

Satanic Sign in “Towers, Trains & Chains” Dream

I always try to start out a little jovial but I have a very serious program today, and that is because I have to call out someone who was a true prophet. That's Dana Coverstone and his program called Towers, Trains and Chains Dream which he received from July the 2nd to the 16th I think it was, six dreams in all. That dream came from Satan and I did a program already showing that. And today I'm going to talk about an image that he described in that dream and that, I think will prove that his dream came from Satan.

And what's very discouraging to me is that a lot of people who actually used to be members of our WFRN network agree with Dana that his dream came from God. And I'm speaking specifically about Scott Fox and Paula and they have both interpreted his dream as being true prophecy. And some of it is true, because it comes from Satan, and Satan always gives false lies along with the truth. I mean he knows he can't get away telling lies all the time, but the important part is a lie.

And now this is the image that appeared in his dream and I'll show it to you. And this is right off of one of his programs. In fact you can see Dana's face up here. I took a screenshot so that you can see this symbol which is as Dana said. It is a very interesting symbol and he did not have a clue what it meant, so quite a few people have tried to interpret it.

One of the more interesting ones is that you turn it sideways, and this is how I showed it as a thumbnail; if you turn it sideways it looks like a coal cart or something going off a cliff, driving off a cliff.

I thought that was a pretty clever interpretation. It looks like a car driving off a cliff. Well that's why I showed it as a thumbnail, because that way it's kind of neutral, because the way Dana showed it, this is the way Satan showed it to him, he didn't have a clue what it means, but it wasn't an alert to him, because the evil meaning is when you show it upside down which is the way Satan would show it.

Scott Fox has interpreted it quite a few different ways, and he interprets it positively. This is kind of interesting and I've been watching Scott the last couple of nights he's been talking about this, and I hope he talks about it tonight and I gave him an alert that I was doing this program. He interprets this quite interestingly.

He says that this is a 7. It does look something like a 7. I give Scott a lot of credit because I did not see that.

He says this is an 8 here. It does look like an 8 and he says it's a highway sign. Route 78 he calls it.

And this here is the highway and since it's pointing up, it's the highway to Heaven and he said 7 plus 8 equals 15 which is a Marian number. I can't disagree with him on that.

And I reported that he could have also said that 78 is a reference to Micah 5:5, where in these End Times seven shepherds and eight princes will save America. They will save us until Donald Trump and his Protestant brethren convert. So that would be a very positive interpretation.

If Scott Fox and Paula are right, then this is a true prophecy from God, but I don't think they are right, and I'm going to give you the real meaning, which is what you get when you show it upside down the way Satan would show it.

Before I do that though, I want to read to you where this is in Dana Coverstone's dream. Now I already did a decode of Dana Coverstone's dream and this particular dream is the Towers, Trains and Chains Dream. Notice that there are six letters in each of those words "Towers"; six letters "Trains"; six letters "Chains"; six letters. He had the dream over six nights and that's not accidental people. That's a sign that is.

Scott Fox he got kind of clever he said he had the dreams between July 2nd and July 16th. He said it was 15 days. Well it's not 15 days because it's only 15 days if you count the first day plus the last day. If you subtract 2 from 16 you get 14. Well you get 15 if you include the opening day, and you can do that in prophecy. I mean it's not impossible to do that, but ordinarily you would say he got the dream over 14 days. In any event let me read to you Dana's comments about this amazing image, because this shows you that he did not know what it was. I think if he knew what it meant, he would not have reported the dream. Here's what he said. Now this is from his Facebook.

“I shared a dream yesterday where I saw a symbol I did not recognize. Here is a picture of what I saw and hoping there might be someone who might have some clues as to origin, meaning or if it resembles anything in industry or military. Have already heard from someone who works for Amtrak about the flashing yellow and blue lights, and since the dream involved trains, it was greatly appreciated.”

