

Mary's School of Prophecy Natan's Fourth Blood Moon Warning to Israel

I think we will have an interesting discussion today. I certainly hope so. As you know I gave you an assignment this morning I hope some of you did your homework, and watched that video about the Jewish teenager Natan, who had a near-death experience and he was shown the near future of Israel. And some of the events have passed, and we are lucky just as we are in this country that Obama has passed from the scene. He is of course the leopard in Daniel 7. In fact the first three beasts in Daniel have all come and gone. All we are waiting for now is the fourth and final beast. Well one of the things Natan prophesied was that Obama would be buried in Israel. He would come against Israel. Well he certainly did come against Israel his entire presidency, but just as we are fortunate enough to have escaped Obama's fate for the United States by the election of Donald Trump, certainly Israel has been fortunate enough that we have Donald Trump in our country. And he is certainly a great friend of Israel as we found out earlier this week when he and Benjamin Netanyahu unveiled their peace plan.

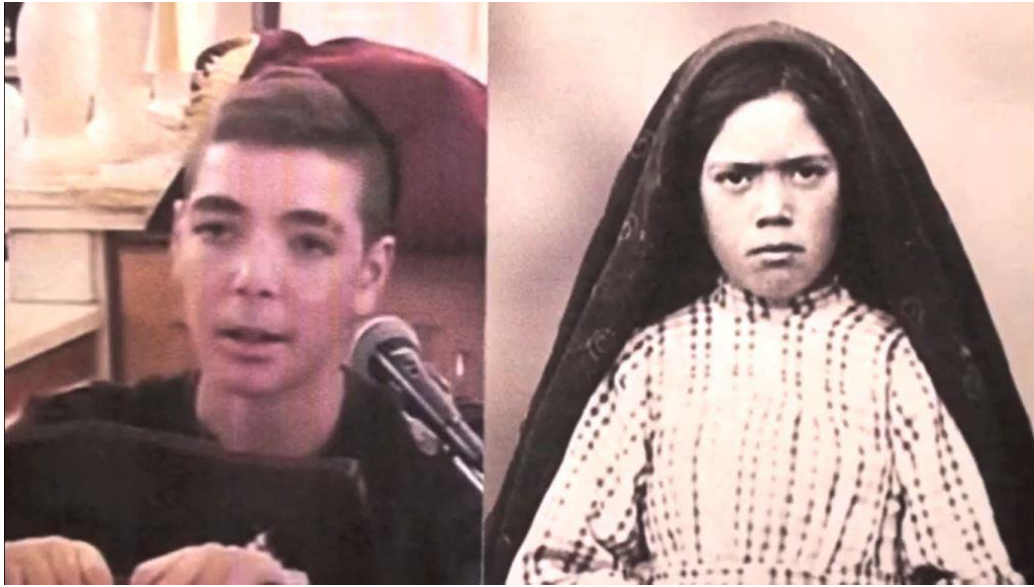

And the reason I was reminded of Natan is because the peace plan that Donald Trump and Benjamin Netanyahu unveiled is found in Daniel 9 verse number 12. And unlike the false prophets of whom there are many; people like Paul Begley, JD Farag, Mark Blitz, John Hagee and Irvin Baxter, all of whom, as far as I know, maybe they've changed their tune now, but they all say that the Antichrist signs some kind of peace treaty with Israel or that there is going to be a third temple, or that the Jews will be allowed to resume ritual animal sacrifice and that's all nonsense. None of that is in Daniel 9. And a lot of what Natan was shown verifies what I have been saying all along about Daniel 9.

I hope all of you have watched that video and I'm hoping that you have a few questions about Natan's experience. And it's interesting that he received this vision on the fourth blood moon, and as you know Mark Blitz and John Hagee and Paul Begley and all those, they made millions of dollars on this prophecy of the four blood moons because they wrote big books about it. I'm not sure about Begley. I know Mike Blitz and John Hagee did. In fact someone sent me a copy of Hagee's book and I went through it on several of my videos pointing out where he was mistaken, and where he was right.

And they all said that the four blood moons on the Jewish holidays almost always prophesy a major event for Israel. And there was a major event for Israel on September 28th 2015 and that's when Natan had this near-death experience and received this amazing prophecy, and he appeared before a group of Jewish students and adults, and his prophecy was monitored by Rabbi Levy.

