

Dana Coverstone Prophecy: Donald Trump May Concede!

On this program, I want to continue a series analysing the amazing visions/ dreams that Pastor Dana Coverstone has been receiving from the Holy Spirit primarily about the United States and the election and the aftermath of the election and what we can be expecting in the very near future. And he did two dream videos last week called the Lincoln Dream and the Franklin Dream, and he received the first one, the Lincoln Dream on November 9th 2020, and that's the one I want to talk about first.

THE LINCOLN DREAM DANA COVERSTONE NOVEMBER 9 2020

And in this dream, he is primarily, in my opinion talking about Antifa. And in the next dream he talks about Black Lives Matter. As two of the primary groups within the Democrat Party, which are trying to destroy the democracy that we know as the United States of America, also known as a republic. There is a fine difference between democracy and republic which I won't get into on this program. So let's proceed, and I think we should also understand, that in this first dream, that Dana Coverstone received, Lincoln represents, in my opinion, Donald Trump. So let's begin.

“I saw Abraham Lincoln at the Lincoln Memorial”; in other words, this is where Lincoln is portrayed as a statue. Now the Lord could've shown Dana Coverstone many places where Lincoln is personified but He chose the Lincoln Memorial. I believe that is significant; “standing up in his seat with his right hand held up and was being addressed by Uncle Sam.” Now Uncle Sam is also a symbolic figure and we all know he stands for the United States.

That's another reason I think that Abraham Lincoln stands for Donald Trump. “There were spotlights aimed at his head and he was bathed in like this overwhelming light. And on the granite seat where he'd been sitting was a stack of law books and on the bottom was a simple brown leather rawhide Bible that was larger and thicker than any of the other law books on top.” Almighty God is telling us here of course is that the Bible is far more important than law books. “His top hat, the hat that Lincoln was known for using, was standing on top, sitting on top of the law books and it kind of made the stack look like a pyramid.”

When I first read that and heard Dana Coverstone mention this in his dream, I immediately thought of course of the New World Order pyramid or the Illuminati pyramid, but that's a little bit different. The Illuminati pyramid is a truncated pyramid. The top is cut off and there's a small triangle at the top and of course within that triangle there's often the All Seeing Eye, and that represents the Antichrist at the top of this One World Government. But there's no truncated pyramid here and in that case I believe the pyramid represents the Divine Trinity. This message comes from Almighty God.

“Uncle Sam asked him if he would ‘tell the truth, the whole truth so help him God’ and Lincoln said, ‘that’s all you will get from me on this day’.”

And of course Abraham Lincoln was known as “Honest Abe”. He always told the truth. He was honest in every respect; another reason why I believe he represents Donald Trump. The reason I believe that we see the statue of Abraham Lincoln is because, as I say, this first dream is about Antifa; and all this past summer, Antifa has been tearing down statues of famous Americans, and of course that represents their hatred of the United States of America. And make no mistake about it, they are of the Democrat Party. So let's continue.

“Uncle Sam walked backwards without turning around and he stepped up onto a platform and removed his patriotic hat and he whispered the words, “I am sorry” towards Lincoln. Then he shifted his eyes to his right and left and then to the right again as if he were getting acknowledgement from people behind him.”

I think we will find that both left and right are against Donald Trump. I believe that's why Uncle Sam looks in both directions.

“A voice shouted very loudly, ‘get it over with already’.” That sounds like Antifa. “And then a hand appeared and pulled the curtain along a piece of rope that appeared to be about 50 feet long.”

I'm not sure if that's significant or not. 50 of course is a number of Mary's Rosary as far as Catholics are concerned. “(So just pulling a piece of rope like this). And this made it appear as if the judge were standing in front of a large black backdrop and on each side hanging almost like a banner waving down was a tattered American flag on a pole.”

And of course this symbolises that American justice is in tatters. And the next verse. I have divided these up into verses. They're not divided this way in Dana Coverstone's original dream.

“Lincoln remained standing as if he had never considered even sitting on the seat. There were marks on his face like he'd been assaulted. He had a sling over his left arm and a bandage around his left hand with blood showing through the palm and he kept a very stern face but was obviously in slight pain from whatever had happened.”

And of course Antifa has been attacking Donald Trump and Trump supporters for the last six or seven months at least. It's interesting that

“Uncle Sam cleared his throat three times”; and just like the Trinity, that's an indication that this message is of Divine importance; “and then he said, ‘hear ye, hear ye, the accused before you is here to admit his crimes publicly and will do so voluntarily; how do you plead Mr Lincoln’. (Not President but Mr Lincoln). The President never blinked his eyes. He swallowed hard and he said, ‘I won't’.”

I think this is prophetic of Donald Trump not conceding the election. I think if we ask Donald Trump right today; Are you going to concede Mr President? and he would say, I won't. I believe that is what we are seeing in this prophecy.

