvious that the conclusion to this dream is, that both are on the road to Hell. And what's interesting is that they are both professed Catholics.

All right, I think that concludes the dream and that is my conclusion to the dream. I think I have interpreted it correctly and any of you may add your own comments, if you disagree or if you have any additions. I read all of the comments on Dana Coverstone and Cherie Goff's presentation, and there were some interesting comments. So in fact I got the one out of there that I mentioned. I usually don't read other people's interpretation. The reason I did it this time is because I didn't want to duplicate what other people have already done. and no need to do it, but I do think this is a fascinating dream and I hope somebody tells Biden and Roberts that. Just because they are so-called practicing Catholics, that's not going to save them, if they continue the path they are going.

Until I do see all of you again may God bless all of you and may all of you have a very blessed day.
