

Dana Coverstone Prophecy Trump Defeats Biden, Harris, Hillary

We will continue studying the dreams of Dana Coverstone. I think he is a true prophet and I hope to go and decode all of his dreams because they are about the election. And the program today will be about the dream which he calls I think, November 2020. You could also call it “The Conestoga Wagon Dream” and I’m going to call it “The Hillary is a Witch Dream”, because I think that is one of the very important conclusions or one of the important prophecies that Dana Coverstone is giving in this dream.

So let's go through this, verse by verse and quite a few people have tried to understand the meaning of this dream, but they miss a very important facet of it which we will get to in just a moment, which is the key to understanding the dream. The dream is not in chronological order, which is a characteristic of a lot of apocalyptic literature. Daniel for example and the Book of Revelation are not in chronological order, so in just a minute we'll get to that.

So I have divided this up into 12 Sections, and the first two Sections are in chronological order, but after that we have to change it. So I’m going to start with what I call the first Section, and that is the November calendar.

1) NOVEMBER CALENDAR

“Monday night, August the 17th, I dreamt I saw a calendar month of November. It was bent it was torn. It was dirty. I saw trees in the background that weren't leafless but there were a few trees that still had scarce amount of leaves on them and they had turned. The leaves that were still on those trees had turned like it was about to rain.”

I am sure that when he says the leaves had turned that means turning in color. In other words I think this is a time stamp. He is telling us that this would be, I would say in most parts of the country, the leaves turn from the middle of October to the first week of November depending on whether you are in the north; now he's in Kentucky, so he's probably talking about November, and he received this dream as I say on August the 17th. So Section 2, A Finger Appears.

2) FINGER APPEARS

“The sky was a dark gray with extreme cloud cover. (I hardly ever see sunny skies in these dreams; that's one thing I know for sure.) I saw that finger appear and it circled November the 3rd continuously. And it continued in a clockwise direction and then suddenly it changed to counter-clockwise and these images began to appear.”

So I think that's the key to understanding this dream which Dana Coverstone had, and that is that the finger starts going in a counter-clockwise direction. In other words these first two sections are in chronological order, but when he starts going backwards or counter-clockwise, that is when the time changes, and when he says that he hardly ever sees sunny skies, that's because he's a true prophet. A true prophet does not give you pillows and cushions. We know that from the Old Testament. Dana Coverstone like any true prophet cries out “Woe, woe, woe”. That's what a true prophet does.

So the rest of this dream which he had, I divided up into ten more sections, so as you can see, I number the first Section 12, because it is the last part of his original dream, but I believe it is now chronologically the first of the rest of the dream, and it occurs I am predicting, back in the spring.

12) THE WHITE FIGURE

“And then the white figure appeared again and he said, ‘Remain braced as this calm comes before a gathering storm that recovery will have a hard time finding. Remain braced as the calm comes before a gathering storm that recovery will have a hard time finding.”

Now a lot of people interpret this as meaning after the election but I don't believe it. I believe he is talking about the calm before the primaries or before the election season. In other words I believe this is back in the spring, so that's why we have to understand the counter-clockwise direction of the finger. The finger is telling us to go back in time. In this case to the primaries when it was relatively quiet and that's what in the past where it says "this calm", the calm that he's talking about is the calm as I was saying back in the spring January, February, March, before the election primary season really heated up. So now Section 11 comes next and we're going backwards, a Quiet Nation.

11) QUIET NATION

“And the nation was quiet. There wasn't war or riots or people fighting or screaming or yelling.” I think this is all a timestamp and this is telling us that this is before the election season. “The nation was quiet almost like it had not awakened from a bad dream yet. That's what I was kind of sensing. The nation was fitful, it was suspicious, it was leery. I saw people just quietly looking around and taking everything in with their eyes, hesitant, like they were expecting something to happen. And the sun was shining behind the clouds but it was not out yet.”

So, I think people are expecting because they are looking forward to the election season coming up. I believe that's why. And this is again another time stamp telling us, approximately this time people were looking forward to the election. That's why I say this is not a prophecy of after the election. This is before. I am sure. So next comes section 10, which I call a "Gulf Coast Disaster". By the way I have put these numbers and titles on. These were not in Dana Coverstone's original dream. I put these on to make it a little easier to decode. Part a) of Section 10.

