

The “Three Dragons” Dream

I have a very special program tonight and that is a decode of Dana Coverstone's latest dream called the “Three Dragons” Dream and I wish Cherie Goff would get it right one of these times and then I wouldn't have to do a video. And so I was watching her decode, and Dana as usual spent about eight or nine minutes describing the dream, and then Cherie tried to explain it in about 35 or 40 minutes and I said, well I'll listen to it.

And she got the very first dragon wrong and I said I'm not even going to watch it, but I did eventually watch the rest of it while I was doing something else. But of course you know if she got it right then I would be out of a job so, on this program we're going to get it right.

First I thought I would give you my address and show you my books before we start the program and then we'll do the decode. So here's my address for those of you who may be new to the program William Tapley Post Office Box 291 Osage, Iowa, 50461. So if you want to write to me, that's my address and if you would like to order my books use the same address, and I have four volumes in “The Holy Spirit Guide to End Times Prophecy”. This is volume 3, I believe, “Mary Will Crush the Head of the Serpent”, though all four volumes are called “The Holy Spirit Guide to End Times Prophecy” and if you go to my website thirdeaglemedia.com, click on the newsletter tab and under the newsletter tab there is a July newsletter and the second page of the July newsletter is an order form.

If you want to order the books right away you can go to the donate button and there is a Paypal on there, and if you want to read the books ahead of time, all of the writing, all of the illustrations, all the charts are on my website printed in their entirety. And there's an important chart for example that shows you what Daniel 9:26 and 9:27 are all about.

There are still people on YouTube telling you that the Antichrist signs a peace treaty with Israel which is phony baloney, but they've been preaching that for 30 or 40 years now, but anyway if you want to know the truth, you can order these books and they're printed under the Transcript tab on my website.

Okay now that housekeeping is out of the way, we can concentrate on Dana Coverstone's dream, and it is kind of an interesting dream. It's about three dragons and the dragons are red, white and blue. Well Cherie didn't get that right away. That means that this dream was for America which is not surprising. All of Dana Coverstone's dreams are for America, but very often it's for the whole world and in this case it's for the whole world, besides specifically for America.

And then the very first dragon was the red dragon and she said that was not Satan, and of course it's Satan. She said it's a principality. I don't know where she came up with that term. This dream is also however very important, not just for America but for the Catholic Church. It's a warning to the Catholic Church. It's amazing that God is giving warnings to the Catholic Church through an evangelical pastor.

In fact quite a few of his recent dreams have involved the Catholic Church and Mary, and he doesn't recognize it of course but that's why I'm a co-prophet. I mean Daniel didn't understand any of his dreams, so there's no shame on Dana's part I mean he has a wonderful gift. For over a year and a half now I think, almost two years the Holy Spirit has been giving End Times prophecies through Dana Coverstone.

So the red, white and blue dragons indicate America, but it also helps us to identify who the dragons are. As I say, Cherie Goff got it wrong, but we'll get it right. And the three dragons also indicate the unholy trinity of the End Times and that would be Satan, the Antichrist and the False Prophet.

As we go through this, I think you'll see, and it's not obvious I mean if it were obvious, Cherie Goff and everybody else would understand it, but it's not obvious. That's why Jesus spoke in parables. He said not everybody's meant to understand it. Not everybody's going to understand Dana Coverstone's dream, and we have to remember as we go through this dream that dragons represent both kings and kingdoms. And we know that from Daniel's prophecy in his chapter number 7, because he sees the beasts, the lioness, the bear and the leopard. They come up out of the sea. That's where Daniel sees them come. The angel says they come up out of the earth, and there's no discrepancy there because they are both kings and kingdoms, and we'll see that that's the same in Dana Coverstone's dream also.

So let's start. Slide number one the "Three Dragons" Dream.

"The dream started with very clear and snow-covered mountains in a vast background. It reminded me of scenes you'd see from the Himalayas or Mount Everest and places like that. I could see a large object flying in the sky near the mountains that appeared to be red and I could see it had wings. As it got closer I realized it was a very large red dragon and it was flying low over the land."

So I think this first dragon is pretty easy to identify. I mean even though Cherie Goff got it wrong, this is Satan, because a large red dragon is found in the Book of Revelation and it's Satan. Let me give you that quote. This is from Revelation chapter 12

verse number 9. "And that great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, who seduces the whole world; and he was cast unto the earth, and his angels were thrown down with them."

