

Dana Coverstone's "Flaming Spear" Dream; What Does it Mean?

I have another very interesting program I believe about Dana Coverstone's latest dream. And I do consider him a true prophet, even though he is an evangelical, much in the same mold as Kim Clement, who also gave true prophecy. And his prophecy includes Mary, just as Kim Clement's prophecy did, although neither Dana nor Kim Clement understood that Mary is involved, very much in these End Times. And maybe that's why Almighty God had a Catholic such as me interpreting both, Kim Clement and Dana Coverstone.

Now Dana Coverstone received this dream between, April 11th and the 19th and I think he published it this past Tuesday, not too long ago. And that's gotten about 35,000 views and he did his program with Cherie Goff. She kind of interprets his dreams at the same time that he gives the dream, and she got some of it right. She did not know who the two runners were, although she did understand that one was a good guy and the other was a bad guy, but she did identify the third main character, and that is the Antichrist. So I was very surprised at that, in that she got that right, but she did not understand the 20 foot high wall between the two runners. And of course we, as Catholics, now we understand when we see the number 20 in End Times Bible prophecy, we know that is a reference to Mary's Rosary. And of course they did not understand that, neither Dana nor Cherie Goff.

So let's start, and I'm going to go through this. There are about 25 different sections to this. It's quite a long dream, but it's really quite interesting. So let's start out without any further ado.

The "Flaming Spear" Dream By Dana Coverstone, April 11-19, 2021

"I saw a globe; it was sitting on a stand. No hand touched it or moved it, but it just began spinning on its own and accelerating at a very, very rapid rate. And it began to wobble; it began to wobble on the stand."

So this is kind of interesting that we see a globe, and that is a very important indication that this dream is not just about the United States. Now all of Dana Coverstone's dreams that I am aware of, are about the election or the events leading up to the election, or the events following the election. In other words it's about Trump and Biden, and this dream is also, but as you can see by the globe, that it has worldwide implications. And he received the dream over seven nights which is an End Times number, a very important End Times number, but he received like a quota or an extra part to the dream on the eighth night. And of course 8 is a number of new beginnings.

Dana Coverstone's "Flaming Spear" Dream; What Does it Mean?

William Tapley – 26th April 2021

And what I think is interesting is that, in this dream, Dana says that the globe is spinning on its own, and it's wobbling on its own. And this reminds me of when Jesus said in the End Times there would be earthquakes in diverse places, but who causes those earthquakes? I've often thought about that. Jesus never says that the earthquakes come from God, and I know there have been some seers that say that mankind's sins cause natural events such as earthquakes and other destructive events. And could it be that the earth is going to actually start to wobble because of the huge number of our sins in these End Times? And I don't believe that the wobbling globe is caused by nuclear explosions. I think Dana Coverstone would have seen that, but I suspect it's because of mankind's sins. And it may not be literal; the wobbling may have to do with social fabric for example, but in any event this dream has global implications; and continuing.

“And there were two male runners who appeared on a running track. But this running track was just a straight track; it went on for miles and miles and miles. But between the two runners there was a large wall, probably 20 feet high, so they couldn't see each other.”

Now I claim that these two runners represent Donald Trump and Joe Biden. Now Cherie Goff correctly identified one is good and the other is evil, but so far as I know, and I watched the whole program, she didn't say one was Trump and the other was Biden, but as we will go through it, I think you'll see that Dana's dream is quite clear in indicating which is which. Now the 20 foot high represents Mary's Rosary, as I said and that's because there are 20 decades in the four End Times Mystery of the Rosary. And this is consistent with other End Times prophecy in the Bible. Very often Mary is indicated; for example, in the miraculous draft of fishes. Remember? Peter's boat is 200 cubits from shore and that would indicate that 200 Hail Mary's in a complete 20 decades of the Rosary.

And I was reading some of the comments on Dana's video and someone said that the 20 foot high wall represents the 2020 election, and the runners indicated running for the presidency. But the only problem with that interpretation is that we will see that this conclusion of this race in Dana Coverstone's newest dream is not at all like the election, so that's why I discount that interpretation. And now continuing;

Dana Coverstone's "Flaming Spear" Dream; What Does it Mean?

