

'The Obama Diary 2033' by James Tapley

This will be just another very short video, as I continue to celebrate the completion of my fifth year on YouTube, and I want to show you a very interesting project that my brother has just completed, and that is, he has published a new book, and I think you will be very interested in this title. It's called 'The Obama Diary 2033' by James Tapley.

This book tells the story from the perspective of a woman by the name of Spring, who is a very interesting character. In fact I got to like her very much, even though she is totally taken in by Obama, and his liberal agenda. Still, my brother portrays her in a very sympathetic manner, and this book is profusely illustrated, and he sent it to me a couple of weeks ago, and I promised to read one chapter a night, and there are 12 chapters, each of them named after one of the months of the year. After all, this is the diary which the main character, Spring writes. So after the third night, I was up to the month of March, the third month, and I was so intrigued, that I sat down, and read the whole book all the way through, and I think you will find this a very entertaining book also.

Now I want to show you some of these really good illustrations. As you know from some of my previous videos that I made with my brother, he is a very accomplished artist.

And now this first one shows Barack Obama at the age of 72, and I think my brother has caught a very interesting likeness of him.

The character, "Spring"

Obama at 72

The reason my brother did a portrait of Barack Obama, aged to 72 years is because the book is about Obama being elected for the seventh time in the year 2032. And another of these very good illustrations of the president in my brother's book is President Obama in his Muslim headdress.

Now this book gives a lot of interesting possibilities for the future of Obama. For example who is Barack Obama's second wife? And what famous actor does Michelle Obama eventually marry? And what do Obama's daughters, Sasha and Malia do, which totally shocked the president? And I'll give you a hint. One of them becomes a Catholic!

Now if you would like a hard covered copy of the book, just like I have here, you can simply write to my brother at his address, James Tapley, 1351 Salisbury Road, Sheffield, Massachusetts, 01257 USA.

The cost is US$35, and that includes shipping and handling. You can send him either a check or money order or a Western Union. But the very best way to read this book is to read it on your iPad. Go to the iBook website just type in 'The Obama Diary 2033 by James Tapley'. The cost in that case is US$9.99. However, my brother has posted one free chapter. I believe he's got the month of July posted, and you can read it for yourself. Don't take my word for it. This really is, a very entertaining book
