In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, Amen. Dear family, our meditation today has its foundation in the dogmatic teaching of the Council of Trent; the unchanged and unchangeable truth of the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church—truth that no priest, no bishop, no cardinal, and no pope can change. They cannot change the truth that if you are in mortal sin, then before receiving the Holy Eucharist—the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Our Lord Jesus Christ—you first must go to sacramental confession, period! To quote Trent, Section 13, Canon 11 specifically: “If anyone says that faith alone is a sufficient preparation for receiving the sacrament of the Most Holy Eucharist, let him be anathema.” In other words, let him be accursed, let him be damned. I didn't make that up. Trent continues: “and lest so great a Sacrament be received unworthily, and hence unto death and condemnation, this holy Council ordains and declares that sacramental confession, when a Confessor can be had, must necessarily be made beforehand by those whose conscience is burdened with mortal sin, however contrite they may consider themselves. You see, it doesn't matter if you feel sorry. The dogmatic teaching of the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church is you still must go to confession before you receive Holy Eucharist; otherwise you receive it unworthily and hence “unto death and condemnation”. And “moreover,” Trent continues—now listen closely, listen very closely, dear family, as if your eternal salvation depended on it, because it does—Trent continues, “moreover, if anyone shall presume to teach, preach, or obstinately assert, or in public disputation defend the contrary, he shall be eo ipso (by the thing) in and of itself, excommunicated.” And, for the record, dear family, get this straight, when the dogmatic Council of Trent said anyone who presumed to teach or preach otherwise, then this truth shall be automatically excommunicated; and, dear family, that “anyone” includes any priest, any bishop, any cardinal, and any pope. With that truth, then clearly front and center in your mind, I don't know how it could be any more clear.

Let us ponder the old fable, 'The Emperor's New Clothes', where everyone, including the emperor, was guilty—out of ignorance, cowardice, and/or fear of not speaking the truth, and allowed themselves in preposterous group-think to pretend that the emperor was actually wearing clothes. Until finally, the stupidity of their actions and the cowardice of their actions were exposed by the words of one child who finally spoke up and spoke the truth, “Why he's not wearing any clothes at all.” Today, this day we have an update on that old teaching fable and it is called 'Bergoglio's New Clothes', and how the voice of Truth exposes the truth that Jorge Bergoglio is not a pope.

Listen and understand, dear family, the simple facts that make for an open-and-shut case against Jorge Bergoglio—and not just Jorge Bergoglio, but all his complicit cronies in the hierarchy. It's a simple way to understand this. Let us begin by asking a simple question: Can the Dalai Lama be a pope? The answer: No, because he is not Catholic. Can Martin Luther's successors or any leaders of the something-like (depending on who's counting) 47,000 different denominations, schismatic groups—can they be a pope? No, because they are not Catholic. Can an imam or a rabbi be a pope? No, no, no, because they are not Catholic. Can Jorge Bergoglio be a pope? No, because he is not Catholic. He is a wolf in sheep's clothing. He is a fraud, an impostor—as are every single one of the brood of vipers, his cronies, such as Blaise Cupich, Robert McElroy, “Nighty-night, baby” Tobin, and James Martin (all of whom support him).

But do not take my word for it. You never have to take my word for it. But all of us do have to take Jesus's word for it: in Matthew 7:15-20, Jesus the Lord taught us to watch out for false prophets, who “come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly they are ferocious wolves. By their fruits you will recognize them. A good tree cannot bear bad fruit and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit. Thus by their fruits you will recognize them.” Notice, Jesus was talking to the faithful immediately after he spoke about the narrow gate to Heaven [Matt. 7:13]: “Enter through the narrow gate: for the gate is wide and the road broad that leads to destruction.” (He's talking about hell.) And Jesus said. “Those who enter hell through it are many.” And then He said [Matt. 7:14], “How narrow the gate and constricted the road that leads to life.” (He's now talking about Heaven.) And He said, “and those who find it are few.”