“They each had a spear with a fire-like torch on the end that was burning very bright and the flame shot out from the tip. It did not appear as if it was a torch that had fabric wrapped around it. It was just a sharp piece of metal that was on fire, and both runners had it.”

So it's interesting that both Biden and Trump are carrying this fiery spear and I think it symbolizes their spirits. And they both have fiery spirits, both Trump and Biden. I mean it takes that kind of a spirit or gumption to run for presidency at all, and as of course we know, they both did in this last election, but as we are going to find out their principles, their spirits are polar opposites. And so continuing;

“One was wearing a multi-colored outfit like you would see in the Olympics. He was stretching and balancing, as if preparing to run. The other was wearing a solid white outfit like a track outfit, but was not moving at all. He was standing in place almost without breathing. You would have sworn the guy was a mannequin at first.”

So I was surprised that Cherie Goff didn't get the reference to the multi-colored coat. That to me references Joseph in the Old Testament. Joseph wore a coat of many colors if you remember correctly, and I think what's significant, is that Joseph was the de facto ruler of Egypt. He was the one that actually ran the show. Of course the Pharaoh was at the top, but Joseph made all the big decisions, and I think that that is a reference to Donald Trump. That's why I think that this runner is wearing this multi-colored coat. That's a reference to Joseph. And when Dana says it's like an Olympic outfit that means that Donald Trump is a world-class leader. So this is the good guy that Cherie Goff was talking about.

Now Biden is the runner in white because he pretends to be virtuous. That's what the white would signify. That's why for example he said that Vladimir Putin had no soul. I mean it took a lot of nerve for him to say that, and I don't know if he's right or not, but what he is implying is that he does have a soul, and I think that is a mistake. And he also makes a big deal about being a practicing Catholic. So this white outfit is deceptive, and of course he does operate out of deceit.

And Dana Coverstone says that he is not moving, he's hardly breathing, and I think that's a pretty good description of Biden. He is half dead if you ask me there's no life in him. And when Dana Coverstone says he looks like a mannequin, that means he's basically a puppet, a puppet of the One World Government. And I think these are very accurate descriptions of both Trump and Biden and I'm surprised that Cherie Goff did not understand that and neither did Dana. I didn't read all the comments. Maybe someone down below in the comments on that video understood that they are the two figures; the good guy was Trump and the bad guy was Biden.

Now the next person Cherie Goff did get right, and that would be the Antichrist. So continuing on;

“A man then appeared, standing on the wall above the runners, in a very expensive suit jacket; but he was wearing runners’ shorts underneath, and runners shoes; so a very, very strange looking outfit. And he carried a starter’s pistol. And he said to the motionless runner wearing the white, he said, “You must pace yourself and win.” And at this, the runner simply nodded and cracked his neck.”

That's kind of humorous about Biden cracking his neck, but as we see, the bad guy, this man on top of the wall, the Antichrist, encourages Biden to win, and I've been saying all along, Biden is one of the ten kings of the Antichrist in these End Times.

Now I think the expensive suit symbolizes that the Antichrist controls the wealth of the world, and that's nothing new. I think the 'runners shoes' indicates that he runs the world, and I think that is probably true right now. Even though we don't know the identity of the Antichrist, Dana Coverstone says he looks very strange, and that would be a good way for a faithful Christian to describe the Antichrist. And this description is concluded by Biden cracking his neck, which is kind of humorous, and I think that means that he has like, mental problems or brain problems, and that's another good expression for Biden; another indication that these two people represent Trump and Biden.

Now here we get to something quite interesting. Why would Dana see the Antichrist standing on top of Mary's Rosary? That's what the wall represents. Well we do know that from Genesis 3:15 that there is physical contact between Mary and the Serpent. The woman crushes the head of the Serpent, and we see that in the Book of Esther. There is physical contact between Esther, who represents Mary, and Haman who represents the Antichrist. So the physical contact between the two is Biblical, and at this point in the conflict, Satan is ruling the Antichrist, because we have not won yet. That's why he is standing on top of a wall.

Of course in the end Mary's Rosary will defeat the Antichrist as we see in the Book of Esther. There is physical contact between Esther and Haman, but eventually Haman is hung on a scaffold that is 50 cubits high by the way. 50 cubits are another indication in End Times prophecy, of Mary's Rosary. And so continuing now with Dana Coverstone's dream;

“The man in the colorful runners outfit was not addressed at all. The man then called out, ‘To your mark’ and, when he did this, the runner wearing the multi-colored outfit took a running start and threw the flaming spear in the atmosphere - just threw it in the air. Then he took his place at the line in the runners’ blocks.”