So, the day after he received the dream, he showed this image on Facebook and there's this photograph of it I believe. Now he has two Facebook accounts so it's hard to say. This is not the Facebook account that is linked to his YouTube channel, however this is the image and it's the same image that he talked about on his own channel. So let me continue what he says about this image. These are comments from Dana's Facebook page.

“Often the images make more sense due to insight and to time, but this symbol has me praying but stumped. Thanks for any insight It feels like a gate to me or a place where something is corralled into then caged or held. That is the initial sense I had when I saw the symbol in the hands of the 12 men. It was sinister, intentional and indicative of a plan.”

So Scott Fox criticized me when I said that the sign was evil, and he said Dana had nowhere indicated that. Well on his Facebook page he does indicate it. He says it's sinister, as I just read for you. So Dana himself does not consider this a good symbol, and it's not, as we'll see in a minute.

So, before I interpret that, I want to show you where in the dream it leads up to this symbol. Now I've already did a video on this but I think it's worth repeating because it's very short. There's three sections here, so let me show you what they are. This is how Dana starts out his dream leading up to where this symbol is shown at an auction. So let's start with this. I'll put it on the screen.

Towers, Trains & Chains Dream

“The dream began with a large auction on the field where the Washington Senators were playing baseball. There was no one in the stands the lights were off and the stadium was very, very dark. The auctioneer was masked not like a Covid mask, it was just ... his face had like a bandana around so you couldn't see. He was also wearing a judge's robe and those about to participate were all nationalities with the corresponding flag of their nation on their jackets.”

And I mentioned before that this is from Satan's realm. That's why everything is dark. These people are criminals. They're not wearing Covid masks. They're wearing criminals' masks. I believe they are auctioning off America and they represent all the different nations of the world. And of course in George Washington's dream, all the nations of the world do come against America. So let's look at the second part of his dream.

“So they were professionally dressed sitting in some very nice chairs right in the middle of the field that wasn't being played on at that time. They also had their jackets up around their necks and it seemed to be an attempt to shield their identity even though the stadium was empty and dark. As the auction started and the auctioneer was getting people in place and saying, “hey folks we're about to start”, several of the Asian nations gathered together and talked among themselves.”

So again we see that these people are trying to hide their identity. They have something to hide. They're not up and up. They're not out in the open. They are in fact criminals and they're talking about their bidding I am sure on America. I think that's the symbolism here, and I think both my interpretation that this dream comes from Satan and Dana's interpretation that it comes from God, I think we both can agree on that, but that's what is being shown here. And Dana says that God would show us that, as a warning, and Satan is showing us that, to let us know that he is in charge of the situation. So let me read the third part of the dream, because this is where we find this symbol.

“Then they held up a card with a symbol that I had never seen before (and I’ll express that in just a little bit) a strange symbol on it and it got the attention of the auctioneer. And the minute he saw it he declared the auction was over and a large briefcase was handed by these Asian nation leaders to the auctioneer and he accepted their brief case and shook the hands of twelve different men. There were twelve different specific men all of Asian backgrounds and then he snapped his fingers and he yelled out the word “now”. Not loud just, “now”. At the same time he snapped his fingers he said “now”.

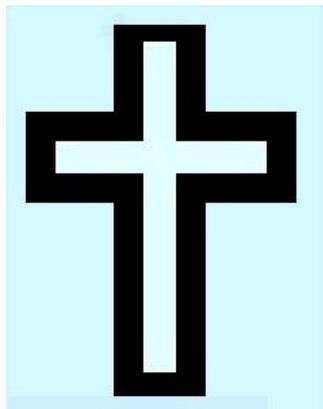

So there are many different nationalities here but the only nations that got together and placed this, I guess you could call it a winning bid, this is the sign that they showed to the auctioneer. Evidently it made an impression on Dana in his dream because he was able to copy it and as you can see, it's quite specific. I think Dana's pretty good as an artist, and he showed this symbol.

