

Why Did Dana Coverstone Misinterpret His Own “Precision” Dream?

I have another fascinating program today because Dana Coverstone released another of his, by now, famous dreams and this one is called the “Precision” Dream. As usual he did not understand his dream and that is not a put down of Dana Coverstone because prophets of End Times prophecy are not supposed to understand their dreams and you find this throughout the Old Testament, Daniel, Ezekiel, Zechariah; and Daniel even complained to the angel, as you know and the angel told him, “Go your way Daniel, the vision is for another time.” So Daniel was able to understand other people's dreams like King Nebuchadnezzar's dream but he could not understand his own.

And, in a way, the fact that Dana does not understand his dreams kind of verifies that it's true prophecy. And he makes a huge mistake in this dream, because he does not understand what “precision” means. And the Man in White tells him he must, “Pray with precision”, and Dana for some reason or other, thinks that means that he must pray loudly and I don't know why. That is not at all what “precision” means.

So, what I'm going to do; I did not have time to make slides. Usually I make slides and this is a very long dream and he mixed up the dream with his interpretation which was a big mistake in this practice, because his interpretation is false. And I think the reason that he did it, is because in his spirit he understands the dream and he doesn't agree with it. And as he gets towards the end, where the Man in White tells him about what precise prayer is, he tries to drown him out, as you'll see when we get there.

So, as I say, it's not his job to explain the dream. Anyway, he would be better off if he just presented what the Lord presented to him. And whose job is it? It's actually the co-prophet's job to interpret the dream. So the fact that he gets the interpretation all wrong is in a way of blessings from me because it tells me that my interpretation is right or it could be right, where if he is wrong then the co-prophet's is correct. And my interpretation, I can tell you right now, is the opposite of what Dana's interpretation of what he means by the “precision”.

You know it's like when I say, you can tell who the good guys are in the United States because it's the opposite of what the media says. If the media says Donald Trump is a bad guy, which they do constantly, that means that Donald Trump is the white hat, and that's exactly right. So when it means that Dana gives his interpretation, we can be sure that that is not the correct interpretation, and as I say it's not a put down of Dana. That's the way prophecy is given by the Holy Spirit.

Okay so let's start and I don't have this on slides, so I'm going to have to read it off my screen, so it's not going to look as professional. I do not have a teleprompter. I mean, I admire Michael Voris if you've ever seen him. You would not realize that he is reading a teleprompter. I mean he is very professional. He's better than Joe Biden by a long shot. I wish I could make my presentations that good but I can't, so I am going to read Dana's dream from my screen and you can see that I will be reading and instead of reading off slides. So here's how he starts out.

“I had this dream for 18 days in a row and the 18th day I had it, is when the man showed up, and that to me is when I know the dream is either over or I’m learning what the dream is about, as the man responds, so I’m calling this the ‘Precision’ Dream.”

Now 18, the number of days that he had it in a row, is an Antichrist number, 6 plus 6 plus 6, and we've mentioned that many times, but later on, he says that he augmented this dream. He had two more short dreams on two different days, so actually the total is 20 days in all, which is good, because that means the dream did not come from the Antichrist.

And 20 is a Rosary number, as we all should know by now. We find that, for example in the miraculous draft of fishes where the boat is 200 cubits from shore. That represents the number of Hail Marys in a full four mystery set of rosaries, and 20 represents the number of decades in a full four set of mysteries. So that tells us that this dream is not only from the Holy Spirit but it is about Mary's Rosary, and that's what the precision we will find, is all about.

I want to give you the definition of precision. Dana, as I say, thinks that precision means loudness. As I say that tells you that it's not loudness. So that's of course his false interpretation. So I looked up the definition of “precision” and this is what the dictionary definition of “precision” is. So precision is, “The quality, condition or fact of being exact and accurate”. This is the type of prayer that the Man in White tells us we must pray. Also, here's the second definition, it means, “Refinement in measure, calculation or specification, especially as presented by the number of digits given”. So it's also important as far as numerology goes, and as we know in apocalyptic prophecy numerology is very important. Okay now back to Dana's dream.

“When the dream started, it started on June 15th 2022.”

Of course 15 is a Rosary number. All 15 decades would be the number of decades in the original three mystery Rosary.

“When the dream started I was standing in the port of Los Angeles and there was a sign that said ‘Port of Los Angeles’.”

Now “port” I looked up means passage or gate, and of course Los Angeles means angels, so the port of Los Angeles symbolizes the gate of angels, and I think that means that this prophecy comes from the Holy Spirit as I say.

