

Bible Prophecy in Psy's Hangover Video Pt 2

This is part 2 in my series on the Korean K Pop star Psy's music video called 'Hangover' and once again, in this series I will be talking about how Psy represents the Antichrist and in this case, he has a new partner, Snoop Dogg, who plays the False Prophet. And I have quite a bit to cover on this particular program so let's get right into it, and we see in scene number 7 where Psy and Snoop are trying various eating and drinking combinations to get over their hangover.

(music) 'Drink 'til your drunk, smoke like a broke stove. Don't quit, take flight. I can't remember last night. It's the hype, this the life of a superstar. Psy-fi...another cup until I fall flat. All night and then some. 1-5-1, done...' (music ends)

Scene number 8 is another image that could be taken right out of Scripture because it is a pool scene, very reminiscent of a similar pool scene in 'Gangnam Style'. The reason this is significant is because the Antichrist is prophesied to come up out of the sea. And please notice that Snoop Dogg is not in the water and that is, of course, because the False Prophet comes up out of the earth.

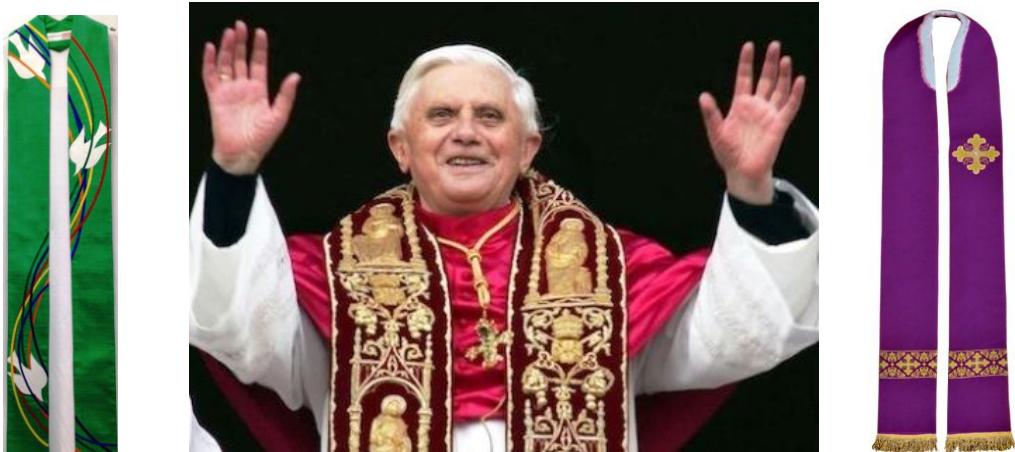

And, by the way, I want you to please notice the very wide lapels on either side of Snoop Dogg's bathrobe and I will talk about that in a minute.

(music) '...done dilly. Really for sure that, I'm throw back intoxicated. Change over, game over, hangover, faded. Body Shit Miss. Eeny, meeny, miny, moe, catch a lady by the toe...' (music ends)

Those wide lapels on Snoop Dogg's bathrobe have a purpose and that is to indicate that he is representing a Catholic priest because a Catholic priest always wears what's called a stole when he is administering the Sacraments, for example, notice that Pope Benedict is wearing a rather ornate stole.

I'm not saying that Snoop Dogg is representing Pope Benedict, just the opposite. I believe Snoop Dogg in this video is representing Pope Francis. And that brings us up to scenes number 9 and 10 where we see Psy riding a stylized motorcycle and then we see him standing beside the motorcycle in front of a city landscape.

In the next scene, scene number 11, Psy and Snoop Dogg have evidently sobered up enough so that they can start binge drinking again and this time they are joined by two middle-aged women.

(music) 'Drink it up and get sick, bottom's up, get wasted. Pour it up, drink it up, live it up, give it up. Oh my G**, damn**, there's the f***** limit. Pour it up, drink it up, live it up, give it up. Badeusioh! But I can't stop. Making bottles pop until the wheels fall off. Badeusioh! And I can't quit. I wake up in the morning, do the same sh**.' (music ends)

Scene number 12 is a 'wake up in the morning' graphic where Snoop Dogg proclaims that he and Psy are going to get drunk all over again and this is followed by two more dance sequences. The Snoop Dogg dance sequence is extremely interesting. Please notice that there are 5 spotlights in this scene where there were only 4 with Psy. 5 is a number for the Catholic Church because it is Mary's number and the Woman in Revelation represents both Mary and the Catholic Church.

Please note also that Snoop is wearing white and, of course, the taxi cab is yellow. White and yellow are the colors of the Papacy and that's because there are two rivers in Heaven: one river is a river of honey and the other river is a river of milk. However, this is a very unusual taxi cab because it is a Rolls Royce taxi cab and I suspect this is a commentary on Pope Francis and his phony involvement with the poor.

This next scene is also very significant and it shows Psy as the Antichrist getting a haircut. Now why would Psy include this unusual scene of him getting a haircut with Snoop Dogg standing right beside him? Could it be that this is a reference to Bible Prophecy, maybe Revelation 13, verse 3, where the Antichrist suffers a head wound?

In part number 3 of this series I will continue my analysis of Psy's music video 'Hangover' as a true prophecy from Almighty God about the Antichrist and the False Prophet taking over the entire planet. And I especially want you to study, in the meantime, the last scene where that man on fire comes out of nowhere. And that scene has nothing to do with drinking or hangover, but it has an awful lot to do with the False Prophet and the Antichrist.
