

Revelation 12 Sign: 4 Days & Counting

We only have four more days to go until the Great Sign: the Great Sign in Revelation 12:1 of a woman clothed with the Sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars, and she is in labor and in pain to be delivered of a man-child which will be caught up to God and to the throne. And I've been saying all along that I am the discoverer of this sign. Some people say I'm trying to take God's place; no, of course not; God created this sign and Scripture calls it the Great Sign. And would you believe that Wikipedia is now giving me credit! One of my subscribers brought this to my attention; and here's the article in Wikipedia and I think it would be worthwhile for you to take a look at it because of the references they give.

I mean, they try to cover all bases and you're not going to get the whole truth, but the references they give at the bottom are very interesting: both people who support it and who debunk it. Now, here is the article giving me credit and you can pause the video and read it for yourself. (In the "Overview" section in the above link.)

In any event, I want to go back to this weekend for just a minute. I went to Mass that morning and I'm going to tie this in, believe it or not, and I have showed you this before: this is on our missalette and this is a symbolic depiction of the One World Religion.

It's a logo and I have showed you this before and I have explained it: here you see the two horns of 'Hathor', the cow goddess. A lot of people believe that this cow goddess is the same as the golden calf which the Israelites worshipped after they left Egypt. And above you see the Sun God 'Ra' and, of course, they try to convince Catholics that this depicts a chalice and this is the host. But that's not what it is; this is a hidden symbol of the One World Religion.

And at Mass this Sunday, and I will read it for you, this is the gospel, and there is a huge error in the translation. And this is from Matthew, chapter 18, verse 2: 'Peter approached Jesus and asked him Lord if my brother sins against me how often must I forgive as many as seven times? Jesus answered I say to you not seven times but seventy-seven times.' Did you hear that? They have changed it from 'seventy times seven times' to 'seventy-seven times'. That is a big error; I almost jumped out of my seat. But my Pastor, Father Ward, did correct it in his sermon. That is a reference to Daniel; it is an End Times prophecy because it tells us when God will stop forgiving. He stops forgiving after 490 years which began when Artaxerxes gave the order to rebuild and restore Jerusalem and of course there's a gap in there after the Messiah is cut off and we are about to enter the years of Great Tribulation.

I've always thought that this Great Sign in the fall of 2017 was the end of the tribulation. I now believe it is the middle of the tribulation; the beginning of the Great Tribulation, the last 42 months and I will tie that in, in just a minute. I want to show you the Great Sign; I'm sure you are familiar with this image.

They've got the moon as a full moon and that is not correct; the moon will be a new moon, it will be a crescent moon. And now, here I'm going to tie into that image you just saw because Mary is going to crush the serpent as prophesied in Genesis 3:15, and that's also what this sign is all about. I've showed you this many times, this is Our Lady of Guadalupe, and she is standing on the crescent moon, symbolizing Islam, and also the serpent which she is destined to crush. That's the same as this Revelation sign: a woman clothed with the Sun with the moon under her feet, a new moon, a crescent moon, clothed with the Sun, the Sun is around her, she is blocking the Sun and, of course, this image was painted by God just as the Revelation 12:1 image in the constellations is also arranged by Almighty God.

This is the Great Sign and, as I have said, I believe it indicates the conversion of Donald Trump and his Protestant brethren because this is what the Bible says in Micah chapter 5, verse number 3. Well, I might as well read that for you again; I am sure I've read it before many times: 'Therefore will he give them up (that's Donald Trump, he can't help us) until the time wherein she that travails shall bring forth (that's gotta be in four days) and the remnant of his brethren, his Protestant brethren, shall be converted (that's why I use the word convert) to the children of Israel.' I've been watching some interesting videos lately and one was by, and let me get his name correct, Sadhu Sundar Selvaraj, an Indian prophet, and he gives an interpretation very close to mine. He says the Church, now, when he says the Church he means the Protestants; he says a group will separate out and be anointed by the Holy Spirit and be given a gift of prophecy. That's very similar to what I say: that a group will be separated out, who I call the remnant Protestants, and they will be converted to Catholicism. That's not much different than what I've been saying; and which interpretation it is exactly, we will soon find out.

And I watched an interesting video this morning by Steve Cioccolanti, Discover Ministry, and he's quite interesting and he's from Australia and he knows that these two new hurricanes, Jose and Maria, may combine and hit the east coast of the United States on this day of the Great Sign September 23rd. Wouldn't it be something if they hit Washington DC this Saturday and that is the mechanism that converts Donald Trump? And I mentioned in my last video that the Cleveland Indians losing game number 23, marked that date also, and that was verified when I discovered later that the pitcher in that game, Trevor Bauer, one of my favorites, he also lost the 23rd game in a series when he was pitching for UCLA. They had won 22 games in a row and he lost the 23rd. So I definitely do believe that Almighty God was using that game with Cleveland as a marker for this number 23, the 23rd of September, of the Great Sign. And I said at the time that if they lost that would indicate something bad would happen that would convert Donald Trump.

So I'm just speculating now, but maybe those two hurricanes will hit Washington DC and that will cause Donald Trump to convert. That may not be; I'm not saying that it is, but something for you my subscribers to look for. This may be my last video before the Great Sign because things are coming fast and furious. The debunkers are out in force; just google: 'Revelation 12 sign', you will see just as I predicted, Satan is going to attack this Great Sign and he's got debunkers all over YouTube and all over the Internet. So don't be surprised at what you see and hear. There's no doubt that this Great Sign is coming to a great climax this weekend and, just like I know most of you are, I'm very excited also.