“And we're standing in a shipping yard where the large containers were being lifted off of those ships by those huge cranes. I saw eight jet black containers.”

Now 8 is the number of new beginnings. I'm not sure if that's significant but that's what it means.

“They were set on the ground about 15 feet apart.”

Again, that's a Rosary number.

“So they were stacked on the ground, eight of them and they were 15 feet apart, going that way.”

And he gives a definition, and he shows it on his video, (in narrow lines).

“And they were pristinely clean.”

That's an interesting comment. So now why would the Rosary number, and that is the 15 feet these containers are apart; why would that be equated with black, which Dana correctly tells us signifies evil? And so Dana understands the symbolism of the black containers, but he does not understand the symbolism of the 15 feet apart each container is.

Black is evil; 15 is good, and I think it means that the evil is separated by the goodness; 15 feet on the ground and, in a way I thought of this; cleanliness is next to godliness right? The containers, he says were clean but between the containers is godliness, but it's not the same as godliness. Cleanliness is only next to godliness, it's not the same as godliness, and it's interesting that the number of spaces between the eight containers would be seven; seven 15 foot sections; 15 foot separations. Well seven of course is God's number.

So the eight black containers indicate evil. The seven sets of 15 feet represent God's Rosary; the Rosary; Mary's Rosary. It shows the relationship of God to Mary's Rosary. Godliness is not the same as cleanliness. I think I interpreted that right. So now here's what Dana continues on with his dream.

“Now I've never seen jet black trucks, outside of some of the delivery trucks and things like that, but these were shipping containers. There were eight of them and they were all jet black and they had large Chinese letters. When I say Chinese letters, I mean Oriental letters. I don't speak Mandarin or write it. I just know the characters and how they look. To me it looked as if it was Chinese letters and so I put that out there just to say that's what I saw, and these large letters were in black. They were black as well but they were about five feet tall by five feet wide.”

And of course that's more Rosary symbology; 5 is the number of Mary's Rosary. That's the number of decades in a mystery of the Rosary; the Joyful Mysteries, the Sorrowful and the Glorious and the Luminous. There are five decades in each of those mysteries.

So I had to look up the meaning of 5 by 5. While I was vaguely familiar with it, QAnon uses the term 5 by 5 all the time. And I looked up the meaning and it is a radio communication phrase from the 1950s. The first number 5 refers to signal clarity; the second number 5 refers to signal strength; so the 5 by 5 numbers in Chinese lettering is sending us a loud and clear message on the numerology of this dream of Dana's. And as we'll see that 5 is the most important Rosary number and we will see how important that is, as far as the Man in White telling Dana that we must pray with precision. Okay now these Chinese letters;

“They had a brown background behind them so they stood out almost like 3D on the containers and so obviously the black indicates some clandestine plans that are being revealed, some darkness and things that were there. They were very suspicious; they were set aside; they were apart from everything else.”

Now being apart from everything else, they are separated by the Rosary number, the 15 feet. And I think that reference to 3D indicates that these Chinese letters are very significant, the 5 by 5 letters; 3D; 3 would be another number of the Divine Trinity. Maybe that's what the D stands for 3D. So let me continue with Dana's dream.

“So these things were taken off the ships, set down on the ground 15 feet apart and they were full-size shipping containers. They were black. They had oriental letters written on the sides and they were on a brown background, so it made them step out like they were almost three dimensions.”

And as I say, three dimensions, 3D, I believe is a reference to the Divine Trinity and remember the definition of precision. Precision is defined by numbers; how precise it is, and the importance of all letters, as I say, is that they were 5 by 5. So that's the significance of the letters, also that the Chinese is significant as we'll see. Dana is continuing now.

“Now it was light outside. This was broad daylight. It wasn't dark. It wasn't night and I could see a large clock tower that seemed to be high above the shipping facility and it was exactly set on 3 o'clock, 3 o'clock in the afternoon.”

Another significant number; and Dana did correctly identify the significance of the time as being that hour that Jesus was crucified, and I think that's the significance of it and now Dana continues.

“And when I saw the clocks at 3 o'clock, all the eight doors of those shipping containers began to bang. The eight black shipping containers that were on the ground, they all began to just make this huge bang, like someone was inside trying to bang on them, trying to get out. No people were there, but I saw the things begin to shake. They were banging violently. Suddenly the door opened of the first container, just the first container of the row, and a man in military equipment rode out of that first container on a very large green dirt bike. This was not a street bike by any means, and when I say green, my thought is Kawasaki, because when in the 70s you had Honda's, Suzuki's and you had Kawasaki's, and always the Kawasaki's were green, but these dirt bikes also had saddle bags on both sides. They had very large knobby tires. These dirt bikes were higher cc, higher caliber dirt bikes than just, well it wasn't a Honda 50, I'm telling you that."