So, your interpretation of this symbol must fit the dream and that's why I really question whether this is a 7 and an 8 and showing a highway to Heaven as Scott Fox says. That would not fit. Why would that stop the auction? Why would the 12 Asian nations come up with a symbol of Mary saving America? And that would stop the auction? That does not make sense.

I think if it comes from Satan, then the auctioneer would say, "Okay they've got the winning bid. They can take it all." They are in tune with the Antichrist. In fact the Antichrist is mentioned later on in this dream. And Paula did a decode. She says, "Well you know, the Antichrist is only mentioned once in the dream." Well that's true, but Jesus Christ is not mentioned any times. He is not mentioned at all in this dream, and of course that's exactly the way Satan would be.

Okay so now I want to give you a brief, so to speak, history of signs and symbols to help you understand the type of symbol or sign that Satan would give. What constitutes a satanic symbol?

First of all I want to show you the greatest symbol of all time. Does anyone know what the greatest symbol of all time is? The greatest logo? The greatest image? Here is the greatest image of all time. Jesus paid for this image, this logo with his blood. There's no mistaking what this means. Every country in the world, pagan or otherwise, knows what the cross means. In fact in Afghanistan, now I guarantee you the Taliban will destroy all crosses.

Any pagan religion hates the cross because they know it refers to Jesus; but not just Jesus.

Does anyone know the real significance and meaning of the cross? This symbolizes the Trinity and I've explained that before on here but I will explain it again. There are actually three members of a cross. Most people are well aware of the two members, because they're visible. The third member is invisible. That's because it represents the Holy Spirit. The horizontal bar left to right, that symbolizes God the Father. It symbolizes stability. It's horizontal, left to right, one of the dimensions of the universe. The universe has three dimensions. The vertical bar represents Jesus. It represents vitality. It's the connection between Heaven and Earth. That represents Jesus, but there is, as I say a third bar. There are three dimensions in the universe. There's left to right or horizontal, up and down, but there's also one front to back, right through the center of that cross. You can't see that one. That's the Holy Spirit. You can't see the Holy Spirit but the cross is a symbol of the Divine Trinity. That's the greatness of it.

Now when Satan wants to pervert, come up with a symbol of his own, he tries to come up with symbols that are as great as the cross. Of course he can't but if he can sell people that, "oh this is a great symbol wear this symbol or sign", then he's got you and he comes up with that type of symbol.

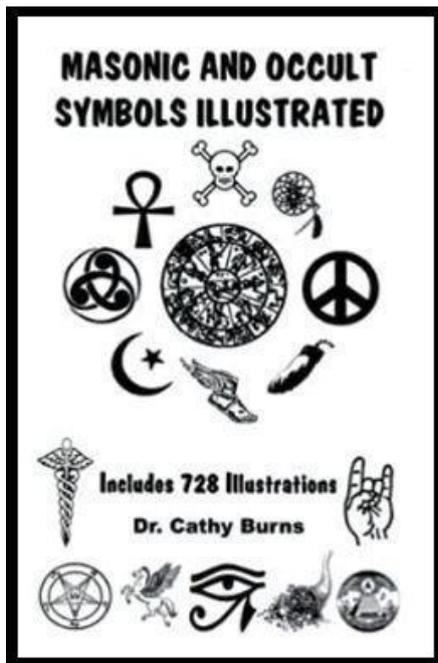

So let me show you an example of a satanic sign. I'm sure you've all seen this. This is an ankh cross. It's close to a cross, and as you can see, and this is ancient Egyptian. You look at the ancient hieroglyphs of the Egyptians, they show this all the time. Does anyone know the meaning of this? This is the feminine shape. This is the masculine triunity. It's a symbol of masculinity and femininity. I could express that differently but I won't because this is a family program, but I will read to you what Dr Cathy Burns says about the ankh cross.

