

Decode of Dana Coverstone and Amanda Freitas Dream About Russia - Part 2

I think I have a fairly interesting program today. I'm going to talk about Dana Coverstone's "2022 Jets" Dream and Amanda Frieta's dream about the "Three Bears" and this will be part 2. And the reason I'm doing this of course is because there is a lot of controversy about my first program in which I said Russia would not invade Ukraine.

Well as it turned out, that was only partially true, and of course as you know Russia has been invading Ukraine and at least according to news reports. Now if you go to the Kiev capital live they have a livestream from Ukraine. It looks pretty quiet there. There are cars driving around just like normal most of the day. I checked in every now and then.

The Ukrainian president said that the big onslaught will be tonight and that may be so. We'll see. I think that Putin has bitten off maybe more than he can chew. In any event that's not what we're going to be concerned about here.

So let's take a look at this these two dreams of Amanda and Dana, and did I get them wrong or did I get them right? So I'll let you decide and I'm beginning to think that I was actually mostly right, but you know we can talk about it and see what you think.

So what I had predicted was that Mary would prevent the invasion of Ukraine by Russia and in fact I told you that that would become obvious on February the 15th and I got that date from Dana Coverstone's dream. And everybody at that time, remember this was actually a week before the invasion but Dana Coverstone's dream was published I think two or three weeks ahead of time, and everybody said I was crazy.

Biden was out there every day saying the invasion is imminent. The military was saying the invasion is imminent. The Drudge Report headline was beating the drums; everybody was beating the drums of war, and I think they do want war. I think the Deep State definitely wants war. Biden wants war to take attention off of his failed policies in every respect. I mean the economy, inflation, the lack of a border wall; he wants attention taken away from that.

So what happened? How come? Well let me let me show you what did happen. This was February 15th. You remember the de-escalation. So now this was the headline. After all that talk, this is the headline from the Drudge Report. This was February the 15th, the date exact date I had said. Here's their headline.

De-escalation? Russia pulls troops. Moscow ready for talks. Putin plays peacemaker. Remember all that? And that was happening. Russia was pulling back, and of course I said, well Dana's dream is being fulfilled to the letter, to the date, to the hour. Well maybe not the hour, but to the date February 15th and Sandra Levine said that day when I announced that I took my victory lap. Well then of course, how long after that that Putin completely turned around and Russia did invade Ukraine.

And the first images looked like it was a false flag, but now it looks like it's pretty real, although I haven't seen any real activity yet. And so what happened? What caused Putin to suddenly change his mind?

Here's what they said. Here's the Russian press release. I got to read this for you. I've read this before. “Kremlin officials seized upon the troop withdrawal as proof of a propaganda victory against the United States and NATO. Foreign ministry spokeswoman Maria Zakharova said 15th February 2022 will go down in history as the day western war propaganda failed, she wrote adding that the west had been shamed and destroyed without firing a single shot. The White House's national security adviser Jake Sullivan had breathtakingly told CNN on Sunday that intelligence suggested military action could begin any day now. Ukrainian president Vladimir Zelinsky had also declared that February the 16th the day the Biden administration claimed Russia was planning to invade would be a national day of unity.”

Well they did not invade on the 16th as I said; they pulled back on the 15th just as I had predicted and as Dana had indicated in his dream. So what caused Putin to suddenly change his mind in reverse direction and not go through with the invasion?

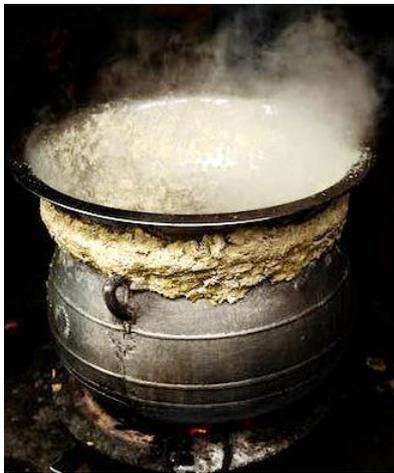

I got a feeling that somebody with authority, maybe Biden, told him that Ukraine would be joining NATO. I'm sure that is what happened. If anybody else has any other ideas, let me know. So of course, as I say two or three days later, Russia turned around the troops and the tanks and everything, and invaded Ukraine just as it had been indicated before. And people started pointing fingers at me saying I was a false prophet and I admit I was a little nervous. I said, “What is going on?”

