

Marriage of the Antichrist in Gangnam Style

This will be my eighth program in a series on that amazing music video called 'Gangnam Style' and I believe it is a prophecy of these End Times from Enoch. And we've already seen how Psy, who is playing the role of the Antichrist, verifies many of the characteristics that we see in Bible Prophecy about the Antichrist, and we've already seen him remove two of the obstacles to his power and that is the United States and the Catholic Church as personified by Pope Benedict XVI.

On this program, I want to show that Gangnam Style reveals how the Antichrist will consolidate his power and rule the One World Government and he does it in an unusual fashion. He is not going to operate the same way as previous world dictators like, for example, Hitler or Stalin or Napoleon. He does not rule the world militarily; he does not need to. He lets the other countries take themselves out. He will rule the world by taking over the world's religions. This is a very unique concept. I'm not even sure that is clear in the Bible but this is what the video Gangnam Style is telling us.

But, is this the truth? This is something that we are going to have to decide because it is extremely interesting. First, let's take a look at where Psy is riding a transit bus.

In this scene we see Psy as the Antichrist straddling the center aisle. I think this indicates that he will be neither left nor right, politically speaking. And there are seven women on this bus: 1, 2, 3 on the right side and 1, 2, 3, 4 on the left side. There are no men on this bus. There are three shiny globes up here at the top center; perhaps that indicates there will be signs in the sun, moon and stars but the question is: Who do these seven women symbolize?

We know in Scripture that women often symbolize religion and we know there will be seven major religions in the End Times who support the Antichrist. We can see this when the Antichrist comes up out of the sea in the book of Revelation and he has seven heads with names of blasphemy. They represent the major 7 religions of the End Times who are apostate, who are idolatrous. We see the same seven women in Isaiah 4:1. These are the seven women who want to 'take hold of one man' and that one man is the Antichrist. And these seven women want to 'eat their own bread', they want to 'wear their own apparel' but they want to be called by the Antichrist's name. Are these the same seven women that we see on the transit bus in Gangnam Style?

Let's see how these seven women on the bus are like the seven women in Isaiah. They eat their own bread, that is, they profess their own dogmas. They have their own outlook, their own traditions. They all look different and they are doing different things. This woman is looking out of the window while some of the women are watching Psy. Notice also that they have different apparel just as in Isaiah. Some women are wearing hats, some are wearing sunglasses, some are young, some are old just like the seven major religions. All of them have begun at different times and therefore they do represent different ages.

It's interesting how these women change during the video.

As the video progresses, the women, who at first are quite distant from Psy, become more and more converted, so to speak. As the Gangnam Style video advances, the women on the bus take a more active part in performing along with Psy and by the end of the video, all seven women are dancing with Psy in the center aisle of the bus.

It is obvious that Psy has taken control of all seven major End Times religions. To me, it's pretty obvious these seven women on the transit bus do indeed represent the seven major religions of the End Times and they all do end up supporting the Antichrist.

And there is an interesting juxtaposition in Gangnam Style between the bus scene and the explosion scene. This explosion scene contrasts in many ways with the transit bus scene.

First of all, we see the explosion scene is outdoors. There are only men in the scene. They face each other. They are confronting each other. They are staging a contest with each other. I believe the explosion scene symbolizes how previous tyrannical dictators have tried to take over the world. They have not succeeded because they have used masculine type confrontation and military means. The Antichrist is going to try something different. He is going to appeal to the feminine. He is going to emphasize cooperation. That's why he straddles the center aisle of the bus. He is going to appeal to the seven major world's religions and Gangnam Style video shows these two contrasting philosophies by having the scenes overlap each other in a kind of a strobe effect at the end of which the two men are blown up.

The Antichrist succeeds where the others failed.

Next we come to another very interesting strobe like scene which shows union instead of conflict and that is the marriage between the Antichrist and the One World Religion. The One World Religion results when all seven major world religions accept the Antichrist as their leader and in this video, Gangnam Style, the One World Religion is represented by Psy's girlfriend whom he meets in the subway.

I believe this One World Religion will have a Christian name or at least a Christian sounding name as evidenced by the cross on Psy's girlfriend's ear. It may even have a Catholic name. Notice the Bingo numbers on her shirt. Now, that may sound corny but at least in America, Bingo is very often associated with the Catholic Church.

We will see in a few minutes why this cross in Psy's girlfriend's ear is very important in the understanding of this Gangnam Style video. And now, we come to the climax of this video and that is where we will see the marriage of Psy, as the Antichrist, and his girlfriend, as the One World Religion. And just as Jesus marries his Bride, which is the Church at the Marriage Supper of the Lamb in Heaven, the Antichrist will marry his bride, the One World Religion in the pits of Hell, and that is why Psy and his girlfriend are shown in this video in a subway, that is, under the earth.

Now, take a very close look at the strobe effect in this following scene and if you watch carefully, you will see that the cross on Psy's girlfriend's ear intersects with the ring finger of his left hand. Watch very carefully. Now, in case that was not too clear, I will try to take a close up view and I will loop the image several times. Watch very carefully as the cross on the girlfriend's ear intersects with the ring finger of Psy's left hand.

So, in conclusion, I really do not believe any of this is accidental. This music video of Gangnam Style is a prophecy from Enoch of how the Antichrist will conquer and rule the world.
