

Pope Francis Promotes Agenda of the Antichrist

Pope Francis is the most important person on the planet at this present time who is promoting the agenda of the Antichrist and that's because he is, as I have been claiming for quite a while here on this program, the False Prophet of the End Times. And this week, he has said that women who get abortions will be forgiven by priests and, I guess previously, it required a bishop to absolve a woman of the crime of abortion. And I'm not sure but I guess that would extend to abortionists, the ones who kill the babies.

Of course the Pope left out that they not only must be repentant but they must promise never to promote abortion again. They must neither procure abortions nor perform abortions and this has gotten a lot of attention in the media because as I say, as the False Prophet, whatever he says gets a lot of attention. Personally, I believe the reason Pope Francis seems to be downgrading the crime of abortion is to provide cover for Planned Parenthood. Here in the United States, Planned Parenthood has been exposed as selling body parts of aborted babies and of course, that is a gruesome and barbaric practice. And the Pope, in the role of the False Prophet, wants to lighten the burden of Planned Parenthood and this is a huge disgrace on his part.

Now, the reason I say "in my opinion Pope Francis is the False Prophet" is because he has yet to fulfill the very important prophecies about him in Scripture. For example, the False Prophet will cause everyone "both great and small, rich and poor, free and a slave, to take the mark of the beast". Pope Francis hasn't done that yet. Secondly, Pope Francis will suffer a mortal wound. Of course this is all phony but he is the number one head of the Antichrist and that's what the prophecy refers to when it says the Antichrist suffers a head wound. That will occur to the False Prophet, not to the Antichrist himself. And thirdly, the False Prophet will take the Daily Sacrifice away from the Prince and what that means is he will invalidate the Holy Eucharist in the Catholic Church.

Now Michael Voris has been doing an important series on the upcoming Synod in Rome of all the Bishops headed up by Pope Francis and he has made a fairly important error in saying that giving divorced and remarried Catholics Holy Communion is not as important as gay marriage. Both of these are on Pope Francis' agenda; however,

I believe it is giving Holy Communion to the divorced and remarried Catholics is by far the more serious problem. So here is a little clip from Michael Voris' program called "The Vortex" where he calls this a "diversion" and a "stalking horse": "...Bishops calling for changing the discipline, one Bishop even calling for the Church to actually start performing same-sex unions, marriages, and so forth. Last year was just the warm-up for next month's Synod which is going to be quite the showdown. As Cardinal Pell quite correctly pointed out in an interview last year, "the goal here is to get the approval or at least the perception of approval of homosexual unions by the Church by using the issue of divorce and remarriage as a cover". Cardinal Pell called the whole divorce and remarry being allowed to receive Holy Communion issue a "stalking horse" meaning in short, just a diversion."

Now, I agree, raising gay marriage or homosexual unions to the level of a Sacrament would be a terrible sacrilege. I really don't believe the Synod will approve that. I believe they will approve, however, giving divorced and remarried Catholics the right to receive Communion. This will fulfill Bible Prophecy about the False Prophet. Now here is what Pope Francis said and this was back on August the 5th, and this is the headline I think from US News on the Internet: "Divorced Catholics who remarry deserve better treatment from the Church as do their kids." Well, he's tugging at your heartstrings. And here's what he said: "Pope Francis declared on Wednesday," (this was August the 5th), "that divorced Catholics who remarry as well as their children deserve better treatment from the Church warning pastors against treating these couples as if they were excommunicated."

Well, they ARE excommunicated. Divorced and remarriage in the Catholic Church is the same as what Jesus taught: "Any man who leaves his wife and marries another commits adultery." Adultery is a mortal sin. People in mortal sin cannot receive Holy Communion. And the Pope continues: "Catholic teaching considers divorced Catholics who remarry as living in sin," it's not just the Catholic Church, this is what Jesus taught, "and are not allowed to receive Communion leaving many of these people feeling shunned by their church." Well, they can't receive Communion.