This is a very interesting book I consult this book quite often and as you can see right on the cover she's got an ankh across here. So let me read for you what Dr Cathy Burns says is the meaning of an ankh cross, which one is one of Satan's many perversions of the true cross. Here's what she writes.

"The ankh, or crooks and sata, is a symbol of life, a dictionary of mission. This mysticism explains the ankh as the Egyptian cross shaped like a capital T with an oval loop on the top symbol of life in the occult tradition. It was used by the gods as an instrument for awakening the dead to a new life. One Masonic book relates that crooks and sata so frequently observed in the hands of the statues of the old kings and gods of Egypt was evidently both solar and phallic in significance and represented a combination of the male and female principles in nature.”

And just as I said, “In the origin and practices and traditions of Halloween we find that the ankh is an ancient symbol for immortality, fertility a cross with a ring at the top warm and used in satanic rites.”

And so that is what the ankh cross is. It uses the two ideas that Satan uses the most when he wants to come up with a symbol, to supplant the cross and they are derived from the most powerful forces in nature, one is the Sun; all pagan cultures come up with Sun worship and they all come up with fertility worship.

Pachamama, mother earth goddess.

In fact we saw that in the Vatican just a few months ago, where Pope Francis welcomed in the Pachamama which is a mother earth goddess. I mean it's pagan. Those are the two main forces worshipped in pagan cultures; the force of the Sun and the force of fertility.

So let me show you another example of a perverted symbol to give you an idea of the kind of symbols that Satan comes up with, because I'm going to show you that the symbol in Dana Coverstone's dream is a satanic symbol, something that Satan would come up with.

This is called Hathor, the cow goddess Hathor, and we see on the headdress, and this is a very common Egyptian symbol of a goddess, we see the Sun god I think the Sun god's name is Ra, and the two horns. And that's great, so we have here the both aspects of pagan worship, the Sun in the middle which is also feminine and the two horns which are masculine. In other words it's basically a threesome as we would express it today. And the Egyptians worship this and I'll show you another example of this.

This is Hathor the cow goddess. This is in the statue form, and you see the circle in the middle, the worship of the Sun; you see the worship on the outside the two masculine symbols. These images predate the cross in a way. Satan was inspiring people, pagan people, even before the cross, except that the cross was shown for example during the Passover, when the Israelites escaped the avenging angel by painting on their door lintels a Tau, the Hebrew letter for the letter "T", which in Hebrew letters is a cross. And that's what they painted in blood, and that protected them. That was the answer to it.

By the way a lot of people think that this is an example of the golden calf which the Israelites worshipped; remember? When Moses came down from the mountain they were already worshipping a pagan god, and a lot of people think that this is what they were worshipping, because this is what they worshipped in Egypt. Now you might think that this is old, thousands of years old. The Vatican worshipped this just a few years ago. Would you believe? Let me show you, this exact same image; Hathor the cow goddess. Maybe you remember this and I showed this to you. I did an entire program.

This is from the canonization of Pope John Paul II and Pope John XXIII. I want you to take a close look at that image in the center this is the Vatican Saint Peter's square, thousands of people in attendance. And there's that image at the bottom. A huge image made in flowers. I mean can you imagine how much money was spent on that?

Now you might not recognize that as Hathor the cow goddess, but if I turn it upside down, maybe you can see.

At the bottom you see the two horns in red. You see the sun in the middle. That's not accidental. The Vatican was proposing this instead of a cross because Satan always prefers his imagery to the true imagery of the cross.

So now that takes us up to the real meaning of this image. I want to tell you a few more images that Scott came up with, kind of interesting. He said this is also a mother goose he called it. And it does look something like a goose head here you know. Maybe the eye of a goose and this is a long neck of a goose. I thought that was quite clever. You can almost say that.

He said it's also, if you put it this way, it's also a kicking leg. Here's the leg. There's the foot. Not bad Scott. I tell you what; I disagree with all of those. They don't fit the scene in the dream. They don't fit the auction stopping because of the scene. And here's my problem with his main contention that this is a 7 and this is an 8. You can express it as a 7 maybe, but I mean if the Lord wanted to put a 78 on there I think He could have done a much clearer job couldn't He? This message is not from the Lord.

