

Bible Prophecy 2016: Pope Invalidates Eucharist!

Today is December the 21st, 2015 which is the first day of winter. And as you can see up here in New York State, we got quite a bit of snow this past weekend and winter is very important in End Times Bible Prophecy. I believe it is the only season mentioned and Jesus said, "Pray that your flight be not in the winter" and He is referring to the abomination of desolation prophesied by Daniel.

And the first of the End Times abomination of desolation is when the False Prophet takes the Daily Sacrifice away from the Prince and I believe that will occur if Pope Francis allows people living in mortal sin to receive Holy Communion. What that means is that a priest who goes along with the False Prophet will not be able to validly consecrate the Eucharist. He must declare that he is separate from the Church and that will of course make him anathema with the Vatican. He will lose his pastorate.

That is when we as Catholics, if we are in the wrong type of a parish, must flee, and it will be difficult in the winter to find a true parish. It will be difficult to go into a spiritual desert. Now, I have been predicting on this program that that could occur in 2014 and 2015. I am here today to tell you if it does not occur in 2016, I am going to have to revise my chronological timeline. I have been saying that Jesus will return at Armageddon in the Fall of 2017. It is related to the great sign which appears in the sky, "a woman clothed with the sun with the moon under her feet and on her head a crown of twelve stars" and we know from the computer program "Stellarium", that will occur on the weekend of September 23rd and 24th, 2017.

My critics tell me that is the beginning of the Tribulation. I have always said it is the end of the Tribulation. If the abomination of desolation does not occur in 2016, I am going to have to admit I was mistaken, however, I advise you, my subscribers, to be particularly alert especially in these next three months of winter when it is very possible that we will have to flee as Jesus warned us.