So now the significance here I believe is that Kawasaki is a Japanese manufacturer so the significance is that these eight black shipping containers indicate a Japanese presence as well as a Chinese presence; so Dana continues.

"And the guy pulls out on this bike, on this motorcycle; he's covered in military but he's got an AK-47 over his back. I know weapons. It was an AK-47."

Now the AK-47 is a Russian weapon. The AK stands for; I think the A stands for automatic the K stands for Mikhail Kalashnikov. He's the inventor of the AK-47 and the 47 I believe indicates the year that he invented it, and of course 4 and 7 are both very important End Times numbers.

And I was going to ask you people a question now, just to add a little trivia to this interpretation of Dana's dream. How many brothers and sisters do you believe Mikhail Kalashnikov had offhand? I read up on him before this program. Mikhail Kalashnikov was the 17th of 19 children. Can you imagine that? According to Wikipedia, he lived to be 94 I think. He was hunting. He was still hunting with his weapons. He was a machinist. He grew up hunting.

So now we have a Russian aspect to these black and shipping containers, but what is the significance of China plus Japan, and now plus Russia? Okay we'll continue what Dana said.

"He took his helmet off, and as his helmet came off he stepped off the bike and put the kickstand down. Now off-road bikes can go anywhere, city, country and when he took his helmet off, he was revealing himself. He was an Oriental foreign man, and this is by no means racist. This is by no means discriminatory. I'm just saying it was an Oriental man and it was Oriental letters. He was Oriental and began screaming towards those shipping containers. He was pointing in different directions." (Dana demonstrates). "And he's looking back at the containers. He's yelling, he's screaming and I mean violently, just hand coming down on his hand.” Dana pointed out his hand was coming down. (His right hand chopping his left palm.) “He’s pointing this way. He’s pointing that way. He is violently, violently angry. His face was very, very red and suddenly he just stops and he checks his watch. He put his helmet on, gets back on the motorcycle and starts it and just revs it, just revs and revs and revs and revs.”

Paula pointed out to me that there are five “revs”. Paula typed this over for me, this dream because I was having a hard time with it, and she pointed out the five “revs” and of course that’s a Rosary number again, and then he says,

“That engine is whining, whining, whining and whining.” Now there’s only four whining’s. “He has not put it in gear, and all at once that clock struck 4 o’clock and when it struck 4 o’clock, there was this deep bell that rang and the whole earth shook. I mean the whole earth just shook, even where I was standing in the background watching I could feel the earth shake around me and shake about so angry.”

This is the first of the incidents Dana talks about. I think he talks about four different incidents. I believe all of these are going to come true and these all represent attacks of one kind or another on the United States. So now, the next part of Dana’s dream we are going to find out I believe the significance of the Chinese, Japanese and Russian connections. So Dana continues:

“Then out of each of those containers, those other containers including the one the man came out of, came about 25 soldiers on the same kind of motorcycle.”

So you have eight containers; 25 men in each container and that’s 200 soldiers all together. These were soldiers and of course there are 200 Hail Marys in a full four mystery Rosary as I said. But is that the significance in this case? I don’t think it is. I don’t think we can collate the significance of the 200 mysteries or Hail Mary’s in a Rosary to these 200 soldiers. I mean at the beginning, the 15 feet between the eight shipping containers, that did indicate the Rosary, but I don’t think the 200 in this case indicates Mary’s Rosary and I’ll show you why in a minute.

“They had the same kind of saddlebags and they had the same AK-47s across their backs. I could also see RPGs that is rocket-propelled grenades, lots of ammo and weapons in those saddlebags. The saddlebags were hardly able to go down and tie on and strap down the things in them. In other words, these guys were loaded for bear, and when the first soldier took off out of that port, the one that was revving his engine and giving the instructions; when he took off out of that port, the rest of them followed, and I could see that when they got beyond the fence, the large fence of the Los Angeles port, they took off heavily, just speeding heavily in different directions.”

So there are eight containers with 25 soldiers in each container. That's 200 soldiers and we said that 200 can be a Rosary number, but what is the significance of a 200 man army? I think that's what we have to look for. In the Book of Revelation in chapter 9 verse 16 there is a 200 million man army. I think that's what this dream is making a reference to. And where does the 200 million man army come from in the Book of Revelation? It comes from the East, the kings of the rising of the sun. Revelation 16:12, in other words China, Japan, Russia.