“Uncle Sam winked at the President and asked again while grimacing in a way to get Lincoln’s attention. ‘I won’t’ was repeated and Uncle Sam looked back above and beyond the curtain behind him and then looked back wearily, ‘Mr Lincoln, you must make a plea’. Lincoln responded by saying, ‘well then, give me a trial by jury after I do.’ Lincoln simply looked straight ahead and said nothing. Two men then walked up behind Uncle Sam, each went to a side, and they whispered in both of his ears and Uncle Sam grimaced and he dropped his head as the two men went back behind the curtain.”

Well this sounds very much like the impeachment of Donald Trump. In other words, there was no crime mentioned in the impeachment and neither high crimes or misdemeanors. And yet the House of Representatives, controlled by the Democrats impeached our President. The Senate, by the way, if you want my opinion, should never had accepted those articles of impeachment and simply sent them back to the House and told them they were frauds. There was no high crime or misdemeanor mentioned anywhere.

“Uncle Sam then stood before Lincoln and the crowd of people who had appeared near the chair at the memorial. And this crowd was aggressive, mean-spirited.” That sounds like the Democrats. “They held signs and specifically they had torches in their hands.” Well, what have we been seeing all summer long? The Antifa people with torches, burning, looting, destroying. That’s what they do. They hate America.

“Lincoln stood taller and closed his eyes slowly after looking both to his right and to his left”; again, I believe that Antifa consists of both Democrats and Republicans, that is RINO, Republicans in name only; “and at each of the men who stood behind Uncle Sam. And these people consisted of federal, elected and appointed officials, governors, and judges in their robes. Uncle Sam walked up to Lincoln and whispered in his ear and revealed tears running down his cheek. He choked back a sob and he said Mr Lincoln you have been found guilty by those in power and are sentenced to death by hanging for it.

Mr Lincoln said, ‘as the former President of this union, I deserve to know what I am accused of to begin with. I am an attorney and I know what the law says’.”

Again, it sounds very much like the impeachment of Trump. He wanted to know what he was accused of, and the articles of impeachment did not accuse him of any high crime or misdemeanor. That was a true sham, very much like this trial of Lincoln that was shown to Dana Coverstone in this dream.

“Uncle Sam stated clearly and precisely and with great struggle, ‘we do not recognize the law of man or of god and simply find you worthy of death’.” That sounds like the Democrats. “Your time is over and a new dawn awaits those who will dwell on this earth.” Pie in the sky in my opinion. “And at this time the men standing behind Uncle Sam came forward and they put a noose around Lincoln’s neck and they tightened it. Then they pushed Uncle Sam forward while they threw the rope, the end of the rope, over a marble brace at the Memorial and they handed the end of the rope to Uncle Sam and saluted him.”

This is a very compelling dream that Dana Coverstone received.

“Uncle Sam held that rope in his hands for a very long time and he wept and then he faced Lincoln and he said, ‘I’m sorry Mr President’. And at this statement the men behind him pounded him about the head and neck until bruising began to appear in Uncle Sam’s head. And they yelled at him and said this, ‘you address him as Mr Lincoln, nothing more’.”

What does that remind you of? That reminds me of a press conference that Donald Trump holds. The press have no respect for our president. That reminds me of an interesting story about Abraham Lincoln. They asked Abraham Lincoln once, what were his greatest stumbling blocks in conducting the Civil War, and he said “Southern generals and northern newspapers.” I don’t think things have changed too much since then, and of course that shows that Abraham Lincoln knew what he was talking about. Those southern generals, by the way, were all trained at West Point.

“Uncle Sam looked back at the men and said, ‘you can hang me next for what I’ve allowed you to do to my conscience.’ He then started pulling on the rope. President Lincoln stood quietly and began to feel the tautness of the rope but he reached backwards and began trying to grab something on the seat. As Uncle Sam strained to pull and hold the rope, Lincoln was trying to grab his Bible. It was pushing the law books off of it. But his fingers were slipping off of the binding. He did get a hold of it but the jerking of the rope made him drop it to the floor, just as his feet left the floor. Lincoln's eyes showed compassion towards the elected and the appointed men in front of him. As Uncle Sam holding the rope tight would not look at anything but the floor. It was interesting to note in the dream Lincoln never fought back after the Bible slipped from his hands."

This is key to understanding this dream about President Lincoln / Donald Trump. He never fought back after the Bible slipped from his hands. I believe this is a prophecy about Donald Trump stopping his fight against the Democrats. And this corresponds with Dana Coverstone's previous dream, the Data Dream. Remember in that dream, I showed that Donald Trump declined to prosecute Joe Biden, the corrupt Joe Biden. I believe this prophecy is telling us the same thing. Donald Trump stops fighting when he drops the Bible; when he is no longer following his scripturally appointed mission, as far as saving this country goes. And this is what many other prophets here on YouTube have said. I think that he will fail if he drops the Bible.

