

The “New Chief” in Dana’s Dream is the Antichrist

On this program we have another fascinating study of Dana Coverstone's newest dream called, “Hail to the Chief “, and this is not exactly apocalyptic prophecy. I believe this is straightforward prophecy. There is some symbolism in it and therefore I can kind of tell you ahead of time what the dream is all about. It's about the United States falling to the Antichrist, and Dana does not understand that but you know it's not his job as a prophet to understand the prophecy.

As you know in the Old Testament, the prophet Daniel complained to the angels. He wanted to know what his prophecy meant, and the angel told him, “Go your way Daniel, the vision is for another time.” He would never explain it to him. Even after he had just explained it to him, he did not understand it, so that's typical. That's par for the course and it does not take away anything from the validity of Dana Coverstone's dream. In fact it kind of adds to it. It shows that he is following in the footsteps of very great prophets.

So now let's take a quick look at this dream. I say quick look. It's quite a long dream, so we have quite a bit of territory to cover here, so let's take a look at this. I don't have the entire prophecy, because he repeats himself quite a bit in this. Lately he has been adding his interpretation to the actual dream. I don't prefer it that way but I have to kind of separate out the dream. The dream would be about twice as long as I have it, if I did his entire dream, and since he's not correct in his interpretation it's really not necessary to include that part of it.

So, here's the first thing he mentioned. Actually he mentions this later on and he received this I think August 6th, just very recently, but he said this, let me read what he said here. He says this later on, he says, “Folks every time I’ve had a dream, it has taken place over a couple of days or a week. This one happened in one night.” Very interesting. “I’ve never had that happen. I’ve never had one dream, where I’ve dreamt the whole thing in one night. I’m not sure the significance of that. Maybe it's more important; maybe that it's less important.

We know that Dana has already received dreams about September 1st being a time of when the sky turns black over the United States. I think that's a very serious dream. Another time stamp he received was a Thanksgiving dream, which he called the Norman Rockwell dream; the “Rockwell” dream I think he called it, showing it in Thanksgiving. There would be, I guess you could say, well there were murders but it looked like it was like an insurrection in the United States, so we have terrible times coming up.

And now in this dream, it's kind of interesting that there seems to be a normal activity which would be the State of the Union address at the same time of course very unusual activity in the entrance of the Antichrist. So let's start with the first slide I have here.

“I had this dream August 6th, 2022, a week ago Friday night. I had it in Aiken, South Carolina which I believe is significant. The dream began with me watching a broadcast that was announcing the 2023 State of the Union address. Now, I also make something very clear: in this dream, I had no indication in my mind, my feeling, my spirit, of what I saw: I had no sense that Joe Biden was a part of this dream. I had no sense that Joe Biden was the man I was about to see coming down.”

Well I'm going to disagree with him. Who else could it be? The State of the Union address in is going to be given by Joe Biden unless he's replaced by someone else, which could be. Well that's a distinct possibility. Maybe Kamala Harris will be the President then. Whoever is the President at that time, well that's the person who is about to give this State of the Union address in 2023. Okay, let me move on to the next slide.

“So I'm watching this broadcast announcing the 2023 State of the Union address. 'Hail to the Chief' began to play and people turned and waited for the person to enter ... and the Sergeant of Arms just stepped up to introduce the President and he did it like this: 'Madam Speaker, the President of the United States of America.' He went from a little bit of a voice to less of a whisper. He began to cough and hold his chest like he was having trouble breathing.”

Now I read it the way Dana Coverstone did. He kind of read it just like that. He whispered and he acted like he was having trouble with his throat. I think that's significant. I think it means that the Sergeant of Arms as a representative of America shows that America is in deep trouble and I guess you would say he's not well.