Now is Russia an Eastern country? Well actually 95% of it is an Eastern country. In the Bible geographic locations are determined by Jerusalem. Russia is at least 95% east of Jerusalem, so Russia would be one of the Kings of the East in the Book of Revelation. So if this is a reference to the Kings of the East in the Book of Revelation, I believe it is, then you can extrapolate that you've got China, Japan and Russia. Those are the three mentioned in Dana's dream but it would include North Korea, Vietnam. It could even include places like India or Pakistan. So this is in the Book of Revelation, the Kings of the East cross the Euphrates River. I believe that attack is mainly against Europe, but obviously from Dana's dreams some of that attack is going to spill over to the United States, and I think we will soon see that. This may be the darkness in Dana's dream where, remember the sky turned black on September 1st? Okay, now Dana reports that the scene changes and I'll read what he says here.

“The scene then changed and I was hearing news reports. I was seeing newspaper articles. I was seeing news of reporters and these seriously faced reporters were announcing deaths all over the country in both rural and metropolitan areas and the reports were about water supplies and water systems being poisoned in various places around the country. I saw headlines suggesting entire communities poisoned in various places throughout the country. Entire communities poisoned through water supply, water supply attacks, and water supply poison. Reporters were telling people not to drink anything but bottled water or water they knew was not connected to a local water supply. It was almost as if they were saying if you've got a well, you should be okay, but still you might want to boil it. It was affecting both larger and smaller communities but not every community. So this was not a nationwide thing, but it was impacting a lot of communities. It was impacting the west more than other parts of the nation according to the US reporters who were reporting this news.”

So now is this the second plague that Dana sees affecting Babylon which is primarily the United States and that is poisoned water? And he says the poisoned water affects the west more than the rest of America, and it's possible that this is what the motorcycle gang were going to do. In a way I don't think so. I think we're talking about two different events here. The motorcycle gang seem to be armed militarily. I think that this is more likely the 7th column, as they used to say about Communism. They are the ones who are poisoning the water. And I got to thinking, I'm wondering if we're seeing the four horsemen of the Apocalypse. We have war. That would be the soldiers; the 200 man army. We see here poisoned water. Would that be the pale horse of pestilence, death? It's just an idea. I'm not sure. I haven't totally worked that out, as that may be what we are up against in Dana's dream. And so Dana continues:

“They were announcing that there were National Guard units fully armed who were now watching water supplies in some of the bigger cities, the bigger parts of the nation.”

So the National Guard would indicate that this poisoning of the water was a result of, I would say, domestic terrorism, but it was obviously another attack in the United States. Could it be that the Kawasaki riders were doing this? I'm not sure but I'm sure it's related.

“It was reported that thousands of people had died,” as I said is this the pale horse of death? “and that hospitals were full of heavily poisoned people getting medical treatment and that FEMA Centers and camps were being set up in those regions where people had been the most heavily poisoned and the water supply damaged. It was an emergency broadcast announcement that was running along the bottom of the TV screens and monitors stating that the boiling of water was not, I repeat, the boiling of water was not an effective way of making any water safe. I then saw the clock tower above that municipal water supply and its hands pointed to 4:05 in the afternoon, once again broad daylight.”

So now this poisoned water supply comes five minutes after. I'm sure this is symbolic. Five minutes after the 200 soldiers ride out of the eight black shipping containers. Remember they rode out at 4pm, so this poisoned water occurs at 4:05 in the afternoon. And Dana interprets this. Well he asks the question. He says, are these spiritual attacks? And I tend to say, no they're not. He says, “Are they spiritual or are they natural?” Well I would say they're natural. In other words they are real attacks. Those are real soldiers. That's real poisoning of the water that he saw. I don't think it's symbolic of spiritual attacks. He thinks the poisoned water represents poison for our souls. Well his interpretation has been wrong mostly so I'm going to guess he's wrong on this too.

“After I had the 18 days of dreams, I had two times when I had just a short one.”

And as I said before, 18 plus the 2 equals 20 which is a Rosary number.

“I saw this. I saw some people watching TV monitors in airports and in homes and they were covering their mouths. It was like whatever was happening on the TV was so terrifying so it was like a 911 event.”

So here's another type of event. We've had the 200 man army. We've had the poisoned water, so now we're having a 911 type event and that would be, in other words a terrorist attack.

