

Bible Prophecy in 'Stacy's Deviled Eggs'

A couple of months ago, one of my subscribers sent me a very interesting e-mail. He said I should check out a new television commercial for Miracle Whip called 'Stacy's Deviled Eggs' and he said it was very prophetic. He said it was very symbolic. So I watched it and he was right. The only problem was, it was also very obvious. Anybody could figure it out, so I discarded that idea and I never did a video on that particular topic.

However, just yesterday, I watched a video by 'TheGroxt' and he did talk about 'Stacy's Deviled Eggs' and he did not understand it! So I guess I was mistaken. I guess I will have to do a video explaining that commercial because it is very important. It is very significant for these End Times and it tells us just what the Illuminati have in store for our Church. First, I want to take a look at some of these images of Satan because this video is about Satan taking over the Church.

And we notice that Satan is almost always depicted in red and black and he is sometimes depicted as at least partly female, or in other words, androgynous: male and female. But there is of course, if you watch my videos, a solution to Satan and that is of course the Blessed Virgin Mary, and she is also featured in this video and she wears, very popularly, both blue and white.

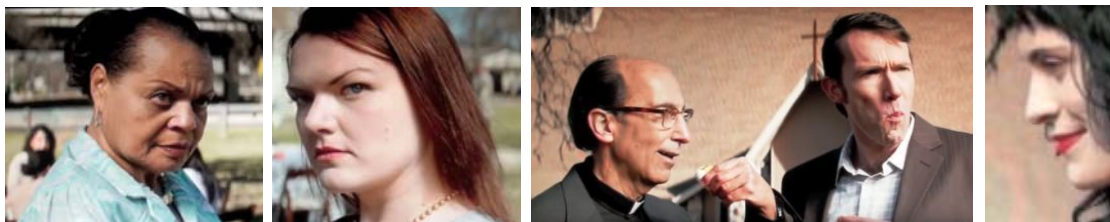

And in fact, one of the most important images of Mary was a portrait of her painted by Almighty God himself and that's called Our Lady of Guadalupe.

This is a miraculous image given to Saint Juan Diego in Mexico, and notice she wears a blue mantle and a white undergarment and she's decked out in gold. She is of course the Woman clothed in the sun who will crush Satan. And now let's take a look at this interesting and prophetic television commercial called 'Stacy's Deviled Eggs'.

Here we see Stacy dressed in red and black like Satan sharpening her knife and preparing deviled eggs of course.

By the way, please count the number of deviled eggs. She then takes the deviled eggs to a church get together in order to seduce the members of the church. Although she does not fool two of the women, she does fool two of the men including the pastor of the church.

Now it should be obvious that Stacy is at least a witch with her black fingernail polish but her name is almost an acronym for Satan. It has two syllables and three of the letters are identical.

And later on in the video, we see that Stacy looks quite masculine. She has another characteristic of Satan and that is that he is androgynous. In fact, Stacy looks somewhat like a transvestite.

And did you happen to count the number of deviled eggs? Well, there are sixteen of them and 16 is not really an End Times number. I mean, you could add 6 plus 1 which gives you 7 but that's not really satanic. 16 deviled eggs are made from 8 whole eggs but 8 is also not really a number associated with evil. But, if you understand that you count eggs by the dozen, that is by the number 12, and you realize that $8/12$'s of a dozen is $2/3$'s of a dozen, then we indeed do have a number for the Antichrist because $2/3$'s represents man over God and yields the decimal .666.

Now we come to the most interesting parts of this commercial. First, we notice that this is some kind of a church event. There are crosses on the church and that would indicate Christianity but this is not a summer picnic. Even Stacy has a coat on, black of course, and many of the people are wearing sweaters or jackets. Also, please notice that the leaves have fallen off the tree but it can't be Spring because the leaves are still on the ground. So we are talking about some kind of a late Fall Festival.

Could this be some kind of Thanksgiving celebration? Well I doubt it because at Thanksgiving families gather around a table. I suspect this is some kind of a harvest celebration. Could it be a harvest of souls? Maybe that knife that Stacy was sharpening at the beginning of this commercial was for the sickle that the Grim Reaper carries. And what about those tablecloths? Notice that checkerboard pattern.

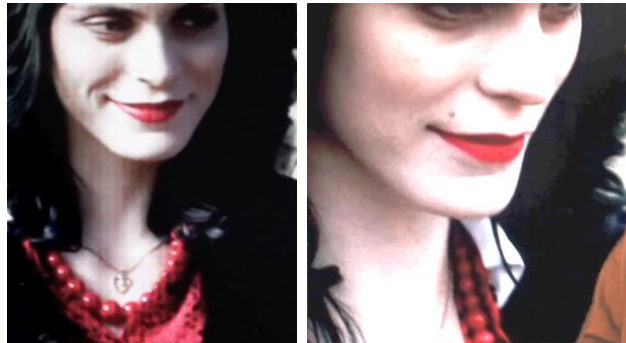

Checkerboard is a favorite symbol for the Illuminati and the Masons and that's because it combines good and evil equally. Black and white, good and evil come together at this particular harvest celebration.

Of course in these End Times, there will be a faithful remnant who look askance at Stacy's deviled eggs. Please notice this woman is wearing blue and she has beads around her neck.

That's because she symbolizes the Blessed Virgin Mary who will fight against the deviled eggs, and this woman is not the only one. There is another woman in this commercial. She also wears blue. She also has beads around her neck but she is married. She represents the Church and there will be a faithful remnant of the Church. Her husband, that is some of the Church, turns away from her and accepts the deviled egg from Stacy.

Now I admit, Stacy also wears beads, however, they are a devilish red in color and if you look closely, you will see that they also vary in size unlike the smooth, regularly sized beads of Mary's Rosary.

And so, at the conclusion of this commercial, we see the unholy trinity of the End Times who mimic the Divine Trinity. We see Satan on the far left, or Stacy. We see the Antichrist on the far right, and in the center, we see the False Prophet. He's the one with a collar.

And what does this remind me of? It reminds me of that evil symbol we saw at the canonization of the two popes.

Remember, in the center there was a sun shape or an egg form very much like Stacy's deviled eggs. And below that we saw the two horns which symbolize the False Prophet and the Antichrist. And now I'm glad I decided to do this video after all.
