

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S PROPHETIC VISION

as interpreted by Paula

SYNOPSIS OF THE COMPLETE VISION

At Valley Forge during the winter of 1777, George Washington was in his quarters preparing a dispatch. He had given strict orders not to be disturbed; but before long, he sensed a presence. So, looking up from his work, he was astonished to see 'a singularly beautiful female.' Again and again, Washington asked in vain the reason for the intrusion. After his fourth query, the visitor responded with only a slight raising of her eyes. (The number four denotes End Times—signaling the importance of this visitation, even before the visitor has spoken a single word.) Washington was soon rendered immobile and speechless. He could only gaze fixedly upon the uninvited guest, who addressed him several times as “Son of the Republic” and exhorted him to “look and learn” as various mystical scenes played out in front of him. Over the course of the vision, Washington was given to see three perils destined to befall his nascent nation: three wars that would be waged on American soil. Lastly, the exquisite emissary provided a capsulized explanation of the vision, along with words of hope, as well as counsel. When the vision ceased, Washington felt that he had been shown 'the birth, the progress, and the destiny of the United States'. His mysterious visitor is thought by many Catholics to be the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Summary of the 1st Peril: The Revolutionary War

The heavenly visitor said to Washington, “Son of the Republic, look and learn”, and extended her arm eastward toward a heavy white vapor, which gradually dissipated so Washington could see all the countries of the world, as though spread out in one vast plain—namely 'Europe, Asia, Africa, and America'—and he recognized, as well, the rolling oceans of the Atlantic and the Pacific. For a second time, the visitor addressed him as “Son of the Republic”, again saying “look and learn”. A dark, shadowy being, like an angel, floated in mid-air between Europe and America. The angel cupped both hands and dipped them in the Atlantic Ocean. With his right hand, he sprinkled some water upon America; with his left, he cast some over Europe. At once, a cloud arose from these countries and merged mid-ocean. For a while, it stayed stationary. Then it moved slowly westward until it enveloped America in its murky folds. At intervals, sharp flashes of lightning gleamed through the gloomy mass. Washington heard the smothered groans and cries of the American people.

Paula's analysis of the 1st Peril:

The heavenly visitor's arm extended eastward; east indicates that GOD is directing the communiqué. Washington sees the major continents of the world, and lists them in the order we sometimes pronounce the four compass points: Europe (North), Asia (East), Africa (South), and America (West). Washington also identifies the two oceans that bookend America. A shadowy angel floats over the Atlantic between Europe and America; he scoops and sprinkles ocean water upon America with his right hand, indicating GOD's favor. The angel then scoops and sprinkles ocean water upon Europe with his left hand, indicating less favor. Immediately, from each of those countries a cloud arose and merged mid-ocean, where it stayed stationary for a while. This shows the initial cooperation between the American colonies and Britain—a virtual meeting in the middle. But then the cloud drifted westward and enveloped

America in murky folds. This represents Britain's increasing hold over America. Periodic flashes of lightning, and the smothered groans and cries of the American people, symbolize Americans growing increasingly distressed under British rule, and the resulting Revolutionary War (the War of Independence), in which Washington was presently engaged.

Summary of the 2nd Peril: The Civil War

For a second time, the shadowy angel sprinkled ocean water as before (on America and Europe); the murky cloud that had enveloped America then drew back over the ocean, into which it sank from view. For a third time, the visitor said, "Son of the Republic, look and learn." Looking at America, Washington saw villages, towns, and cities springing up across the whole land, from the Atlantic to the Pacific. For a fourth time, the visitor said, "Son of the Republic, the end of the century comes, look and learn." The shadowy angel turned his face southward. From Africa, a foreboding specter approached America, gradually disturbing every town and city. Americans took up arms against each other. Then Washington saw a bright angel, wearing a crown of light (upon which was traced the word 'UNION') and bearing the American flag. The angel placed the flag between the divided nation and said, "Remember, you are brethren." At once, the citizens dropped their weapons, became friends, and united around the National Standard.

Paula's analysis of the 2nd Peril:

The shadowy angel sprinkled ocean water over America and Europe for a second time, and the Revolutionary War was won. Next, American villages, towns, and cities multiplied from coast to coast (three types of communities; the number three indicates GOD's ordaining Will). Then the visitor said, "Son of the Republic...look and learn," but interjected a time stamp: "the end of the century comes". She literally meant the end of the 1700's—but was figuratively indicating the upcoming 3rd peril, which is an End Times prophecy! Next, the shadowy angel faced toward Africa, from where an ominous specter approached America and disturbed "every town and city" (note that now only two types of communities were mentioned). The number two indicates that the national disturbance was over Man (more precisely, the ownership of Man: slavery). Americans armed themselves and fought each other in the Civil War (4/12/1861 – 5/26/1865).