And now you notice that the Sergeant of Arms addresses Madam Speaker, so we know he must be referring to Nancy Pelosi, so that's why I say the President must be Joe Biden, unless there's been a change and I don't think that there has been a change. Well I can't say that. There could have been a change but we certainly know that Madam Speaker has got to be Nancy Pelosi. So this is what, how many months from now, five, six months from now, the State of the Union address? Let's look at the next slide.

“He tried to introduce the President and everybody's excited, and the applause has already started but nobody entered the chamber. So people started trying to see over the crowd: 'Where's the President?' At this point I am standing, in the dream, I'm watching from right beside the right side of the podium. The music kept playing, 'Hail to the Chief'. It kept getting louder and louder and louder and louder and louder and the decibel level was making people cover their ears. No president had walked in.”

And what bothers me about this scene is that, people are all excited, applause has already started. Well as far as that goes I say maybe this isn't Joe Biden. If by some chance the Republicans do have a red wave in November, this does not sound like a whole lot of Republicans cheering Joe Biden before he comes into the State of the Union address. So there are kinds of anomalies here that I am not satisfied with. Perhaps Joe Biden has been replaced. Maybe I don't think it would be Trump that is President but that's a possibility. Maybe that's what is being told here. In any event, let's continue with the next slide.

“Secret Service agents with white earpieces pulled their weapons ... they actually pulled their weapons. The whole floor erupted. They all looked surprised and very much alarmed. Other Secret Service agents had come in that very door where the President was supposed to enter and they looked very alarmed and it was like something bad had happened. The crowd seemed panicked and they had absolute fear in their eyes.”

So, it sounds as if some kind of coup has occurred. The President is not going to come in that door. People are getting nervous and I can see why Dana Coverstone also seems to indicate that this part of the dream indicates that a coup has occurred.

“Now I'm not going to name the faces of the people that I saw. I did see Supreme Court justices, certain governors, certain Congressional figures and senate leaders. Basically our elected leaders were shut out of the process. Then an official black jacketed agent stormed through the Secret Service agents. Now I want to say this, I've never seen this man in my entire life. This official black jacketed agent goes to the platform yelling, 'Everybody sit down'.”

So now, this black-jacketed figure who seems to know what is going on, strikes me as someone from the Deep State. That's why Dana says he doesn't recognize him. The Secret Service agents seem to recognize him because he ploughs right through them as Dana says, so this coup could very well be a coup from the Deep State. They are the ones who have gotten rid of the President. Okay let me look at the next slide.

“Then he starts yelling to have the music shut down and nobody's listening. Suddenly he pulls a service weapon from underneath, with his right hand, he pulls over his left jacket, and he pulls the service weapon out, aims right up towards the balcony. In the very back of the balcony I see this large rectangular speaker. He fires at that speaker one loud shot and suddenly the music stops. People screamed and he once again demanded that they all sit down immediately.”

Now this is an example of what I call symbolism. I would not say this is apocalyptic prophecy but I would say it is symbolic. Shooting the loudspeaker that is playing “Hail to the Chief”, I think was another indication of the end of the presidency. I think that's what Dana's dream is about, and the man in black means that the Deep State has taken over the presidency or has taken over leadership of the country, let's put it that way. Okay, next slide.

“Now all the distractions are gone, and the focus is on the man standing at the podium. Then a different group of men that I sensed were not Secret Service agents came in, who are wearing Kevlar vests, military backpacks, AR-15s, but no helmets. They're also wearing Kevlar over black suits as the man is wearing at the podium. Those men come in, and they've got their weapons out. They don't have them scoped out on their shoulders, but they are ready to go, they're ready to aim and fire, so to speak.”

So, this sounds not just only just like a coup, it sounds like a military coup, and I think we'll see that the people in the Congressional Chambers soon recognize that that's what it is, a military coup. Is that what Dana is prophesying for 2023, the State of the Union address? I would say so. Let's look at the next slide.

