

Satanic Logos in the Catholic Church

On this program I want to talk about signs; signs from God and signs from Satan. Specifically I want to talk about Pope Francis and his recent visit to the Philippines and Sri Lanka where we have noticed a great deal of satanic signs. And the reason for that is, because the Vatican has been taken over by Freemasonry; in other words Bible prophecy is being fulfilled before our very eyes; and that is Revelation chapter 11 verse number 2 where John says the holy city, the holy city of the End Times is Rome, will be trodden underfoot by the Gentiles. And we should not be surprised that Satan opposes God's signs. The Bible tells us that God often communicates to mankind through signs. In fact, one of his purposes for creating the Sun, Moon and stars was to give signs to mankind.

Now Satan's signs are a perversion of God's signs. He not only creates his own evil signs, but he opposes God's. And I warned you last spring when we saw this horrible, evil flower arrangement at the canonization ceremony of the two popes, that we would be seeing many more signs and symbols of the One World Religion. And why does God allow these evil signs? And that's because He gives us freedom of choice. He gives us free will. We can either choose His sign, which is the cross or we can choose a satanic sign, such as this huge flower display.

Now what are the elements of this sign as opposed to the sign of the Cross? This is also a Trinity. The cross is a trinity that expresses the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit, as I have explained many times on this program. This also expresses a Trinity, the evil Trinity of the End Times, and that would be the Antichrist, the False Prophet and Satan. The circle, formed by the flowers is feminine. It represents the perverted Holy Spirit and that would be Satan. The two horns at the bottom would symbolize the father and the son in a perverted or physical manner. And of course the perverted father and son of the End Times represent the Antichrist and the False Prophet.

Now following the ceremony of canonization of the two popes, Pope Francis visited Korea, and a beatification ceremony, and another very evil symbol of the One World Religion appeared; and this sign was ubiquitous. It was all over. The crowds wore it on their caps. The choir wore it, and even the bishops and cardinals who were concelebrating the mass with Pope Francis wore this sign on their vestments.

Now it consists of the three primary colors; red, blue and yellow, and of course they symbolize the Divine Trinity; the Holy Spirit, and God the Father and God the Son. The Holy Spirit would be yellow, the red is Christ and the blue is God the Father, and I've explained that many times on this program also.

But of course this symbol perverts those colors. That's because, once again, the Holy Spirit is symbolized by the circle or oval in the center, which is surrounded by a red flame or horn and a blue flame or horn. Now because Satan hates this cross, he depicts it as weak and wavy, consisting of three, thin, curvy horizontal members and three thin, curvy vertical members and at the very center they form six boxes, as you can see. And of course these are all signs and symbols that the cross of Jesus has been taken over, dominated and made irrelevant by Satan.

So now let's take a closer look at some of these signs and symbols of the Pope's recent visit last week to the Philippines and Sri Lanka, and I do not take any pleasure in this exposé, because I am a practicing Roman Catholic myself. In fact, that's why I wear this crucifix on these programs, is so that I do not have to explain that every time.

This lets you know through this sign, that I am a Catholic, and it hurts me a great deal to expose that the Vatican has been taken over by Freemasonry, and yet that is what they are telling us, and that is what we, as Catholics must fully understand. We are in the End Times in Revelation and the prophecies of our Lord and even of our Lady at La Salette are being fulfilled. Rome is being taken over, and it will become the seat of the Antichrist.

Now here we see the official logo of the Pope's visit to Sri Lanka, and once again, even though we do see a true cross in the center, it is surrounded and dominated by an oval feminine form, and it has the flames or horns on either side, at least that's what it looks like to me. And now here is what the official press release says; "The cross shown here is the Sri Lankan cross inspired by the St Thomas cross found in archaeological excavations carried out in historic Anuradhapura. It is also the Glorious Cross or the Cross of the Resurrection - which is seen germinating and sprouting forth life." Well I guess that's what those forms are at the ends of the vertical and horizontal pieces, and maybe the shape at the bottom is supposed to represent germinating life. To me, it makes the cross look like an anchor of some sort.

And this explanation continues; "The cross is colored in blue to remind us of the consecration of our Country to Our Lady of Lanka after the World War II and speaks of our love and devotion to Mother Mary." Well of course I would approve of that a hundred percent. This is the colour used for the cross in the Sri Lankan Catholic flag. Now if they had left it just as that part of the symbol, that would have been fine, but they had to add the coloured horns on either side.

Now the figure in this, is interesting and this is "Blessed Joseph Vas known also as the 'Apostle of Sri Lanka' is shown holding the cross of Sri Lanka and pointing to it. He is the architect of the survived Church of Sri Lanka for if he did not come during the Dutch persecution the seed that the Portuguese missionaries sowed would have died. It is also Fr. Joseph Vas' Congregation that provided priests to Sri Lanka for 150 years (during the Dutch persecution period) to sustain his missionary zeal."