"And now he was just swinging slowly. One of the judges, not the federal officials, one of the judges spoke up and said, 'you can drop him now'. And Uncle Sam very slowly and respectfully dropped Lincoln to the floor. He looked back at the men and he said, 'I hope you get what you deserve for this'. Then he held his chest and he dropped to the floor. He was dead within seconds with his eyes wide open. And the crowd began to scatter including the elected, the appointed men who had been behind him encouraging this whole rotten endeavor."

I added that "rotten" word. This is a very powerful dream.

"At that very moment the man appeared that I had seen in the dreams for so often." Some say it represents the Holy Spirit. I think it represents some kind of herald angel. "He knelt down beside President Lincoln and said, 'they didn't have any idea what they were doing and now the nation needs to brace itself for what they deserve'."

And this is kind of interesting because here, Lincoln as Trump is likened to Jesus. Jesus said very much the same thing. He said "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do." Is this also a reference to Daniel 9 and the Anointed One, the one who saves Israel? Is Donald Trump the Anointed One in Daniel 9, the one who confirms the Abrahamic covenant? And we know that Donald Trump has been a great friend of Israel, moving our embassy for example from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem.

Many presidents promised to do that. Only Donald Trump fulfilled that part of his mission. If he is the Anointed One in Daniel 9, then he corresponds to Jesus, and he will be cut off just like Jesus was. That doesn't necessarily mean assassination, but it very well could. The Deep State, which is also the Scarlet Beast by the way, hates Donald Trump, and if they're willing to cheat and steal the election, they certainly wouldn't mind committing an assassination.

"He then walked over to Uncle Sam, closed his eyes tenderly, and tapped the heart area three times and he said, 'rest in peace, Uncle Sam, sorry you had to see the ship go down'." That's the United States. "Then the man looked right at me in the dream and he said, 'nation (specifically nation) brace yourself for fire and ice and don't forget to anchor your soul'."

And that is the conclusion of this dream and obviously I think that statement shows that Lincoln must be representing Trump, because why would this death of Lincoln, and of course Lincoln was assassinated; why would this have to do with the nation today? Unless Lincoln represented Donald Trump. And you know there is a curse on presidents who are elected in a year that ends with a zero. Many have been assassinated. And I, of course pray that Donald Trump is not a victim of that curse.

And the figure mentions, to the nation, brace yourself for fire and ice. The United States is primarily Babylon in the Book of Revelation. And what that means is that we will be burned with fire, and the Scarlet Beast is the one that burns the harlot. And the scarlet beast is represented by the Left, Antifa and Black Lives Matter; the Democrat Party. They represent the Deep State, the Scarlet Beast. Can we overcome this Bible prophecy? And can we overcome this dream which the Holy Spirit gave us through Dana Coverstone?

THE FRANKLIN DREAM
DANA COVERSTONE
NOVEMBER 16 2020

So now let's look at the next dream which Dana Coverstone uploaded soon after he uploaded the Lincoln Dream and that is the Franklin Dream, which he received on the November 16th and these two are related. As I said, the first dream showed us how Antifa is trying to destroy our civilization. In this dream we see how Black Lives Matter is referenced.

“I saw Benjamin Franklin outside at night flying a kite among very stormy skies, lightning in the background, strong winds and a very, very light rain. But the kite was an American flag.”

Once again I believe Dana Coverstone's Dreams are all about America and the election and the aftermath of the election.

“And that American flag seemed to be covered in a type of oil or at least it had like a greasy sheen on it. At the end of the kite was a globe, a small globe, attached to a chain almost like a key chain you would have, okay. So hanging off the flag, off the kite, wasn't a key like Benjamin Franklin used when he first did his search for electricity and things like that, and what was in lightning. It was just a globe attached to a chain at the end of the kite.”

Verse 2 of this dream:

“Franklin was holding the kite very steady in the rain. He was watching the lightning around him with very wide open eyes because he was paying attention where the lightning was obviously anticipating a strike on something. Suddenly this hand appears out of the heavens,” obviously the Hand of God, “it grabs the flag and it squeezes; the hand squeezes around the flag in a very rough manner. It's just like this, grabbing and squeezing almost violently. And the globe was hanging like underneath his hand. You couldn't see the flag in the hand of God who was squeezing the flag but there was a chain running out and down and the globe was hanging out. And so as the hand was squeezing the globe was shaking.

That globe was hanging in his hand and flowing out of that squeezed hand was that mix of like oil and water. It was a sheen, it was just like the sheen you would see on an ocean if there's been an oil spill on a body of water. And as it squeezed out of the big hand it just kind of rolled over the globe and fell back to the earth. And the rain and the lightning behind it was illuminating. It was like oil was coming from heaven instead of rain because of the sheen that was on the flag."