“They were covering their mouths from what they saw; it was summer because I saw the grass was brown. It was brown from the heat, but it was on the screens in every TV in America. There were people crying, embracing each other and they were seemingly in shock.”

So, the first three events in Dana's dream, I think all represent different types of attacks on the United States, and as I say, I believe Dana is seeing real events he calls them. They may be natural events, which I think is what they are. I don't believe they are spiritual events. I don't believe they symbolize a spiritual attack on America. If they were a spiritual attack, I think it would be clear. Let's say pornography would be an attack from the demons or transgenderism, gay marriage. There are lots of different attacks from Satan on the spiritual level.

These all sound like real military attacks, and so this means that at the end of his dream, when we get the prayer recommendation of the Man in White, that means that his prayer recommendations are the answer to real physical attacks on the United States which is I think very interesting as you'll see when we get to it.

“The next thing I saw”, so now here's another form of attack against the United States. “The next thing I saw was four lines of light that seemed to be coming up from the border, all the way from Texas to California and the lights coming up reminded me of an old video I had seen during the Vietnam War how people were coming up the Ho Chi Minh Trail with lanterns at night. It seemed that many people were coming from the border but in a very organized way, and they moved north hundreds of miles all the way from California to Texas, and I saw four specific lines, four specific lines of light,” of course 4 is an End Times number; “that were making their way north, very, very much north. They moved north hundreds of miles from California to Texas with the lights bright enough to be seen from space. They all stopped moving at once, and when they did, smaller light trails from within the US started moving towards the big lights where the movement had stopped, and suddenly smaller lights start attacking them.” I don't think attacking is the right word here as you'll see from the way he describes it.

“It was like watching moths drawn into a flame, those smaller ones, and the source light kept getting bigger and bigger as the smaller lights came in the light where they had stopped. Literally those coming up from the bottom kept following until they got to where the light had stopped.”

So now, is this an invasion of illegals from Mexico? I think so. When you look at images of migrants by the way you notice that 90% of them are not women and children. They are practically all fighting men age, and that's of course you would think that the administration would understand that. I think they very well may. Are the smaller groups attacking the larger lights or are they joining them? I think that they are joining them. So Dana continues,

“So you've got this circle of light. You've got other people coming in. It was like watching moths as I said. The source light kept getting bigger and bigger and then it flashed. All four places flashed all at once, and then the smaller lights were attached to them. Everything went dark for a moment and then it pulsed, almost like a slow light just going on and off, and then it exploded, and light was spread over hundreds of miles from the source of that explosion. So wherever those four lights had gotten large and exploded, everything was pushed from that point out.”

This is kind of mysterious. It would appear in Dana's dream that the invasion of the migrants will cause fires and explosions. It could be that the sleeper cells joined in with these columns coming up from the border, and as I say this would be the fourth type of attack on the country that Dana saw. And here Dana continues.

“And then I saw a clock tower again and it stood high above the ground and it showed the time to be 4:10.”

Again, all of these attacks I believe are occurring at the same time. The slight variation I think indicates that they are not all the same attack; not the same type of attack.

“I saw small embers of flames that were coming down around the clock, but not catching the ground on fire, although it looked like it should. It looked like fire coming down but once again these, these, these, these, these explosions.” Paula said that Dana said “these” five times I think that's significant. Why would he get stuck on the word “these”. Well 5 times is another Rosary number. This prophecy comes from the Holy Spirit and it is about Mary's Rosary, as we will see.

“The lights were spreading out and they were going. So the circle was here, but the flames were going, it seemed like hundreds of miles beyond them. There was a lot of intimidation going on in this sense. It seemed like a worldly attack and the trails seemed to be inroads for the enemy. The moths were blindly following. The light and explosion; it wanted to be seen and the lights coming up, there was no hiding what was coming up that trail. These things were coming up clearly and once again it's daylight. It is daylight when this is going on. The Ho Chi Minh Trail reference was like when they were coming up at night, but you could clearly see these lights coming from south, all the way from California to Texas up the border that crosses up; from the border and up. These were definitely coming across the border and making their way up and when other people met them, this thing exploded. Now there was shock and awe for a while, but there was also fear that was cast out by this. And once again the 4:10, we're counting towards the next thing. Things are shifting. Things are happening.”

And as I say, I believe the time on the clock for this invasion was 4:10 very close to the other times. I believe these all occur at the same time. I think they will occur very soon to the United States. I think this is an accurate prophecy. I don't think this is symbolic, I think these are all attacks on the United States. They occur at the same time or nearly the same time, but they are separate events.

