

NO WOMAN, INCLUDING SARAH PALIN, SHOULD BE PRESIDENT

The topic of this program is why a woman should not be President of the United States and that includes a very good candidate like Sarah Palin. Now I base this on what the Bible says.

If you look in Genesis, God told Adam and Eve that "man would rule over woman" and the reason for this is not because a man is superior to a woman, but because actually a woman is superior to a man. Now let me explain what I mean by this.

In the beginning men and women were created equal. That's why Adam says when he first sees Eve, "Ah! At last, flesh of my flesh and bone of my bone." That can only mean absolute equality. So then people might ask, "Well, why did God create a man first?" Well, this has nothing to do with equality. Actually Jesus said "the first shall be last and the last shall be first." Man was created first because he symbolizes God the Father. A woman was created last because she symbolizes the Holy Spirit.

God the Father is the alpha, God the Holy Spirit is the Omega, the first and the last. Certainly God the Father and God the Holy Spirit are equal, therefore men and women were created equal. So where did the inequality come about that of course we see all around us? The only answer can be original sin, so the question is "Why did God put man over woman? Why is man supposed to rule and a woman submit? Is God saying that Eve's sin was greater than Adam's? I am going to show on this program that just the opposite is true.

Adam's sin was actually worse than Eve's and that is why he must rule over a woman. Adam and Eve actually started at the same level but Adam fell further from grace than Eve although both fell, because Adam's sin as a result of a temptation from another human being. Eve's sin is a result of a temptation from a supernatural being, and that is Satan himself.

Adam should have known better because God himself told him not to eat of the tree whereas Eve only had Adam's word on it. So why should a woman not rule over a man if she is morally superior? Because a woman still is not perfect. In order for a man and a woman to undo what Adam and Eve did, a woman must come below a man and submit to the man. She must humble herself to reverse Eve's sin of pride. A man must be over a woman to reverse Adam's sin. Adam should have said "no" to Eve. He should have ruled her then. It's very easy for a man to give up authority to a woman, that is the easy way out. It's easy for a woman to assert authority because she is morally superior but that is not the way God wants it and that's why a woman should not be President of the United States. I know some people say that man is superior to a woman and that's why Jesus came as a man but the fact is the Bible says that God humbled himself and took on flesh. He actually humbled himself to the max by becoming a man.

Some people might say "Well how about Joan of Arc. She led the French army to victory against the English. Why wouldn't Sarah Palin be a good Commander in Chief?" The reason God raised Joan of Arc over the French was to demonstrate to them their lack of masculine leadership. Joan of Arc was a rebuke to the French and that is one of the reasons John McCain and Sarah Palin did not win the election. The American people understand that it takes a man to be President in order to fulfill God's commandment in the Bible.
