

Will the Leopard Bomb Syria?

A couple of days ago, one of my subscribers complained. She said: 'why are you bothering with Miley Cyrus and Lady Gaga when Obama is about to bomb Syria?' Well, I answered her and I said, 'listen, five years ago I warned you about the leopard'. Barack Obama is the Leopard in Bible prophecy. He is not the Antichrist. In Daniel, chapter number 7, the fourth beast which comes up out of the sea is the Antichrist, but the beast which immediately precedes him is the Leopard, and that is who Barack Obama is in Bible prophecy.

The Leopard in Daniel 7 verse number 6 has four heads and four wings, and he symbolizes Barack Obama because he is our 44th president. Maybe you remember when Obama accepted the Nobel Peace Prize; I had been warning you all along that Obama will be a man of war, and not a man of peace. But who listened? When Obama accepted the Nobel Peace Prize he used the word 'war' 44 times. That was not an accident. Unfortunately for America, Obama is also the last King of the South as found in Daniel, chapter 11, verse number 40, and he is destined to provoke the last King of the North, who is the premier of Russia, who is undoubtedly Vladimir Putin, into attacking America. And it is prophesied in the Bible that America will lose that war.

Barack Obama is also found in Jeremiah, chapter 50, verse number 44. Please note that verse number. Jeremiah describes him as a 'lion from the swelling of the Jordan', in other words, south of Jerusalem and Kenya is due south of Jerusalem. In verses 41 through 43 of chapter 50, Jeremiah also describes the defeat of America by a nation from the north, in other words Russia. Personally, I believe Barack Obama was born in Kenya, not to make him ineligible for the presidency of the United States, but rather to fulfill Bible prophecy.

In the book of Revelation, Saint John also prophesied the destruction of America by Russia. He says the Scarlet Beast will burn the Whore of Babylon in one hour. Now when I first came on You Tube, a little over five years ago, practically all the videos which described the Whore of Babylon claimed she was the Catholic Church. That is one of Satan's greatest deceptions of the End Times. Satan does not want you to know who either the Whore of Babylon or who the Scarlet Beast represents.

Another of his greatest deceptions of the End Times is the so-called collapse of the Soviet Union. The Whore of Babylon symbolizes primarily Britain and America. The Scarlet Beast represents International Communism, and just as in Daniel, the Scarlet Beast burns Babylon with fire in one hour. And how will Christians react to the burning of Babylon? Saint John says we will rejoice. That is the only way America will stop the murder of three thousand innocent unborn babies every day.

The Democrats can't stop abortion, they support it. As far as the Republicans go, we've had four presidents since Roe versus Wade who were Republican, Nixon, Reagan and the two Bushes. They were not able to stop it either. President Obama says, 'God bless Planned Parenthood'. Do you realize how blasphemous that is? That is exactly like saying God bless Satan.

Now, I am not predicting definitely that Obama will bomb Syria. I am not a prophet, I am a co-prophet. However one of these days, whether it's Iran or Syria or somewhere else, Obama will cross Putin's red line, and Putin will not tell us ahead of time where that red line is, and according to the Bible, Obama will lose that war to the last King of the North. I am making this video on early Friday afternoon August the 30th 2013. If Obama does bomb Syria, he will most likely do it after the markets close on Friday, but well ahead of the markets opening on Monday morning. Remember Obama will make his decisions not based on military advantage for the United States, but to his own personal political advantage, and ultimately this is going to bite him in the butt. Obama is exposing his butt more than Miley Cyrus or Lady Gaga.
