

Wendy Williams Portends Fall of America

Today, the secular world celebrates Halloween, and that name is derived from 'All Hallows Eve' and that's because tomorrow is 'All Saints Day' but the Satanists and the demons have perverted it into a celebration of death. That's why you see so many skeletons, and you see so many witches and evil people, and it's very dangerous to celebrate Halloween. And someone found that out this morning on live television when the TV hostess, Wendy Williams, fainted on her program and I have a picture of it here, in case you missed it, and it's quite interesting; some people say that she may have had a stroke.

She didn't look like she fainted; she almost looks as if she is seeing some kind of an evil vision or a demon or something because if you watch a clip of it, her eyes open up wide and she stares at a certain place and she staggers back and then she faints.

And I've got another picture of it here; you'll see what I mean. And her eyes are focused on the same place when she is staggering back and it's possible she sees something or it could be a natural explanation, but I'm not surprised that something like this happens on Halloween.

It's very dangerous to celebrate a demonic holiday. And it's interesting that she is wearing a costume of the Statue of Liberty. Could it be that she is portending the fall of America? And when I thought about that I thought back to a Google Doodle from a couple of years ago and it reminds me very much of Wendy Williams falling.

And here's an image of the Statue of Liberty falling; now that's not what the Google Doodle was supposed to be showing: its supposed to be showing the Statue of Liberty as a gift from France to the United States. And this was on the one hundred and thirtieth anniversary of that. But, as I pointed out at that time, this supposed gift-wrapping cuts the statue in half. The statue is at an angle, it's falling down, just like Wendy Williams. And this ribbon looks like a rocket; it looks like a destruction of America.

Now, they were showing it on purpose although they didn't let you know that.

I don't think Wendy Williams fainted on purpose; but nonetheless, that was a sign from Almighty God. And let me remind you that Almighty

God gave us a warning just a little while ago and that was when 'King James' Le Bron, his jersey ripped, and of course his number is 23; it ripped right in half.

23 is a number of the Antichrist and as I have said all along, the Antichrist will attack the United States and fortunately we've elected Donald Trump who will take on the Antichrist according to Bible prophecy. And one of my subscribers sent me a story about another NBA player, his jersey ripped; and his number was also 23!

I don't think these signs are accidental; I think America is being warned. We are being warned about the Antichrist. It's not surprising that Wendy Williams fainted or saw a demon on Halloween.
