

Complete Decode of Dana Coverstone's "The Halloween Dream"

Welcome once again everyone to Mary's School of Prophecy. I'm your professor today William Tapley, and as usual I have another very interesting program and that's because Dana Coverstone has released a new dream, which he received, let's see back on the 15th. And does anyone understand the significance of receiving a dream about the Catholic Church on October the 15th? Well, those are both Rosary numbers, 10, 15. Ten is the number of Hail Marys in one decade of the Rosary. Fifteen is the number of decades in an original Three Mystery Rosary. So I thought I would mention that.

Snowland says she's here. I'm glad you're here Snowland because I think this dream is very similar to the dreams that you have been receiving lately. Here's what Rita says, I'm glad Dana didn't do an interpretation of his dream during or after presenting his dream. No doubt this dream is about the Roman Catholic Church, and I mentioned that below in the description. I don't usually like to give away the store before the program, but in this case I think it's fairly obvious what the dream is about, but we're going to go through it, just like usual, scene by scene and it's a rather short dream.

Well let me do the housekeeping first. I'll give you my name and address for those of you who would like to contact me, William Tapley, Post Office Box 291, Osage, Iowa, USA 50461. And for the other housekeeping, if you want to know the rest of the details of this program, you can tune in every morning. We do a live stream Rosary at 10 am Eastern Time, and after this program by the way at 8 pm, the Pieta Rosary channel on Facebook and DLive and here on YouTube will also do a live stream Rosary.

I wanted to mention some aspects of apocalyptic prophecy, and this is, in a way, not so much prophecy as it is what's going on in the Catholic Church right now, today. And a lot of Dana's recent dreams have been warnings to the Catholic Church, and one of the ways we know is, as I just mentioned, Rosary numerology; the date that Dana received this dream. He only received it on one day by the way. Very often he has his dreams over a period of days. Why on just the one day? Because of the significance of that date, and I think the message we will find in this dream is that we remnant Catholics have got to leave the Roman Catholic Church, and Jesus tells us that in the Olivet Discourse. He says, let those who are in the field not go back to take their cloaks. The field is the Roman Catholic Church.

That's the same way in Daniel 2. We are the stone cut from the mountain. The mountain is the Roman Catholic Church. The small stone is what we are right now, as we will see in Dana's dream. And we also find this in the Book of Revelation, where the angel gives John a rod and tells him to measure the temple of God. The temple of God is the Roman Catholic Church. Don't by the way believe the false prophets who say that the Jews in Israel are going to build a third temple. That's not true. The temple of God, which both John and Saint Paul refer to in the End Times, is the Roman Catholic Church. So Dana calls this dream, "The Halloween Dream", and I think we can start. The first slide"

I'm calling this the Halloween dream. I had it Saturday night, October 15th, 2022. Here it is:

I was running through a large parking lot filled with cars covered with Christian bumper stickers. I was running towards a very large church. The edifice of the church looked very large. I did not recognize the church. I knew I was about 15 minutes late. I kept looking at my watch. (Now something you've got to know about me: I am never late. I can't stand it. I almost have a nervous breakdown if I think I'm going to be late for something).

So, we're going to determine what this church is. First of all we already mentioned the 10/15, the date that Dana received the dream. There are Christian bumper stickers in the parking lot. That would indicate that it could be a Catholic Church. The fact that the cars have the bumper stickers; I guess it's good but I think the indication is that this is the extent of their evangelization, and that is that they evangelize through bumper stickers. That's probably about all they do. Dana says it's a very large church. Well, what would be the largest church? The largest church is the Roman Catholic Church, of all the Christian denominations. We know it's Christian. The largest denomination is the Roman Catholic Church.

Now he says it has a very large edifice. So this is a specific church I believe that Dana has been shown. But remember, this is apocalyptic prophecy, so he has not been shown the actual church. He's been shown a symbol of the church. It's a large church and it has a prominent edifice, so I'm going to show you what I believe it symbolizes and I have a picture right here. Let's take a look.

St Peter's Basilica, Rome

There is the church I believe that Dana was shown symbolically. This is one of the largest churches in Christendom and I believe that it is probably the most prominent edifice of all the churches in Christendom.