So we've got the description in the Book of Revelation almost identical to Dana's description of the red dragon in his dream. Here's what Cherie Goff said. Cherie said that all three dragons were principalities. I don't know what she means by that, but she was very quick to tell us that. She would let us know what principalities are if you go to her channel. In fact three or four times she promoted her channel. I don't know why Dana Coverstone puts up with her. She hogs the program. She spends three times as much time interpreting, giving a false interpretation plus promoting her channel. Anyway she said she would explain principalities. I don't know if that's a newer video she's going to do, or if it's on her channel.

Anyway, I suppose you could say they are principalities but they represent specific principalities. Who are they? Who do they represent? And these snow-covered mountains; now I think Cherie might be right on there. She said it represents the mountain of God, and that's possible, but the snow-covered mountain, and it's like a vast expanse, I think it indicates the entire planet. So this prophecy is a warning to America, but also to the entire world.

Now the snow, even though that's a typical landscape of the Himalayas or Mount Everest I think he mentioned, in this case I think it's a time stamp. In other words I think Dana's dream, and we'll get into this story, that it's a warning to the Catholic Church; I believe that this dream will be fulfilled this winter. I think that's what the snow indicates. Okay now let's look at the next slide, part number two of Dana Coverstone's "Three Dragons" Dream.

“And there were groups of people working that land underneath and that dragon seemed to be threatening to blow fire at them. And when he would fly over they would just kind of look down, look up and get back to work and stay busy. These people would get on their knees and they would beg that the dragon would not kill them with fire. So they were aware that this dragon was some type of leader over them or had power over them.”

And that's not surprising, I think the Bible says that Satan is the lord of this world (2 Cor: 4:4) and we see that all around us. You don't have to go far to see that people worship Satan. So Dana Coverstone's prophecy is right on track as far as I can see. Okay let's look at the next slide.

“The dragon looked like it was very, very old yet was respected by the people and it seemed to have power over them. It moved with this elegance and grace and speed; and there was an arrogance. It had this arrogant, almost like a sneer on his face as it flew over. The red dragon flew over the very large territory below but the landscape was heavily controlled by people that were down there and you could see they were serving the red dragon. They had a crest on their clothing with a red dragon on their vests.”

So, here we see in Dana's dream, this red dragon is described as very old. Isn't the nickname for him, old red legs? And so I don't see how you can say this first red dragon is anyone but Satan. And it's not surprising that in his dream Dana sees that the people or the followers of Satan wear his mark. I'm not sure that's the Mark of the Beast or not, but we know that just as Jesus anoints us with the sign of the cross on our forehead, the followers of Satan will be marked, in this case on their vests, according to a Dana's dream. Let's look at the next slide.

“They pushed the other people around and were beating them into compliance. But those people, everybody, even the people watching and maintaining the people, they kept lifting their eyes to the dragon to confirm he was watching them lead under his authority. In other words, the people on the ground wanted that red dragon to know that they were doing what he wanted them to do.”

And we see that all the time. One of the ways that you know that people are honoring Satan is they use the number 6 6 6. They use that to get his approbation, to get his approval and his support.

And I showed you that on this program for example, the barcodes that you see in grocery stores; the starter numbers they call them are 6 6 6. You don't see those numbers. They are hidden under the two thin lines. Those two thin lines represent the number six, and the first middle and last line; the double lines represent 6 6 6.

And you see it for example on Super Bowl halftime shows. They give homage to Satan all the time, so Dana's dream I think is pretty accurate as far as a description of Satan and his followers on this earth. Let's get to the other next dragons. What is the next dragon? My next slide:

“I looked back towards the mountains and I saw what I believe to be a large blue object circling at a little lower altitude initially than the red dragon. As it got closer I could tell it was a blue dragon that appeared to be flying under the influence of something. It looked like he was drunk and he wasn't flying with the grace and speed and accuracy of the red dragon but he was just kind of swerving; almost hit the ground at least twice as it flew.”

Well you know when I first watched his video describing this. This reminded me of Joe Biden right away, stumbling around. When I got to thinking about it, that's not too bad an interpretation. Biden is one of the sons of Haman. In other words he's one of the kings of the Antichrist, so he would be a good precursor of the Antichrist. And the blue color, the blue dragon, that's the color for the Democrat party, and I don't think it's too much of a stretch to say that this blue dragon represents both the king and the kingdom that is both the Antichrist and the kingdom of the Antichrist, which is the One World Communist tyranny.