“Now this man, who nobody knows, says this, ‘Ladies and gentlemen, we have lost the President.’ And there were shouts, people said, ‘What do you mean?! How'd that happen?!’ And people were yelling and screaming right back. He looked at his hands, he did this: kind of starts up high, like ‘Everybody settle down, be quiet, sit down’. He lifted up his hands, made this lowering movement. And he said this, ‘You all knew this would happen; and now that it has, you will either support the consequences or join the missing.’”

So things are accelerating here. This man in black is giving pretty dire threats and Dana does this, if you watch his video, and you should. This is what he means by that lowering his hands. His hands come down and he wants everybody to sit down and to be quiet. And when he indicates that, he says “You all knew this would happen; and now that it has, you will either support the consequences or join the missing.”

And I don't doubt that most government officials are on the take. They've been practically all compromised by Communist China for example. I suspect that that is what the Holy Spirit is telling us through Dana Coverstone, and remember if this is true prophecy and I believe it is, it's a warning to us from the Holy Spirit. Okay, now we look at the next slide.

“Then the man says, ‘Please stand, raise your right hand, pledge allegiance, and then kneel when you're told to.’ When I heard this I envisioned the Nazi salute with the hand. Suddenly the gavel at the desk in the Congressional Chamber was hammered loudly. I did not see who put the hammer down, near where the President would have addressed the nation. And now the declaration of what's about to happen, is to be spoken, so people get it. This time people were looking around, but they were not moving. And you could see panic once again.”

So when this man in black says to be prepared to kneel down, that's another indication to me that the person who is going to come through those doors is not another president. I believe it is the Antichrist, because as you know the Antichrist demands worship.

Now Dana did not understand this, but I don't know who else it could be. If it was just another president, let's say from another party or maybe Donald Trump or I don't know who it could be, maybe Hillary or somebody, the man in black would not say, be prepared to kneel down, but if he's about to introduce the Antichrist, and I think that's what this is about, then kneeling down would be an appropriate command from this man in black. Okay let's look at the next scene.

“A lot of those men had their heads down with their eyes closed, they were full of tears. I saw mascara running on the faces of most of the women. I saw tears on every single face. People were scared. This was not just scared; these people were absolutely terrified. And I'm talking about elected officials, leaders, Supreme Court justices, governors, departments' heads, heads of state - you name it. If they were there, if they were in that building, they were terrified at this point. Some of these men were full of tears and visibly shaking in their seats.”

So again this does sound like a coup of some kind, a military coup, because I don't think you would be shaking in your seats if just another president from another party were taking over. If these people are terrified as Dana says, this is very serious and I think we all understand that the Antichrist will reign by fear. He is prefigured by people like Hitler, Stalin, Mao Tse-tung, (or Mao Zedong), people like that, and we know from the Book of Revelation that the government of the Antichrist will be a tyranny and I think everything that Dana is describing here is that of the reign of the Antichrist.

Does that mean that it will begin in 2023, at the time of the State of the Union address? Well we will see that the Antichrist does not make its appearance in this dream, not quite. So it's possible that Dana does not show us the identity of the Antichrist in this dream but that does not mean that he will not appear in 2023, at the State of the Union address. Okay, next scene.

“And then the man at the front screamed, he said, ‘I said stand!’ And he held the word ‘stand’ for; in the dream it seemed like moments or minutes. Then when it stopped, he said, ‘Stand!’ and he started looking out in the crowd. Now people were looking around, and a few men stood up and then several women stood up; and as they did, they turned towards the door, the door that we would have seen the President walk through.’

So now all the people in the audience, this current Congress, these senators and representatives, they expect the new leader to come through the doors where the President would come through. I don't think they're expecting another President I think they're expecting the Antichrist, and I would not be surprised if the Antichrist, when he takes over the world, and we know he will rule the world, I would not be surprised if he goes to governments around the world, if he would announce his appearance by attending government assemblies, that would not surprise me.

