

Watch Now Before YouTube Blocks This Video

Well, as you my subscribers are aware of, I am sure by now, YouTube, last weekend, removed my video about Psy's 'Dream of Goose' and as I said at that time, that video showed not only the reign of the Antichrist but also his demise (1). I was upset at the time and I posted an appeal to them; at which time they removed the video completely and that really got me upset because I believe the video contained true prophecy.

However, I am now beginning to believe it was a blessing in disguise. Normally I would say the censoring by YouTube editors was a huge mistake; and I would advise them to read II Kings where 42 youths made fun of the Prophet Elisha and God sent two she bears out of the woods to tear those youths apart; and that was just for the mocking of God's Prophet. In this case, YouTube blocked true prophecy and I would say 'Woe, woe, woe' to you people who are blocking true prophecy.

But, in this case, I believe it was partly my fault. In other words that video contained true prophecy and Almighty God wanted that prophecy brought forward at this time. So now, I am going to upload the parts of that video which I know will pass the censors and I hope this will appease God's wrath and I hope it gives a complete picture of what our Lord wants you to understand about the Antichrist, so let's begin.

This is really amazing but the Korean pop star Psy is still continuing to give us prophecies about the Antichrist. In his newest video, 'Dream of Goose,' which you can find on his official Psy Channel, he is predicting the end of the Antichrist after which he will be cast into Hell. This is one of the most fascinating videos I have seen yet from Psy about the Antichrist and we've already seen that he has done two videos about the rise of the Antichrist and how the Antichrist will defeat Britain, America and the Catholic Church.

I originally uploaded this video two and a half years ago, in July of 2012, and the quality is not that great, plus, as soon as I heard that YouTube was going to block that video, I made a copy of it off the screen so the quality is rather fuzzy but I hope you get the message just the same. So first, let's take a look at the opening scene from 'Gangnam Style' which is a prophecy about nuclear warfare.

As one of my subscribers pointed out, the fat man and the little boy are the nicknames which were given to the first two atomic bombs dropped over Japan. This is not accidental.

'Gangnam Style' is a prophecy of the downfall of Britain and America in WW3. Next, Psy's mega-hit 'Gentleman', which followed 'Gangnam Style', also had Psy performing the role of the Antichrist. This traffic cone which you see Psy kick over represents authority, especially the authority of the Catholic Church.

But did you also hear the gun shot? When Psy points his finger at the camera and you hear the gunshot, the screen opens up into a black void which symbolizes the Great Tribulation which will fall upon the planet after the Antichrist takes over. This very interesting clip where the screen goes black after the gunshot from the Antichrist is very reminiscent of Psy's new video 'Daddy' which ends with the Antichrist painting the screen black. It visibly shows that the reign of the Antichrist will be a horrifying experience for all of mankind.

And now, let's go back to his video 'Gentleman' where we see an image of Psy taken right out of the pages of the Apocalypse (Revelation 13:2). Notice in this clip how Psy is standing on a black circle and a white circle, which symbolize the spots of a leopard; he is crouching like a bear and he is snarling like a lion. Believe me, none of these things is accidental. Psy is indeed depicting the Antichrist in all of his videos.

I want to address at this time what I know will be some people's objections: they don't believe that a pagan, like Psy, could give true prophecy; but, as I always remind people, take a look at Daniel where King Nebuchadnezzar, a pagan king, gives true prophecy of these End Times. So that brings us up to Psy's newest video posted on his official YouTube site 'Dream of Goose' which I believe is a very important prophecy of the reign of the Antichrist and how his life will end.

Notice I did not say how he will die because, according to Bible Prophecy, he is cast alive into the lake of fire, he never actually dies. In addition, Psy is shown in a very spectacular fashion flying over the crowd in this arena.

Now, the following part I have had to remove due to the YouTube censors and I have used screenshots instead. I hope this satisfies Almighty God for His requirement of getting this message out. Is Psy telling us in this spectacular flying scene from his concert in Seoul South Korea that the Antichrist will try to imitate Lucifer as described in Isaiah: 'I will ascend into heaven. I will exalt my throne above the stars of God. I will ascend above the heights of the clouds. I will be like the Most High.'

Next, let's look at some of the very interesting lyrics to this song 'Dream of Goose' which could also be applied to prophecies of the Antichrist from Scripture. 'One day I will jump over the wall', and of course, the lyrics tell of a goose gaining its freedom.

That's why Psy is flying over the crowd but it could also be applied to the Antichrist.

Notice how the fans adore Psy, in much the same way as the entire population of the world will adore the Antichrist. 'Even this burdensome world can't tie me up'. The Bible says there is a restraining force on the Antichrist and this video is prophesying that the Antichrist will break through this restraining force and he will rule the planet. And the next lyrics are the most interesting: 'At the end of my life.' So what actually happens to the Antichrist at the end of his life? Remember what Scripture says: both he and the False Prophet will be cast alive into the lake of fire.

And now, we come to the grand climax of this video and we should not be surprised that it features the Illuminati pyramid and the All-Seeing-Eye. The pyramid of the Illuminati symbolizes the One World Government and all power will flow down from the dictator at the top, who is the Antichrist; so we should not be surprised to see Psy sitting on top of this pyramid. And the All-Seeing-Eye, of course, symbolizes Big Brother watching every movement of all of us. Both of these will be features of the Antichrist's One World Tyranny.

But what happens to the Antichrist according to Bible Prophecy? He will be 'cast alive into the lake of fire'. And amazingly, this 'Dream of Goose' video shows Psy descending to the depths; he is being cast into the lake of fire. Take a look at this amazing clip. Unfortunately I cannot show that original clip from my 'Dream of Goose' video because of the YouTube censors. I hope the message comes across using still shots.

Thus, this 'Dream of Goose' video concludes with the Antichrist at the end of his life and it coincides amazingly well with Bible prophecy. First we see Psy at the peak of the Illuminati pyramid and next we see him descending into Hell; and please note that skull. Let's take a closer look at that incredible image. Of course, this image is supposed to be a logo of Psy but notice how the mouth of the logo looks like the nose cavity of a human skull and Psy's bow tie looks like the teeth of a skull.

I'm sorry you cannot watch my original video but the gods of YouTube, that would be the Antichrist, wanted to censor the truth about the reign of the Antichrist and how he will be at the peak of the Illuminati pyramid and the One World Government will be a tyranny. However, the end of the Antichrist will not be pretty and I hope this message comes across. If not, 'woe, woe, woe' to you censors at YouTube.