“And then there was sudden silence and it permeated the atmosphere and I saw the clock strike 4:15 and suddenly there was this alarm going off almost like you would have a tornado siren, a long wail was taking place in the background. And this wail is going across the entire nation. This wasn't just the focus on one area, but it was almost as if no-one was hearing the alarm. People didn't seem to know that they heard the alarm. I could hear it in the dream but nobody else seemed to hear it. And so that silence was almost like not knowing what was coming next, but the alarm was saying, hey there's something happening, there's something coming, but you still had the people covering their mouths. You had the explosions from the trail of whatever it was coming up from the border, and you had that sudden silence from everything. And suddenly just in the background that wail of that siren started, and then the scene changed.”

So we've seen, I think I counted them up, four different types of attacks and this scene changed, or maybe three attacks. Maybe this is the fourth one.

“And I saw churches of all shapes and sizes nationwide.” Now this is the most important part of the dream. This is where you get the title of the dream, the “Precision” Dream because this is the solution to the problem. “And I saw churches of all shapes and sizes nationwide and they were surrounded by mobs of people screaming. They had placards. They had signs, but this was more than just about the overturn of Roe v Wade. This was more than just liberal agendas or drag queens talking to kids in libraries. These people were chanting hostile threats. They were going to burn the churches down. They were going to kill the Christians. These were not idle threats. These were, 'We are going to kill you. We're going to burn your church. We're going to do this. We're going to do that. Now there were some staying some distance away from the church but they were all about 150 feet away.'

Of course 150 feet is a Rosary number. That's a number of Hail Marys in a three mystery Rosary. In other words, the Rosary was keeping these people away.

"There was a considerable difference between the protesters and the people yelling and screaming, and inside those churches I could hear people leading others in prayer, but I'm telling you what; no one was praying very much out loud. There was no power. There was no authority in their prayers. It was just simple things like, Oh God, you've got to help us; Oh God, can you save us; Oh God, look out there."

And Dana read it just like that. So Dana knows that this is not the kind of prayer that's going to save America. Notice that each expression of prayer that Dana read was different. God you've got to help us. God can you save us? God look out there. That's not like the Rosary. The Rosary is all the same prayer. That's what this message is in this dream. The ineffective prayers that these people were praying were not Rosary prayers. They were prayers that they made up on the spot.

That's one kind of prayer. It's like the kind of a prayer that people give at a banquet. You know before a banquet dinner, somebody stands up and he says oh God bless our food and all here in attendance and so on. That's one kind of prayer. Individual prayer, it's not effective. It's not going to save this country, at least not according to Dana's dream. Another kind of prayer is prayer in tongues. That's not going to save the country. The prayer that Dana is talking about is precise prayer. That's the same prayer over and over again. Let's continue with what Dana's talking about here.

"People were looking out the windows and they were kind of telling back, hey the crowd's getting bigger, there's more people out there and yet at the same time nobody inside of that prayer time was stepping up the prayer being aggressive with it. The crowd kept surging. There was no power, no authority in the prayers."

Now it's funny, Dana seems to think that they have to get louder. That's not what the precision prayer is. It's not getting louder.

"And then suddenly I saw five different churches."

Now we're getting to the meat of this prophecy. Now we will find the kind of prayer that will work. Five as I say, is the preeminent Rosary prayer. That's why David chose five smooth pebbles against Goliath. Are you aware of that people? Where's my Rosary? Five smooth pebbles, what does that remind you of? Those are pebbles. (WT showing the Rosary beads). David chose five. He only needed one. David chose five smooth pebbles to prophesy in the End Times how we will defeat the Antichrist because Goliath is a prefigure of the Antichrist. Okay Dana continues with his dream. He's talking about the five churches.

“There was one in the Midwest, in the north east, the south east, the northwest and the southwest.”

So these churches are all over the United States. “I saw one church in each of those areas and I saw arrows were being fired into the crowd from the roof of those churches like bow and arrows and each of these arrows scattered the hostile crowds from that far back from the church because they hit the pavement and they scattered and the protesters began to flee.”

Now here's where Dana comes up with this off the wall interpretation. He says that the five churches represent the five-fold ministry. Well I had to look that up because I don't expect him to understand that the five churches represent the Rosary, because he's an evangelical, but the five-fold ministry has nothing to do with precise prayer,

So I looked up what the five-fold ministry refers to. It's taken from Ephesians 4, 11-12. The first represents apostles, the second prophets, the third evangelists, the fourth pastors and the fifth teachers, but those are all different ministries. And we will see that this prayer that is scattering these crowds; the arrows are the same prayer, not from five different types of charisms. This is this is the same prayer that all these churches, even though they're scattered across the country in five different locations, they are all praying the exact same prayer, not the five-fold that Dana's talking about.