So now, Dana does not recognize the church. First of all because this is apocalyptic prophecy and the large church with a prominent edifice symbolizes Saint Peter's in Rome. Also he doesn't recognize the church because he's a Protestant. He's an evangelical Protestant, and so that's why the Holy Spirit I'm sure gave Dana this dream.

So let's move on to slide number 2.

So, I kept looking at my watch. I knew I was 15 minutes late. I got to the front door and started in, when an usher in a vest marked USHER in capital letters on the left side of his chest, and a guy in the vest marked USHER said, "You're late." And I said, "I know." And I headed towards the Sanctuary door. Several others approached me as I approached the door, and they reminded me that I was late. So, I keep being told, "You're late, you're late, you're late, you're late." I kept saying, "I know," with the intention of getting in the door.

So we have more Rosary numerology. Dana is 15 minutes late, so the 15 is associated with Dana. In this case he is symbolizing the Remnant Catholic Church, and he is trying to get into the church, because that's where he belongs, but as we'll see, we soon realize that he is not going to feel comfortable in this church. Now notice he says, "You're late", four times. Of course that's an End Times number as we know in the Bible.

And another thing I kept thinking of, as I read through this dream as all these ushers were giving Dana Coverstone a hard time, and I don't know if this is significant or not but that is, if you're familiar with Edgar Allan Poe, he wrote quite a famous poem; was it a poem or story? A short story I think called, "The Fall of the House of Usher". It's a typical, I guess you'd call, horror story. I'm sure they've made movies out of it, and I always loved that title "The Fall of the House of Usher". And I'm not sure, but it could be that "The Fall of the House of Usher" is a reference to the fall of the Catholic Church. Okay next slide.

I got my hand on the door handle and started to pull to go into the Sanctuary, when an usher came through the door towards me and told me I was late. So, once again I've got five, six, eight people telling me, "You're late, you're late, you're late, you're late." This guy came through the door from the Sanctuary to tell me that! He shut the door behind him, and he blocked me from entering. He would not let me into the building. He stared and he glared in a very mean way. And he said, "It's too late to go in." But in my spirit I knew I had to get in there ASAP. I had to get in that room.

So there's some more interesting numerology. Dana says that they tell him that, five, six, eight times, and I'm not sure if this is significant but 5 is a rosary number. Now that is succeeded by 6. In the Bible we know that the Antichrist will defeat the elect for a time, and that's when we are in the desert. And 8 of course represents a new beginning, so you have kind of a sequence in the End Times; a very short expression of it, 5, 6, 8 of the events of the End Times. Okay let's look at the next slide.

I turned and I approached another door. I spun around and went to another door. And I was blocked from it by another usher, but this usher was wearing a Halloween costume like Raggedy Andy; it had this Raggedy Andy look. And he had like the mask on. Everyone wearing a costume has a plastic mask from the 70s that had the little strap, the elastic band that went behind the back. He had a Raggedy Andy face on. I asked him why he's wearing a costume, and he said, "I am not wearing a costume." And he went to spin around like he was going to show me what he was wearing. And when he did, I slipped into that Sanctuary door.

So, the first thing I noticed on here was that all the masks that they're wearing are from the 70s. Now for the prophecy I don't think that's important, so therefore that 70s must be significant. And I'm wondering if that says that the fall of the Catholic Church began in the 70s. So I did some research on when Pope Paul said that the smoke of Satan had entered into the Catholic Church. So I came across this article and this is a very short article. Let me read this for you.

This is from Aletheia and this writer says: "It's the beginning of the 1970s: times of unrest in the world and in the Church. It's the period immediately after the Second Vatican Council. Pope Paul VI writes a letter that will remain unpublished until 2018. Paul's VI has a clearer and clearer impression that there is something deep and negative that is increasingly afflicting the Church. The path towards secularization and the lack of internal unity are becoming two great problems for the Church throughout the world. And the pope writes: "... We would say that, through some mysterious crack - the smoke of Satan has entered the Church of God."