And right now the Democratic party is promoting the Communist agenda in the United States. I think people are beginning to realize it, and this use of the color blue to represent Communism, although it's not the traditional color to represent Communism, since the color red was already used up, so to speak, with a red dragon we find that blue color also in Dana Coverstone's blue wave dream. Remember that one? Where he said that the blue wave is going to inundate America and we will be up to our knees in the blue wave? A lot of people said, oh that must be Mary. I said, no that's Communism, and my interpretation has come true.

This was before the blue wave and I said that the blue wave represents the Democrat party bringing in Communism. I said that, and that was my interpretation and that has come true. Now let me see, my next slide:

“It” and that is the blue dragon, “was yelling at people in a very, very deep voice almost on purpose forcefully making his voice low, informing the people that they would get nothing and like it. So the leaders that these blue dragons had were telling the people you'll get nothing and like it. These people also had a sickle on their vest, like the crest from the red dragon, and they began pushing these people into factories and warehouses with poles and rifles. And the blue dragon landed and he sat on the ground and he dozed off almost like into a drunken stupor. He would doze off and on, would wake up demanding that people listen or he would burn them with his breath. He was very arrogant as well.”

So I'm telling you this blue dragon represents the Antichrist. This will be like the reign of the Antichrist, and notice that the followers of the Antichrist have a sickle on their vests. I'm surprised Cherie Goff didn't understand that. She said that the sickle represented the Grim Reaper. I don't believe it. I believe this indicates Communism. That's what the Antichrist, the kingdom of the Antichrist, the One World Government will be, a Communist tyranny.

And this One World Communist tyranny is described in the Book of Revelation as the Scarlet Beast, but in that case the word “scarlet” has another purpose and other meaning. It's actually to show that the False Prophet will be a cardinal in the Catholic Church if you understand extrapolation.

And not all the descriptions in this dream of Dana Coverstone match the Book of Revelation. For example the Antichrist in the Book of Revelation is described as a “beast from the sea” and here we see the blue dragon is flying through the air just like the red dragon. So if the descriptions as I said were all identical then it would be easy to identify all of these. You have to look a little deeper and Cherie Goff might have gotten it right if all the descriptions were identical. Okay let's look at the next slide I've got here.

“The next thing I heard was what sounded like thunder and explosions and I looked to the skies to see a very large white object racing towards me. As it closed in I could see it was a very young energetic white dragon, almost being playful like a puppy moving all over the place. It was moving with great skill and with great speed and accuracy unlike either of the other two dragons. It swooped down over many places leaving something in the hands of the people it approached. It was flying over the people that the red and blue dragons were over. These people had no fear and they ran towards the dragon each time it appeared.”

Okay, now who is this white dragon? Well, by the process of elimination, if the three dragons represent the unholy trinity of the End Times, we've already seen Satan, we've already seen the Antichrist; this white dragon must represent the False Prophet and his kingdom which would be the Roman Catholic Church. And one indication is that the Pope always wears white. So although the colors don't match the Book of Revelation, they do make sense.

And so this young dragon shows both a young church, that's the kingdom of the False Prophet, and a young False Prophet; a young Cardinal Bergoglio and I'm sure that Jorge Bergoglio when he was a young seminarian, he was religious, pious and idealistic. I don't have any doubt about that, and of course we know the Catholic Church brought Christianity; brought Christ to the world. So the church was young and vibrant at one time, but we know from Mary's prophecy at La Salette that Rome will lose the faith, and become the seat of the Antichrist, and I think that's what Dana's dream is verifying here.

And this part of the dream of the white dragon and what happens to it, is actually the most important part of this prophecy. And I believe that what we are going to see what happens to this white dragon is going to happen to the Catholic Church this winter. That's my addition; my prediction. Okay let's look at the next slide I've got here.

“They looked up and pointed. There were other people who were waving their arms and trying to get the dragon's attention and when he saw them he would swoop down, drop things to the people, and then the people would clap their hands and dance and cry because they were very excited, very happy. The white dragon did this constantly for a while and then he slowly and methodically sat down and began to sleep on top of these snow-covered mountains.”

Pope Benedict

So I think this is accurate. Both the church and Bergoglio were very welcomed by people at first. Of course the welcoming of the church was thousands of years ago, and Bergoglio was welcomed just a few years ago, and to tell the truth I actually supported Bergoglio at first, when he first became pope. I had predicted when I first came on YouTube 13 years ago, that the pope after Pope Benedict would be the False Prophet. Well it turned out that was true, but when Pope Francis first came on the scene I supported him. You can look at my videos, you'll see that I said, "Gee he doesn't seem like that bad a guy". Well I soon learned different.