10) GULF COAST DISASTER

“Then I began to make out like it was morning and the night was going away;” Notice how this follows the quiet nation, the last part of the quiet nation which says the sun was shining behind the clouds, but it was not out yet. Well now we're in the morning so I think that proves that Section 10 actually follows Section 11, rather than the other way around; “and the fog and the haze were drifting away. And I saw there were many Americans and they were like in an emergency shelter.” So it's clearing away, I think since his dreams are about the election I think what he's saying is that the candidates were becoming clear of who they would be, and I think that Biden was nominated I think probably in May or June, about that time, so I think this is another time stamp, and it is later than the quiet nation.

“And I saw there were many Americans and they were in like an emergency shelter. I'm not sure but it seemed to me it was more along the Gulf Coast area. These people were huddled together and they were shivering. There were individuals laying on cots and there were suitcases all over the place and a lot of desperate looks on the faces of most everyone.”

Now the people who have interpreted this dream before say that this is something coming after the election. As I say, I believe this is before the election. This is another time stamp. Well we had two major hurricanes that hit the Gulf Coast area. One was in June Cristobal and that cost 675 million dollars' worth of damage. There were 15 people killed; a very serious hurricane, but in August, an even worse hurricane hit, and maybe you remember, Hurricane Laura that caused 14 billion dollars' worth of damage and 41 people were killed. So I think that this Gulf Coast disaster is a hurricane, but we are out of the hurricane season now, although it's not impossible to have a hurricane like in November or December, it's highly unlikely. I think this is another proof that how you understand this dream is by going back in time, and that Dana is actually dreaming about an event that has already occurred. And Section b)

“There were encouragers in the crowd though. They all were wearing crosses and they stood out emotionally from everyone else because they seemed to have hope. They had smiles on their faces. Everybody else was just downtrodden in despair, angry, frustrated, confused, and they were checking on people. They were trying to show patience and kindness but at times they were met with anger and told to go away.”

Now this could be the future, but I suspect this is probably typical of any disaster, any hurricane, and I'm sure that this describes what was happening along the Gulf Coast during the hurricane season. These may be the Red Cross people. Maybe that's who they're talking about, the Red Cross people.

Now Section c) is also about this Gulf Coast disaster. Section c);

“But the encouragers just kept doing what they were doing in spite of the manifest upset of several in the shelters. And I saw businesses that were shuttered in the bigger cities. I saw gas stations; it looks like people just walked away from them. I saw headlines and one read, “Shock and Awe in the U.S.” And one read, “UN steps in to Help Host Nation.”

Now a lot of people are saying that this Dana Coverstone is prophesying a future event, and I say that it could very well still describe Hurricane Laura. “Shock and awe”, I think that's a good way to describe it. I think the U.N. steps in; the U.N. always steps in I believe and I'm not 100% sure. I did do research on the U.N. helping after Hurricane Laura, but I would not be surprised, so I don't think that's unusual.

So the next Section in this new chronology is the church.

9) THE CHURCH

a) “And then I saw the church. There was a separation line and there was no middle ground, no middle ground left. I guess in the dream, at the time of the dream, sides had to have been taken. There was fire on the altars in the churches around the nation. And the fire moved on the heads of people who had been praying. And above the heads of many people in the Church, I saw an actual question mark symbol above their head and they appeared confused by what they were seeing in the world of Church.”

So if the hurricane that Dana saw was Laura, that was towards the end of August. So now we are probably up in September and October and I think there probably was division in the church at that time because between the people who supported Biden, the people who supported Trump. And I’m sure that that is the division that Dana is talking about here or what he saw. So continuing with the Section on the church, Section b);

“And I heard a voice say “those who refuse to get ready will be wanting in the end”. So brace yourself and tell others that I have warned them to brace themselves for they are about to see even more shocking things. I’m thinking of Habakkuk there, a passage that I have preached from in the last several weeks.”

So what Dana Coverstone is saying, is that there will be even worse things than the hurricane. And we did see worse things coming out. We started seeing all those riots, like in Portland and so on, and I so I still say that this is a look into the past. And Section c);

“Friday night August 21st ;” Now this is another dream he had. I think this is a compilation of three of his dreams. “Friday night August 21st I simply saw the white figure appear, raise the finger to the sky and he said, “Ready or not nation, here it comes, brace yourself.” Just a rather quick and simple you know, play on hide and seek I guess. And last night Monday August 24th I saw a calendar it was turned to the month of November. It had shadows flickering all over it. I saw this light in the sky, a big light and a very bright light, and then darkness.”