The numerals in those dates respectively add up to 23 followed by 33. That sequence is understood as captivity followed by freedom—because $2/3 = 666$, the Beast, who wants to keep Man enslaved; and $33 =$ Jesus, Who grants freedom [John 8:36]. Then a bright angel appeared, wearing a crown of light that had the word UNION on it. The angel held the American flag and placed it between the divided nation, exhorting its citizens, "Remember, you are brethren." The citizens put away their weapons, reconciled, and united around the flag.

Summary of the 3rd and Most Fearful Peril: World War 3

For a fifth time, the mysterious visitor said, "Son of the Republic, look and learn." The shadowy angel blew three distinct blasts on a trumpet. Next, he sprinkled water from the ocean upon Europe, Asia, and Africa. From each of those continents arose thick black clouds that soon merged into one. Throughout that dark mass gleamed a dark red light, by which Washington saw hordes of armed men. Moving with the dark cloud, they marched by land and sailed by sea to America, which was enveloped in the cloud. The vast armies devastated the whole country and the villages, towns, and cities. Washington heard 'the thundering of the cannon, clashing of the swords, and the shouts and cries of millions in mortal combat'. For a sixth time, the mysterious visitor said, "Son of the Republic, look and learn." Then, the shadowy angel blew a long and fearful blast on the trumpet.

Paula's analysis of the 3rd Peril:

For the fifth time, the visitor addresses Washington as “Son of the Republic” and directs him to “look and learn”. Then the shadowy angel blew three distinct blasts on a trumpet and sprinkled ocean water upon three continents: Europe (N), Asia (E), and Africa (S). (The number three indicates GOD's ordaining Will; together, the three blasts and the three continents equal six, the number of the Beast.) Then, from those continents arose thick black clouds that joined together (a unified, global menace). Throughout the dark cloud gleamed a dark red light (Communism), by which Washington could see hordes of armed men moving with the dark cloud to America. They marched by land (infiltration by open borders) and sailed by sea (crossing the oceans by submarine, boat and plane). America became enveloped in the threatening cloud. Vast armies devastated 'the whole country and the villages, towns, and cities' (this time, four groups are listed). Washington hears 'the thundering of the cannon, clashing of the swords, and the shouts and cries of millions in mortal combat' (four sounds of war). (The number four indicates End Times; together, the four groups and the four sounds equal eight, symbolizing new beginnings just on the horizon.) For a sixth time the visitor said, “Son of the Republic, look and learn.” (Note that this 3rd Peril began with 'for a fifth time', soon followed by 'for a sixth time'.) Five followed by six indicates that Mary's devoted remnant will need to flee from the AC, who is covertly commanding World War III against America on American soil. The shadowy angel then blew a long and fearful blast on the trumpet. The first three blasts on the trumpet—plus this one final blast—refer to the three and a half years of the Great Tribulation.

Summary of the section entitled:
'Heaven Intervenes'

Instantly, a light like a thousand suns shone down from overhead, and it pierced and fragmented the dark cloud that enveloped America. Simultaneously, the bright angel—who wore the crown emblazoned with the word UNION, and who held the American flag in one hand and a sword in the other—descended from the heavens, along with legions of white spirits. They immediately joined forces with the American people, who—though at the point of being overcome—regained courage, closed up their broken ranks, and continued the battle. Amid the fearful noise of the conflict, for a seventh time the mysterious visitor said to Washington, “Son of the Republic, look and learn.” Then, the shadowy angel sprinkled ocean water upon America for the last time. At once, the dark cloud rolled back—along with the armies it had brought—leaving the Americans victorious. Washington again saw villages, towns, and cities springing up where he had seen them before. The bright angel planted the azure standard in the midst of them, and he cried loudly, “While the stars remain, and the heavens send down dew upon the earth, so long shall the UNION last.” Removing from his head the crown bearing the word UNION, he set it on the standard; and the people, kneeling down, said, “Amen.”

Paula's analysis of 'Heaven Intervenes':

When Americans are almost at the point of being overcome by the prevalence of evil everywhere, the Illumination of Conscience occurs and Truth is conveyed to everyone, without exception—but the reprobate do not repent. Legions of white spirits descend with the bright angel, who bears the American standard and a sword, to aid Americans in the fight against evil. The word written on his crown reminds Americans of the need for unity (especially the unity of faith/religion). Responding to this sign, Protestants may convert and join Mary's remnant. Americans en masse now regain courage. That 'they closed up ranks' means they gather into refuges—guided by the white spirits (angels and saints). In the refuges, Americans renew the battle, using Mary's weapons carried by the bright angel: his sword symbolizes the Rosary, and the cloth flag symbolizes the scapular. 'The fearful noise of the conflict' evokes the terrifying reign of the AC beyond the refuges. For the eighth and final time (8 symbolizes new beginnings), the beautiful visitor addresses Washington as “Son of the Republic” and once more says, “look and learn.” Also for the final time, the shadowy angel sprinkles ocean water upon America. Instantly, the dark cloud rolls back, together with the armies it brought. That means the defeat of the AC (signified by the 'dark cloud' = deep church, controlled by him), together with the defeat of the armies of the ten kings, also controlled by him). Both he and his precursor (the False Prophet) are cast alive into Hell. Thus, the American people rejoice in victory. Marrying and multiplying, they repopulate the villages, towns, and cities. (Three groups signify they are now living in the Divine Will.) Then the bright angel plants the 'azure' standard in the midst of them. This is the one-and-only time that Washington refers to the American flag as 'azure', meaning blue (which represents Mary, because it is Her victory, and America is consecrated to—and favored by—Her). The angel cries loudly that the UNION will last so long as the stars remain in the heavens and the heavens send down dew upon the earth. This likely refers to the thousand years of peace. Then the angel removes his crown, which is labeled 'UNION', and puts it atop the standard. This symbolizes that, at last, America is truly one nation under GOD. In affirmation, the people, kneeling down, say in unison, "Amen."