So Dana's dream lines up exactly with what Pope Paul VI said, and that was quite a famous quote and I'm sure he said it before that letter, because I know I've heard that quotation many times. So I think it is significant that these Halloween masks in Dana's dream are from the 70s. Okay let's look at the next slide.

I took the nearest seat, about five rows from the back of the Sanctuary, and I could see I was about 30 rows from the front. Now the man speaking from the pulpit was wearing a clerical robe and a collar; and I believe those are a key symbol there, clerical robe, clerical collar - most like you might see in a Methodist Church or a Presbyterian Church or an Anglican Church (one of the more traditional churches, so to speak). And he was speaking about how to live as a Christian. He stated that the Ten Commandments are outdated in practice and in principle. He used that phrase: they're outdated in practice and in principle. And that a new set of ideas was needed.

Well, that sounds like Pope Francis. Do you suppose this man at the pulpit is Pope Francis? Dana mentions three mainstream Protestant denominations, Methodist, Presbyterian and Anglican. Why doesn't he mention Catholic? Catholic is probably the most mainstream of the Christian denominations, and I think the fact that he does not mention the Catholic Church, indicates that it is the Catholic Church that he's talking about. That's how symbolism works in apocalyptic prophecy. In other words he mentions everything but the Catholic Church, therefore he's talking about the Catholic Church.

And now I want to show you, the man in the pulpit who was wearing a collar. He could be Catholic. He's wearing clerical robes. That certainly could be Catholic and now I'm going to show you the man in the pulpit wearing a Halloween mask.

There's the man behind the pulpit that Dana sees. Now why doesn't Dana recognize him? Because as I say, the man in the pulpit symbolizes this man here, in other words Pope Francis.

And the mask that he is wearing, the Halloween mask symbolizes this mask that the Pope is wearing. I am sure.

So let me go back to the numerology of this particular scene. Notice that Dana goes into the church and he takes a seat five rows from the back and there are 30 rows in front of him. All numerology is significant in apocalyptic prophecy. So how many rows are there in total, students? There are 35 rows, obviously. So what is the significance of the number 35? I am going to suggest that it's the same significance as the number 35 in the La Salette prophecies. 35 symbolizes 3 point 5, in other words, the three and one-half years of Great Tribulation and that is what the church that Dana is attending, this Catholic Church, is going through, the three and a half years of Great Tribulation. So you can say that this is a prophecy, but it's also very similar to what we're seeing right now. Okay let's look at the next slide.

And this got my attention; so I looked around to see the response from the congregation. It was then that I saw that most of that congregation was sitting there wearing Halloween costumes. I saw witches, I saw ghosts, I saw goblins, I saw superheroes, I saw Bob the Builder - there was a prominent number of people dressed like Bob the Builder. And I'm not talking kids, I'm talking adults. And there were kids dressed up like adults; like adult jobs, like doctors and lawyers and people like that. But they were all Halloween costumes; they all had the plastic face with a little elastic band behind their neck.

So, I'm going to suggest that these Halloween masks symbolize the kind of mask that Pope Francis was wearing. In other words, face diapers I think they're called.

[Laughter] Probably on YouTube I can't tell you what they're called, but I think we all know what they are, and I want to show you that it's not just Pope Francis that was wearing these face diapers. Here's a slide I found. Now here's a choir.

This is a choir and this was just like a year or two ago. I'm sure we are all familiar with the situation. Not just the Catholic Church by the way, but also the denominations that Dana mentions. I'm not sure about Dana's Church.

Can you imagine choir people wearing that? That is very bad for singing. You're singing; you're breathing about twice as much as you are, than if you're just sitting there, and more than if you're talking, and you're breathing back in, all that carbon dioxide. This is very unhealthy but, the church did not fight against this whatsoever and I think we know why. It's because we had phony Francis who went along with all of this. Okay, so let's look at the next slide.

There were only a few people that were not costumed; and those people not wearing a costume, they looked very, very, very, very, very uncomfortable (notice how many "very"s there are there) with the words that the man was speaking. You could tell by their facial expressions: they were in the room, they were quiet; they were listening, they were subjected to what was going on. But they did not approve of it, or like it. But they were sitting quiet. The man continued by saying that you should be able to do what you want, to do whenever you want to do it; and that Grace is our friend more than our foe. So he uses that word, he says, Grace is your friend more than your foe.

