

Why Can't Donald Trump Drain the Swamp?

This morning all over the internet we read that famous commentators like Sean Hannity and Ann Coulter are turning on Donald Trump because he is not able to fulfill his campaign promises. In fact, Ann Coulter said 'who wouldn't want Trump impeached?' Ouch! And she said 'I bet on a loser'. Well, I told you all along here that Donald Trump will not be able to drain the swamp until he converts and, in fact, his own Presbyterian brethren have told him to fund Planned Parenthood and that's exactly what he did last week: he signed a bill funding Planned Parenthood for another year. And now, I don't blame him because I understand that's in Bible prophecy. Donald Trump is doing all he can in the executive branch to defund abortions but when he has to deal with a swamp he will not be able to tell Congress and Mitch McConnell and Paul Ryan what to do until he converts. And in fact, they have to convert also.

So let me read to you where this is in Bible prophecy; this is Micah chapter 5, verse number 5: 'And this man shall be our peace (that's Donald Trump, he's a 'good guy', God is directing his right hand) when the Assyrian shall come into our land (the Assyrian is the Antichrist) and when he shall set his foot in our houses and we shall raise against him seven shepherds and eight princes'. In other words, God is telling us that we have to rely on seven Shepherds, that is, religious leaders, and eight princes, that would be secular leaders, in our fight against the Antichrist, not on Donald Trump yet. And, of course, that number is symbolic, that's a total of 15 personages and 15 is the number for Mary's Rosary in Bible prophecy and that's who we really have to depend on. Please, say your Rosaries!

And verse number 3 in Micah: 'Therefore will he give them up (talking about Donald Trump, he is not supporting us, he can't support us, this is Micah's prophecy and I told you this months ago that was the meaning and it's coming true as Hannity and Coulter now understand) even till the time wherein she that travails shall bring forth (I believe that is next weekend) and the remnant of his brethren shall be converted to the children of Israel'. 'Israel' is Micah and Isaiah's code word for the remnant Catholic Church. So not only Donald Trump but Ryan, McConnell, all his Republicans in Congress, they are going to have to reject Planned Parenthood and the Presbyterians. They are going to have to convert to Catholicism.

And now, I want to bring you a little side note: I used to follow baseball quite a bit and the team I used to follow was the Cleveland Indians and tonight they are playing for their 23rd consecutive victory which is an extension of an American League record. And what caught my eye was that number '23' because, of course, the Great Sign will occur next week on September the 23rd and 23 is a number for the Antichrist because it expresses 2 before 3 or man before God. And sometimes God does give us messages through sporting events; if you don't believe me, go to my YouTube channel: I've got a whole playlist of videos explaining them.

So if Cleveland wins their 23rd game and they are successful, would that mean that America will have something good happen a week from now? In other words, Donald Trump converting. If they lose, if they don't succeed in gaining their 23rd win, will something bad happen to America that causes Trump to convert? Will he, for example, receive a good message from Mary and will Mary appear to him just as she did to George Washington; check it out: read 'Vision of George Washington'. Or, will a tragedy occur, for example in Israel, that will cause Donald Trump to realize that the road he's going down now is not succeeding and he has to change his religion drastically? In any event, I'm going to watch what's going to happen to the game tonight and you can check it out. And I could be wrong; usually God does not use sporting events to give prophetic messages.