Well I think I figured out the problem, and I think the problem was; I thought that Dana's dream and Amanda's dream were contemporary. Now I realize that Dana's dream was to set the chronology, and those events did not occur at the same time. They were not expressing the same event. They were expressing subsequent events.

In other words Amanda's dream of the first bear, which was actually her third part of the dream; the first bear comes after the wall which prevented the invasion of Ukraine by Russia which I call Mary's wall, and I'll show you in a minute why. I'm sure most of you will remember.

So let's start with Dana's dream, and we'll go through this, and I've been through this of course with you before. I've edited this down just to refresh everybody's memory, and I think you'll see what I'm talking about. I'm going to start with the vision that Dana had, which is actually the third part of the prophecy that he gave, but it's actually the first event. So let's review what Dana had prophesied for February the 15th.

“I began to walk and pace in the living room and as I was walking and pacing about 2:15 am, I had a vision. I was stopped in my tracks, and I saw a vision. And in that vision I was standing on the boundary of Ukraine and Russia. And I saw a large boiling pot right on the border. It didn't take up the whole border but just right smack dab in the center of the border point being between Russia and Ukraine. And I saw this huge boiling pot; and I'm going to call it a cauldron.”

Okay well so far very accurate. February the 15th, there was a lot of boiling going on between Russia and Ukraine; a lot of talk, a lot of rumors of war all over the place and Dana was right and my interpretation was correct. So now let's look at the next slide I've got here, the next part of Dana's dream.

“And I saw soldiers on both sides of that cauldron; they were tossing up blocks and bricks and pieces of what looked like tree limbs in large black bags. And the different sides were not engaged with each other. There was no war going on, nobody had guns or weapons or missiles or anything; they were just taking stuff and throwing it up in the pots from both sides.”

Well and of course I interpreted that as saying that there will be no war on February the 15th and no invasion, and people said I was crazy. Of course there's got to be invasion. All you have to do is look at the headlines, but suddenly on February the 15th just as Dana said. He looked at his watch remember 2:15 in the morning and I interpreted that as February the 15th. There were no guns, no missiles, no shooting, none of that; and that's what I reported on.

And sure enough, there was de-escalation as the Drudge Report said, the Russians pulled back, the Russian spokeswoman said that the west had egg on their face because they were predicting war and there wouldn't be any war. And of course something happened to change that. So let's look at the next part of Dana's dream.

“And I was looking at the wall facing Russia looking at it from the west to the east. And that sentinel on the heart monitor went from Estonia to Georgia. It was all the way north to south from where that wall was now and it started in the middle of Ukraine and Russia. And when the night came you could see that pulse on the western side. Because as it got darker, you could see that pulse brighter and brighter and brighter and brighter and brighter. It was like a heart monitor.”

And as I have explained, this was indicative that this wall between Russia and Ukraine was erected by Mary and the Rosary and I said that the heart monitor symbolizes the Immaculate Heart of Mary; the pulsing light on it is a reference to Our Lady of Fatima when she said that in the end, my Immaculate Heart will triumph and Russia will be converted; an era of peace will be granted to mankind. And I said, well this is the start of the peace. And of course I was mistaken, but it did tell what was going on, on February the 15th and of course 15 is a Rosary number. February 15th; that verified it, in my mind that this was Mary's doing, and I think it was. And I think it was our prayers that were bringing them up and I think prayer is going to be the answer ultimately, but the turnaround of events was certainly quite stunning.

So now let me look at the last part of Dana's vision which I'm going to give you.

“And there were also lights that were about 500 feet above those walls. And there were fixed poles that covered the top of that wall with light and they also revealed about 50 feet up all along that wall there were guard turrets and there were two guards, each one facing a different way; one facing east and one facing west with their backs right up next to one another. And in my spirit I heard the words that: ‘a new cold war is upon us and that cyber will be the new cipher’.”

