

Dana Coverstone Has Lost His Charism of True Prophecy The “Towers, Trains and Chains” Dream

This is another special program in my series on End Times prophecy and I want to talk about Dana Coverstone's latest dream because I am afraid he has lost his charism from the Holy Spirit and instead he is receiving dreams from Satan. And I predicted that this would happen, because he received many true dreams, and I interpreted them, and I told you they were true dreams, but the last dream he received before the “Who Are You?” Dream, which was about six to eight weeks ago, he did not release it. He received a dream which he said he had a problem with. Well that's not his job to interpret his dreams and he has admitted; he and Cherie Goff who interprets his dreams, that his dreams are for the people.

It would be like Daniel interpreting his dreams and if he didn't like them, that he wouldn't publish them. Fortunately Daniel did not do that. I think Dana is named after Daniel. In any event, he refused to publish that dream, a Mystery Dream, and after that, he got the “Who Are You?” Dream which was a true dream but it was directed at Dana.

And that's where Jesus knocked on his door and Dana did not say, “Come in”, Dana said, “Who are you?”, and that's the “Who Are You?” Dream. And finally in the dream, Dana goes around to a side office to look and see who's knocking on his door and he sees a white hand knocking on his door. Well, that was the Man in White who represents Jesus in his dreams. And Dana did not understand that that was the Man in White.

And so in fact he and Cherie Goff spent 25 minutes trying to convince people that the hand was evil. He only spent five minutes giving the dream and 25 minutes trying to say it was evil. And I explained to you the meaning of that dream. And I said at the time, I said unless Dana Coverstone releases that Mystery Dream, his next dream is going to come from Satan, because Satan is going to jump into that vacuum.

Saint Bernadette

And I believe that this is most recent dream which he published about a week ago and he calls it, the “Towers, Trains and Chains” Dream. And it sounds something like the dreams they used to get. You know Satan is a great mimic. He knows how to imitate God, and in fact I believe in Lourdes famous Catholic revelation, when Mary appeared to Saint Bernadette, there were many false apparitions at the same time where Satan imitated Mary appearing to Saint Bernadette. And the church had to decide which were true and which were false. And I have determined that this one, this latest one is false from Dana Coverstone, and see if you don't agree with me.

He received this dream, the “Towers, Trains and Chains” Dream on July 12th, 13th, 14th, 19th, 20th and 26th. Notice the number of days. He received this dream, over six days. That's not accidental. All we have to do now is to find two more sixes in this dream, and I think you will agree with me, we do find two more sixes, which of course gives us 6 6 6. And I don't think Satan wanted to reveal that. I think he wanted to stay hidden, but Almighty God has forced His hand in certain places in this dream and he has to begrudgingly let us know that this dream did in fact come from Satan, and I hope Dana Coverstone releases that Mystery Dream and gets this monkey off his back.

So let's begin. I'm going to go through this dream just as I did with his true dreams. I don't like to do it. It's depressing to read words from Satan. Satan as you know likes to express himself in dogma. He is not a poet. He's not creative. He's not original. For example, rap music comes from Satan and it's what we used to call doggerel. It's not poetry, it's doggerel. Well this dream is very much like that. So let's look at the first part, starting out with part one of Dana Coverstone's “Towers, Trains and Chains” Dream.

“The dream began with a large auction on the field where the Washington Senators were playing baseball. There was no one in the stands and the lights were off and the stadium was very, very dark. The auctioneer was masked, not like a Covid mask, it was just ... his face had like a bandanna around so you couldn't see. He was also wearing a judge's robe and those about to participate were all nationalities with the corresponding flag of their nation on their jackets.”

And I think we will see that what is being auctioned off in this dream is the United States of America. That's what's being auctioned off. And I think Satan would be happy to show that. So far you can't say this dream comes from God. And notice that this is in a very dark stadium. Satan operates out of the realm of darkness. I don't think that's surprising. Notice that the people are wearing masks and Dana correctly shows that that means they're criminals and it's interesting that Dana Coverstone definitely doesn't know much about baseball to his credit, because the Washington Senators no longer exist. I'm sure he means the Washington Nationals. They do play baseball in Washington DC. The Senators used to be a very lowly team. Maybe it's supposed to be the Senators. The Senators were a very low down team.

Now there is one thing true about this first scene and that is that all the nations of the world will come against America, and we know that from George Washington's vision. If you remember George Washington had a vision of the Blessed Virgin Mary; “A beautiful woman”, he called her. He did not recognize her as Mary, just as Kim Clement didn't recognize that Esther in his dream represented Mary, but now in George Washington's vision, even though all the nations of the world come against America, and America is in dire straits as America is in this dream from Dana, an angel saves America.