And now they explain what these colored curves are, and this is a little dubious in my opinion. "On either side of the Pope's mitre," that's that gold shape in the middle, "are the four colors: maroon, orange, green and yellow, symbolizing the multi ethnic, multi religious Sri Lankan Nation." I guess there are a lot of different colored people in Sri Lanka, I'm not sure if they they're called colored maroon and orange or not, but that's what they're saying here. "These colors on either side of the mitre also indicate that we the Sri Lankan Catholic Church warmly welcomes Pope Francis to our fold." Well that's a kind of a stretch. "The ultimate composition looks like a lotus bud - the 'Nil Manel' flower which is the national flower of Sri Lanka." Well a flower is not the real meaning of the Cross. When Jesus returns at a second coming, we are not going to see a flower in the sky, we are going to see His rugged cross.

POPE FRANCIS PAPAL VISIT 2015 | PHILIPPINES
Mercy and Compassion

And now, let's look at the official logo of the Pope's visit to the Philippines. This is indeed a satanic image. What do those red and blue circles represent? Well they try to tell us those are the arms of Pope Francis. They sure look like snakes to me, but let's read the official explanation of this logo. "This is the official logo of the Pope's visit to the Philippines. The blue, red and yellow shades are the colors of the Filipino flag, which represents the country and the people." Well as I have said many times, red, blue and yellow are the primary colors of the universe, and they represent the divine Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. "The Philippines is known as 'The pearl of the Orient Seas', which is represented by the yellow circle. The white cross symbolizes the Christian faith."

As you can see, the Christian cross is not exactly what I would call prominent in this logo, and it is very small, tiny and off to one side. It is not central in this symbol. "The themes chosen for the papal visit, mercy and compassion are represented by red and blue circles." They call these circles? Maybe. "The two symbols", notice they call them symbols. They are not represented to be literal images, "appear to embrace the yellow circle, representing the merciful and" compassionate arms of the Pope." Do those look like arms to you? Now I will tell you what they really represent. Those are ouroboros. Ouroboros are pagan symbols of snakes eating their own tails.

And here is what an ouroboros looks like when I took this from Google Images and it goes all the way back to pagan Egypt. And in that sense, it's very similar to the first image I showed you on this program, and that is of that evil floral display at the canonization of the two popes, because that was representative of the Egyptian cow goddess Hathor.

And now I would like to read you the definition of an ouroboros and this I take from Dr. Cathy Burns' book called "Masonic and Occult Symbols Illustrated". This is a very useful book to have in your library by the way and here's what she writes. "The union of the female with the male was often symbolized by a serpent with its tail in its mouth. A snake with his tail its mouth is called an ouroboros also spelled uroboros." And she continues; "The ouroboros is also a representative of the androgynous. The serpent's head and neck is distinctly a masculine symbol, but the serpent is sometimes symbolized with its tail in its mouth; the body forming a circle which is feminine, also the mouth is feminine, while the tail which is in the mouth is masculine. Thus for two good reasons, the serpent with its tail in its mouth represents both sexes." Now it's not unusual for secular corporations to use the ouroboros in their company logo; for example Lucent Technologies; Notice by the way that name Lucent;

or Vodafone; I believe that's a European phone company;

or Pure Via, that's another variation on the ouroboros; or take World of Darkness. I believe these companies like the oroborus because it is both satanic and sexual. And so, as I have been saying all along, these evil signs coming out of the taken-over Vatican are sexualized images of the Divine Trinity, and therefore they represent the unholy trinity of these End Times.

The red and the blue symbolize the False Prophet and the Antichrist. They are the same as the flames and the horns as we've seen before. The yellow circle in the center represents the false spirit of the End Times and that would be Satan. And there is another meaning to this image. It represents the snakes, the demons have encircled the Vatican. They have taken over the papacy. Pope Francis is the False Prophet. The colors of the papacy are yellow and white, and that's why that cross in the center is off-center. It is no longer central to our Catholic faith. It has been defeated. The holy city is being trodden under by the Gentiles, as prophesied way back in Revelation chapter 11 verse number 2. However, as I have also said many times on this program, God will not leave us orphans. He will give us the great sign, as described in scripture, of a woman clothed with the Sun, and the Moon under her feet. And that image is best expressed by this miraculous image of Our Lady of Guadalupe. And here we see Mary blotting out the Sun. The evil symbol in this case of Satan, and she is standing on, and crushing those two masculine horns, the End Times Antichrist and the False Prophet. It's really sad when you think about it, that the religious fervour of the good Filipino people was perverted by the appearance of the False Prophet and his demonic signs of the One World Religion.

And, one final note; now I realize this video is getting a little long, but I finally found this poster image of the Pope visiting Philadelphia, where we see the Hebrew letters vav; ך that they look like a 7, but they indicate the number 6. And now this picture has been cropped, but there were originally two vav's on the right, three red vav's on the left, and of course 2 over 3 signifies the Antichrist, and the three vav's of course would be 6 6 6. So Paul Begley was correct. That is an actual, not a photoshopped image of the Pope, and by the way, one of my subscribers pointed out to me that the Pope himself with this outstretched arm indicates a Hebrew letter vav.

And as always let me remind you to visit my new thirdeaglemedia.com website and please click on those four PDF files at the bottom of the Zachariah page, where I have unsealed all the great prophecies of Zachariah.

<https://www.thirdeaglemedia.com/zachariah>