If we understood nothing else today, dear family, realize how the brood of vipers in control who have presided over the destruction of Faith amongst the Catholics, where even before the Covid nightmare, Bishop Callahan said (right to my face in his office) that “80 percent of Catholics did not know right from wrong, because we bishops had failed to teach them for the last 50 years.” It's now been about 55 years. And even before the Covid nightmare when the bishops betrayed and abandoned us and locked us out of church—even though Walmart, Planned Parenthood, and the liquor stores were open for business—even before that, about 80 percent of Catholics did not believe in the Real Presence. In other words, apply to the brood of vipers exactly what Jesus taught: Watch out for the false prophets that come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly they are ferocious wolves; by their fruits you will recognize them. Eighty percent of Catholics no longer believe! That's the fruits! Well, not surprisingly, Jesus's words were echoed by Saints Peter and Paul. In 2 Peter 2:1-9, Saint Peter wrote, “But there were also false prophets among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you. They will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the Sovereign Lord who bought them: bringing swift destruction on themselves. Many will follow their depraved conducts and will bring the way of Truth into disrepute.” And in 2 Timothy 4:3-4, Saint Paul wrote, “For the time will come when people will not tolerate sound doctrine but following their own desires and insatiable curiosity, will accumulate false teachers, and will stop listening to the truth.” So, our Lord Jesus, Saint Peter and Saint Paul, all warn us to watch out for the false shepherds, the false prophets, the vipers; and we can tell exactly who they are by the bad fruits they produce.

And watch, dear family, one last little aside before we get to the heart of the matter, let us use the brains God gave us and realize Satan is not going to come barging through the front doors ablaze in fire, openly scorching everything in sight. No, that's not the way he works. Satan is going to infiltrate and insinuate himself into the hierarchy—just like Jesus, Peter and Paul said. Will use Satan's insidious and seductive language—just like he did in the garden, “Oh, surely you will not die.” We have thousands and thousands of years of sin and mayhem and death to prove that Satan is the father of lies, and we know that he (Satan, the ruler of the world) has not yet been cast out. And we know he's alive and well in the insidious and seductive language of the hierarchy, all the way to the top, who say to each other now (as Caiphas and his cronies said then) better we cancel the truth-telling priests than risk grief and aggravation from the government or risk our position in the hierarchy.

So, back to what we are to do when we recognize the false prophets by their fruits, the false teachers who secretly introduce destructive heresies, who say or at least directly infer such things as the Holy Eucharist can be received by anyone, Catholic, non-catholic, even when not in a state of grace because of baby murdering in the womb, or contraception, or cohabitation, or divorced and remarried outside the church, or same-sex anything, or any state of mortal sin—we actually do not have to do anything about them, these false shepherds, because as the dogmatic Council of Trent has handed down to us, they have already automatically excommunicated themselves. So, dear family, it's time now to summarize Jorge's new clothes, whereupon we can conclude as we should he is not the pope:

1) From the moment Jorge walked out onto the balcony for the first time—with the Saint Gallen's Mafia BFF Cardinal Danneels, who Bergoglio knew had tried to cover up for another one of his brother bishops, who had molested not one but two of the bishop's nephews.

2) From the moment Bergoglio rehabilitated his BFF boy-raper Theodore McCarrick, leading up to the Summer of Shame of 2018, when the Catholic Church was made the laughing stock of the world and Catholics left the church in droves because of the continued cover-up of even cardinals who raped boys.

3) From the moment Bergoglio appointed boy-raper McCarrick's housemate Cardinal Farrell to be head of the Vatican cabinet post for Family Life. You remember Cardinal Farrell, who like Sergeant Schultz from 'Hogan's Heroes' was all: "Oh, I saw nothing, I know nothing."

4) From the moment Bergoglio appointed Archbishop Paglia as head of the JPPII Institute, the Paglia who had an infamous homosexual and erotic painter paint the entire back wall of his cathedral depicting a semi-exposed Jesus, and depicting his own naked back being rubbed by a naked man with his butt hanging out—that's the cathedral mural. See for yourself the truth I speak. For the record, the artist later was quoted as saying Paglia (appointed by Farrell, McCarrick's roomie) supervised the painting of that mural daily; and the only thing that he was not allowed to paint on the back wall of the cathedral was people copulating.

5) From the moment that that same Paglia then got rid of all the good staff at the JPPII Institute for Family Life and announced that the JPPII Institute no longer would teach Humanae Vitae.

6) From the moment Bergoglio had his bishop buddies bring the pagan fertility goddess (the pachamama) into Saint Peter's and set it down in front of the altar, and then held a worship service in the garden.

7) From the moment Bergoglio insidiously inferred that Catholics should not breed like rabbits.

8) From the moment Bergoglio said the Ten Commandments were not rigid—even though they were carved by the finger of Almighty God Himself, in stone.

9) From the moment Bergoglio let his Vatican Cardinal crony say that Chinese communism is the model of Catholic social justice and that he's a communist socialist because he reads Jesus in the gospels as a socialist—even though the last 10 Catholic popes (including three canonized saints) universally condemned communism and socialism and said we cannot even be a moderate socialist and be Catholic.

