

Mary's School of Prophecy Is Bible Prophecy Finally Catching Up with Pope Francis?

Somebody mentioned this morning that they think a whistle-blower is being hid in the Vatican. I never heard that rumour but it's possible. We know which side the Pope is on and that's what we want to discuss. I think all this week we will be talking about the problem in the church, and why the Pope wants to have married priests. Now of course he hasn't said this, and in fact he is very clever, naturally. He is trying to make it seem as if he is on the side of celibacy, but he's being forced into this by the bishops. And of course he nominated all the bishops that attended his Amazon Synod, but he figures that they will provide him cover and which they have, and so Wednesday will be a huge day in the world wide medium, and I want to be here.

And so on this program I want to specifically talk about a program by John Henry Weston, and there's a link to it below just above the link to my website, and I gave you the assignment this morning if you were at the Rosary to watch that video, because I'm going to be playing parts of it, and I don't know the technique yet of how to show it on the screen, but you can hear his voice, the same way as we did with last week that we were playing parts of other people's videos. So I'll do the same with this, and it's interesting. His video was about five cardinals and two bishops who believe we are in the End Times, which is very unusual for anybody in the church to talk about the End Times or the apocalypse or the Book of Revelation or Daniel, but this Pope is waking a lot of people up that yes indeed we could very well be in the End Times.

Don't underestimate the importance of Pope Francis. I mean how many false prophets are there? There's only one. Read Jeremiah chapter 23. There's only one False Prophet and he's called Wormwood, chapter 23 verse 15, Jeremiah. We know from that chapter that Wormwood is a Catholic priest, and we know from the Book of Revelation that Wormwood is associated with the colour red. That's all you have to do is put two and two together, and we know from Daniel 10 verse number 3 that he's not anointed with oil. He's not truly anointed, so the False Prophet is found in quite a few places, and in Jeremiah 23:15 God says, "I will feed them Wormwood". That means that God appoints the False Prophet just as He will appoint the Antichrist.

So I think we can start reviewing this program by John-Henry Westen and so let me go over what we're going to do this week. I want to focus on Pope Francis and what he's doing to the church, especially as it has to do with Amoris Laetitia where he is taking away the validity of the Eucharist, and the significance of adding married priests. And someone mentioned this morning, that they heard a rumour that no one that this was in a message, that the Pope will require a loyalty oath from priests, and that makes a lot of sense. He won't need to do that until he gets all his ducks in line, and that means that he has got to make a lot of deacons into priests. Then he can put the pressure on, because he will require the deacons and the priests to take a loyalty oath. And it's very simple for him then to weed out all of the traditional priests, and replace them with deacons who support him. So I think that's very likely that he will require a loyalty oath.

So let's start with John-Henry Westen's program, and this is his introduction, and I'll play this, and I think he gives a very good introduction and you'll see what he is talking about.

“The situation in the church today is so severe that five cardinals and two of the most prominent bishops in the world have spoken about these as the End Times.”

Okay now that's very significant. I mean when was the last time your priest or bishop talked about the End Times? So here we have five prominent cardinals and two bishops talking about the End Times, so I was very interested in watching this video. And in this next section he's going to talk about an introduction to Archbishop Viganò who is very outspoken. Now I've always said that Pope Benedict is the bishop dressed in white who will be martyred. It's possible that Archbishop Viganò is the bishop dressed in white who will be martyred. So let's hear what John-Henry Westen has to say. I think he is going to quote Archbishop Viganò.

“Archbishop Carlo Maria Viganò, the former papal representative to the USA who blew the whistle on Pope Francis's knowledge of the abuses of former Cardinal Theodore McCarrick gave a summary of the papacy of Pope Francis that really must be heard.”

Well we're going to play this what he said, because his analysis of the Francis papacy is stunning, so let me play this for you.