There's no angel in Dana Coverstone's dream to save America, and that's because, as I say, I believe this comes from Satan. And after all, he's going to orchestrate this war on America, and he wants to leave the impression that we don't have any recourse. This is a depressing dream for America and it really is going to be defeated and no angel is going to save us, according to this dream from Satan. See if you don't agree with me that this is not from God, this particular dream. Okay let's look at the next part.

“So they were professionally dressed sitting in some very nice chairs right in the middle of the field that wasn't being played on at that time. They also had their jackets up around their necks and it seemed to be an attempt to shield their identity even though the stadium was empty and dark. As the auction started and the auctioneer was getting people in place saying, “hey folks we're about to start”, several of the Asian nations gathered together and talked among themselves.”

So it would appear that both the auctioneer and the participants, the bidders are criminals. They're hiding their identity. They're wearing masks and I get the idea that the Asians are depicted as the bad guy in this dream and I wonder if Satan isn't trying to stir up a little anti-Asian prejudice in this dream. Satan loves antipathy between the races. He stirs it up all the time through his media in this country, and Dana made a kind of strange interpretation there. Of course he thinks that the dream comes from God and he seems to think that America may be justified in opposing Asians, but if you understand that this dream comes from Satan, you'll know that he's trying to stir up a little hatred. Okay let's look at the next part of this dream from Dana Coverstone.

“Then they held up a card with a symbol that I had never seen before (and I'll express that in just a little bit) a strange symbol on it and it got the attention of the auctioneer. And the minute he saw it he declared the auction was over and a large briefcase was handed by these Asian nation leaders to the auctioneer and he accepted the briefcase and shook the hands of 12 different men. There were 12 different specific men all of Asian backgrounds and then he snapped his fingers and he yelled out the word, “now”. Not loud just, ‘now’. At the same time he snapped his fingers he said ‘now’.”

So did you catch the other two sixes? 12 breaks down into two sixes. That's the three sixes. The 6 dreams and the 12 men gives you 6 6 6. I don't think Satan wanted to reveal that he was giving this dream. So he hid it as much as possible and Dana did not catch it, but God forced His hand. He forced the 6 6 6 to be revealed here one way or another, and that's the meaning of the 12 men.

It's interesting that Dana said he would reveal later the meaning of the mysterious symbol. He never got back to it. I've watched that. I've watched his program several times and unless he goes through it real fast and I missed it, he never did explain what that mysterious symbol was. And I would not be surprised if it was some kind of a Freemason symbol for example. In any event it represents evil. Okay let's look at the next section of Dana's dream.

“Then I was watching a hurricane-like storm that grew in great strength and it flowed from near Indonesia and the Asian waters over there near Japan, China, Taiwan and it was like a hurricane. It was growing in power and strength and it rumbled and spread all the way across the Pacific Ocean. And it became green as it hit the West Coast shoreline of the United States of America. And then the storm became like a huge blanket of rain and it just spread out like you spilled a cup and the water just spilled over the entire top of the United States of America.”

So, I think this is again another depiction of the destruction of America but now it comes from all of these Asian nations. Is this more prejudice on the part of Satan? What bothers me is that, all of these non-Communist nations like; he didn't say the Philippines here but he says it later on; Indonesia, Japan, China, Taiwan. He mixes up Communist nations and non-Communist nations. That's typical of Satan to muddy the waters, but in any event all the nations come from Asia.

But what destroys the United States in the Book of Revelation? It's not some kind of a flood from Asian nations. It's the Scarlet Beast that destroys the harlot. The Scarlet Beast is all Communism. It's not all these other nations. I mean all the nations of the world do come against America but it is the Communism, it is the tyranny that attacks America. And I think that Satan, he loves to muddy true prophecy and that's what he's doing here. He is lumping all of these Asian nations together. That increases prejudice against Asian nations but at the same time muddies the prophecy that it will be the Scarlet Beast that destroys America. Okay let's look at the next section.

“And it kept moving East and it kept churning all the way. It was moving like flood waters like rampant flood waters that are moving logs and buildings and cars. It was like a flood like we saw with flooding that we may have seen in recent history. And it kept churning all the way across the nation and the rain then resulted in flooding as I said. It began to wash away the interstate system and the asphalt almost seemed like it was melting and when the storm got to Washington DC it became a tornado and it drilled into the ground of the city. And then suddenly the rain storm stopped and the sun came out.”