10) From the moment Bergoglio put a statue and picture in his office of Jesus dying and going down to hell and forgiving Judas the betrayer, even though Jesus said, “better he had never been born.”

11) From the moment Bergoglio had five meetings with an avowed atheist, who reported that Bergoglio said, “Those people who do not repent” (and, therefore, cannot be forgiven) “just disappear after death, because hell does not exist; rather, the disappearance of sinful souls exits.” I guess they just go poof into nothingness—a statement that Bergoglio, in typical Bergoglian modus operandi, never expressly denied nor corrected, by teaching the truth.

12) From the moment Bergoglio signed the Abu Dhabi agreement—destroying the fundamental and irreconcilable distinction between the Catholic Church and everyone else—and then dared to say that God willed a plurality of religions, even though Jesus Crucified in Matthew 28 gave the Apostles the marching orders to convert the world to the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church.

13) From the moment Bergoglio attacked monasteries and convents and the prayerful cloistered life that has been in the Catholic Church dating way back to the great Saint Anthony of the Desert (circa 300 A.D.); since the great Saint Benedict (circa early 500s); since the great Saint Claire (circa early 1200s).

14) From the moment Bergoglio attacked the Holy Mass of the Ages: the Traditional Latin Mass, and instead promoted the godless worship he allows in the New World Order—like putting a beach ball on the altar, having these air puppets flying around, having a couple perform a Tango in front of the altar. And along with people such as Cupich having soap bubbles, and Cool and the Gang in the midst of what is supposed to be sacred worship.

15) From the moment Bergoglio and every single other American Catholic (save Cardinal Burke) let Biden and Pelosi commit sacrilege receiving Holy Communion and, like in Cupich's case, let people, non-Catholics like the Jewish Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel and the lesbian Methodist Chicago Mayor Laurie Lightfoot commit sacrilege before him, as he sat right there.

16) From the moment Bergoglio just had a big photo-op with Bill Clinton and the Soros spawn. Remember, Bill and Hillary Clinton refused to stand and applaud Mother Teresa—Saint Teresa of Calcutta—for her defense of the unborn. Everybody else: a standing ovation. Bill and Hillary sat there, stone-faced. Oh, but Bill gets a photo-op with Bergoglio this past week, with the Soros sons—even as Bergoglio couldn't seem to find time to meet with Cardinal Joseph Zen, who was under attack from the Chinese communist government.

17) From the moment Bergoglio and his American cardinal cronies promoted and fostered the diabolical debacle at the southern border, where 85,000 or more children have disappeared, and several diocesan Catholic Charities—such as the one under the control of Bergoglio's newest BFF, new San Diego Cardinal McElroy—have made a fortune aiding and abetting criminal illegals, which is a federal crime. Even though we know, through that glorious new movie 'Sound of Freedom', starring the great Jim Caviezel in his portrayal of Tim Ballard's rescue of sex-trafficked children, reveals that this border debacle is the spawn of hell for sex-trafficking; and Catholic Charities under these bishops and these cardinals are in it deep!

18) From the moment Bergoglio just received notorious blasphemous artists into the Sistine Chapel and gave a thumbs-up to the guy there who put a crucifix of Christ into a cup of urine and entitled the picture 'Piss Christ'. He gave him a thumbs-up!

19) From the moment the Pope will slap the hand away of a pious older woman attempting to kiss a Papal ring; but later let a homosexual, dressed only in a white loin cloth, very publicly kneel down before him and kiss his ring.

20) From the moment Bergoglio recently appointed an absolute heretic, Cardinal Victor Manuel Fernandez as head—oh, wait for it—as head of the Dicastery for the Doctrine of the Faith, whose previous doctrinal errors earned him a red-flag file in Rome; and whose bad record on disciplining priests accused of sexual abuse earned him a red flag in Rome. Oh, and his 1995 book, entitled 'Heal Me with Your Mouth - The art of kissing', contains erotic and horrific passages, all of which gave rise to the great Liz Yore statement [on 'Faith & Reason', Episode 69] that this appointment of Fernandez “might be the most catastrophic and unconscionable appointment of Bergoglio's ten-year reign”, and that “this appointment is going to set back the clergy-abuse victims another 50 years.”

