

Hillary, False Flags, Pope Francis

Well, once again, today I have mostly bad news and I want to respond to four emails I received this past week and the first comes from 'cat g' and she writes: 'where is your proof you have been right about previous false flags? No one is going to believe you after the fact and it's been over a year since you posted; so why no update?'

Well, thank you, cat; the fact is there have been no false flags recently and the reason is because that would hurt Hillary Clinton's campaign. She wants to greatly increase immigration from terrorist countries in the Middle East and Mr. Trump says that we should vet those people. He is right, she is wrong, and more terrorist attacks would hurt her position.

That doesn't mean we won't have terrorist attacks but they will be genuine and we have had quite a few, but the news media plays them down. In fact, that's how you can tell the difference between a false flag terrorist attack and a real one because the media gives the false flags all kinds of attention. That's because false flags support their agenda, whereas a real terrorist attack during the presidential campaign, hurts Hillary Clinton. So that is why, cat, you won't see any more false flags for a while until after the election.

Now, as far as me being right, the first iPad commercial, 'Your Verse', did prophesy the Charlie Hebdo massacre. And the second iPad commercial, I predicted, would be an 8-15 event and I showed you a clock with the clock face centered on Ferguson, Missouri. The big hand pointed to Charleston, South Carolina, where there was that church bombing and the little hand pointed toward; now, I said Hoover Dam, if I had extended it just a little, maybe a hundred miles, then you would have reached San Bernardino, and there was a terrorist attack there, a false flag attack, so I think I was pretty accurate, as far as that goes too, but, as I say, we won't see any more false flags for a while because it hurts Hillary.

And it's interesting that at the time of those terrorist attacks I mentioned, the media was promoting that demonic children's game called 'Charlie Charlie' and we had the Charlie Hebdo massacre in France and we had that Charleston bombing, that church bombing. Those were related; those were both false flags and I think the people were calling down Charlie Charlie, a demon, in order to make those terrorist attacks, the fake false flags, to make them successful. When I say 'people' I mean the evil people running this planet; the ones who want Hillary to defeat Mr. Trump.

And the next email comes from marykaylmj1: 'I was reviewing your Antichrist identified miraculous video (that's with those bird murmurations) from 10/22, and am intrigued by the clown scare that has been all over the news; any comments or connections?'

Well, I think you're right Mary. Those creepy clowns are predicting the soon appearance of the Antichrist, and it's interesting that the bird murmuration video depicted the Antichrist as a clown. Maybe you remember, on the left you saw Vladimir Putin, in the center you saw a clown representing the Antichrist and on the right you saw a demon as a female, and that was Satan. I now begin to believe that the image of Putin is actually Pope Francis and that would give you the unholy trinity of the End Times, the False Prophet, the Antichrist and Satan.

So, thanks for your email, Mary, and now, someone else sent me an email, and I forgot his name, he questioned the numbering of verses. I did a video eight years ago pointing out to you that in Saint Matthew's Olivet Discourse, Jesus arranges the 18 tribulation verses in a 6-6-6 sequence and he follows those 18 verses by 15 verses in a 5-5-5 sequence, the victory verses. And, as I explained then, that simply means that Jesus will use Mary's Rosary to defeat the Antichrist and we are part of his army, we are the ones who, of course, must say Mary's Rosary. And he questioned the verse numbering since the verses were numbered much later; he is correct on that. However, it's actually very simple to number Bible verses because you simply number them according to the sentence structure; that structure is already there.

In fact, I challenge anyone who doesn't think the verse numbers are correct: see if you can come up with a better verse structure. Nobody's taken me up on that yet. The verses are accurate; they were inspired just as the rest of Scripture. So I hope all of us get that message from our Lord. And that's not the only one; all you have to do is look at the prophecies of Daniel. He uses that same basic structure and that is the number 6 followed by the number 5; very interesting.

And lastly, I want to comment on Pope Francis making Bishop Cupich of Chicago a Cardinal. Why should we be surprised? Bishop Cupich interprets Amoris Laetitia as allowing Communion to divorced and remarried Catholics. That's exactly what Pope Francis, the False Prophet, wants. He wants to take the 'daily sacrifice away from the prince', as prophesied in Daniel 10, verse number 3, and remember, in that verse, Daniel says 'neither was I anointed with oil' and that refers to the False Prophet. Pope Francis is actually still a cardinal, Cardinal Bergoglio; and of course, he overlooked Bishop Chaput of Philadelphia. That's because Bishop Chaput says that people living in a divorced and remarried state cannot receive Holy Communion in his diocese. And what this does is it invalidates the priestly consecrations in Chicago and it keeps the priestly consecrations valid, in Philadelphia. All of this is prophesied; we are living in the age of Bible prophecy being fulfilled. It's very important because many of these people are found in the Bible; Barack Obama, he is the Leopard. Pope Francis, he is the False Prophet and yours truly, I am the Eagle of the Apocalypse (Revelation 8:13).