So now this is a cyber war. Well I think that's exactly what's happening right now, and I thought it would be strictly a cyber war, and the wall was, remember it was cold, ice cold? In other words a cold war and I think the Drudge Report mentioned that this is going to be a cold war, but now it's a hot war. And as I say, this was Mary's wall. Not only because of the American heart, because the lights were 500 feet high; the turrets were 50 feet high and Dana repeated the word brightly five times, referring to the wall. That's 555, and that's Mary's number in Bible prophecy.

555 is the number that will defeat 666 and it all made sense to me, but as you know I think the mistake was, that I assumed that Amanda's dream correlated exactly to this, and that was my mistake. In other words this wall was breached very shortly afterwards; three or four days was it?

So now let's look at Amanda Frieta's dream, and I want to show you her picture. I've showed you her picture before, and the reason I show her picture; she has an attractive face anyway, but in the dream that she had, the Lord told her that she represented the Church.

Amanda Freitas

Now in the Book of Revelation the woman in the Book of Revelation symbolizes both Mary and the Church. So I believe that Amanda is, in her dreams, she represents both the Church and Mary, and she has a crown on, and I would call that a crown. I mean technically it's not a crown. Of course she has a lot of makeup on, but still she's quite attractive. I would say if you were to have wanted an actress to play Mary, I think this would be a good person.

Anyway let's take a look at Amanda's dream. Let me show the chart first. Now I showed you this chart last time.

I had Dana's vision and his dream and vision was broken down into the vision part of 2/15 which we just read. Following that is March 22, in other words March of this year, and then September of this year. And of course these were not in this order in his dream, but it had to be rearranged. This is typical of End Times prophecy. For it to be in chronological order is unusual. It's the usual thing to change the chronology, so that's what it is.

Dana's Dream & Vision	Amanda's Dream
2/15 Vision	3rd Bear
March '22	1st Bear
September '22	2nd Bear

This has been corrected and that means that Amanda's bears; the third bear comes first, the first bear comes second, the second bear comes third. Now my mistake was in saying that these two occur at the same time, (Dana's 2/15 vision and Amanda's 3rd Bear dream) they're describing the same event. That's my mistake. The third bear comes after the February 15th vision. In fact you go all the way through this, in other words, the first vision, then the third bear, then the March 22nd part of Dana's dream, then the first bear then September and the second bear.

Now I'm sure, as we go along, I will go over those because I think they're all going to come true, and just because I misinterpreted part of it, don't take that away from either of them. It's amazing that two different prophets receive prophecy that must be joined together, and that's how you interpret them. Now that's totally unique. You do the same thing with Isaiah 45 and Micah 5.

Okay, so now let's take a look at Amanda's dream and I've got this arranged here. I'm editing these dreams so I'm just going through the part that's going on right now.

“When I opened the door of the shed, instead of being a regular shed, it is not a regular shed; it's way bigger. And instead of a floor there is a hole, a very deep hole. And between the entrance and the back of the shed there is a plank and this plank is like a bridge. So I start to crawl on my hands and feet trying to pass to the other side and my husband is right behind me. When I go in the middle, and I'm right in the middle of the passage, this huge bear shows up in front of me.”

Now the Lord told Amanda that the bear in this dream is Russia, so this image of this bear is the current Russia. In other words this is the bear following February 15th. This is what we have now, and the bear is threatening Amanda, so we'll see how Amanda deals with it. There are three manifestations of the bear, as you know in Amanda's dream, and this was the third one, but it actually comes first. So let's look at the next slide I have of Amanda's dream.

“And it was, that I saw and understood, that's not a regular bear because this bear in particular had the face of an old man. He had the face of an old man and he spoke like a man. And he was saying, ‘oh I'm gonna get you’ and he was saying like it in a very lascivious way; you know like he was going to attack me physically, sensually, if you get what I'm saying. When he says that, I said, 'what!' And then the bear said, looking straight at me and said, 'I don't want anything to do with you, lady'. He said that. He called me lady and everything."