Dear family, that's just 20 of the 'From the moment' moments—too countless to mention—that reveal and define the incontrovertible fact that Jorge Bergoglio is exactly what Jesus, Saint Peter and Saint Paul identified: a false prophet, a false teacher, and someone who secretly introduces destructive heresies. Jorge Bergoglio has, in more ways than we can count—but particularly through his sacrilege against the Holy Eucharist—he has excommunicated himself automatically from the Catholic Church. Again, as always, don't take my word for it. Cardinal St. Robert Bellarmine, Doctor of the Church, wrote, “For men are not bound or able to read hearts, but when they see that someone is a heretic by his external works, they judge him to be a heretic, pure and simple, and condemn him as a heretic.” Go look at De Romano Pontifice, Book 2 chapter 30: 'Whether a Heretical Pope Can Be Deposed?'

So, what are we to do now? What are we to do, when we recognize such a false prophet, such a heretic, such an excommunicated viper as Jorge Bergoglio? Do we just let It go and take a heretical, ultra-modernistic view that the pope can do whatever he darn well pleases, because he's the Pope, and correcting him is above our pay grade? No, absolutely not. Oh, the vipers in the hierarchy would like you to think that. Absolutely not. Rather, the dogmatic Council of Trent gave us explicit direction about what to do about such wolves in sheep's clothing: “Since it is not enough just to declare the truth, unless errors be exposed and repudiated, it has seemed good to the holy council to state these canons, so that the Catholic doctrine being already known, all (that means us, dear family), all may understand also what are the heresies that they ought to guard against and avoid, if anyone shall presume to teach, preach or obstinately assert or in public disputation defend the contrary, he shall be eo ipso (by the thing itself) excommunicated.”

So, today we have an update—we've had an update on that old fable, 'The Emperor's New Clothes'; and it's called 'Bergoglio's New Clothes'. Today we have shed the light of Truth on him, and exposed and repudiated just some of Bergoglio's destructive heresies. We just went through 20 of them, by and through which he has excommunicated himself. Bergoglio has, by what he has said and done and by what he has failed to say and do, he has, as Saint Thomas Aquinas taught, schismed away from the Church. Understand, dear family, we are NOT the schismatics, when we hold fast to the deposit of faith, by holding fast to the unchanged and unchangeable Truth. Rather, it is Bergoglio and his buddies, his BFFs, who are the schismatics, who have schismed far from the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church. They are the schismatics, dear family—not us.

So, dear family, let the scales fall from your eyes. Neither the Dalai Lama, nor Martin Luther, nor an imam, nor a rabbi can be a pope, because none of them are Catholic. Neither can Bergoglio, because Bergoglio is not Catholic. But don't take my word for it—again and again, you never have to take my word for it. Saint Robert Bellarmine, Cardinal and Doctor of the Church, drawing upon 1500 years of the Deposit of Faith of saints and martyrs (such as Saint Tarcisus, who defended the Holy Eucharist unto his martyrdom; such as Saint Charles Lwanga and his companions, who stood up against the king's homosexual advances and were tortured and martyred as a consequence)—Saint Robert Bellarmine, Cardinal and Doctor of the Church, wrote, “A pope manifestly a heretic ceases in himself to be pope and head, in the same way he ceases to be a Christian and a member of the Body of the Church, and for this reason can be judged and punished by the Church.” But don't hold your breath waiting for any of the 99 vipers Bergoglio has named as a cardinal—like the newest 'Heal Me with Your Mouth' Fernandez. Don't expect any of his cronies to throw him out, any more than the Sanhedrin threw out Caiphas, who championed the crucifixion of Jesus Christ Our Lord. Instead, dear family, let us use the brains God gave us and realize, admit, confess Jorge Bergoglio is not the pope, because Jorge Bergoglio is not Catholic! He is a fraud; he is an impostor; he is a viper from hell.

So, memo to Bergoglio and every American Cardinal (save Cardinal Burke): When you die—and it won't be long—and you meet Jesus Christ the Lord, beside Him will be standing Saint Tarcisus, Saint Charles Lwanga and Saint Robert Bellarmine. And they will block the entrance to Heaven and watch you fall to your eternal damnation into the unquenchable fires of hell. (That's how Jesus described it.) To which I only can say—out of love and concern for you, dear family (the eternal souls they are leading astray)—this cannot happen soon enough!

Keep the faith, dear family, keep the faith. Keep the faith in the unchanged and unchangeable truth that has been handed down to us by 2000 years of saints and martyrs, of really Catholic popes and cardinals and doctors of the church. Keep the faith no matter what! In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