This is a message from Satan. It is a sexual image just like the images I have been showing you. These are two feminine forms. They represent the female or the suns, the female form. This is a male form. I'm not going to explain it to you. You look at it. You tell me if I'm not right. Two female forms and one male form, another threesome, and this road is not the road to Heaven, it's the road to Hell. That is the image that Satan was giving to Dana, which Dana did not understand.

The auctioneer understood it. He stopped the auction immediately because he recognized a sign from Satan. He knew the auction was over. He knew that the 12 Asians had given him the biggest bid that he would ever get, and that Satan was controlling their bid and he accepted the suitcase, presumably full of cash. So in any event that is my interpretation, so if you have any other suggestions let me know because this is very serious.

Now I want to warn Dana Coverstone. The last two or three dreams that he's had, he has done more interpreting than giving the dreams. That's not his job. He has a tremendous charism from the Lord to receive prophetic dreams in these End Times. He's found in Bible prophecy. There are very few who have. There are many, many false prophets. Dana Coverstone is entering the ranks of the false prophets. I want to warn you Dana. This is from Jeremiah 23. This is a warning to the prophets of the End Times. “Thus saith the Lord of Hosts hearken not to the words of the prophets that prophesy to you and deceive you: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the Lord.”

This dream did not come from the mouth of the Lord. It came from Satan. “I did not send prophets yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies, and that prophesy the delusions of their own heart? Behold I am against the prophets, saith the Lord who use their tongues, and say: The Lord saith it.”

Dana Coverstone spent most of his program on this dream, on this Towers, Trains and Chains Dream, trying to convince people that the dream came from God. He didn't used to do that with his first dreams. He related the dream, and he let other people interpret it. His “Who are You?” Dream was really bad because he talked about the dream for 5 minutes and 25 minutes he tried to say that the person knocking on his door was evil, and it wasn't the Man in White knocking on his door. It was Jesus. Here's Jeremiah chapter 23 verse 32.

Listen to this Dana. “Behold I am against the prophets that have lying dreams, saith the Lord: and tell them, and cause my people to err by their lying.” Dana you have to understand how serious it is to give dreams that are not of the Lord and claim that they are from the Lord. You used to get true dreams. Verse 28: this is Jeremiah 23. “The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream.” That's what you used to do Dana. The prophet who has a true dream, he should tell it. He should not interpret it by the way. Notice he says “tell a dream”. And you did receive a dream, the Mystery Dream. You refused to tell it. The Mystery Dream I am sure, well I'm not going to guess it; it's something that you interpreted and you shouldn't. That's why you said “I have a problem with it”. That's quote unquote. Dana said he had a problem with that dream and he's not going to publish it. Jeremiah says you are supposed to tell it. Let him who has a dream tell it. And you're not doing that.

Now I'm going to read to you at the very end of what Jeremiah warns to prophets. Verse 25: “I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, and say: I have dreamed, I have dreamed.” Well that's what Dana is saying, and up until now you did dream and you told the dream, but now you're telling interpretations of the dream. “And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame which shall never be forgotten.”

If it's never forgotten, do you know how serious that is Dana? Never to be forgotten? That means for all eternity. That means you can't go to Heaven if they're going to remember you forever that you gave false prophecy, false dreams. That's a very serious warning, and I would hope I'm wrong. I asked Paula to try to convince me otherwise and I asked God to try to convince me otherwise. Am I right on this or not?

This is a satanic image from Satan. Satan loves satanic sexual imagery. That's what this is. It's the road to Hell, just like all of these other satanic images. And I'm not saying it just because he's a Protestant. I showed you the Catholic images which do the same thing.

Until I do see all of you then may God bless all of you and may all of you have a very blessed evening.