So I think we are now right up to the election time, and the finger says “Ready or not, here it comes”, and I think he's talking about the very divisive election that we just went through, and he says November. This could be the very early part of November.

And next we come to really the most important, or certainly the most interesting part of this whole dream, and that's the part which I call the “Conestoga Wagon”. This is the longest section, and it is really the only part of the dream that is apocalyptic prophecy. The part about the hurricanes, and the other sections that we just read; those were real. Those are real prophecies. To understand the timing would be apocalyptic, but now we are going to just go over this vision that he had of a Conestoga wagon. By the way, do you know where Conestoga wagons were first developed? in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. They were developed by the Mennonites. So let's go through this section. This is apocalyptic literature. Now this is almost all symbolism.

8) CONESTOGA WAGON

“And then I saw a Conestoga wagon, think ‘Little House on the Prairie’, and Kamala Harris was driving that wagon. It was led by two mules and Joe Biden was not sitting with Kamala Harris. Joe Biden was riding on one of the mules on the left, on the far left so to speak. At her side was a mechanical box that would trigger dynamite like you would see on the Wile E. Coyote movies you know or cartoons where they would push down and it blows up. It was in an upright position though like the trigger. “

It's interesting that he mentions “Little House on the Prairie”. There's quite a few mentions in this section about cartoon characters like Wile Coyote, about television shows or cartoons, and I'm sure that the mule team here, I would say represents the Democrat party. Now I know the symbol for the Democrat party is the donkey, and the mule is half donkey, half horse. That's a hybrid. And I like to think of a mule as a donkey on steroids, because it's stronger, it's healthier, it lives longer, and I suspect that this is the Democrat party at its peak danger so to speak. I think that is why it's a mule team rather than let's say a team of donkeys. Section b);

“And then the wind started blowing the wagon covering back and revealed several cases of like what I would consider to be Civil War type cases of dynamite that era of the late 1800s, 1860s, 1870s.”

Just about every historical date in this section is quite ancient. I think another way that the Holy Spirit is telling us through Dana, is that to understand this dream, you have to go back in time.

“And most of it was in case stamped ‘Dynamite’. There were some loose ones in a like open wicker basket which didn't fit the timeline but it was there. And Harris began to whip the mules with the whip and she was hitting Joe Biden as well but Biden had no idea he was being whipped; he was not aware of what was happening. And the mules started moving at picking up speed. They were headed towards a target.”

So what would be the target? Well as I mentioned that the Conestoga wagon was developed in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. The nearest big city to Lancaster, Pennsylvania is Philadelphia. Philadelphia, PA, and it was Dana Coverstone here being shown a future big problem in Philadelphia, similar to the dream that he had in which the Liberty Bell was cracked. That was also Philadelphia. So I would not be surprised that that's the reference to Conestoga, and it's interesting that he says that Biden was not aware of what was going on. And now this was back in August that he had this dream, so I think it's very prophetic. I mean what he is saying is that Kamala Harris was more in charge of the campaign than Biden was, and I think that's true. And it shows that the Democrats had a wagon full of dynamite. They were going to blow something up. I think that's a good description of the campaign and Biden as on the far Left. So this this is actually prophetic, if you understand when he had the dream. It's not prophetic of something I believe that will come after the election, which a lot of people are saying. I'm saying that this describes the election campaign. Part c) of the Conestoga Wagon.

Wilma Flintstone

“And this is where I saw Hillary Clinton standing behind President Trump. President Trump was on his knees and she was wearing a Wilma Flintstone dress.” Another reference to a cartoon. “There were patches where it had not been finished yet. It wasn't seamed up; it wasn't sealed up. The collar wasn't on. There were like little strings just hanging all over the place. It wasn't finished. It wasn't actually ready to be worn, I guess, for prime time or whatever she was doing. It was very ugly.”

So I began to put these images together of Hillary, and I believe that the Holy Spirit is telling Dana Coverstone and us, that Hillary is a witch. If you look at these descriptions, that's who I believe we are seeing a picture of. So, Section d);

“And she had on this gaudy, gaudy ring on her index finger. It looked like it had blood on it. She had the skeleton key hanging from her neck and it was dangling.“ All of these things to me are references to Hillary being an actual witch. “And she had Donald Trump on his knees and she had a Roman Gladius knife to the left side of his throat holding his head back like that.”