And I noticed here that the significance of the oil I think is, because oil is very often used in religious ceremonies. I think that's why God would rain oil down on the Earth.

"The hand kept squeezing, rolling back and forth like this. Squeezing and rolling back and forth with the flag inside. There was sifting going on inside that hand. You could hear things like shifting and sorting and moving in the hand. And then the rain stopped and the hand opened up to reveal several large, and I do mean large, diamonds; there were large chunks of what appeared to be coal."

Now the coal, I'm sure here, being black in color represents, Black Lives Matter. And just to make sure that I'm not accused of being racist; obviously not all African/American belong to Black Lives Matter, very, very few. And in fact Donald Trump achieved a greater percentage of the black folk this time than any Republican, I believe in previous history, and he did many more, much more for African/ Americans in this country than for example Barack Obama. And I think that's why he got such a large percentage of their vote. But Black Lives Matter is a political organisation supporting the Democrats, and they use the word "black" in their title because that allows them to accuse anyone of being racist if you are against the Black Lives Matter. So it's very clever on their part. Well Almighty God is not racist. He created all of us and He used coal to represent Black Lives Matter because of the color black.

"That's what it looked like to me; large chunks of coal. But there was also a lot of trash in that palm, almost like it was covering the diamonds. And then God reached down and just went with His hand, with His breath, and a lot of that trash just went flying away from His hand and the only things left in His hand were the diamonds and the coals.”

Now what do the diamond and the coals represent? I believe they represent the separation of the sheep from the goats, and let's continue.

“And then he lowered His hand to the Earth and He rolled out the items in His hand and the diamonds were about the size of vehicles,” (that's interesting,) “and the coal pieces were about the size of large boulders. The coal was not as big as the diamonds and they were each laying on this beautiful, green, luscious, healthy looking grass and the diamonds were shining in their brilliance.”

This is the same contrast between the sheep and goats. The diamonds are brilliant; the coal is smaller because they should not be as significant as the diamonds, and they fall on this beautiful green grass. “It was still night, it wasn't daytime now, it was still night. The rain had stopped, it was still dark but the coal had no shimmer had no glory about it.” These are the goats; “It just stood out though in great contrast to the diamonds.”

And this dream about Black Lives Matter is paired with the dream about Antifa. That's why these two dreams about Lincoln and Franklin are paired together. These are the two groups, that all summer long have been burning, looting, murdering, destroying statues; these two dreams very aptly describe these two groups.

“But you could see that they'd been squeezed but had not made the cut into diamonds. So there was, you could see the intention; this coal had been pushed as well, had been squeezed.” And Almighty God tries to make diamonds out of all of us, even Black Lives Matter people. “And Franklin was standing there admiring the scene and he solemnly said just very clearly, ‘I guess we are no longer a republic’.”

Well isn't that an interesting reaction from Benjamin Franklin to have seen the diamonds and the coal . Why would he say that? This is the key, in my opinion, to understanding this dream. What does it mean, that there is no republic, when there are both diamonds and coal?

In other words, the United States today cannot see a difference between sheep and goats, between diamonds and coal, or as the Masons would say between Jesus and Lucifer. They claim that Jesus and Lucifer are brothers. And that is the problem with America. That's why we are no longer a republic. We no longer have free elections for example.

In a true republic, and up until now, America has already understood the difference between good and evil. It is never put organisations like Black Lives Matter on a par with legitimate organisations. You would never have mayors in Democrat run cities allowing stores to be burned and looted, police cars to be overturned.

It's interesting that the Holy Spirit used a vehicle to represent the diamonds. And that's what Black Lives Matter did all summer long, they were overturning police cars. And not just Black Lives Matter, all of the Democrat supporters in each big city. They wanted to destroy American civilization, and of course that's prophesied in Revelation, because the Scarlet Beast burns America with fire in one hour. The next verse:

“And the Father spoke and said, ‘no it's mine now, no it's mine now, as is the whole earth’.” And this means that we are almost if not in the Millenium.

“And Franklin asked, ‘where did the globe go that was attached to the flag?’ And the Father spoke and said, ‘it's still being pressured for now but will be released in good time’. And then He said, ‘Franklin keep your glasses on, your eyes sharp and stay committed to the captain’.”

And the captain of course is Almighty God and His Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. And that is the message that we have to take from it. We are no longer in a republic, but we have to recognise that God is taking command and we are about to see Armageddon. That just precedes the Millenium, and this will be a spiritual battle. I believe though, that is the message given to us through these two dreams about Lincoln and Franklin. They are very sobering dreams, but I believe they do come from the Holy Spirit.