The people here in the Congress, they seem to understand what's happening. Maybe the Antichrist has appeared in several other places around the world, maybe in Britain for example. That's not indicated in this dream but that could be how this will play out. In any event, I think that that is the next person who would come through these doors into giving the State of the Union address. Okay next slide:

“They were waiting for the man, someone, to walk through the door that the President would have walked in. They were like. ‘Okay, I guess.’ It was almost unashamed; now the fear changes to unashamed and ‘It's okay, I guess this is what we signed up for.’ These people are part of the coup obviously; they're selling out our nation. And they finally stand up, slowly, but they're standing up. And several of the people screamed out, ‘No!’

So some of the people are standing up and I don't think any of us have a doubt that people in this Congress would accept the Antichrist. They're working for him now. Anyone who votes to legalize abortion, and all the Democrats do, they will accept the Antichrist. It won't make any difference to them. They would expect to stay in his government, so that is not surprising. I mean, now he says that some of the people shouted, ‘No!’ Well the Republicans generally vote against legalized abortion. I think they are the ones who are going to shout, ‘No!’ so let's see what happens to them in this dream.

“As soon as they did, the military suits behind the guys with the black jackets and the Kevlar over, right behind them, put a hand, their left hand and put a needle right in their throat, in the right side of their neck. The person began to shake and then suddenly just fell over dead. So within seconds these people were dead. There were still people in that Chamber that said, ‘We're not doing this; we've not signed up; we're not part of this.’ And when they said, ‘No!’ and they stood up, they were killed immediately.”

So if this is the government of the Antichrist, this is not surprising. We know the Antichrist will kill his opposition. We see this in governments which are run. Well look at what Putin does. He takes care of his political enemies, and I'm sure Putin is a pre-figure of the Antichrist, and of course Hitler, Stalin and Mao Tse-tung, (or Mao Zedong); they did the same thing. They get rid of their political enemies. So for those, and I give the example of those opposing legalized abortion, if the Antichrist institutes a tyranny, which he will; he will, there's no doubt, kill off any of those people who oppose legalized abortion. Okay let's look at the next slide.

“So that's the picture being broadcast throughout the room: these were the uncompromising senators, governors, uncompromising justices, uncompromising heads of state, and state department leaders; those sorts of people. When they saw the people start to drop, die after they screamed, ‘No!’, this caused more people in the crowd to scream and gasp. And I saw men who were now weak-kneed struggling to get to their feet. And there were elected officials who were wetting their pants in absolute terror and sheer understanding of what they had done.”

Dana Coverstone's kind of interesting when he said they were “wetting their pants”. He said he saw that but he didn't want to mention it, but he did after all. Well, that's more drama as far as what's going on here. The next slide:

“The look of fear on their faces was horrible, as if they were facing a death sentence - and they were. And they sobbed and sobbed, as they just slowly stood to their feet. Some were saying, ‘I'm standing! I'm standing! I'm getting up! I'm getting up!’, because they were so fearful that they were going to get injected. And those military suits, they were going around and disposing of anyone who would not stand. And it might take one guy on him, it might take two or three; but if they were sitting, they were killed, they were put out.

And anyone who also tried to resist those men, got hit with a butt of an AR-15 in their head, went down; and they were injected, shook a little bit. And those sort of things began to happen. And then those that stood in the very front, I'm looking at the very front of the area where the Supreme Court justices sit and some other leaders, I saw some of those folks stand up very slowly and the slowest ones were some of the highest elected officials and the Supreme Court justices ever, sitting in that front row.”

So we see here, in this part of the dream, that even the Supreme Court justices whom we have recently gotten a lot of respect for, because they overturned Roe v Wade, even they start to stand up. And this was a shocking part of the dream to me, that practically everyone in the Congress supported this coup of the Antichrist. It's hard for me to believe that people like Amy Coney Barrett and Brett Kavanaugh, who showed great courage in overturning Roe v Wade, that they would accept the Antichrist. Now Dana did not say that some of the Supreme Court justices will stand up and say, “No”, so I shouldn't single them out because Dana did not single them out. Okay, so now, the question is, “Is anybody going to come through that door?” And I kind of let the cat out of the bag. I don't think anyone does come through that door, of importance, but someone does come through that door. So let me look at the next slide. This is very interesting. Let me know if you can figure out the significance of this, because Dana doesn't know.