Now the Antichrist did not address Trump, the way he did Biden, because he supports Biden. He did not support Trump; another indication that there is a good guy and a bad guy here. And the flaming spear; they both have a flaming spear and it indicates their spirit and their principles. And when Trump throws his into the air, that indicates that his spirit aligns with the Holy Spirit, because the air or the atmosphere or the gas you could say, relates to the Holy Spirit. There are three states of matter for example; solid, liquid and gas, and of the three, the gas symbolizes the Holy Spirit. Continuing on;

“The motionless man moved into position, but did not get down to the blocks, almost not an official start in that sense. But he leaned down and he tapped the end of the spear in the ground; and then he spit on the flame and it exploded, it exploded to the point that his hair caught on fire, but he was not hurt.”

Now this unofficial start, as Dana calls it, means that Biden should not be considered an official President. I think that's what is meant by this. He could not get all the way down to the starting block, because he's too old and too decrepit, or maybe he just isn't concerned with the rules. His tapping of the spear in the ground indicates his worldly principles, as opposed to Donald Trump's principles, which are in the air with the Holy Spirit.

And Cherie Goff got that right by the way. That's what she said; that the bad guy's tapping of the spear in the ground indicates that's where his principles are, and when he spits on the flame, that indicates Biden's contempt for spiritual values. Okay continuing;

“His hair was burning like a burning bush, but he was not hurt. And the man called, ‘Ready!’ Then he fired the pistol, and the two men took off. Now one - the multi-colored man - ran very, very quickly and very determined. The fiery man just took off at a jog. And because of the wall between them, neither man could see the other.”

And this does sound like the election. Maybe you could say that this race started with the election campaign, because there's no doubt during the campaign that Donald Trump took his campaigning very seriously, and Biden didn't of course. We know why. Biden didn't have to worry about the election. Biden spent his campaign lackadaisically in his basement. And it's interesting that Mary's Rosary separates these two runners. And that's because the Rosary separates these people; these two, spiritually speaking.

And as far as the burning bush is here, "like a burning bush", I'm not sure there is a burning bush. In the Old Testament, Moses sees God in the burning bush. I don't think that is what is referenced here. There may be another burning bush somewhere in the Bible, and in any rate, I'm not really sure what that means. Okay continuing on;

"Then I saw a bright crimson-red calendar with crisp white letters that had a thick black outline on the letters - so they stood out; they were shadowed. And I saw May 2021, and two hands like this, like how your hands will kind of unleash something. And these two hands were unrolling, holding onto this blood-covered calendar, and they were rolling it out and down."

So, this is rather ominous. I think the "crimson-red", the bloody; I think this indicates that there's going to be a lot of bloodshed this summer. I'm sure that's what Dana Coverstone's prophecy in this dream is about.

"And I saw June, July, August and September. They were unrolled, and they hung below May - and September was touching the ground. So he's standing here like this with the calendar in his hands - bloody, bloody hands; and the calendar's all the way down to the ground from May to September, and September is touching the ground."

So I think it's pretty clear that this bloody calendar indicates that we're going to have big troubles this summer. We're almost in May now, so it would probably be starting very soon. And I think we now realize what Dana means when he often says "Brace yourself". And lately he's been saying, "Endure", and I think this dream certainly verifies that. Okay and he continues.

"Then the scene changed to a map of Europe, and it went through Russia, China, down to the Middle East, the Mediterranean; Israel was seemingly also over-emphasized on this map. I saw leaders in Russia, China, Israel, Western Europe - these were modern leaders. And they had these high-powered binoculars, and they were watching the United States, and they were telling individuals to write down the things that they were seeing.”

Well Cherie Goff I think, got this right. She said that they are spying on this country. And I think just about everybody understands that. Most countries in the world are jealous of the United States, and if you're familiar with our George Washington's dream, the United States will be invaded by countries from around the world. Continuing with Dana's dream;

“They were getting excited: they were pumping fists in the air, patting each other on the backs, and they were waving their nations’ flags feverishly. I saw military leadership in the rooms, and the leaders were whispering in their ears, and they would get on a phone and whisper as well. And I could then see blood dripping down onto the calendar from those hands that were holding ... it was going all the way to September.”

