

Flat Earth Lies are Easy to Debunk

I want to take a short break in my series on those amazing prophecies from Natan, the 15-year-old Jewish boy, who saw a vision of the very near imminent destruction of Jerusalem; the two most amazing prophecies were that Obama is Gog in Bible Prophecy and that he will be killed by the Mashiach in Bible Prophecy. And I was skeptical at first but now I realize both those prophecies are indeed found in the Bible.

And, as I say, I want to take a break from that series and I have been getting quite a few comments on my videos about the so-called 'flat earth theory' and of course, up until now, all I have done is laugh because it is utter nonsense but I know some of you have been taken in by this seduction of the End Times.

I am showing this picture of the full moon because this is one of the very obvious ways that these people are fooling you. And I did my research and I noticed that 90% of these videos, and there are thousands upon thousands of them, were published on YouTube just in the past 12 months

YouTube has been on the Internet for almost 10 years now. I believe their 10th year celebration is next month, and for 9 of those 10 years there were hardly any videos posted on this 'flat earth' nonsense. This tells me that there is some kind of suspicious activity for 90% of these videos to be posted in one year. Something very unusual is going on here so I want to present to you my theories. I believe that Satan and his minions in the New World Order, so far, have not been able to figure out how to control the Internet. They now control the mainstream media. You will find nothing in the mainstream media, for example, on 9-11 truthers. You only find that on the Internet especially here on YouTube. Satan has not been able to remove those videos from YouTube.

For example, more than 2,400 architects and engineers have petitioned Congress to reopen the 9-11 commission. As I say, you won't find that in the mainstream media and Satan does not want you to know about that either. So, I believe he and his minions are putting in their next best effort and that is to pollute information on YouTube and they're doing that by promoting this 'flat earth' nonsense. What's interesting, as I viewed some of those foolish videos, very few of them, if any, showed a full moon or a clear image of the moon. The reason is obvious. The moon is a globe; it's a sphere, and it not only looks like a globe and a sphere but if you look at the details you will see what I mean.

For example, the craters in the center of the moon caused by meteorites are circular but if you look at the craters around the edges up on the right hand side, for example, there is a very large elliptical crater and on the lower left, there are several other elliptical craters at the edges. That could only happen if the moon is spherical. If the moon were flat, as the flat earthers like to say, then all of the craters on the moon would look round.

Another obvious example is the small light colored crater at the bottom with rays emanating where the meteorite struck the moon. Those rays are curved, they are not straight. Not only is that crater an ellipse, if it were a flat moon it would appear as a circle and the rays emanating would be straight lines. Another observation which is not so clear on this view, you should really see a blow up, and that is that the craters around the edges show shadows which would not occur if the moon were flat. And other videos debunking the flat earth theory have shown this before so this is not new but is the most obvious proof. There are many proofs that the earth is a globe, a sphere, but the moon is the most obvious because you can observe it with binoculars yourself.

So now, you might ask: What does any of this have to do with Bible Prophecy? Well, Scripture says that in the End Times, we would be put under a strong delusion. Satan would fill us with lies. Let's look at II Thessalonians, chapter 2:11, 'And for this reason God shall send upon them a strong delusion,' this is a prophecy of the End Times, 'that they should believe a lie.' This is a prophecy from Paul about unbelievers in the End Times and this delusion comes from God. In fact, God is the One who is going to appoint the Antichrist over them. And Jesus tells us that Satan is a liar, as we read in John, chapter 8, verse 44: 'You (Jesus is talking to the Scribes and Pharisees of his time) are of your father, the devil, and the desires of your father you will do. When he speaks a lie (that is the devil) he speaks of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of lies.'

So we should not be surprised that since Satan is in ascendancy in these End Times, and he knows his time is short, that he would be promoting lies all over the Internet, especially to dilute the truth that you find on YouTube. In fact, Satan is going to promote a tremendous false flag of his own. Revelation 13, verse 3: 'And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death.' This is an amazing false flag because John says 'as it were', in other words, this is a phony event, a false flag. Satan wants you to get used to accepting his false flags, 'and his deadly wound was healed and all the world wondered after the beast.' In other words, this false flag which the Antichrist will perpetrate, will be shown all over the mainstream media. What I believe happens is that the Antichrist's head wound actually occurs to the False Prophet.

The Antichrist will then heal the False Prophet and, as Scripture says, 'all the world wonders after the beast'. This is the key element in his being declared divine. It's the only false flag that I know of found in Scripture and what the world's elite are doing is they are softening us so to speak by polluting the Internet. They want you to believe what's on the mainstream media and they must confuse us by putting these phony theories like a 'flat earth' all over YouTube. There is method in their madness.

Please note that this image of a clear, full moon in which the circular meteorite craters around the outside of the moon look like ellipses. That proves that the moon is a globe and therefore, the earth also must be a globe. They don't show this for one very simple reason: they are lying and they know they are lying and you must be aware because all of this is about to take place: the Antichrist is about to appear. You have to remember now because you won't be told then and all of my efforts to debunk the Antichrist's false flag will fall on deaf ears because people will say 'Oh, who can believe what you see on YouTube. They promote stupid ideas like a flat earth.' So remember, I warned you ahead of time.