The first part of the video is very interesting but after about the 23rd minute I think or the 28th minute when Rabbi Levy kind of takes over and he's not nearly as interesting, people start getting bored. You can see they do, even the Jewish teenager Natan starts yawning.

Volume 3, chapter 18 in my book series is all about Natan's near death experience, and there's a picture on here that I especially want you to note.

This is the comparison of Natan with Lucia dos Santos, the Fatima seer, and I think you can see that picture, and what struck me about both Natan and Lucia dos Santos is how much they look alike. I think Natan is 15 years old in this picture and I think Lucia is about 12. I'm not sure, so the Lord often gives amazing visions to teenagers, very interesting.

On the left you see Natan giving his testimony in front of quite a large group of young people and adults and on the right of course we have the seer of Fatima, Lucy dos Santos. So I think it's interesting that Almighty God reveals such intimate secrets about heaven in the future through teenagers who really are ignorant of religion, not just of the world but really don't know much. In fact Natan, if you watched his video, he knew hardly anything about Judaism, and the rabbi gets him to repeat over and over again that everything that he is telling them, he learned in heaven through his experience.

Okay before we will ask Mary to bless our program tonight, Our Lady of All Nations. In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, Amen. Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the Father, send now Your Spirit over the earth. Let the Holy Spirit live in the hearts of all nations, that they may be preserved from degeneration, disaster and war. May the Lady of All Nations, the Blessed Virgin Mary, be our Advocate, Amen.

So I gave a kind of a quick review of Natan's vision, at least what I consider the important parts of it. The near-death experience sounds pretty much like a typical near-death experience. He dies basically. He's lying on his bed and he mentions the health problems he's got, and his soul hovers over his body and then his soul ascends and it goes through a tunnel which is very typical of near-death experiences. He sees a light at the end and he approaches the light, and one of the things that happens in heaven is he is judged. And he says they weigh the good on one side, the bad on the other, and he said they were merciful to him. The judges who are three rabbis, I think he names as his judges. They showed mercy because he was only 15 years old. He said it goes much harder for adults, and everyone can see your sins. There were people there and every time one of his good deeds was announced, the people would cheer and then when something that was bad he did, they all hollered at him and screamed and so on. It was kind of an interesting story, but what interested me mostly was his talk about the Mashiac.

Now to him, the Mashiac means Messiah and I'm afraid that most Christians who watched his near death experience might be put off by that, because they think he's talking about Jesus. That's who we would say is the Messiah, but he is actually talking about the prophet Elijah, who will save the remnant of Israel in these End Times. He does see Jesus later on and he calls him HaShem which is one of their terms for God, and he sees Him with a bloody coat, in bloody garments, and of course that's a dead giveaway to us Christians that HaShem to him actually is Jesus.

He mentioned some of the sins of the End Times. He says it's interesting and he said that some sins are worse for women than for men. In other words they should not do it, and pride and he mentioned gossip. He mentioned sexual sins and modesty for women. He mentioned spilling seed and it's interesting that it's that spilling seed that maybe that's why none of those other false prophets that I mentioned acknowledge this. I mean Natan's testimony, his near-death experience, and his vision of the end for Israel on the night of the fourth blood moon. That is not accidental, and yet all these people who wrote books about it like John Hagee, they've never acknowledged that this was the fulfillment of the fourth blood moon. I can't believe it.

They asked him about repenting and Natan says it only takes one minute to repent. People who repent are very favourite in heaven, and he mentioned that the little things, like talking in the synagogue was a big sin, and of course it would be reverence in Church for us. Another big sin was dietary rules, of course for the Jews that would be eating kosher. For those of us who practice not eating meat on Fridays for example, that would be serious for us, although Catholics can now do some other form of penance, but that would be a serious transgression as to not take those laws seriously.

He basically said Israel is going to be involved in a great war, and of course this is found at Daniel 12 also, and he says there will even be a nuclear bomb, sent towards Israel and he says God will hold it up, for I think he said, four days, and He holds it up but finally it does fall and it hits Tel Aviv and Haifa. That's kind of an interesting prophecy.