That's kind of an interesting image, asphalt melting from rain. I don't know where Satan came up with that one, but again more destruction of the United States. After the rain, the sun comes out and it's quite sudden. It's quite unusual but it's not unusual in Dana Coverstone's dreams. In the Snake Chain Dream the same thing occurs.

Remember there's a sudden spring shower and then the sun comes out? That was a time stamp in that particular dream. In fact in this dream Satan has borrowed quite a few elements from other of Dana Coverstone's dreams, and that's I'm sure to give it credibility. Satan is not an original thinker. He copies. He's a plagiarist, so I'm not surprised that this particular scene where the rain suddenly stops; I mean you have tornado and hurricane, and then suddenly the sun comes out; that's appeared before in the Snake Chain Dream. Okay let's look at the next part.

“So all of this storm turns into a tornado that drills, literally drills and just removes the ground in Washington DC. The sun comes out. And then I saw the tails (not heads) of hundreds and maybe even thousands of snakes and they were disappearing into that huge hole in the ground. And then the earth began to fill in from the bottom up. So the snakes go in and then the ground fills itself up almost like it was sand shifting but it was moving up and became level with everything else.”

Now snakes of course refer to demons. We all know that in the Bible, but it's interesting that in the Snake Chain Dream, the snakes come out of the holes in the ground and the roots are bloodied. And the snakes go out and they form chains and they enslave all of the states and it appears to me that Satan is copying another aspect of Dana Coverstone's previous dreams although he probably would not like to have us believe about the snakes turning into chains, because that was the point of the Snake Chain Dream, that America will be enslaved by these snakes and chains. Let's look at the next part of the dream.

“Then I saw America had dried up but the interstate system was now replaced with dirt roads. So all the water damage, all the mud is now dry, so to speak, and all the interstates are just now, where the interstate asphalt was, there's now just dry, dry ground. It's not wet, it's not muddy yet. But I also saw that the ground level had a skin on it and the surface of the concentric boundaries of the United States of America began to be rolled up. In other words, if you think about it this way, if you've ever used a key to open a sardine can and you twist it and you roll it and the metal is rolling like this. I began to see that the ground level skin was curling, and it was curling from the East Coast towards the West (and it was) rolling.”

So I think what we see here is the infrastructure of America being destroyed. Again, this evidently comes from the far eastern nations supposedly. I don't think in real life that's where it's going to come from, and I have interpreted this as being that the surface of America, the skin represents the middle America I guess you could say, perhaps the moral fibre of America, and of course Satan would love that to happen. Let's look at the next part.

Monorail

“The ground was still attached but the skin was rolling like this like something was rolling it. And then I began to see underneath the dirt roads and now I'm looking below the surface of the earth and it looked like trains that were almost like a monorail. There were like tracks that were hanging on the bottom of the earth if you were looking up underground and there were like trains like a monorail that was pulling. It had a large monorail and the engines appeared to be ... basically this train appeared like a monorail, like a train, and a large train engine and then other units behind it. And it appeared to be very large and one long unit.”

Now Dana explains also that these trains were very powerful. Notice that they are underground. The auction was in the dark. These trains are underground. They have a big role to play. I believe these trains represent demons just like the snakes. And the demons are close to Hell. That's why they're underground in my opinion. Let's look at the next part of this dream.

“And it was pulling an even longer single unit vehicle and behind that was a chain, a very large chain and that chain was attached to the East Coast and the roots in the ground there. And so as those trains began to move west underneath the ground, I began to see the East Coast just began to curl almost like the chain was pulling and as it was pulling, the surface of the ground was going with it. And they simply rolled up as a curl as the train was pulling on them.”

So these powerful trained demons are going to destroy the fabric of America, at least that's how I see this imagery. And notice in this section that the chain was attached to the East Coast, and the roots in the ground ... well that's a copy of the Snake Chain Dream. The chain is attached to the roots and that was exactly the same way as in the Snake Chain Dream. As I say, Satan is not too original. He's not known as an original thinker. Okay let's look at the next section.

“And as the trains pulled west I also saw there were towers going up and these towers looked like prison guard towers over the area of the nation. So as soon as the skin of the America and the United States of America was curled over and kept going west, these towers would just simply pop up like guard towers. And I also realized that the red soil was now muddy and it was red. Where the skin was being pulled up, the ground was now red; not just dirt, it was red and it was muddy. And it stretched across the face of the entire country and where the capitals had been there were towers with bright flashing yellow and blue lights.”