“At this very minute, a flutist walked in the back door. I could hear this melody, this flute playing very loudly. And a very thin Asian girl, dressed like an Olympic gymnast with this incredible flute in her hands, she walked in and she began to play a very haunting melody. She stood at the very back, and this melody, as she begins to play it, people turn; it was almost like a Pied Piper moment. What she was playing was very, very high-pitched and very sharp on the ears, it was actually hurting people's ears.”

So when I first heard Dana read his dream. This was the most shocking part of it. I said: What is this flutist doing? Why would this come in? Up until now, I could even see armed people in Congress. I could even see people being killed, but a flutist coming in? What in the world is the Holy Spirit showing this to Dana Coverstone for? So a flute is coming, and what is the significance of that?

And first of all I think the person is Asian, and a girl, which means that she could not possibly be a president. Asian would mean she's a foreign national, probably. A girl means that she's way under age. You have to be 35 to be a president, and as far as that goes, I don't think it could be the Antichrist. The Antichrist is never described as a girl in the Book of Revelation in the Bible. There's only one female pre-figure of the Antichrist and that's Jezebel. All of the others are male so this is not the Antichrist. So who is this person? Okay I want to read to you from Daniel chapter 3, verse number 5, because I believe this will tell us who this girl represents. Let's look at Daniel chapter 3, verse number 5.

Daniel 3:5 “That in the hour that you shall hear the sound of the trumpet, and of the FLUTE, and of the harp, of the sackbut, and of the psaltery, and of the symphony, and of all kind of music; ye shall fall down, and adore the golden statue which King Nebuchadnezzar hath set up.”

So now, I think we know the significance of the girl with the flute. Most Bible scholars will tell you that the statue that King Nebuchadnezzar set up is a pre-figure of the Antichrist. We know for example that the feet of the king's statue represent the End Times government. The legs of iron and tin represent the One World Government and the One World Religion, and I think that the statue itself does represent the Antichrist. Isn't it interesting that the people worship at the sound of a flute, among other instruments? In fact I often think that, the kind of music that our society is producing now is the kind of music that will herald the Antichrist. It's awful music, like this flute is ear piercing, and the music that we are getting in our culture is the same way. It's preparing the way for the Antichrist. And notice that they worship the statue. Well that's what we've heard earlier in this dream where the man in black tells the people in Congress to prepare to kneel. That's why I believe that this is about the arrival of the Antichrist. Now we'll go back to Dana's dream.

“I remember standing, watching, thinking, ‘This is hurting my ears.’ This is louder than the music ‘Hail to the Chief’ that was playing when the President was supposed to walk in. That flute reminded me of the Pied Piper; because as she began to play, the sobbing and the weeping stopped. And the people were looking at her, and they were watching her walk down the aisle.”

Well I don't think Pied Piper is a good comparison. Maybe it is. Maybe the Pied Piper is going to lead people straight, so maybe that's a good comparison. It hurts Dana's ears because it's announcing the Antichrist. Dana being a pastor would rebel at hearing the announcement of the Antichrist. And Dana says that this sound is louder than the “Hail to the Chief” and that's because the Antichrist is going to supersede the presidency. I think that's the significance of this. Now let me go to the next slide.

“And then she started into a march - and I'm talking highly precise, with precision march. You would have thought she looked like a pre-pubescent girl 10 to 12 years old; but when she began to march, you could tell that this girl was not a little girl: she was a trained Olympic soloist. This was a precise young lady, whose eye was on the podium she was walking towards; and as she's playing that flute, her eyes never looked at the crowd.”