“And these arrows were against the words of attack. And when these things hit the people, they were not targeting people, but the issues. As I watched these people scrambling I noticed there was an archer on each of those five churches, and it appeared to be the very same man firing those arrows; the same man in all five locations doing the same thing and they were firing those arrows at precisely the very same moment. The minute that arrow left those finger tips, it left the fingertip of the same man in all five locations at the very same time.”

That is the Rosary people. Five different locations all across the country at exactly the same time? That's what we do on this channel. We pray the Rosary on this channel every morning at 10am Eastern time, That prayer is prayed at the same time all around the world actually, not only all around the country, That's what the Man in White is referring to. Notice the repetition. People complain that the Rosary is a repetitious prayer. Well that's what is going to save this country according to Dana. That's also what's going to save the country according to Kim Clement.

“And then I realized in the dream that the alarm had been going off the whole time but the people in the church had been so concerned about the crowd, they weren’t hearing the alarm. Now the alarm’s been going off from the clock this entire time and it finally stopped as the man started walking towards me. And it was the man that I see in my dreams with the arrows. He had a quiver full of sheer white arrows.”

Now the white arrows are the opposite of the black shipping containers. These white arrows are the answer to the 200 man army from the black containers. And Dana continues:

“They were almost like ‘glow in the dark’ even though it was in the middle of the afternoon, and each of these arrows had an extremely sharp point.”

So you've got five arrows with extremely sharp points. That's a reference to David's five smooth pebbles which he used against Goliath. They represent the exact same thing and that is Mary's Rosary. Our battle beads as we like to say in the Catholic Church. That's what the Rosary is. That's our offensive weapon given to us for this End Times battle.

Dana is, believe it or not, being given a dream from the Holy Spirit telling him about the weapon to be used. It's not the fivefold ministry as he says. It's Mary's Rosary. All the ingredients are there; the precision, the same prayer, all different locations, all at the same time. Let's continue. This is even more interesting.

“This was more than just something to kill a deer with. These things were ornate. They were just really, really cool and ornate. The only thing I can even compare them to is seeing something if elves were real like from the Lord of the Rings, what those Elven archers would have pulled out of their quivers.”

Now this is amazing. What church is ornate? Certainly not evangelical churches. Isn't this amazing that the Lord is showing him that these arrows are ornate and that's why, when Dana sees these white arrows, all he can think of is the Lord of the Rings, He should really visit a Catholic Church sometime if he wants to see what ornate is. That's what the Holy Spirit is showing Dana.

“He then pulled over his back this very large longbow. As a matter of fact when he put it down in front of him, the bottom touched the ground and the top was about head high. It was as big as he was. This was a huge, huge longbow.”

So this weapon is as large as the Man in White. Now the Man in White represents Jesus. We know that from all of his other previous dreams, and this long bow is the same height as Jesus. This tells us the effectiveness of the Rosary.

“So the alarm stopped. The alarm stopped when God shows up. There’s peace when He speaks. That man then stood silent for a few moments. He surveyed the area but then he turned. He just looked and was watching around the church area and he said, ‘There must be precision in your prayers from this point forward, absolute precision to counter the noise and the violence that will be aimed at the body.’

And then he says this, ‘The church must remember it’s not by might, not by power but by my spirit that will help you walk straight through the battle.’ And then he said this, ‘There must be precision and power in your prayers. There must be. The war has arrived and those awake are on the front lines now and you will never be able to get away from that line.’ And then he said this ‘Absolute precision is required in your prayers.’”

We in this WFRN Rosary network, we are on the front line now. We are saying the kind of prayer that the Man in White is talking about. Those five arrows are the same as the five pebbles that David chose, and we recite those precise prayers at the same time every day on this channel and we’re not the only ones. There’s many other livestream Rosaries on the internet. I would urge Dana Coverstone to start a Rosary group with his evangelical church and start broadcasting it. Do you think he could get away with that? That’s what he’s got to do. That’s what the Lord is telling him.

And the Man in White continues, he just said, “It’s not going to stop”. And I believe that. “It’s going to get worse and worse and worse.” This is the prophecy from the Holy Spirit, “but we’ve got to continue to stand and hold the ground and occupy until He comes.” So the culmination of this is going to be Jesus’ return. That’s the battle we’re in right now.