So now we've got red mud, again very similar to the Snake Chain Dream. Remember the blood came out of the roots of the soil and covered America in blood, very similar. It's also interesting that in this passage we have the three primary colours. You have the red mud and the blue and the yellow lights. Well it's kind of interesting because as I have often mentioned on this program the three primary colours, just like the three primary shapes, the three states of matter etc., they represent the Trinity. I'm not sure if that's why Satan included those three colours, but it could be. Maybe that's the reason. Maybe he wanted to give this dream a little credibility. Okay and let's look at the next part.

“And where Washington stood the Capitol building and the White House had a fence around them both that appeared to be about 50 feet high and there was razor wire attached top to bottom. It wasn't strung like this (horizontal). It was strung like this (vertical) razor wire 50 feet high around those walls on the outside of them. And I also saw that in the towers there were bags of white and yellow fleas, not black coloured fleas, yellow and white fleas and these bags were being emptied around the towers and these insects began spreading through the entire region.”

Well the insects, they're also demonic, and we know in the Book of Revelation there is a star that falls and releases a plague of locusts. Well that star happened to be Martin Luther. Again Dana makes a comment on these fleas being yellow and white. He seems to think this is racist, and he mentions that there aren't any black fleas or brown fleas. You only saw white and yellow. Well I think Satan is trying to stir up a little anti-Asian prejudice here.

It's interesting that the barbed wire protecting the capital is 50 feet high. Now that's a reference to Mary's Rosary. So why would Satan refer to Mary's Rosary? I mean he knows full well that's what will defeat him. Well he doesn't have a choice in that. I mean God is telling us that Mary's Rosary in this case is protecting the Capitol and the White House, and Dana Coverstone does not understand that.

Incidentally it's kind of strange he did not have Cherie Goff interpret his dream this time. He ended it. He did it himself. He said they both agreed that it would be dangerous for them to do so. Maybe because of all this reference to the Asians I don't know. He seemed to think that was the problem. It's interesting that there is so much demonic power in this dream, God still requires that we get that number 50 in there to let us know, the rest of us, even if Dana doesn't know it, that Mary's Rosary is what will defeat all these demonic forces. Okay let's look at the next section.

“And the train chains continued to pull until the surface level of the nation popped off as it got to California and as it just kind of rolled like this it finally snapped and that skin began to float and it floated up towards the sun basically just like Icarus. If you're familiar with the mythological story of Icarus. It kept flying higher and higher up towards the sun that was at full brightness now. And as it floated up like this, the coasts, east and west coast both began to burn, and then it faded away. If you've ever seen flash paper, I was a children's pastor for many years and used flash paper, and you light it and it just disappears. That was what this was like. It got close to the sun and it just burned and disappeared.”

Well that's interesting. So Satan seems to think that the sun is going to burn America. Well of course that's not true. We know that the destruction of America is not a pagan myth. It's not about Icarus. In the Book of Revelation America is burned by the Scarlet Beast. I think Satan is trying to muddy that prophecy. He wants to ameliorate it. He doesn't want us to understand it. America is not going to be burned by the sun. It is going to be burned by the Scarlet Beast and that is true prophecy. Okay let's look at the next section of Dana's dream.

“And then I saw the chains continue to stretch over the Pacific and they were moving basically on the ocean floor. Those trains kept pulling and they were still pulling chains attached to this nation and they kept pulling them dragging them towards the Far East nations. And that was when the man that I see so often appeared in the middle of that empty baseball stadium and he spoke very, very softly. In the dream, I actually had to lean in to hear him, what he was saying.”

Now Satan added this Man in White in order to give credibility to his dream. He knows that the Man in White represents Jesus, but he had him speak very softly. He didn't want to give him too much authority. Now in the next paragraph, the Man in White says that we don't have to worry about the red dragon. As Paul Begley would say, “What”? Are you serious?” The red dragon in the Book of Revelation is Satan. That's a pretty good indication that the Man in White here is standing in for Satan rather than Jesus. So let's read this next part which is really very interesting. This is the conclusion of the dream.

“And he said don't worry about the red dragon as the red dragon has worse enemies than it knows. And the spirit of Antichrist walks the earth and whispers in the ears of the kings at the moment. He is tempting their pride, taunting their power, and they are laying the tracks for the train of deception to pull the world into his grip. Look up for your redemption draws near. But warn the shallow fervently that deep roots are needed now more than ever. Brace, endure, prepare and use the time you have to reach the rootless ones.”