And the next slide.

“All the crowd was looking at her, and this haunting melody is almost like hypnotizing them. She marched with military precision, and she headed down there. This was a planned, ordered thing; and that podium represented the highest authority of the world – literally, the highest authority in our country. She was going to walk to that platform unopposed. The first speaker up there with the black jacket, had basically gotten everybody ready. He says, ‘Stand!’ He basically was getting them ready to pledge allegiance to somebody who was coming in.”

And that somebody is the Antichrist. And it's interesting that he describes the music as hypnotizing. Well that's a very good description of the Antichrist. That's why we, for example, have been told that when the Antichrist does make his appearance, we have to get rid of our televisions. We've got to get rid of our computers, that's because he will be hypnotizing, so that's one more indication to me that Dana's dream is about the arrival of the Antichrist, and of him taking over this country. Will it be at the State of the Union address in 2023? That's the time frame that Dana has given. Okay let's move on to the next slide.

“She got about 10 feet away - I’m standing at the right of that platform, watching her come right down towards me - when she was about 10 feet away, she jumped in the air and did three or four flips and she landed. And she's playing the flute the whole time she's flipping. When she landed, she just kept hold of that note; that note never stopped, it was a high-pitched note that she just held. It was very, very high-pitched - like an emergency broadcast system.”

Next slide:

“And there were people now still hypnotized watching her play this note. And as soon as she got done with that note, she began to use the flute like a baton, put it back like a weapon, and stood in the defensive position, and faced the entire crowd. She had put on her mean face; and she said, ‘You said you were with us. Now we see. You said you were with us. Now we see.’ So her movements, her self-esteem and confidence were off the charts; but this was sheer intimidation.”

So I would not be surprised that someone who was announcing the Antichrist would bring about intimidation. It's possible that this girl is a counter prefiguring to John the Baptist. John the Baptist would never force people, but this person would. That's because she's announcing the Antichrist, and it's interesting that no one ever does come through that door as you will see. And I’m not sure why that is. It doesn't mean that the Antichrist won't appear at this time. It means that the Holy Spirit is not ready to reveal the Antichrist at this time, but I think he is saying that the Antichrist will be revealed at the time of the State of the Union address in 2023, in other words, just a few months from now. Okay, the next slide:

“Suddenly all the sound, the sobbing, the noise, everything went away. The chamber basically just emptied out. All that sound faded in that moment; it was like GOD spoke clarity. In the dream, as I’m standing, watching, I am troubled, because I’ve seen incredible things happen. Suddenly there's the Man that I believe represents Jesus in my dreams. He started to bring clarity of thought - the noise stopped, the chaos stopped. He's standing at the podium.”

Another reason I think this represents the Antichrist is because Jesus says, “Pray that your flight be not in the winter”. The State of the Union addresses are always held in the winter, usually in January, but lately they've been held in February and sometimes as late as March, but no matter, they always are held in the winter. Maybe that's what Jesus means when He says, “Pray that your flight be not in winter”. That particular warning is a warning to the martyrs. There are four different groups as you know who reign with Jesus during the Millennium, and one of the groups is the martyrs, and the martyrs are made martyrs by the Antichrist.

There are four different evil End Times entities. There's the one who causes the Abomination of Desolation, "the prince who shall come" for example, the false prophet, Antiochus Epiphanes, but the one who affects the martyrs, who kills people, is the Antichrist. Okay let me just see; the next slide is the last one.

"So, the first man walked in and said, 'Everyone stand!' He was the first man to speak. The second person at the podium was that young girl that came in. And now He's at the podium, basically saying, I get the last say; I'm the final authority. The first thing the Man (Jesus) said was this, 'And it all took place in less than 250 years.' He looked at me, and I was standing just right off that right corner of the podium. He said, 'Get ready for more than war, and speak the truth at risk of the sword.' And that's when I woke up."

