

Bible Prophecy Hidden in Russian Olympic Logos

Yesterday, one of my subscribers sent me a note saying that I should do a video on the mascots for the 2014 Winter Olympics in Russia. And he pointed out to me that the three mascots are very similar to the three beasts that come up out of the sea in Daniel, chapter number 7. And we know that Daniel is describing three ancient kingdoms and kings in that passage but he is also describing three present-day kings and kingdoms and we know who they are. We know the Lion represents Britain, the Bear represents Russia, and the Leopard represents our own Barack Obama and the United States.

So let's take a closer look at these three mascots which were voted on by the people of Russia, by the way, and see how close they are to the beasts from Daniel, chapter number 7.

First of all, notice that this Leopard is in two colors, and it is the only mascot in two colors, the others are solid colors. The two colors indicate a Leopard because they reflect Barack Obama who has a biracial background and that's why Daniel uses the Leopard to symbolize Obama. What's really interesting is that the logo depicts this Leopard mascot with 4 toes on one of its paws but without any toes on the other paws and that 4 of course is important; and there are also 4 little boxes on this mountain climbing belt, maybe you can see that, maybe you can't, but that reflects the 4 heads and the 4 wings on the Leopard in Daniel.

Next, this middle figure is not quite accurate. First of all, these three figures are supposed to indicate the first, second, and third places on the podium at the Olympics, so they are showing this center figure, who would normally be the first place winner, much smaller than normal. If this were shown correctly, it would be very high and if it were true to Daniel, this figure should be a Lioness, but at least they have the gender right: this little bunny rabbit is feminine.

And of course on the right we have the Bear, the second beast that comes up out of the sea. And they show the Bear as larger than the other two animals, and I believe that's because the bear symbolizes Russia. What's really interesting is that the Bear does not have four toes. The Bear has five toes on this paw, 5 toes on this paw, and 3 on one of the feet and two on the other foot. I think that they are trying to expropriate the number 555 for the bear and that is not accurate as far as prophecy goes.

But yes, they are correct in showing the Bear higher than the Leopard. That indicates that Russia will defeat the United States and Barack Obama; however, the 555, as far as the toes go, will defeat the final One World Communist Tyranny. 555 symbolizes Mary's Rosary and that is also indicated by the 15, 15 and 15. 15 is most definitely a Rosary number in Bible prophecy.

Now, you might say this is all a coincidence but let's take a look at the official logo for the Russian Winter Olympics: here on the right we see 5 Olympic rings.

I believe those rings symbolize the 5 continents, and we see the 5 Olympic rings over here also, and we see 5 leaves arranged in a semi-circle. It's quite an interesting design but what that gives us, is 555. Again, I'm not sure how much the designers of these mascots or logos knew what they were doing, but on the other hand, the sacred numerology of the Bible is embedded in all human consciousness.