Summary of:
'The Interpretation' given by the Visitor Herself

The scene disappeared from Washington's sight; and he found himself again gazing upon the mysterious visitor, who said, "Son of the Republic, what you have seen is thus interpreted: Three great perils will come upon the Republic. The most fearful for her is the third. But the whole world united shall not prevail against her. Let every child of the Republic learn to live for his GOD, his land, and UNION." {The vision is over.}

Paula's closing comments:

Numbers play an important role in decoding this vision; a few examples follow:

As mentioned in the opening Synopsis, the 3 wars shown to George Washington take place on American soil. The first war was Britain against America (a nation against a nation); the second war was southern Americans against northern Americans (brother against brother); and the third war on American soil will be WW3, the world (North, East, and South) against America (West).

Washington spoke 3 times the word 'flag'. The synonymous word 'standard' was likewise used by him 3 times. The number 3 signifies that America—represented by the flag/standard)—has a divine destiny.

The shadowy angel sprinkled brine upon the nations 4 separate times. That number signifies that this is an End Times prophecy. It is interesting that the dark angel used salt water with which to sprinkle the nations. “You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt lose its savour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is good for nothing any more but to be cast out, and to be trodden on by men.” (Matthew 5:13.) Note that 5:13 can be rearranged to 3:15—for Genesis 3:15, “She shall crush thy head.”)

During Washington's narration of his vision, he said the word 'UNION' 5 times; that word is composed of 5 letters. In sacred numerology, the number 5 symbolizes Grace. (Furthermore, the word 'Grace' contains 5 letters.) Because the Archangel Gabriel had addressed Mary as 'Full of Grace', the number 5, by extension, also symbolizes Mary, who is the patroness of America.

Also, Washington referred to his solitary guest as 'visitor' 5 times—a proof that the visitor was indeed Mary. The 7 letters in 'visitor' symbolize Jesus, to Whom Mary leads us.

The word 'water' was spoken by Washington 4 times and contains 5 letters; that adds up to 20, the number of decades in Mary's full Rosary. As a stand-alone word, 'ocean' was spoken 5 times and contains 5 letters; that totals 25, the date of Jesus' birth.

The phrase 'look and learn' was spoken 7 times. Jesus (symbolized by the number 7, which is the number for perfection) wants us to know and understand what is revealed in the vision.

Angels are mentioned by Washington 9 times (think of the 9 choirs of angels). The shadowy angel (who was given charge of War) and the bright angel (who was given charge of Peace) are both accomplishing GOD's Will.

The word 'mysterious' was spoken 10 times by Washington; and each decade (10 beads) of the Rosary focuses on the mysteries of the lives of Jesus and Mary.

In his narration, Washington used the word 'America/American' 13 times, which happens to be the number of original colonies that Washington served, as President and Commander-in-Chief. The flag, or standard, still bears (to this day) 13 stripes, which represent the 13 original colonies.

Thirteen is also the date of Mary's repeated apparitions at Fatima, where She told the seers that in the end Her Immaculate Heart will Triumph...and a period of peace will be granted to the world. An old Christian hymn declares, 'As goes America, so goes the world.' Thus, America AND the world will have peace. Washington's vision was given to prepare only America for the three wars that would be waged on American soil prior to the thousand years of peace. (Who knows, maybe Mary gave leaders of other nations prophecies for their own people.)

The number 13 can be decoded as 1 GOD in 3 Divine Persons. Or, alternately, 13 can be thought of as Mary (1 human person) eternally bound to GOD (3 Divine Persons)—since She is and will forever be: the daughter of GOD the Father; the mother of GOD the Son; and the virginal spouse of GOD the Holy Ghost.

Extra Bonus

There are reports that George Washington converted to Catholicism on his death bed. Below is a painting of the Virgin Mary that hung in his Mount Vernon home. After both he and his wife Martha died, said painting of Mary—per the official estate inventory that was compiled (listing the personal property and associated worth)—was valued at $15, of course! Fifteen is the total number of decades in the original three-mystery Rosary (Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious). In 2002, Pope St. John Paul II added five Luminous decades, increasing the total decades to 20.