So, Dana notes that these people, who are not going along with the program, are very, very, very, very, very upset, and of course that means that these are the Marian members of the congregation. This is the Remnant Church. They haven't been cut out from the mountain yet.

And, isn't it interesting that slogan that this pastor says; doesn't that sound like Pope Francis? Grace is our friend more than our foe [laughter]. That sounds exactly like the type of thing Pope Francis would say. Remember he, and I'm always like teaching, he said, "Time is greater than space". I did a video on that. That's the kind of nonsense that Francis uses. And Grace is your friend more than your foe. Who in the world would ever say that Grace is your foe? But I am sure that this pastor that Dana sees symbolizes Pope Francis. Okay let's look at the next slide.

At this time an usher grabbed my arm, kind of jerked me back, and told me to stop looking around, just sit still and to pay attention. In the dream, I felt like I was a little kid being told by an adult to shut up, sit down, and be quiet. And he placed a scarecrow costume in my lap and he whispered for me to put it on, basically like this: “Put it on” (whispers). He walked away rather gruffly, stood by the back door, and I saw that a few of those not wearing costumes were giving me (signs to be quiet), they were like in other words, they were telling me to just go along with this, just do this, shhh, quiet.

And those of us who lived through the last couple of years and were aware what was going on in the church, and I did leave the church actually, but before then, there was a lot of social pressure to wear Halloween masks, as you know, and we're all aware of that. People who wanted to receive the Eucharist on the tongue were looked down upon or were denied Communion altogether, and that's still true in a lot of churches. And this was all for the sake of health, and that's all why. People never got sick from Communion on the tongue naturally. The church has laws of faith and that's what Dana's dream is all about. Okay let's look at the next slide.

I put the costume on the floor, and the guy came back and tried to stand me up and force me to put it on, he was going to actually try to dress me in this Halloween costume, scarecrow outfit. Now nobody moved, nobody moved around, and they were afraid to move. And I said, “What kind of church is ...” as the guy's trying to jerk me, I said, “What kind of church is this!?” very, very loud. And the man on the platform yelled back towards the back row and said to me, “This is our church, and we make the rules around here.”

The rules that the church adopted were not made by the church. They are adopted by the government. That was the government's response to the pandemic and the Deep State told the government what to do. And I looked up several of Dana's older videos where they show his congregation and I couldn't find any of them where the congregation was wearing these Halloween masks or face diapers. I know when I went to the Mennonite Thanksgiving party last year; no-one was wearing any kind of face mask. Now it's possible that Dana took down those videos, so I'm not saying that his congregation didn't wear masks. I'm not sure, but I think that's what this video is talking about.

I mean the Halloween masks also indicate demonic activity. No doubt about that, but I think in this case it's the Catholic Church that set a very poor example. And of course that's because, as I say, that we have the False Prophet as our leader. Now I don't say that a 100%, because he could still repent, and we've prayed for his repentance, for him to either repent or resign. And I've said many times, that any church that shuts down Lourdes because of a pandemic has lost the faith, and I will stand by that assessment. Okay let's look at the next slide.

I burst out of that man's grip, and I ran to the front of the church and I said, “By questioning the Ten Commandments, you are violating the foundation of Scripture!” And his reply was that we no longer needed Scripture to live right; we must allow culture to guide us. I then heard noise from the back of the Sanctuary and turned to see the Jesus-man had walked in the door. And He was walking down the aisle towards me. He didn't even look at me; He just walked right past me.

So, what we see now is Jesus, the Man in White, as in most of Dana's dreams, He is going to go up and read the Riot Act to Pope Francis; [laughter], to the pastor in Dana's dream. And isn't it again, the quotation from this pastor, doesn't that sound like Pope Francis? Something he would say? We no longer need the scripture to live right. We must allow culture to guide us? That's almost exactly Pope Francis whole philosophy ever since he attained the papacy. We must allow culture to guide us? And the church has been doing that, during all of the last five years. So, let's go back and let's see what comes next in Dana's dream.

