

Pope Francis Says Arms Makers Are Not Christian

I saw a very disturbing headline this morning from Reuters and I will let you take a look at it because it is a lie from our current pretender to the papacy, Pope Francis. And here's what he said, this is the headline, "Pope says weapons manufacturers can't call themselves Christian". That is a lie, Pope Francis! You are going against what the Catholic Church officially teaches. The Catholic Church says that nations have a right to defend themselves.

And here's what this article goes on to say, this is dateline Turin, Italy, June 21st.

That was yesterday, Sunday: "People who manufacture weapons or invest in weapons industries are hypocrites if they call themselves Christian," Pope Francis said on Sunday." That is a lie from the False Prophet. "Francis issued his toughest condemnation to date of the weapons industry at a rally of thousands of young people at the end of the first day of his trip to the Italian city of Turin. 'If you trust only men you have lost,' he told the young people in a long, rambling talk about war, trust and politics after putting aside his prepared address." Well this is true. You can't trust entirely in men so why don't you, Pope Francis, do your job of supporting Christians instead of calling them hypocrites? You are a liar.

"It makes me think of...people, managers, businessmen who call themselves Christian and they manufacture weapons. That leads to a bit of distrust, doesn't it?" he said to applause. He also criticized those who invest in weapons industries, saying 'duplicity is the currency of today...they say one thing and do another.'" Pope Francis, I would like to remind you about a very famous battle in history called Lepanto where the Christian Navy defeated the Muslims. The Pope at that time blessed the Christian Navy. He prayed the Rosary. The Christian Navy won. Today, you are doing the opposite. You're undermining Christians who want to defend themselves.

The Power of the Rosary which stopped the Ottoman Terror

Just last week, Vladimir Putin said that Russia was going to build "40 new-intercontinental ballistic nuclear-tipped missiles". Let me ask you a question, Pope Francis: Where do you think he is going to aim those missiles? He's not going to aim them at you or the Vatican. He is going to aim them at Britain and America which is exactly where he has aimed all of his other ICBMs; and you're trying to tell us we can't defend ourselves? That is not Catholic! That is not Biblical!

What did Jesus say about the End Times? He prophesied that "nation would rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom". We are committing national suicide if we do not follow what Jesus said. We are not going to follow what you say. Our problem here in America is that we have a President who listens to you, phony Francis. You said that we should "normalize relations with the Communist country of Cuba" and our President, Barack Obama, jumped right in, lockstep, into your recommendations which were from the pit of hell. Will Obama do the same thing now that you have said we should do: unilaterally disarm in the face of 40 new ICBMs from Putin? I hope and pray that Christians in America do not listen to your false words. People who manufacture weapons in the defense of America: WE are the loyal Christians and you are the False Prophet.
