

Is Pope Francis the 'Bishop dressed in White'?

This past weekend we saw the canonization of the Catholic Church's two newest Saints: Saint Jacinta Marto and Saint Francisco Marto. And I had asked you to look for evil signs and symbols at the canonization and I did not see the logo for the New World Order this time but they did have a very ugly monstrosity. Maybe I can show this to you; you can see what it looks like.

It looks to me like snakes coming out of the Eucharist. I don't know if that's what they planned or not but Satan is the author of ugliness make no mistake about it! And then the crucifix behind the altar was very odd; I've never seen anything like this before. I think they're trying to combine the cross of the crucifixion with a resurrected Christ although Jesus' hands look like they are being resurrected but his feet are nailed together as if they were on a cross. In any event, it is certainly not a very successful artistic representation of either the crucifixion or the resurrection. Remember, Jesus did not resurrect from the cross he resurrected from the tomb.

And the most interesting part to me of this whole canonization ceremony was when Pope Francis claimed that he was the 'Bishop in White' as found in the Third Secret of Fátima. This is really amazing. I came across this article in Roarte Coeli and let me read part of this for you:

<https://rorate-caeli.blogspot.com/2017/05/francis-in-fatima-i-am-bishop-dressed.html>

'Francis in Fatima, I am the bishop dressed in white'. This is really amazing. 'Well it's quite a claim Pope Francis will make officially in his visit to Fatima, Portugal, that starts today', and I believe the date line on this article is either Friday, the 12th, or Saturday, May the 13th, 'let us first recall the reference to the bishop in white made in the third part of the secret made public on May 13th, 2000'. And I will let you look up the Third Secret of Fátima. I did a video on it before: I read the entire secret and if I can find it I'll put a link to it below, 'the Vatican explanation at the time was that the bishop dressed in white was then reigning Pope, John Paul II, whose life had almost ended on another May the 13th, 1981, with a murder attempt at Saint Peter's Square.' Now, I don't believe that the prophecy in the Third Secret refers to Pope John Paul II. The details just don't match the prophecy of the 'bishop dressed in white.' Remember, the seers, Jacinta, Francisco and Lucia, said 'WE thought he was the Pope'. That means that there is some discrepancy and maybe a lot of other people think he is not the Pope and that would fit Pope Benedict but not Pope Francis because most people consider Francis to be the true Pope; but not me and I don't believe Francisco, Jacinta or Lucia would think he was the true Pope either.

'Now in the official missal of his visit to Fatima today and tomorrow, in the prayer specially written for this day, Francis himself identifies himself as the bishop dressed in white'. This is really amazing and I think there are two reasons for this: first of all, if Pope Francis can convince people that he is the Bishop dressed in white, as prophesied, in the Third Secret, then he cannot be the False Prophet because the False Prophet is cast alive into hell whereas the bishop dressed in white is martyred. It would also bring about a lot of sympathy for him as a person if people think that he will be martyred. I believe it's all phony baloney. The second reason; I believe this indicates that Pope Francis will stage a false flag and he will have someone try to assassinate him but it will be a failure and then he will say the prophecy of Fatima is complete now, the hundred years are up. I was the 'bishop dressed in white' but I survived the assassination attempt. And, of course, what he won't tell you is that the prophecy has yet to be fulfilled and it will be Pope Benedict who actually is martyred.

And of course, Pope Francis unknowingly will thereby fulfill the prophecy in the book of Revelation about the Antichrist. Remember the Antichrist suffers a fatal head wound and the false prophets tell you that the Antichrist himself suffers this wound. But, the Antichrist has seven heads and I believe it is his number one head, the False Prophet, who suffers the fatal wound, as John says, 'as it were'. In other words, even John will tell you in the book of Revelation that it is a false flag and I am predicting right now that Pope Francis will very soon carry out this false flag, in his mind in order to convince you that he is going to be a martyr and to elicit your sympathy. And my final word to you is: don't be fooled by whatever Pope Francis tells you.