Well it appears to me as if the world leaders are salivating at the prospect of bloodshed in America. They're certainly not helping us out at all. They may very well be the cause of it. And if you remember George Washington's dream, where Mary appeared to him at Valley Forge, it's a very significant dream. It's been interpreted many times on YouTube. I don't think any of them say it was Mary. Many of them say it's an angel. Well it was not an angel that appeared to George Washington. He knew the difference between an angel and a woman. He said it was a woman who appeared to him. An angel did appear to him also, but he said the woman is the one who gave a message; a beautiful one, very similar to the beautiful woman in Kim Clement's prophecy, which was also about Mary. Okay continuing with the dream;

“Then I saw fires all over America and I saw cities on lock-down. I saw flags that were at half-mast, and they began to fade into smoke. And there were many American military groups on the ground, directing traffic and keeping a close watch on the streets.”

And this sure sounds like martial law to me. I think that's what we are heading towards. The flags at half-mast, probably indicate the deaths of prominent people, or maybe very serious false flags, where many people are killed. The Deep State is desperate to take away our guns. It's interesting that Kim Clement prophesied there would be a war that no one wanted, but which no one had the wisdom to prevent. Now we know in the Bible, in the Book of Wisdom, wisdom is described as a female, as a woman. And wisdom is another term for Mary in the Bible.

Dana Coverstone's "Flaming Spear" Dream; What Does it Mean?

What Kim Clement was saying is that no one had access to Mary. They did not have the wisdom to prevent the war. If they had access to Mary, Mary's Immaculate Heart would triumph, as she prophesied at Fatima, and we could avoid the war. I don't think we are going to avoid this upcoming conflict which, certainly according to this dream, would appear to start this summer. And continuing;

“And then I saw the colorful runner running very hard; and his hand was on the wall the entire time and just brushing it. So as he's running very hard, his hand's against that wall. And he was saying, ‘Wake up, wake them up, wake them up.’ And he kept his eye on the spear he'd thrown that was above him, heading in the direction ... almost like he was following the spear.”

This is a very interesting part of the dream. First of all Trump is running with his hand on the wall. That indicates to me that he is getting energy from the wall, or maybe inspiration from Mary's Rosary, probably from our rosaries. That's why we should pray Mary's Rosary. It is when he keeps his eye on this flaming spear; remember he threw the spear in the air, and it's kind of flying over his head. I think that means that his spiritual principles are in union with the Holy Spirit.

As I said before, the spear is up above, going through the atmosphere and that's why it's flying over his head. Donald Trump is following these holy principles, as opposed to Biden, who spit on his spear and threw it into the ground.

When Fr. Andrew Mahana-Maronite exorcized the White House, he took a statue of our Lady of Fatima and President Trump asked the priest if he could keep it when he first moved in.

And if you don't believe that Donald Trump is inspired by Mary's Rosary, I want to show you this next photograph. There it is; Donald Trump; and he is holding rosary beads in his left hand if you look very closely, and he is holding a statue of, I believe, Our Lady of Fatima and the priest that he is standing with is a priest who exorcized the White House.

Melania insisted that they exorcize the White House from all the demons that had been brought in by people like the Clintons and Obama. So they brought in this priest, and Donald Trump saw that he was holding a statue of Mary, and he asked if he could keep the statue and the priest gave it to him. So I think that photograph is very significant, and verifies this 20 foot high wall. This is not an accidental image in Dana Coverstone's dream. All right, moving on;

“And the runner in white was now a dingy gray – it’d gone from white to dingy gray, and the white was completely gone from his jersey. His hand was also on the wall, but it was leaving a trail of fire that followed him as he ran. The colorful runner was weary and was sweating profusely, appeared several times to almost trip and fall. But he recovered and kept going through the running, but he was breathing with great difficulty. He was very tired.”