And He said to the pastor, the person in the pulpit, (in other words I'd say Pope Francis), He said, “You can try to keep Me out, you can discount My Word, but I will not be silent or locked out.” He walked right past me to that pulpit; He grabbed the speaker's face. He just walked up literally like this. He went; the Jesus-man just grabbed the man and pulled the face off. What He was pulling off was a mask. He pulled off this mask - it was a mask the whole time - and now there was this very, very pale demonic face that was revealed. And there were audible gasps in the Sanctuary from people (gasping). And the speaker tried to speak and point his finger at Jesus.

So, what does this mask on this Pope Francis represent? And I think it's hiding the face of the False Prophet, and we know in the Bible that wolves are dressed in sheep's clothing. And from Dana's dream, if I'm right about the pastor being the Pope, and the Man in White represents Jesus, this could well be a prophecy that Jesus is going to expose the False Prophet. So let's look at Dana's next part of his prophecy.

And Jesus said, “You will speak no more!” with His right finger pointing at him. And He breathed towards that person and he disappeared in a wisp of smoke. Jesus then turned around to the crowd and He said, “As I expose the truth, you will be given a chance to take your masks off. If not, your circumstances will tear them from your face and take your eyes with them! You that know the Word know better. And those that never studied My Word will stay dressed in a costume and miss Heaven, because you chose to remain in ignorance. Even if you hide from the truth, it will confront you. And it will confront you to the front of your face.

So we see Pope Francis, the pastor in the pulpit, he disappeared in a wisp of smoke. Now what does that remind you of? Well what happens to the False Prophet in the Book of Revelation? The False Prophet is cast alive into Hell. Is that what we are seeing here in this dream of Dana Coverstone? Are we seeing the False Prophet cast alive into Hell, as we see in the Book of Revelation? Now it's interesting that Jesus, the Man in White says that the people who stay dressed in a costume will miss Heaven. Well we do know in the Book of Revelation that there are a group of people who miss Heaven, and they are the ones who take the Mark of the Beast., So could it be, that this costume that people are wearing in the church symbolizes the Mark of the Beast? And I said all along during this Plandemic that the jab represents a precursor to the Mark of the Beast and I think this dream verifies that. Okay let's look at the next slide.

(So once again, the face idea is coming out promptly in the dream.) Then He looked around right at me, and He addressed me and He said, "It is not too late to warn the Body, as there are still many that will hear it. But woe to those who refuse to listen at this point." As I turned to walk out of the Sanctuary, it was still full of costumed people. More ushers had come in the back door and were saying it was time for me to go. I saw people trying to leave through the doors but they were struggling to get out. The ushers were literally trying to force them back in the sanctuary and keep them there and the people just pushed through.

These ushers represent the One World Government, really the One World Religion. These are the forces that forced everyone to take the jab and wear the mask and we know they were in the church. We know one priest for example, I remember reading where he called the police because one of the parishioners refused to I think, wear a Halloween mask. Either that or that he refused to take the jab. And they're going to enforce not the rules of religion, the rules of the culture, as Dana says in this dream as I'm sure Pope Francis believes, and so as these ushers, just like we have seen in the church now.

And I've said many, many times on this program, it is not the Antichrist who causes everyone to take the Mark of the Beast, it's the False Prophet. If you read that passage very carefully, you'll see I am right on there. And if you remember correctly Francis has had big meetings with Tim Cook, the head of Apple, with Schmidt the head of Google. That was a couple years before all of this broke out and I'm sure they were making sure, that they were all on the same page, and there's no doubt Francis assured them that he was backing them up a 100%. Okay and we want to look at the next slide.

And then I noticed that the aisle was full of costumes that were left on the ground where people had taken their costumes off and they were headed out. I also noticed there were a lot of seats that were empty where people had left, but the majority were still seated and masked. I began to run for the door and not in the sense of, I have to get out of here, but more to build up speed to knock the ushers out of the way if they tried to stop me. In other words, I knew I had to get through those men and I was going to build up speed and hit them as hard as I could to get out, because nothing was going to keep me in there.