And we shouldn't be surprised, because the Clintons are known for Arkancides. I would not be surprised if Hillary Clinton had been given the job by the Deep State to arkancide Donald Trump. I think that is what the Holy Spirit is telling us through his prophet Dana Coverstone.

“And the skeleton key was dangling in front of his face. And the skeleton key looked like it had blood and black mold all over it. And where it leaned down, where it was banging against the front of her shirt, it looked like it left like a Nazi symbol. The storm troopers, the Nazi SS, had like almost the lightning signal, the lightning strike, the double pane of lightning. That's what it looked like on the front of her shirt. (I'm not saying she's a Nazi. I'm just saying that symbol was on her shirt and it was like just tainted, stained black, red, ugly, gaudy.”

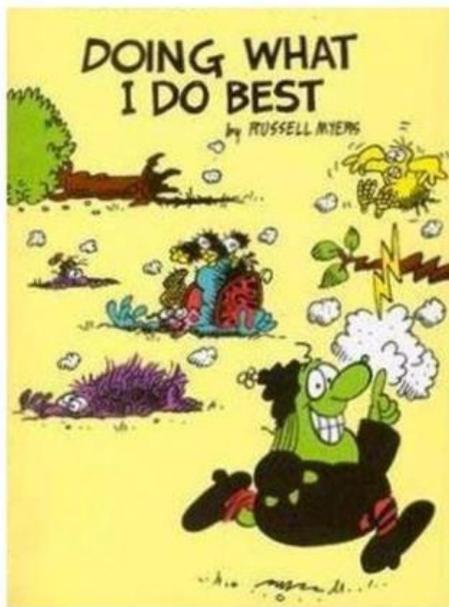

So I've got some pictures here I want to show you. Now this is a typical SS logo. There's different ways you can look it up, but as you can see it's like a lightning strike; a double as Dana Coverstone says, a double pane of lightning; typical. But as he says, he's not describing her as a Nazi. This must be something else, and I want to show you who I think we are talking about here. We've already had a reference to Wilma Flintstone, a reference to Wile E. Coyote and I think we are going to talk about one more cartoon character.

Who is the famous witch of the cartoons? Did you know about who the famous witch in cartoons is? Broom-Hilda. I think that is who the Holy Spirit showed to Dana Coverstone.

Notice that she always sends out the lightning strike with her index finger. And of course Broom-Hilda is a witch. Notice the shape of those lightning strikes, very much like a Nazi symbol.

And here's another picture of Broom-Hilda, "Doing What I Do Best".

Notice that she is again pointing with her index finger and she has been striking everybody with a lightning strike.

So I believe that the Holy Spirit is telling us that Hillary Clinton is Broom-Hilda or maybe that Broom-Hilda is like Hillary Clinton. And I looked up witch's rings I did a little search on it and as you can see, I think you call them pretty gaudy. I'm not sure about having blood on them, but just about every description of Hillary in this vision, to me describes Broom-Hilda the witch, that is who.

And by the way, I was talking with Sister Renee about this, this morning and she said that Kim Clement received a vision back in 2007, and the Lord told him he would never let a witch in the White House, running the White House. And of course everybody understood that was Hillary Clinton. So that's another reference to Hillary as an active, as a real witch. And I think Dana Coverstone is verifying that message that was given to Kim Clement. Okay let's continue with this Conestoga wagon.

e) “And the wagon starts picking up speed and they're headed towards where Hillary Clinton's holding Donald Trump. And Hillary's face was giddy. But next to her leg there was like an animal trap, a large like a bear trap. And suddenly Trump grabs the key and he pulls it down like this. He grabbed it with his left hand and when she came down he brought his right hand up and hit her in the face on the chin. When he did that she dropped the knife and she stepped back. And the President began to run off quickly. Well then she steps into the trap and she's trying to get out and she's trying to pick up the knife and she can't lean over and she can't get (out of) the trap and she can't get the knife.”

This whole imagery certainly reminds me of a cartoon and I think that's exactly the image that the Holy Spirit is telling us about the cartoon, about the Democrats. This whole campaign by the Democrats was a farce. I think that's the message that we are supposed to get from this.

