

Middle East War in Four Blood Moons

This will be part 4 in my series on the Four Blood Moon Prophecy, which I believe is a warning to the Nation of Israel.

All of these lunar eclipses occur on Hebrew feast days, and of course, the Bible said there would be signs in the sun, moon and stars to announce the second coming of Our Lord, Jesus Christ. And I've been reviewing a book by Dr. Hagee called 'Four Blood Moons' because he makes a lot of errors. And probably his worst mistake is when he claims that events in the Middle East are leading up to the Ezekiel 38 War.

Here is what Hagee says on page 160: 'The next major prophetic war that is coming to the Middle East will be the Gog Magog War. Among those nations coming against Israel is Germany who will follow Russia and Iran.' Now you're right, Dr. Hagee, about Russia and Iran being the current threat to Israel but not the Nation of Germany. 'They will be joined by Ethiopia, Libya, and Turkey.' Well, I've made up a little map here to show you the nations that will be coming against Israel and this is at the Battle of Armageddon. This is not the situation we are looking at in the Middle East today.

The leader of these nations, which Ezekiel says will come against Israel, is the Prince of Meshech and Tubal, and I really don't see Putin as the Prince of any part of Turkey or as Gog. And Ezekiel says that the five nations which will come against Israel are Togormah, Persia, Ethiopia, Libya, and Gomer. Ezekiel refers to these five nations because they represent compass points. Togormah is due north of Jerusalem. Persia is due east, Ethiopia, which today is the Sudan, is due south of Jerusalem. Libya is southwest, Gomer is northwest. The only reason Ezekiel did not list a country due west of Jerusalem is because the Mediterranean sits due west therefore Ezekiel had to list a country southwest, that is Libya, and a country northwest, that is Gomer.

Please notice that Ezekiel does not list any of the nations immediately surrounding Israel, namely Syria, Jordan, Egypt, or Lebanon. So does it make sense that Ezekiel would leave out four of the most prominent nations that came against Israel in 1948 and in 1967? The fact is Ezekiel is talking about Armageddon where all the nations of the world will come against Jesus when He returns to earth on Mount Zion. That's what the four compass points refer to. Those nations symbolize all the nations of the world. That's why Jesus said: 'all the tribes of the earth will mourn when the son of man returns.'

And Ezekiel actually verifies this in chapter 38, verse number 6: 'Gomer and all his bands; the house of Togormah of the north quarters, and all his people and many people with you.' So Ezekiel emphasizes three times that this war refers to all the nations of the world coming against Jesus and it refers to the Battle of Armageddon which comes at the end of the Tribulation. Ezekiel is not talking about the situation in the Middle East now which comes at the beginning of Tribulation. The war Israel is facing today is the Daniel 9 War where indeed Russia and Iran do destroy the city of Jerusalem.

Of course Dr. Hagee will never warn you about the prophecies found in Daniel 9:26 because it doesn't fit his agenda of feeding you pillows and cushions. Let's take a look at this very critical passage one more time: 'And after threescore and two weeks (that symbolizes 62 years) shall the Anointed One be cut off (this symbolizes the Prime Minister of End Times Israel, Benjamin Netanyahu) but not for himself: and the people of the Prince that shall come (the prince that shall come symbolizes Vladimir Putin, and the people who will accompany him will be Iran and the Muslim Nations which surround Israel) shall destroy the city (the city of Jerusalem) and the sanctuary (the temple mount) and its end shall be with a flood (very suddenly) and unto the end of the war (the Daniel 9 War) desolations are determined. This is one of the Abominations of Desolation from which Jesus said 'let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains'.

Now in part 5 in these series on the Four Blood Moon Prophecies, I am going to show you how Ezekiel in his chapter 39 gives the solution to the Gog Magog War as found in his chapter number 38. And his solution is the exact same that Jesus gives in the Olivet Discourse and that Daniel gives in his six Vision Chapters, that 666, the forces of the Antichrist, will be defeated by 555, and that symbolizes Mary's Rosary.