Well anyway about Barack Obama, he says that Barack Obama is Gog, of Gog and Magog. And as I say I think that it's possible that Natan's testimony causes enough Jews to repent, therefore saving Israel from that particular problem, but that doesn't mean that World War 3 is over with, because there are many other manifestations of World War 3 in prophecy, and of course the biggest one is in Daniel 9, and in Daniel 9 we learned about the Anointed One. That's the Mashiac that I am sure Natan saw, in other words the prophet Elijah and he said that the Mashiac is alive today, in other words Elijah and I've said that all along, Elijah and Enoch. He says we don't know who they are, and I agree with that. In other words they are clothed in sackcloth, and he says that they themselves don't know who they are, and I've been saying that also. Enoch and Elijah are here and they themselves don't realize that they are the two witnesses.

And Natan says that the Mashiac will save the Jews during this World War 3 event and the ones who are to be saved will flock to Jerusalem. The Mashiac is in other words Elijah. Natan doesn't know that it's Elijah. He calls him the Mashiac which is a fair explanation of his title, because in Daniel 9 he is called the Anointed One which is the same as Mashiac, the prophet Elijah is.

And he describes the Jews, the remnant Jews who qualified to be saved as being tested by the Mashiac, and he said they will be tested by odour. He will sell them in other words I would guess the odour of sanctity. Those who are worthy enough to be saved, that is to be protected in the Mount of Olives will give off an odour of sanctity, and this coincides exactly with what Jesus said in the Olivet Discourse. When you see the abomination of desolation, and that's when the prince who shall come invades Israel, Jesus said, “Let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.” Well now we know what mountain that is, it's the Mount of Olives and the one who is there allowing the remnant of the faithful, the remnant Jews to be saved is the prophet Elijah, whom he calls the Mashiac. And we find this in the Book of Revelation where the prophets Enoch and Elijah seal the 144,000. I'm sure this is what John is talking about in the Book of Revelation. The sealing is what Natan sees, before they go into the mountains which Jesus says that they must do. The sealing is what Natan described.

Now it's interesting that he didn't mention Enoch but I am sure Enoch will be there. He mentions two people resurrecting from their graves. That would be the two witnesses, one on one side and one on the other side. I've said all along or I have suggested that Elijah, maybe I don't say this is written in stone, could be Benjamin Netanyahu. What's interesting is that Rabbi Levy partway during his exposition says, “Do you think Benjamin Netanyahu is going to save you?” Well of course that struck me it's kind of funny, because I think it is Benjamin Netanyahu who will save you after he is revealed as the prophet Elijah, after he is resurrected. Now it doesn't have to be him. It could be some other, but Natan says he is very well known and he is living in the State of Israel.

Now Natan, as I said, he says that two will resurrect from their graves, one on one side and one on the other. The one on the other side I am sure is the prophet Enoch. I've been saying all along that I think, at least this is my suggestion that the prophet Enoch is Pope Benedict, and when we see these people, and I'm not sure how this will work, in other words when you are actually looking at Benjamin Netanyahu, you are seeing the prophet Elijah. I'm sure that he would have the exact same DNA, the same person. Now how he comes back into the womb of another mother I'm not sure how that works. I'm sure that's one of the mysteries that will someday be explained to us.

It's the same way with Pope Benedict. I'm suggesting that he is the Prophet Enoch, and of course we know that he went up to heaven and he was 365 years old when he was taken up to heaven, which was meant that he was relatively young because Methuselah lived to be 900 and as I say how the Prophet Enoch's DNA is inserted back into his mother's womb, I'm not sure. In other words, they will have two mothers in heaven, and I mean this is I admit far-fetched and I'm not saying that this is anywhere in the Bible because it's not, but it's kind of interesting to theorize on it. Natan also said that the revelation of the Machiah is imminent, and of course that's true.

So I think I've covered everything that I was interested in as far as Natan's vision. There's a whole lot more to it. It's worth watching the whole thing, even though it does get kind of boring at the end when Rabbi Levy takes over, but we still have to be thankful that Rabbi Levy brought this to the fore. What I'm surprised at is that I have not heard anything about Natan since this happened. I mean this video was published in January 2016, somewhere in that timeframe. I didn't go to Wikipedia. Maybe there's something in there but I have not seen any new videos on Natan which worries me that most of Israel will not be saved as Daniel says in his chapter number 9.

Okay, well everybody may God bless all of you and may all of you have a very blessed evening.