“He said and I quote, ‘The tragic story of this failed pontificate advances with a pressing succession of twists and turns. Not a day passes from the most exalted throne, the Supreme Pontiff proceeds to dismantle the See of Peter, using and abusing its supreme authority, not to confess but to deny, not to confirm but to mislead, not to unite but to divide, not to build but to demolish.’”

Well that is a perfect description of Pope Francis papacy but it's also a perfect description of the False Prophet. The False Prophet is going to do all those things. Not build but to demolish, not to confirm but to mislead. Everything is confusion. In fact Pope Francis said that his goal as the Pope is to make a mess and that's exactly what he is doing, but as we listen to this description of the papacy from Archbishop Viganò, see if it doesn't sound to you like how the False Prophet is described in the Bible. So let me get you this next quote.

“Material heresies, formal heresies, idolatry, superficiality of every kind: the Supreme Pontiff Bergoglio never ceases stubbornly to humiliate the highest authority of the Church. His action seeks to violate the Sacred Deposit of Faith and to disfigure the Catholic Face of the Bride of Christ by word and action, through duplicity and lies, through those theatrical gestures of his that flaunt spontaneity but are meticulously conceived and planned, and through which he exalts himself in a continuous narcissistic self-celebration while the figure of the Roman Pontiff is humiliated and the Sweet Christ on earth is obscured.”

So, there he lays it right on the line. He says that Pope Francis lies, and we of course know that Satan is the father of lies. I'm surprised that the Pope doesn't excommunicate him. I think he probably will because Viganò, be rest assured, he has no place in the church from this very damning exposition of what he sees about Pope Francis. So let me give you the next quote. This is on at 3 minutes 16 if you're following along on his channel.

“For more than six years now, we have been poisoned by a false Magisterium”.

Wow, did you hear that? “We've been poisoned by a false Magisterium”. What does that word “poisoned” remind you of? It reminds me of Wormwood; bitterness in other words. That's the poison. It's surprising to me that Archbishop Viganò doesn't put two and two together and realize that this is Wormwood, the False Prophet. Of course no cardinal or bishop or anyone in any seminary has ever understood these things, because really I've only discovered them myself lately, but this is a perfect description of Wormwood, the False Prophet.

Let me show you this slide. This is in Revelation where we see that Wormwood is

REV 8:11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood. And the third part of the waters became wormwood. And many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

described as someone who makes the water bitter. Of course this is symbolism. Wormwood symbolizes a person, I believe Pope Francis. The men who “died of the waters”, they died a spiritual death, and the “third part of the waters” refers to a third part of either Catholics or Christians, and they died because the waters become bitter. In other words they become poisoned, just exactly what Archbishop Viganò was saying.

So let me go to the next part, and in this section if you're following along, it's at 4:44 minutes. This is kind of interesting because he calls Pope Francis a modernist. That's another way of saying that he's a heretic, because Pope Pius X said that “modernism is the synthesis of all heresies”. So let's listen to John-Henry Westen quoting Archbishop Viganò.

“With Pope Bergoglio – as with all modernists - it is impossible to seek clarity, since the distinctive mark of the modernist heresy is dissimulation. Masters of error and experts in the art of deception, “they strive to make

what is ambiguous universally accepted, presenting it from its harmless side which will serve as a passport to introduce the toxic side that was initially kept hidden.”

Okay, notice that word “toxic” in there. Again very similar to poison; very similar to what the Bible says is Wormwood. That is bitterness. “I will feed them Wormwood”. That’s what God says. He has appointed the False Prophet and Archbishop Viganò here is using terms that are out of the Bible, and I don’t think he quite understands what he’s saying but I think as we analyse it, we can see that everything he is saying about Pope Francis would be a good description of the False Prophet in Scripture.

So let me look at the next section, and when he talks about Pope Francis as a heretic, which is what he means when he calls him a modernist, I can see why Archbishop Viganò believes that his life is in danger. These people don’t fool around; the New World Order, the One World Religion, the Deep State. Making him a martyr would not bother them one bit, and as I say, he may be the bishop dressed in white. I always thought Pope Benedict was the bishop in white. I’m wondering if Archbishop Viganò will prove to be the bishop in white who is martyred.