So it's interesting that Biden's hand is also on the wall, but he's getting a completely different reaction. He's leaving a trail of fire and sparks. There's no communication or free flow between the wall and Biden. It's like a shock. It's like there's an electrical short between him and the wall. And I think that's exactly the way it is. Biden pretends to be a Catholic, but he is not. This dream is very spiritual. Don't think it isn't. And we see in this section that Donald Trump is giving it all. He's exhausted and I don't think there's anybody, friend or foe alike who would not agree that Donald Trump is very dedicated. Okay continuing with the dream;

“The jogging runner was smirking and taking his time, and now he was fully engulfed in fire and was spreading. It was spreading it to the place, for his grey jersey was now just a flaming red. It almost looked like somebody running with a fire around him. He then started running as fast as he possibly could and was making it - he was kind of catching up to the colorful runner.”

So now we see what the flame is, as far as Biden is concerned. It's a devilish flame. That's a flame of Hell and this is what he is spreading, throughout the country. He is spreading an evil fire, and I think it's clear that there are two kinds of fire in this dream from the two spears. Trump's fire comes from above, the Holy Spirit; Biden's fire is in the ground; comes from Satan. And continuing with the dream;

“However, he,” and this would be Donald Trump, the one who threw the spear, “kept his eye on the spear that he had thrown and was still in the air. It was heading toward the building ... the guy had thrown the spear, and he's keeping his eye on the spear. He's running as hard and as fast as he can. He's trying to get going. He's watching that spear. And that spear was headed towards the building that seemed to be filled with people who were on their knees and they were praying loudly.”

So this building is very interesting. Dana, as far as I know, never describes it. It certainly sounds like a church. People are praying in this building. I'm going to suggest that this is not just "a church" but it is "the church", and I believe it is the Catholic Church. I believe, as I've been saying on here quite a number of years now, that Donald Trump's mission is to save the Catholic Church; not to save America. Kim Clement says that the woman will save America and I believe that woman is Esther, in other words Mary.

It's interesting that Donald Trump, who was of course a billionaire playboy, would save the Catholic Church. I believe that means he will save our remnant church. He's not going to save the taken-over Roman Catholic Church, because that is being trodden under by the Gentiles, as prophesied in the Book of Revelation. And Rome has lost the faith and become the seed of the Antichrist, as prophesied by Mary, in the amazing La Salette prophecy, which she gave to two shepherd children, Mélanie Calvat and Maximin Giraud back in 1846, Now continuing with this dream;

“And both runners kept moving, with one spilling fire all the way along that wall. It's almost like a trail of fire behind him. Everything he touched was fiery. And the other was now screaming as loud as he could, ‘Wake up, wake up, wake up, wake up, wake up,’ constantly; and he never stopped screaming, ‘Wake up!’“

So I think it's becoming clear, Biden's fires are Satan's fires, and Donald Trump is working opposite of Biden, and he's going to throw his fiery spear into the church. Or has he done it already? Let's continue with the next verse. I call these verses.

“Then I saw American generals in a facility that was obviously underground. And I saw many phone calls that were coming in on rotary phones. I saw the curly-cue (some of you will know what I'm talking about), the curly-cue cords. They were coming in on rotary phones; and as the generals answered them, they were telling others the position numbers on a very large map of both the Atlantic and the Pacific Oceans.”

Well, the generals are in bunkers. This would indicate to me that an attack has already occurred against the United States. Remember this dream is from May to September of this summer. Is there going to be an attack on the United States in that time? The fact that they are using rotary phones with wires instead of wireless; that would indicate that there has been an EMP attack, (an EMP, an electromagnetic pulse attack, can be caused by nuclear weapons and can collapse the entire North American power grid.) if not, a worse kind of attack. I think that's what Dana is prophesying here. And continuing with the dream;

“And it was frantic in that room. People were obviously in a state of panic, running here and there very, very quickly. And I could then see world leaders in Europe, Russia and Israel - modern day leaders - talking with each other with great passion, great concern on their faces. Their faces revealed that these were very, very important things they were discussing. And then this word was spoken, ‘It might be our time.’ It kept being spoken by the leaders, as they watched the fires burning over America.”