I spoke to my priest after Mass and he said the Pope was referring to a formal Edict of Excommunication. Well, if that's what the Pope meant, that's what he should have said. The fact is that anyone living in mortal sin cannot receive Communion and people who are living in adultery must be excommunicated, that is they cannot receive Communion.

The Cardinal who was most promoting this abomination, that is divorced and remarried Catholics receiving Holy Communion, is Cardinal Walter Kasper of Germany. He says, "If God does it the Church must do it," that is show mercy to people living in mortal sin. Here is what he says: "...Of course mercy and so I think when God does it, the Church should do it also."

Well Cardinal Kasper, you are mistaken. God does not allow people living in mortal sin to receive Holy Communion and how do we know? Because Jesus did not allow Judas to receive his Body and Blood. And I urge you my subscribers all over the world to go to my website because I have posted the chronology of the Last Supper and so far I have posted it in six different languages and this chronology proves that Judas did not receive Communion. Jesus actually sent him away from the Last Supper. So what you need to do is go to my website, look under "Pope Watch" and click on the PDF file and send to your bishop a copy of this chart. He will need this to prove that Cardinal Kasper is wrong, that God does not do it. He does not allow that which is holy to be given to the dogs.

Now if Pope Francis does go along with this proposal, he will prove that he is the False Prophet because he will do one of those three things I said the False Prophet is prophesied to do. He will take the Daily Sacrifice away from the Prince: he will invalidate the Holy Eucharist. There are three requirements for a Catholic priest to consecrate the Body and Blood of our Lord. First of all, he must use the same matter, he must use Passover bread, that is unleavened bread and wine. He must use the same words that our Lord used. He cannot say, "This might be my body" or "this could be my blood". And thirdly, he must have the same intention that Jesus had. Jesus did not intend to give Holy Communion to the traitor Judas and this is very important.

And I have a very serious warning to my fellow Catholics: If Pope Francis allows divorced and remarried Catholics, that is people living in mortal sin, to receive Holy Communion, that will invalidate the Eucharist and that is the point at which we must flee our Church. Jesus said in the Olivet Discourse "when you see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet, then let those who are in the (green) field flee (into the desert)" and that is specifically referring to Roman Catholics in these End Times. And Daniel refers to this explicitly in his chapter 10 / 12.

As you know, I have been teaching that Daniel 10 and 12 are actually the same chapter and chapter 10 explains chapter 12. Chapter 12 must be printed as a chiasm. Let's look at Daniel chapter 10 number 3 and chapter 12:11. These two verses tell the same story and I have color-coded the three elements in each verse. "I ate no desirable bread, and neither flesh nor wine entered into my mouth," this is a description of the Holy Eucharist. "And from the time when the continual sacrifice shall be taken away," in other words, Daniel is telling us that the Daily Sacrifice refers to the Holy Eucharist. "...Neither was I anointed with oil," this refers to the False Prophet. Daniel is standing in for either Pope Francis or Cardinal Kasper, they are going to take away the Daily Sacrifice and they bring in the abomination of desolation. This is one of four abominations of desolation found in Daniel. This one specifically refers to the Roman Catholic Church and then Daniel tells us how long this abomination will last: "There shall be twelve hundred and ninety days". This is the same basic time frame as "till the days of three weeks were accomplished". And of course, Jesus prophesied this himself when he said "Destroy this temple," and in the End Times the temple is the Roman Catholic Church, "and in three days (or three weeks or twelve hundred and ninety days) I will raise it up again."

Now Pope Francis will be visiting the United States this month and it is possible that the first two requirements of the False Prophet will be fulfilled at that time: causing everyone to take the mark of the beast and receiving a mortal wound and I will cover that on a future program. I wanted to do this program so that you, and I want to emphasize that, this is your responsibility in whatever country you live, to download this file and send it to your bishop and I will also print on my website a possible cover letter. I will go over the points I have made on this program. This is very important that this information reach your bishops before they convene their Synod in October.