I think that basically sums up that this indeed has to be the Antichrist. I would say that this dream is showing the end of America. That's why he said it all happened in less than 250 years. If you add 250 years to 1776 you get 2026. So the Antichrist has got to appear between 2023 and 2026 and he says less than 250 years, so I would not be surprised that in 2023, at the time of the State of the Union address is the revealing of the Antichrist.

And Dana says that the Man says "Get ready for more than war". So what's more than war? I think Dana said it indicates captivity. I think it indicates war with the Antichrist. That's more than war, because it is not just war as we think of it, it's spiritual war. As Saint Paul says, we battle not against flesh and blood, we battle against powers and principalities. That's the war that the Man in White is telling us to get prepared for, not physical warfare, it's spiritual warfare, and that's I think, one more indication that this is about the Antichrist.

Now when he says, risking the sword; that means that we will be killed for our beliefs, and this is also a description of the Antichrist. I'm going to read for you Daniel 8 verses 23 through 25. As I said, there are four individuals who bring about the Abomination of Desolation. There are four different Abominations of Desolation, as I mentioned: the prince who shall come; he affects the Jews. He destroys the city and the sanctuary. The False Prophet destroys the Eucharist and the Catholic Church. The raptured Protestants, they do flee. Remember they are on the rooftops and they go up. Their warning is given by Antiochus Epiphanes and the fourth person who causes Abomination of Desolation is the Antichrist.

The other three persons will undoubtedly kill people, but not like the Antichrist. The Antichrist is known specifically in the Bible as one who kills people and makes martyrs, and Jesus said, pray that your flight be not in the winter; pray that it not be on the Sabbath. Woe to those who are pregnant or nursing, and I'm sure there are other physical things that will get in your way of avoiding being killed by the Antichrist. Of course he says, if you don't take the Mark of the Beast, you will be beheaded so let's read Daniel 8:23.

Dan 8:23 “And there shall arise a king of a shameless face, and understanding dark sentences.

Dan 8:24 And his power shall be strengthened, but not by his own force: and he shall lay all things waste, and shall prosper, and do more than can be believed. And he shall destroy the mighty, and the people of the saints.

Dan 8:25 According to his will, and craft shall be successful in his hand: and his heart shall be puffed up, and in the abundance of all things, he shall kill many: and he shall rise up against the prince of princes, and he shall be broken without hand.”

So the Antichrist is of course eventually defeated. He's “broken without hand”, which means that Jesus will defeat him. Fortunately we know the weapons that Jesus uses because we are in this battle. I've showed you many times. The battle against the Antichrist is prefigured by the battle of David against Goliath. Dana Coverstone doesn't understand this, but it is Mary's Rosary that defeats the Antichrist. Let me show you.

David chose five smooth pebbles. That symbolizes Mary's Rosary. The five pebbles symbolize the five mysteries of the Rosary. Now I'm sure Dana Coverstone's people will not accept that, but they will eventually when the time comes. The people in the Congress have no clue how to defeat the Antichrist. Fortunately we do. We also know that we have to get out of the way.

Now I want to read to you Revelation 20 verse number 4 to show that, when the Man in White says to be prepared for the sword, this is what he's talking about.

Revelation 20:4 “... and the souls of them that were beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and who had not adored the beast nor his image, nor received his character on their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.”

So in conclusion, I think everything points to that next man through those doors into the chamber is the Antichrist. The only reason I don't think Dana was shown this is because we are not supposed to know the identity of the Antichrist yet, but I think Dana's dream is warning us that the Antichrist will appear at or about this time, and as I say, it occurs in the winter, sometime between January and March. So that is my interpretation of Dana Coverstone's dream, "Hail to the Chief ". And the next chief, the one who comes through the door next, I am sure and I think I have demonstrated quite well, is the Antichrist.

Until I do see all of you again, may God bless all of you, and may all of you have a very blessed evening.