I think the “time” means the time when the United States will no longer be the world's number one superpower. That is what would interest all the other world leaders. And we know that there is a certain time in the Book of Revelation; a certain hour, that the harlot is destroyed by fire, by the Scarlet Beast. The Scarlet Beast indicates the One World Communist tyranny which will include most of the nations of the world. And continuing with Dana's dream;

“Then the spear thrown by that first runner hit the building it was aiming for and it exploded into a bright light, and it streamed down over the entire country. And it looked like a napalm storm - if you've seen the videos of us dropping bombs during the Vietnam War, there in Vietnam. So it looked like a napalm something filled the atmosphere of the United States. And as the fire from the building spread, it was putting out some of the fires in the United States. It lessened some and some it had no impact at all - some of those fires kept burning.”

So it's pretty obvious that Donald Trump, his flaming spear, his principles, his Holy Spirit principles are going to shake up the church. I think that's what the building represents “the church”, and specifically the Catholic Church. And the fire of the Holy Spirit is going to put out some of the fires that were started by Biden.

And it would appear to me that Donald Trump is going to have a significant impact upon this country, even though he is not President, and it's interesting to me that he is being attacked in the media, almost as if he were still President. And there's no reason why he can't have impact. You don't have to be President to have an impact on this country. There are only certain things the President can do. I think if Donald Trump is the leader of the Catholic Church, the remnant Catholic Church in this country, he would have more impact than Biden is going to have. Biden is a phony Catholic. I think a lot of this prophecy has to do with the Catholic Church. That's why the wall is 20 feet high. Okay continuing;

Dana Coverstone's “Flaming Spear” Dream; What Does it Mean?

“And then I saw that the explosion had actually thrown people all over the place. The people who were praying in that building were now, they were just ... thrown up in the air to these areas of the nation. And these people - the thrown people all over the country - they had fire extinguishers and brooms, and they were patting down the fires.”

I suspect that the person who will convert Donald Trump, and I've said all along that Donald Trump would convert and become a Catholic, because that's in the Bible, that's in Isaiah and in Micah, and I think it is Viganò who will convert Donald Trump, and he will become a Catholic. He's already renounced the denomination he grew up in, and that was Presbyterianism.

It's clear that Donald Trump's spirit in this dream is from the Holy Spirit and he is inspiring many Catholics. That's what is meant by the fire extinguisher, that they are now filled with the Holy Spirit. And they are going to put out the fire started by Biden. Okay continuing with the dream;

“They were screaming, as they were patting down those fires. They were screaming (just like the colorful running man), they were screaming, ‘Wake up, stay awake, there's not much time. Wake up, stay awake, there's not much time.’ They kept repeating that, ‘Wake up, stay awake, there's not much time.’

Well this is kind of interesting. What do they mean, “There's not much time”? Now there's not much time before what? What's going to happen that people have to get ready for during this tribulation period? The only thing I can think of is Jesus return. Jesus returns in Armageddon, and He's going to take all the people who are on fire like Biden to Hell. The Antichrist is going to go to Hell with all of his followers. So that's what you have to get ready for. I think that's what this dream is indicating. Next part of the dream;

“And the colorful runner then sat down and leaned against the wall”, interesting he's leaning against the wall, “and took a deep breath; he was just on the other side of the finish line. And the Man that I see often in the dreams was helping him to his feet. And the fiery runner was laying past the finish line, too, and was smoking like a burnt building. He was not moving and was not breathing.”

So this contrast between Trump and Biden is pretty clear. And the man in Dana's dreams that he often sees, represents the Lord, and we see him helping Trump, just as the Antichrist was giving advice to Biden. It's interesting that Trump is leaning against the wall. He's still leaning on Mary's Rosary. But now here we have Jesus, who is going to help him in his victory.

It's interesting that Biden is lying down and not breathing. What does that indicate? Does that indicate that he is going to die sometime after the summer, in the fall? Now that's not what Dana's saying, and I'm not really interpreting it that way, and the reason is, because maybe his fall on the ground and not breathing indicates that he's going to fall into Hell along with the Antichrist. And we did see in that one dream, I think it was the last dream he had, where there was a bloodstain under his desk in the Oval Office and it opens down into Hell. And that indicated that both Biden and Chief Justice Roberts are on the road to Hell. Okay continuing with this dream;

“And the Man pointed at me and he said, 'Warn them, there's not much time left. And it will never be easy again. If you're not braced now, you won't make it. Not rooted, you will be pulled up ... pulled out; and the fire will never go out. Look for me, and endure until I come.' And one other thing that's different about this dream is; usually after the Man speaks to me in the dream that's it.”