So, the Holy Spirit is telling us through Dana, that we have got to build up our determination to leave this taken-over Catholic Church, which is symbolized by Dana pushing against these ushers. And notice that the majority of the people, they are staying behind in their seats. That is, they are keeping the Mark of the Beast. They are wearing the Mark of the Beast. And Daniel chapter 2 of the Old Testament, “the stone cut from the mountain”, starts out very small and we will see that in Dana's dream here. In the Book of Revelation there are only 144,000 remnant Catholics who survived into the Millennium. Now there are more, many more, an uncounted number as we know from Revelation who still go to Heaven. That's because they will refuse the Mark of the Beast eventually, but they will not know enough to take up Mary's Rosary, the two wings of an eagle. And this is the last slide.

When I got to the parking lot, I stopped running. So I ran all the way from the church through to that forum outside to talk to a crowd of about 50 people who were all grouped together. Collectively they said, “What should we do?”, and I said He told us to warn the church, so we warn the church. We all ran in different directions as the sun was setting all around us, and that's another key thing, the sun was setting. I'd gone there in the morning late for church but now the sun was setting. And at that moment, literally the Mission Impossible theme song started and I saw the image, the original 60s; you know early 60s thing of that wick being lit, and that indicated to me that there was no time to waste.

So, I think most of us are probably aware of the Mission Impossible theme. It was a clever theme and the wick is lit and that means that there's hardly any time left.

Dana adds that, ”The Jesus man was dressed more like Jesus in the New Testament time frame; the robes.. He wasn't wearing a suit and tie. He wasn't in a jacket. He was in a robe”.

You notice that Dana's given quite a few dreams lately and I don't think any of them go beyond the State of the Union Address in 2023. I could be wrong on that. Remember he used to see calendars all the time? He used to see the calendar flipping; he used to see months coming along, and so far what we've seen in this dream is actually a retelling of what has already happened. Now there's a little bit that hasn't happened yet but in this fall of the Catholic Church that we see here, it is very similar to Snowland's dreams.

Remember in Snowland's dreams, the church is pretty much barren? The people behind the pulpit, the priest also only wears orange, and on one of them, which indicates that it's the One World Religion. And it's interesting that the sun is setting and of course that means the End Times, the end of the world or the end of this era, let's put it that way. But it's also I believe in reference to Pope Francis going to Canada. Remember he joined that pagan celebration to the grandmother of the West? Remember that? And I think the Shaman or whoever it was that was leading the prayers; he prayed that the grandmother of the west would bring in the circle of spirits. And I explained to you at the time that the grandmother of the west was the setting sun. I mean it's grandmother because it's old, the end of the day, and in the west because the sun always sets in the west.

So Pope Francis and the others were praying to the setting sun to bring in the circle of spirits which occurs at night time of course, because that's when the coven of witches and all those Satanists do their nefarious deeds. And inside that circle of spirits are the evil spirits and in the ultimate expression, they perform human sacrifice in the circle of spirits. And so that's what Pope Francis was praying for in Canada was to the setting of the sun.

And I think that's the conclusion of Dana's dream. Let me know if you agree with me. It's interesting that God is even using evangelical pastors to warn the Catholic Church. He's using many other seers to warn the Catholic Church. He's used the Bible, the one in the Catholic Church; he's using Snowland, now she's Catholic. So we are getting lots of warnings and as far as I know, Dana's the only Protestant minister who is warning specifically the Catholic Church. And of course Dana doesn't know this and I'm sure he's going to interpret it as the church is the church; Christianity, that's what he's going to say. I don't think he will pick up on those specific references to the Catholic Church. And most of the mainstream Protestant churches also will go along with the One World Religion, so that's not a bad interpretation.

And in a way, it makes it more believable that Dana does not understand the prophecy. He probably would not criticize the Catholic Church if he understood it was a Catholic Church, because as a Protestant he doesn't probably want to. Maybe he would. Maybe he would go along with it. Well it'll be interesting to see what he says with his interpretation.

Okay so that is the end of Dana's dream and until I do see all of you again at 10 am, may God bless all of you and may all of you have a very blessed evening.