So this bear; this manifestation of Russia, which I believe is what we see right now, has the face of an old man. Well the old man I'm sure refers to Satan. He's referred to as old in the Bible, and it means that this operation of Russia going into Ukraine is directed by Satan.

Well of course when I first interpreted this, I was under the illusion or misinterpretation I guess you could say, that this was Russia before the wall, and that the wall frustrated this particular bear, but now I realize that this part of Amanda's dream comes immediately after the wall, and after Mary's wall has been breached, and this is Satan now threatening Amanda. And we'll find out that Amanda knows how to handle this bear. The next slide:

"I don't want anything to do with you lady, I'm gonna get him.' And 'him' was my husband who was right behind me. And immediately I thought of Sodom and Gomorrah where the angels were hidden in Lot's house and Lot was like, 'can you guys stop', and the guys there wanted the person behind Lot and that was the angel. And then when he said that, I said, well I didn't say anything, I just did this, not even a slap; I just touched him. And when I did this and I touched him, he lost his balance and he fell through the cracks on each side of the plank and he fell."

So, this is very interesting. This is where I got mixed up. Now I thought this falling of the bear referred to being frustrated by the wall, and I thought the wall would last much longer than it did, but it didn't. But now this bear, which is now attacking Ukraine, is going to fall into this huge pit, and Amanda is just going to give him a light slap.

Now Amanda as I said, at least as the Lord told Amanda, that she represented the Church. So does this mean that the Church is going to stop this invasion? In fact that's why I prayed this morning for the Church, the remnant Church, to pray to stop the bear invading Ukraine.

So Amanda is saying that this defeat of the bear will be very easy for the Church. It's like knocking a person over with a feather, and so now I think my interpretation is correct. This part of Amanda's dream does not chronologically occur at the same time as Dana's vision. In fact it comes shortly thereafter. So I admit my hindsight is 20/20, so I'm not going to take credit for this, but I am explaining what's happening now. At least I'm up to date. So now, let me try the next slide.

“When he was falling, my husband, who is cool as a cucumber, like nothing's happening, my husband's an American by the way, and he tells me, 'well sometimes you just need to do a little bit of a push and then gravity does the rest, and it's going to be a fast and quick death'. And I'm like, I just look at him he just said that to me. Then I closed the door of the shed and I start to peek through the door like I'm spying and I'm just peeking through the door and looking outside in my garden, my backyard.”

So I don't want to get into what she sees out the backyard. It's very interesting. What she sees is the fourth and final beast. She sees a stage going on, being built, and that actually comes at the end of all of her bears. And at the end of Dana's dream I don't think he gets into the fourth and final beast, but Amanda's dream does. I'm not covering everything in Dana's dream on this program.

I'm not covering for example my theory that in March, that that will likely involve invasion of Israel, and I based that on the fact that Dana had his dream 13 days in a row and the most prominent time the number 13 is found in the Bible is found in the Book of Esther. I'm not sure about that I'm not going to predict that 100%, but I think it's very likely.

And so Amanda's husband's his comment on the whole thing is that sometimes gravity takes over. You just start to push and gravity takes over. And I think that's a comment that all the Church has to do is just start praying, and God will do the rest. I'm sure that's the meaning.

By the way, did you see where Pope Francis went to the Russian embassy? I think he was thinking that he was going to bring peace. Doesn't he know that he has the power to bring peace? Well actually I don't know if he does, but Pope Benedict would. Pope Benedict XVI has the power to bring peace. In fact any of the popes since Pope Benedict XV had the power to consecrate Russia to the Immaculate Heart and Mary said that that would convert Russia. That would save the world.

So it's ironic to me to have the pope go to visit the Russian embassy in Rome to try to stop this invasion. No, maybe it'll work. Maybe he'll do it. Maybe I shouldn't say anything. Who knows, but according to Amanda's dream it's the prayers of the church that will stop this invasion. At least that's my interpretation this time. I hope I don't have to come back in a week or so and change it all again.

Until I do see all of you again, may God bless all of you and may all of you have a very blessed evening.