And in this case, we're going to find that he has a little coda that he adds. So, this sounds to me like this dream is taking us right up to our Lord's return, doesn't it to you? - to Armageddon. That's why there's not much time left, and Dana says, the Man says, if you don't endure until Jesus comes, you will enter the fire that never goes out. I don't see how you can interpret it any other way than that - that the fire that never goes out is Hellfire.

Okay now, Dana has this coda which is kind of interesting, because he doesn't usually have this. Usually the Man has the final word. So here's what he sees next.

“But I had another small piece, and this was Monday night.” This was this past Monday. “I then saw every one of those international leaders and American generals put down their phones at the very, very, very same time. And in unison, all at once they said, 'It's time. It's time.' Then they all sat, every single one ... the leaders, the military, they all sat at their desks, and they put their heads in their hands, like this, and they began to weep.”

So Dana Coverstone emphasizes, so they all say this at the same time. And what time are they referring to? Well, in the Book of Revelation, the harlot, Babylon is burned with fire in one hour. And it's kind of interesting that they are weeping. Is it biblical, in the Bible to weep at the destruction of Babylon? Remember, these people all seem to want to have America burn, all the world leaders, but now they are weeping. So why would that be?

Well, as I've said all along, the harlot, Babylon in the Book of Revelation symbolizes our own decadent West; primarily Britain and America. Please don't listen to the false prophets. I've been on here for almost 13 years now. When I first came on, every other video about the harlot, said that the whore of Babylon was the Catholic Church or the Vatican, in Rome in other words. And I would ask them, I said, do you honestly believe that all the merchants of the world would weep and mourn if the Vatican were burned with fire in one hour? Of course not. But the merchants of the world will weep and mourn if America is burned with fire in one hour, because we are the number one trading partner of practically every nation in the world.

That's why these world leaders, when they see that their hopes for America being destroyed with fire is coming true, then they suddenly realize the consequences. They depended on America for buying all their goods. America made them rich, as the Book of Revelation says. And I think the sad part about this, is that the fires occur before Trump's spear blows out the church, and the people go out, putting out the fires. The fires begin before they repent, in other words.

And that's exactly the same message that we here got from Sister Reneé's amazing photograph. And I've shown you this before and I want to show it to you again, because it is totally consistent with Dana Coverstone's dream, and that is, at the bottom of the cross, bottom of the crucifix, there is this naked harlot. I have never seen any image of the crucifix with a naked harlot at the foot of it.

And why is she naked? Because that represents Babylon, after she has been burned with fire. Babylon in the Book of Revelation is clothed with scarlet and linen. Remember? She sits a queen, but not after she's burned. But this is when the harlot is going to repent, is going to ask Jesus for repentance, and that's the same prophecy that Dana Coverstone is giving in this dream.

Sister Reneé's photograph

So I think it's quite amazing. It's hard to deny what's going to happen. I believe his dream, Sister Reneé's photograph and the Book of Revelation are all telling us the same thing; and the same with George Washington's dream. There is a lot of pain and mourning. Kim Clement said the same thing, but Esther will save America and pour her oil of gladness on America after the pain and mourning.

So, as you can see, I am not here to give you pillows and cushions. I am here to give you accurate interpretation of End Times prophecy as I see it. And remember, we can protect ourselves. I don't like to be all negative because we have been given the ability to go to our refuges. Jesus said in the End

Times it will be as in the days of Noah and Lot.

This punishment; I don't see how we can avoid it, but we can avoid the punishment just as those priests avoided the punishment at Hiroshima. They lived six blocks from Ground Zero and they didn't suffer a scratch. That's because they lived the Fatima message and they prayed the daily Rosary.

I want to thank Dana Coverstone for receiving these dreams. Obviously he's a very spiritual person. I don't blame him for not understanding and I don't blame him for preferring Cherie Goth's interpretation. In the Bible, the prophet Daniel did not understand the prophecy he was given. He kept pestering the angel. He wanted to know what the meaning was, and the angel told him, "Go your way Daniel, the vision is for another time". That's for our time. So there's no reason for Dana Coverstone to understand his prophecy. As long as he receives it; as long as he gives it accurately; if he does that, then it's up to me, and I presume others to accurately interpret it.

Until I see all of you, may God bless all of you and may all of you have a very blessed evening.