But the point is that I think Dana Coverstone's prophecy is correct and this prophecy of Dana's is a verification of Mary's prophecy at La Salette that Rome will lose the faith, and become the seat of the Antichrist, and that prophecy by the way is approved by the Catholic Church. Okay let's look at the next slide I've got here of Dana's dream.

“And as he slept the red dragon flew high over the white dragon. And then the red dragon attempted to get closer. The white dragon would rise up and would fly towards the red one and the red one would flee. The white dragon would fly back and began resting again on the mountain top and it settled in when the blue dragon attempted by the same approach flying closer to it. The white dragon had popped one eye open when the blue dragon began circling, he immediately chased the blue dragon away.”

Well I think this has been the history of the Catholic Church. There's no doubt that Satan and the forces of the Antichrist are enemies of the white dragon. They've always been enemies of the Catholic Church and we know this. Even Saint Paul said that at his time the forces of the Antichrist were already opposing the young Christians. So this is another image that could be in the Bible; Dana Coverstone's dream.

I mean I don't think Cherie Goff got the picture. I shouldn't probably pick on her you know. He thinks she's right on, but it's not surprising that Dana doesn't understand his own dreams, and prophets aren't supposed to; really they're not supposed to understand apocalyptic prophecy and that's what this is, this is an apocalyptic dream that Dana Coverstone had.

The Bible says in the End Times, “Your young men shall have visions and your old men shall dream dreams”. I mean that's Bible prophecy. We shouldn't be surprised that it's coming true. I think it's surprising that an evangelical has a prophecy about the Catholic Church, but I think Dana will convert. Anyway let's look at the next slide I've got here.

“The white dragon dropped items off for the people who were asking for them, but then he slowed down and as he did this, the white scales began to turn yellow and I saw wrinkles on his face. It was almost as if I was watching this white dragon age right as I was watching it. Some of his talons were broken and unsharp and there were a few patches of wings and scales that appeared scarred and just damaged obviously from battles and from war.”

of the Catholic Church

Paragraph 677:

The Church will enter the glory of the kingdom only through this final Passover, when she will follow her Lord in his death and Resurrection.

It's interesting that this destruction of the Catholic Church which Dana Coverstone was about to show, is prophesied by the Catholic Church itself in the catechism. The catechism of the Catholic Church says that the church will follow her Lord in his death and resurrection. I never thought I would see it in my lifetime, but that prophecy is coming true.

Jesus prophesied the same thing in the Bible when he said, “Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up again”. Now everybody knows He's talking about his body at that time. In other words his enemies destroyed his body, crucified him and he raised it up again in three days. But that's also an End Times prophecy and it's apocalyptic prophecy, I mentioned before in this program.

You can tell it's apocalyptic. One of its signs is of the numerology. I call it the shortest apocalyptic prophecy in the Bible. Not only does He mention the number 3, but he divides the prophecy up into three parts; destroy this temple, and in three days, I will raise it up again. That's one of the signs of apocalyptic prophecy. Okay let's look at Dana's next part of his dream.

“The white dragon looked exhausted and began to ignore the calls of the people requesting his help. He just climbed, he didn't fly, he climbed slowly up the mountain appearing to age even more quickly as he was doing this. So he was aging before and now he's aging even faster. So instead of flying, he walks up there, he lays down on the top of it and he went to sleep. The red dragon soon began flying high above the sleeping one, flying down close to provoke but not getting any movement from the white dragon.”

So, the white dragon climbing up the mountain instead of flying tells us that the church has lost its spirituality, lost its faith and it is now in conjunction with the world, as I've been saying on this program quite a while now. Any church that closes doors during a pandemic has lost the faith, and that's what we see in Dana Coverstone's dream of “The Three Dragons”, as typical of apocalyptic prophecy.

Apocalyptic prophecy has more than one meaning and we've already seen that these dragons indicate both the king and the kingdom just like the beasts of Daniel. And as I was studying Dana's dream, I began to think that this reminded me a lot of the prophecy of the bishop dressed in white in Fatima.

Lucia, Francisco and Jacinta

Remember the three seers, little Jacinta, Francisco and Lucy? They see a bishop dressed in white. That's what they called him, “a bishop dressed in white”, climbing a mountain at the top of which he is martyred, and they commented. They said, “We thought he was the pope.”