“And after saying this, he quickly put an arrow into the bow and he shot straight up in the air. He took a defensive position, shot that thing straight up in the air and just kept looking. He wasn’t looking around to the crowd or the people near the church. He shot it straight up in the air, and that arrow never came back down. I found myself kind of looking, watching, waiting for it to come back down, and it never came back down. He kept looking into the air where he shot it, and he never looked back at me. And then as he’s looking with eyes in the sky he said, ‘Remember to be precise, as it matters more than ever right now.’ He never looked back at me. He’s looking in the air where he shot the arrow and he simply says, ‘Remember to be precise as it matters more now than ever right now.’”

And that’s the end of the dream. And it’s interesting if you listen, as I know now why Dana included his interpretation with the recitation of the dream, because he knows his interpretation is incorrect and he started talking louder and louder. He said the problem was the people were not praying loud enough. He tells his congregation they have to start praying louder and louder, and that's not what precision means. And actually he was trying to drown out what the Man in White was saying about the precision dream. Listen to him. You'll hear him get louder and louder, more and more excited, and he talks more and more; less and less of the dream and he talks more and more. And I know what he's thinking. He's thinking that the louder and more excited he gets, the more people will believe his interpretation. He doesn't really believe in his own interpretation and I think the problem is that Dana has had no experience with precise prayer which is what the Rosary is.

And I know I've asked this. I've been conjecturing on this. Why doesn't God just tell Dana, "Pray the Rosary, Dana". Why doesn't He give him a dream like that? And as you know the disciples asked Him the same thing. They asked, Master why do you speak in parables? People don't understand you, and Jesus told them, He said, "Not everyone is meant to be saved." And the same is true here.

Dana and everyone else, especially evangelicals have got to understand that the precise dream is not the five-fold ministry. You have to go by the numerology, the sacred numerology of the number 15; the five churches that are praying all at the same time. You have to derive from what's told in the dream, what that means, the significance of that.

I don't know if Dana's going to accept this meaning or not. What if God in the dream told Dana, "Dana, you have to start praying the Rosary." What would Dana do? I'm going to suggest to you that he would reject that dream. He would say this dream can't be from God. This dream must be from the Devil. Evangelicals are so imbued with the hatred of anything Catholic, he would reject that.

I think the exact same thing happened with Kim Clement. Remember he received that amazing vision on the Feast of the Annunciation? He did not know it was on the Feast of the Annunciation. He talked about Esther saving America and that's what Dana's Coverstone's dream is about. It's about the Rosary saving America. That's what evangelicals have got to start praying. I mean I have a tiny ministry here and we are doing the exact kind of prayer that the Man in White is describing, but our ministry is tiny compared to Dana's. Dana will get at least a hundred times as many views as I get on this video. In other words these things are going to have to start happening. The four or five different attacks against the United States will have to attack. That will have to happen before America wakes up. I'm convinced of it.

As I say, the Lord's dream to Kim Clement was about Esther saving America. And remember he concluded that dream or that vision and he had the entire congregation say, "Yes to Esther", and they all shouted out, "Yes to Esther, yes to Esther." How many times did they do that? 15 times they said, "Yes to Esther." Now he never understood the significance of that. The 15 represents Mary's Rosary, just like the 15 in Dana dream, and I don't know how many times I have to show this because the Rosary's number is found in many other of Dana's dreams, but this dream is more obvious than any other.

Dana has got to get precise. He's got to get ornate, that is Mary's Rosary. Okay that is the end of my comments on Dana's amazing dream, and I want to thank Paula again for typing it over for me, and she did an excellent job separating out the dream from his commentary, because he wanted to swap the dream with his commentary, and he almost succeeded, but Paula extricated the dream out very well for me. It saved me a lot of time. I never could have gotten this done today, because he posted the dream just yesterday. So thanks very much for that Paula.

The livestream Rosary is a fulfillment of Dana's prophecy praying an accurate prayer with precision all at the same time, all over the world. That is a fulfillment of what the Man in White is recommending. And that arrow that goes straight up to Heaven? That's referenced in the Book of Revelation, where the prayers of the saints ascend to Heaven. That shows there is a connection; that we have Heaven's ear. That's what that shows. And Sam will be on at 8pm Eastern time on DLive and I will be back tomorrow on this channel with a livestream Rosary. We will be fulfilling Dana's prophecy.

Until I do see all of you again, may God bless all of you, and may all of you have a very blessed evening.