So let me continue this (at 5:25 minutes).

“The result of this abuse is what we now have before our eyes: a Catholic Church that is no longer Catholic: a container emptied of its authentic content and filled with borrowed goods.”

Well, the Catholic Church is no longer Catholic. I think that’s what Jesus means when He says in the Olivet Discourse, “Let those who are in the field not go back to take their cloaks”. In other words as the remnant Catholic Church, we must flee the taken over Roman Catholic Church. And when He says, “Don’t go back to take your cloaks”, I think that these doctrines of Pope Francis are what we must leave behind. We can’t take any of his doctrines with us when we leave the Catholic Church, and as he says that the authentic content has been emptied out of the church.

I have one more section here, and it’s interesting in here where Viganò says the advent of the Antichrist is inevitable. I’m not sure if this is actually in here but I think it is. This is very important (at 5:41 minutes).

“Now get what he says next. He says, ‘The advent of the Antichrist is inevitable; it is part of the epilogue of the History of Salvation. But we know that it is the prerequisite for the universal triumph of Christ and his glorious Bride.’ He adds, ‘Those of us who have not been ourselves be deceived by these enemies of the Church enfeoffed in the ecclesial Body, must unite and together face off against the Evil One, who is long defeated yet still able to harm and cause eternal perdition of multitudes of souls, but whose head the Blessed Virgin, our Leader, will definitively crush.’”

Well isn't that a positive note that John-Henry Westen quotes Archbishop Viganò, that Mary will crush the head of the serpent, and I was so glad to hear him say that because the Catholic Church no longer teaches that, as we all know. EWTN, Father Mitch Pacwa, the official translation of Genesis 3:15 says "he will crush the head". Archbishop Viganò and John-Henry Westen here are saying, "she will crush the head of the serpent", and that's what we of course teach here in our remnant Catholic Church. So I think that concludes the program.

He goes on and he talks about the other six people, cardinals and bishops. Some of them I don't think I will be covering, because they don't have to do with the End Times as much as what Archbishop Viganò just did. And if you have any comments on this, I think it is quite shocking, and I hope many Catholics get to understand what Archbishop Viganò was saying, because he of course knows the Pope, and he worked in the Vatican, so this is like an eyewitness to what's happening in the church, and it's so much better. I mean his videos get almost 11,000 views right now which is so much more than what I will get, so but even then Archbishop Viganò doesn't understand that he is talking about the False Prophet and when he uses terms like "heresy" and "toxic", poisoning and so on, he is talking about Wormwood the False Prophet.

Tomorrow I will continue this series. I think I will probably all week talk about how Pope Francis is taking the daily sacrifice away from the Prince. And that reminds me, on my website I now have a notice on the front page of my website of how you must learn to how to discern, so that you will know how to decide if your priest is really performing a true consecration of the Body and Blood of our Lord, because Pope Francis's aim is to eliminate all true consecrations. And that is the goal of the False Prophet, to take the daily sacrifice away from the Prince. And on Wednesday as I say at noon Rome time which will be I think 6 am here, 6 or 7 by Wednesday by the time we have the Rosary at 10 am Wednesday, we will know exactly what his apostolic exhortation says. And I don't think there's any doubt that he's going to make celibacy optional. I mean the Vatican is not saying that right now, and they're trying to give hints that the Pope, "Oh, he's against optional celibacy", and so on but that's just a smokescreen. He wants to blame the bishops for what he wants to do, and I have told you the purpose of it is to dilute the priesthood.

Okay so tomorrow I will continue this study of John-Henry Westen's video and I urge you to watch it yourself and here is a link to it. Until I do see you all again, may God bless all of you and may all of you have a very blessed evening.