Section f) “As the President runs, he's running towards the beast which is the car he is usually in. I hear three gunshots.”

Now this is another example. This is proof that this is an apocalyptic prophecy. Three means that it has a divine significance. That doesn't mean that's the number of times that they tried to kill him. I think it was actually many more times than that, but as I say, I believe this is in the past; in the near past; but I don't believe this is a prophecy of assassination attempts after the election. I could be wrong. We'll soon find out;

“And they're handgun shots. It's not a shotgun or a rifle. This is a handgun shot. I hear three shots fired. And out of nowhere, I see three different, it happens like, there's one shot, then another, then another. But as Trump is running to the beast, a secret service agent jumps in front and gets one of the bullets and then rolls to the ground. Trump keeps running. The second shot's fired. Another secret service agent jumps in front of Trump and takes the shot and hits the ground. And then the third secret service agent jumps in front of the third bullet that comes at him. And then he gets in to the beast.”

So this is all obviously very symbolic. This is not like the first part about the hurricanes. That was all very real. I'm sure this is all symbolic, which is because this is an apocalyptic part of his dream. The number 3 again, as I say I don't think that's an accurate number. That's a symbolic number. It's showing that this was very significant; the attempts made on his life, and I remember reading about some of them. So now let's go up to Section g).

“And at that moment what I saw was the secret service agents were around the beast but instead of normal modern AR-15s or guns they had muskets.“

Another stepping back in time; I think terms like that are used to show that this is symbolic, and it is also historical, and historical reference, not that it was like this would be the American Revolution and he's already mentioned the Civil War, but it's to show that this is more hints that this is all in their past.

“The other thing I noticed in the dream is that none of them were wearing glasses. Most secret service agents that I've always seen have always had sunglasses. And I noticed in the dream they're all standing around the car looking out with the muskets like this. Nobody had it like this. They've got the muskets up and they're watching and looking around. They surround the car and they're looking out from the car. The car is moving slowly, and they're moving with the car. So these are the things I've seen.”

And so we've seen a reference now to muskets, to Gladius knives, to Conestoga wagons, to Nazis and so on. These are all historical references in the past and I think one more clue that all of this has already happened. So it's kind of unusual in apocalyptic literature for a prophet to give a prophecy of something that has already happened. Although remember when Dana Coverstone received this dream, it was in August. He's talking about things now, very close, just before the election. Section h);

“Hillary tried to pull her leg away. She couldn't and finally the wagon struck her and it was just a huge explosion and in the explosion it threw the carcasses of the mules up on top of the building rubble. And the smoke was coming off of them like they've been grilled or something.”

I saw another lady did a video on YouTube about dream exegesis. It's quite interesting. I watch her videos, and she said that the mules being grilled are symbolic of grilling like in asking questions. In other words the FBI, or the police, or someone are grilling the Democrats over the fraudulent election. That's not a bad interpretation.

“Biden was lying face down in the middle of the street and wheel tracks over the back of him and there was a vulture sitting on his head. (And I'm not trying to make fun. I'm not trying to disrespect anyone in political leadership at this moment. Those that know me know how I feel about certain people in leadership but I still pray for these people). “

I think that the Holy Spirit is telling Dana Coverstone here that Donald Trump's appeal will be successful, and this is the end of Joe Biden's political career. I think that's what we're seeing. So now we could be a few days or weeks after the election, as far as the time frame goes.

i) “Harris was crying in disbelief and her tears looked like they were the size of quarters. It was almost like she was crying quarters. The tears were as big as quarters and it appeared like they were. It looked like quarters coming out of her eyes. There was a huge hole in the ground. Buildings were collapsed.”

So I would say that now, we are in the current time. Kamala Harris is upset because she realized she's not going to be Vice President or President too, as far as that goes. So she's never going to become rich like Joe Biden. When he was Vice President, he ripped off the taxpayer, ultimately, and became a multi-millionaire. And Kamala, the reason she's weeping quarters is because it's the money that she sees going away, because of Donald Trump. So I suspect that the Holy Spirit is saying that Donald Trump will be declared the winner.

So now the next section will be number seven, going backwards. As you can see these sections, when you read them backwards, they do make sense, chronologically, describing them in this order.

7) WASHINGTON DC

“And I saw more cities with pillars of smoke coming over them like wild firestorms in California right now. I saw crumbled and burned out buildings in Washington DC.”