It's kind of interesting that Dana Coverstone has to interpret all this. Who are the enemies that the red dragon has? The red dragon only has one enemy; that's Mary. Mary's going to crush his head. Satan again is muddying the prophecy of the Bible by saying that it has worse enemies than it knows. He wants to make it seem as if it's not one enemy but that it's plural enemies. He only has one enemy.

Now the part about the Antichrist whispering in the king's ears; that's true, but it's going on right now. So why would Satan mention that? Well he's bragging. Satan is bragging that the Antichrist is whispering in people's ears. It's interesting that Dana Coverstone at this point says that's obviously not from God; talking about the Antichrist whispering in his ears.

If you watch Dana Coverstone's explanation of his dream it sounds like he's talking about the dream itself, and that's what he is talking about. He doesn't even know it. It's the dream that's not from God.

Now it's interesting that he quotes the Bible. He says, "Look up for your redemption draws near", but we know that Satan knows how to quote the Bible. And why doesn't he leave it there? Why does then he say, "Your redemption draws near"? That would be a positive conclusion to the dream. Jesus is returning. We know that. He doesn't leave it there. Why doesn't Satan leave it there? He only gives that quote to give a little credibility.

Now what does he say next? And Dana Coverstone has to interpret the last two parts of this dream to make it sound like this dream comes from God, but it doesn't. But here's what he says. He says, "Deep roots are needed now more than ever." This is Satan talking;

the Man in White. And Dana says that this is a reference to Ephesians chapter 3 verse 17, so let me read that first. "That Christ might dwell by faith in your hearts that being rooted and founded in charity." That's what Ephesians 3:17 is. But that's not what the Man in White said. He did not reference Saint Paul. He did not mention anything about charity. He says deep roots are needed.

Why doesn't Dana Coverstone think that he may be referring back to the roots in the first part of the dream? .. the roots that go deep in the earth in Washington DC? .. the roots in the Snake Chain Dream that are bloody? Those are the roots that Satan is talking about. Dana, in order to make it seem as this dream comes from God, tries to make it seem as if he's talking about Ephesians and he's not. And then Dana says next, he says, and this is this is at the end part, he says, "Brace, endure, prepare and use the time you have to reach the rootless ones".

But here's what Dana says what the rootless ones are referring to; he says that refers to Colossians chapter 2 verse number 7. Well here's what Colossians says. "Rooted and built up in him", referring to Jesus, "and confirmed in the faith as also you have learned abounding in him in thanksgiving." But that's not what the Man in White is talking about. Again, he's talking about the bloody roots, the roots in the first part of this dream, but Dana has to interpret it that way to make it sound as if it's coming from our Lord.

And it's interesting in his explanation Dana Coverstone spends 9 minutes relating the dream and 22 minutes interpreting the dream. And the only conclusion I can think of, is that I think Dana understands that there's something wrong with this dream. It seems on the surface, like his previous dreams which were from the Lord. I believe Dana Coverstone was a true prophet. Jeremiah says in the End Times there would be some true prophets. Jesus said there would be many false prophets, and I'm afraid that Dana Coverstone has abandoned his true calling and accepted a dream from Satan as if it came from God. And he does this all for one reason.

He does not want to reveal his Mystery Dream. I suspect, and it's becoming more and more obvious to me that the Mystery Dream reveals that Mary will save America, and he does not want to say that.

He probably realizes that that would be the end of his evangelical ministry if he said that.

I think Kim Clement understood that with his prophecy about Esther. He could not reveal who Esther was. I mean he may not have even known who Esther was, but I suspect that in the Mystery Dream, Dana does understand it and he realizes that he can't have it.

He would lose his thousands of people watching his videos every day, his posted videos on YouTube, and he does not want to lose that, so he has compromised himself and accepted a dream from Satan. He tried to make it sound like it came from God, and it to me it clearly does not come from God. In any event, that is my interpretation. I would be interested in what all of you have to say about it. I would like to be convinced otherwise. I would like to have somebody convince me that this dream does come from Almighty God. I'm sure you can certainly point certain parts out of it that seem to come from God.

And Satan, he'll give you 90% the truth if he can get in his lies. And I think overall there's a feeling of hopelessness in this dream, which is exactly what Satan would like to depict. He does not want you to know how he will be defeated.

Until I see all of you then, may God bless all of you and may all of you and have a very blessed evening.