Pope Francis

So now I have always predicted that the bishop dressed in white was Pope Benedict, because he's a true pope as the seer said that we thought he was the pope. But this is interesting; are you aware of this that Pope Francis says that he is the bishop dressed in white? He's well aware of the prophecy, and he claims to be the bishop dressed in white.

So I'm wondering, maybe he will be martyred. I have often questioned what is the False Prophet's role after the Antichrist takes over the Vatican? What would be his role? It's very possible he will be murdered, at least that's what Dana Coverstone's dream may be indicating and I'm not saying that for sure.

Now it could be any winter but Dana Coverstone's dreams have usually come true within three to four months, and I think it's very possible that we'll see the bishop dressed in white martyred this winter. Okay let's look at the next slide I've got here.

“He was flying down close enough; just imagine a fly buzzing over your head and your hand would come up. The white dragon didn't move and it cried out with a loud roar and the blue dragon came flying closer to the red dragon. So it's the red dragon who roared out, the blue dragon comes flying close, and together they approach this sleeping white dragon. Both dragons had rope and like chains in their talons and they tied up the white dragon who never woke up, he never moved.”

That white dragon just laid there carefully, quietly and didn't do a thing. And the people around on the ground area continued to beg for help but the white dragon lay still. They were actually yelling ‘wake up, wake up’. They were trying to get him to wake up and nothing was happening. He didn't even open an eye. He was unaware of anything that was going on.”

Well we see that today. How many of us are saying the same thing to the Catholic Church, “Wake up, wake up”?

Archbishop Viganò

I mean this channel we've been saying it for a long time. Michael Voris, Return to Tradition, Sensus Fidelium, Archbishop Viganò; they're all over YouTube and they're all saying the same thing, and that is to wake up. So I think Dana Coverstone is right on target here as far as the fate of the Catholic Church in these End Times. Okay let's look at the next slide:

“And then the red and blue dragons began to work together to finish securing that sleeping dragon which also seemed to have grown in size by about 10 times. The sleeping giant was now muzzled. He was tied to the ground and the wings had been clipped so this dragon could never fly again. The white dragon began to shake but he could not move and the eyes bulged almost getting red and where the wings had been that the shaking made a sound like sheet metal being twisted in a storm.”

So this defeat of the Catholic Church is pretty overwhelming because Dana says the white dragon will never fly again. In other words we'll never be spiritually pure or correct. The dogma, the faith will have been lost in other words. And it's an interesting side note here that Dana says that the white dragon increased in size by 10 times. Well the Catholic Church from its beginnings did increase greatly in size, to the point that the Catholic Church is now the largest Christian denomination on the planet, so that is an accurate prophecy.

The king fulfils that prophecy also. The king and the kingdom grew but all you have to do is to look at Pope Bergoglio and know that he has also increased. I wouldn't say 10 times in size, but he has certainly gained a lot of weight since his seminary days. And it's interesting that Dana Coverstone notes that the white dragon has gained in size. It's true. The next slide:

“The blue dragon sat down beside the muzzled giant, and whispered in his ear, ‘finished and done, you are, you are’. The white dragon shook himself against the restraints but finally gave up. He shed several tears and enclosed his eyes that were still bulging. Almost as if the pressure from being tied up was so tight his eyes were bulging. And then under the muzzle he took a deep breath. Smoke came out of his nostrils and the people he had helped began to spit on him and walk away in disgust.”

Well we see that too. The media, you suppose they're letting up on the Catholic Church? Of course not. Their attacks on the Catholic Church are increasing. You see more and more desecrations of Catholic Churches, statues, graffiti etc. They are spitting on the white dragon, just as Dana Coverstone predicts here. As the Catholic Church was dying, the people are kicking a dying horse, and Dana Coverstone is right on, and so was my interpretation that this white dragon does represent the False Prophet and the Catholic Church. Okay let's look at the next slide. We're almost near the end everybody.

“The red dragon walked up with the blue dragon and they laughed at the corpse. As they started to fly off, the red dragon put a leash on the blue dragon and the blue dragon looked back and snarled as the red dragon just kind of winked and said, right back to where we started. And they took flight with the red dragon leading the way and the blue dragon flying behind and the snow began falling on the mountains like a blizzard scene.”

That's kind of interesting. This death of the Catholic Church evidently is going to have repercussions in nature, and I think that's what's indicated by the blizzard. And Jesus said there would be earthquakes in diverse places and that's exactly what we're seeing; volcanoes, earthquakes, tsunamis, tornadoes. We had quite a few tornadoes here in Iowa just this past week, and of course the huge one across Kentucky what was it 200 miles long. I think it set some kind of record as the longest in American history. These are signs that the Catholic Church is dead.

