

666 vs 555, It's Tebow Time!

Recently it has become more and more obvious to me that Almighty God is warning America and our President, Barack Obama, through sporting events and the most recent example was this past Monday night on NFL Football and, as the Christian second-string quarterback, Tim Tebow, pointed out, this was the 666th game in that series. And as of course we all know, 666 is the number of the Antichrist in the book of Revelation.

Even the lamestream media is jumping on the bandwagon. An article on Yahoo Sports pointed out the amazing number of 6's associated with the first-string quarterback of the New York Jets, Mark Sanchez. His jersey number is the number 6; he has 6 touchdown passes and he has 6 interceptions. It's also interesting that he is averaging 6.6 yards per pass. His longest pass is 66 yards and his passer rating is 66.6. I don't believe any of this is accidental.

Now 666 is not the only important number in End Times prophecy. The number 444 signifies Barack Obama and the United States. In the book of Daniel, chapter eleven, we see that the first 12 verses are arranged in a 4-4-4 sequence. They are succeeded by 18 verses which suggests the number 6-6-6 and they are followed by fifteen verses in a 5-5-5 sequence. That means the Antichrist is succeeded by the number 555 which symbolizes Mary's Rosary. Mary's Rosary will defeat the Antichrist and the reason 555 signifies the Rosary is because there are 15 decades in a Rosary: 5 Joyful Mysteries, 5 Sorrowful and 5 Glorious.

By the way, this is prefigured in the Old Testament when David defeats Goliath with five, smooth pebbles. David, of course, prefigures Jesus, Goliath prefigures the Antichrist but the weapons which he uses, those five, smooth pebbles prefigures the Rosary. Now, before I look at how these numbers turn out in the Monday Night Football game, I want to look at a several other very interesting sporting events where God is also warning America and President Barack Obama.

Just a few weeks ago I did a video showing that explosion at the Iranian soccer match where a player accidentally threw a grenade at a big "O": the big "O" stands for Barack Obama. A few weeks before that, I showed where the American flag fell at the Olympics and that of course prefigures the downfall of America. Several years ago, I pointed out to you the defeat of the horse, Big Brown, who was a stand-in for Barack Obama, by the long shot, Da'Tara, and of course, Da'Tara stands for terrorism.

All of these indicate how America and Barack Obama will be defeated. Now the following clip, I don't think I have shown you before, but it's really a fascinating incident. This was at an NBA game, I believe, just this past winter, where a deranged female fan walked out onto the court during the game yelling, "Where's Kenyan?" Now, she wasn't talking about Barack Obama, but nonetheless, Kenyan refers to our President because he came from Kenya.

And it's interesting, please note on this clip, that the Los Angeles Lakers had just scored their 44th point. "49-44 as we approach a minute left in the first half..." Now this amazing incident, which I don't think has ever occurred before, is God's way of verifying what I have been saying about Barack Obama and that is, number one: he is the last King of the South in Daniel, chapter number 11. That's why she said "Where's Kenyan?" Barack Obama is the Kenyan. And of course the score, Los Angeles had just scored the 44th point, shows that Barack Obama is the Leopard in Daniel, chapter number 7, verse 6, because the Leopard has four heads and four wings.

Now, this next clip is equally amazing and I know there is some prophetic significance to this. This was the winning touchdown at this year's Super Bowl. It was scored by number 44. Of course, he symbolized Barack Obama. He went into the end zone untouched by the opposing team. The Patriots did not touch him because he was allowed to score; they needed to get the ball back. The player realized this at the last minute. He turned around and tried to stop himself from scoring but he fell into the end zone backwards.

Now, I'm not quite sure the meaning of this prophecy. Does it mean that Barack Obama will win re-election in a landslide, in other words, the opposition will offer no resistance? Or does it mean that when he falls in backwards, he will win by "hook or by crook"? Could there be some, perhaps, huge October surprise that prevents Mitt Romney from giving any real opposition to President Obama? I'm not sure what it means but I know it is significant and we will soon find out what God is prophesying to us in this Super Bowl incident.

And now that brings us up to Monday Night Football. What is the significance of the Houston Texans defeating the New York Jets by a score of 23-17? So the Houston Texans scored 23 points and the New York Jets 17. 23 of course is 2 before 3 which could be the fraction $\frac{2}{3}$'s which gives us the decimal .666 which is of course the number of the Antichrist. And it's interesting that 17 could be expressed as 7 plus 1 or 8, and 8 can be broken down into 4 plus 4, in other words, the number of Barack Obama in Bible prophecy.

Does this game once again indicate that 666 will defeat 444? Now, as I've said, you take the decimal out of .666 to yield the number of the Antichrist and it's interesting that to get the number which defeats the Antichrist, you put God in His proper relationship, $\frac{3}{2}$. Two over three, $\frac{2}{3}$, symbolizes man over God; but God should be over man. So $\frac{3}{2}$ yields another interesting decimal, 1.5 and of course, without the decimal, that indicates the number 15. 15 is the number of Mary's Rosary, 5 plus 5 plus 5 as I've said before.

Now we come to the really interesting part. Tim Tebow's number is 15. Mark Sanchez's number is 6. I'm gonna go out on a limb here and I believe the New York Jets will very soon replace their number 6 quarterback, Mark Sanchez, by their number 15 quarterback, Tim Tebow. There is no doubt in my mind that Tim Tebow is very much attuned to biblical numerology and Bible prophecy. He understands the way God speaks to us through numbers, for example, in this year's playoff game between his Denver Bronco team, at that time, and the Pittsburgh Steelers, in his tremendous winning upset over the Pittsburgh team, he threw for 316 yards and his average completion was for 31.6 yards. As you know, his favorite Bible passage is John 3:16.

That is not accidental! This is God working through Tim Tebow and I believe he is going to work through Tim Tebow again, perhaps many times, when he takes over Mark Sanchez's starting quarterback position, it will indicate a victory of 15 over 6, in other words, 555 will defeat 666. I don't think Tim Tebow is a Catholic but remember, the Rosary is not just for Catholics, it's for all Christians. This is how we will defeat the Antichrist.