So, we did have, well even just yesterday, over the weekend, there were problems in Washington DC. I'm not sure if it reached that point, but we have had some riots in Washington DC, but I think that this is in the weeks ahead, as it becomes more clear that Biden won't be the President and Donald Trump will be named the President, that there will be violent protests in Washington DC. Washington DC went 93% for Joe Biden. I mean that's about as deepest part of the swamp in the entire country is Washington DC.

And so the people there, many of them, the violent ones, the ones that belong to Antifa, they will take matters into their own hands.

“I saw crumbled and burned out buildings in Washington DC, not monuments, but businesses and commercial real estate.”

And we've seen them attack monuments, so in these upcoming riots they will attack businesses and commercial real estate.

“Headlines declared that ‘rebuilding would take time and trust would take even longer and government could not do it in a timely fashion’.”

So as I say, we are now chronologically up to the present and in fact weeks or several months after the election.

b) “And that's when I saw a treasury official, who's in the Treasury department right now,” (this might be Steve Mnuchin; I'm not sure;) “wink almost as if he was looking at a camera on TV, big smile, open mouth, wink with right eye and held it closed and just kind of, you know, almost like a sarcastic type thing.”

It's almost like the Fed or the Treasury department is in on this, and that's typical of the Deep Swamp of the FBI. That is a compromised organization, and I think the Holy Spirit is telling us through his prophet Dana Coverstone, that the Treasury department can't be trusted any more than the rest of the Deep Swamp. Section 6;

6) THE OBVIOUS WINNER NOT SO OBVIOUS

“I saw a person with a sign and it said, ‘the obvious winner is not so obvious’, like a placard, like you know, ‘The World's About to End’, ‘God Is Coming’, ‘Get Ready’, you know whatever, one of those signs. It said ‘The Obvious Winner is Not So Obvious’.”

So this is really a fantastic prophecy from Dana Coverstone, because that really describes what's going on right now, very well; the obvious winner is not so obvious.

“And he held his head in shame. But the crowd was in a frenzy of hatred and they were even hitting each other with their signs and their banners and their wrath.”

And we saw this over the weekend, when the “Make America Great Again”, the Million Maga March, and they were protested against by the Antifa people in Washington. So we are beginning to see this part of the prophecy come true, and remember, Dana had this dream back in August, so I don't see how you can say Dana Coverstone is a false prophet. Section 5;

5) ANGRY PEOPLE

(Remember we're going backwards.) “And I saw people screaming and getting violent over the election results to the point people were firing weapons just randomly into the air and into the sky. People were angry and people were mad.” This is what we're going to see I am sure, in the next week or so.

4) DIRTY PROTESTERS

Section 4. “There were protesters in the streets who were weary and asleep and they appeared dirty and dingy like they had not slept or showered in weeks. And this bell rang and suddenly these people like came to life. They woke up and they started salivating like a dog, like Pavlov’s dog situation; big buckets of saliva and it seemed to stain their shirts.”

And these protesters; the bell I am sure that woke them up, probably comes from the Democrat Party. It's probably an announcement that Donald Trump will become the President. And this would certainly wake up the Pavlov dogs. They would start salivating. Pavlos, that was a famous experiment that dogs would salivate, even though they weren't given food, if they're if they heard a bell. So I think that's an interesting reference to these Antifa people. They don't know what to do until they're told what to do, and they will be told to riot.

And Section 3, which is at the beginning of the dream, is now actually at the end.

3) TRUMP VICTORY CHALLENGED

“I saw cities on fire which was nothing new.” That's an interesting comment; nothing new, practically all of this dream is not new. “I saw headlines that read ‘Trump Victory Challenged Everywhere.’ It was on digital marquees like New York, Times Square, places like that.”

So this is a really accurate prophecy. He is saying, Dana Coverstone is saying that Trump will be victorious, and it's interesting how these last three or four sections which come at the first part of his dream actually should come at the end. So once you know and understand the true chronology of this dream, all the sections fall into place, and I think I have analysed it correctly.

I think it's kind of comical that Hillary Clinton is a cartoon witch. She's Broom-Hilda, and I think that's a funny analysis on Dana Coverstone's part but I think it comes from Almighty God Himself, as does the rest of this amazing dream by Dana Coverstone.

Pastor Dana Coverstone