And it's interesting that in this image, that of the blue and the red dragon, that the red dragon put a leash on the blue dragon. That means Satan has full control over the Antichrist. So far all these details in Dana's dream seem to be panning out. Okay next section:

“As I watched the dragons fly away, my focus came back on the mountains in the background and that was when I saw the man I see, walking towards me with a walking stick in both of his hands. He had a walking stick in each hand. He was wearing the outfit of a soldier prepared for battle and he had a military backpack on his back with the straps around both arms. He stopped right in front of me. He pointed to the sky with his hand almost as if he was saying look at the sky, look at this vast expanse. Look at the horizon.”

As I mentioned before this vast expanse indicates the entire planet, so this prophecy is for the entire world, specifically for the Catholic Church, specifically for America but also for the entire world. The Man in White in most of Dana's dreams symbolizes usually Jesus; Almighty God; although Dana never identifies him as Jesus. He indicates that he's divine and has divine powers and when he comments, he seems to indicate this is Jesus.

But what did the two sticks symbolize? Okay people you in my WFRN audience, I'm sure you know what the two sticks symbolize, that the Man in White was using as he approached Dana Coverstone, but let me know. I will tell you what the two sticks symbolize for those of you who can't figure it out. Let's see the next slide:

“Then he said, ‘Get ready for a fight with those coming from above and know that the fire in you will be necessary. Astute discernment you must use and fully armoured you must be.’ He then rolled up his sleeves and shifted the backpack from his back and he took it off his back with one arm and he held the backpack in front of him with his right arm and he started walking back towards the mountain. As he walked away I realized both walking sticks were laying there on the ground in front of me and so the dream ended with him just looking up in the sky very, very intently.”

So I'm sure you have figured out by now what the two walking sticks represent. Cherie Goff of course did not have a clue. I don't blame her on this one. And remember God, the Man in White tells Dana to prepare for a fight. All he leaves him are these two walking sticks. So these walking sticks must be his weapons, but he has also said that the fight comes from above, that means it's a spiritual battle.

Now you people who watch this channel, you already know that the two stakes that God leaves Dana represents Mary's Rosary and scapular. Now of course you're going to need astute discernment, as the Man in White said, to understand that.

It's the same symbology in the Bible where David defeats Goliath. David has two weapons; the five smooth pebbles of which he only needed one. The five smooth pebbles as I've mentioned many times on this program, represents Mary's Rosary. The shepherd's sling represents Mary's scapular; the same two sticks that we are to take up against the Antichrist and his minions and Satan. That's how we will defeat them. We are prophesied to defeat them. We are the seed of the woman. The woman defeats Satan and we defeat the seed of those. The seed of the woman defeats the seed of the serpent who is the Antichrist.

Please notice that he did not leave his military backpack. Notice that? The man takes off his backpack, the military backpack and he shifts it around in front of him. He doesn't even let Dana see it as he's walking away from him. He walks away and he holds the backpack out in front of him, so the Dana doesn't even see the military backpack, and that's because this is not a military battle. Almighty God is making it very clear here, that he's got to use those two sticks. He can't use the military to fight here and I've been saying that on here. How long have I been saying this on here? You can't take on the Deep State. They have been appointed.

Now Dana doesn't mention this on here, but both the Antichrist and the False Prophet are appointed by God Himself, so we can't take them on. We can't. We're going against God's will if we do. We use the weapons that God has given us, and that is Mary's Rosary and scapula.

Now I know most people are not even supposed to understand what those two sticks represent. That's because they're not going to survive into the Millennium. I do think however that the Dana Coverstone is going to be converted. I would not be surprised, certainly after the warning.

I think a lot of Protestants will be converted. That's what Kim Clement says. He called the woman Esther. He said to 'Say yes to Esther'. Remember in that amazing prophecy that he received? That was a vision I think. And both Kim Clement and Dana Coverstone here in this amazing "Three Dragons" Dream is verifying how we will defeat Satan and his Antichrist. In other words how we, in the remnant white dragon which Dana doesn't get into that, but we are the stone cut from the mountain. I think both the white dragon and the white mountain symbolize the Catholic Church. We are the stone cut from the mountain. And well I think you all understand fully what's going on, at least on my third eagle my WFRN Rosary channel, you all understand.

So until I do see all of you again, may God bless all of you and may all of you have a very blessed evening.
